On motion of Bro. E. S. Conway, G. R., reading of the minutes of the last Annual Session was dispensed with, and the Journal as printed was adopted.

On motion of Bro. N. C. Nason, P.G.S., the minutes of the Special Session held this afternoon, to receive and act upon credentials and confer the Grand Lodge Degree, were adopted without reading.

The printed Reports of the Grand Officers were presented and distributed and, without reading, were referred to a special committee of three members for analysis and distribution.

The Grand Master announced the committee as follows: Bros. David Fuller, No. 142, Eugene W. Stevens, No. 577; E. F. McCormick, No. 261.

GRAND MASTER'S REPORT.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.

BROTHERS: In compliance with our Constitution and our usages, I herewith submit my annual report as your chief executive for the past year, setting forth my official acts and decisions, and such information as may seem to be of general interest, together with a few suggestions, as they have occurred to me, for your careful consideration.

May the impress of approval or disapproval of my acts, and such legislation as may be required, or the repeal of such as may have served its purpose, enable our Order to achieve greater success in its works of beneficence and fraternity, than even it has in the past.

We are crossing the threshold of the 20th century, one more rich in promise to the race than any of its predecessors, one that is likely to accomplish more for the upbuilding of a true fraternity, for bringing the whole race under the benign influences of the triple bond of "Friendship, Love and Truth" than any of the centuries of the past.

That which commends us to the regard and kindly consideration of intelligent men and women everywhere, is the stability of our principles, while the flexibility of our methods, ever permits us to adapt ourselves to new conditions of civilization and the environments of different nationalities.

The past has gone beyond recall, the future is in God's hands, the present alone is ours, so let us make the best use of our golden opportunities; flexible in method but ever unchangeable in principle, may the gentle spirit of our brotherhood like the sweet tones of a beautiful symphony, continue to float down the coming years, echoing and re-echoing from grateful hearts, until the world redeemed and united, shall take up the chorus in a mighty diapason, "Peace on earth, good will to men."

THE ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT M'KINLEY.

Our Order, in common with all the people of our nation, as well as the whole civilized world, was shocked at the cruel murder of our beloved President. We, as an Order, ever stand loyal to our rulers and faithful and patriotic to our civil government. Anarchy with all its vile teachings, finds no foothold in Odd Fellowship. The assassin's bullet was aimed not only at the noble man, Wm. McKinley, but at the very heart and life of our nation. We cannot understand why we, as a nation, should suffer such a loss; that such a man, so noble in his public life, so devoted a husband, so kind and loyal a friend, should have been stricken when apparently at the pinnacle of his career of usefulness to the country he so dearly loved. The loss is ours not his; he was full of glory; this world could add little if anything to so noble a character. Let us hope and trust that this sorrow will be overruled for the nation's good and that the glory of his life among us, was but a foretaste of the glory into which he has entered beyond the river of death.

STATE OF THE ORDER.

The year has been one of great activity throughout the state. The old lodges, with few exceptions, have been doing hard, earnest work for the betterment of their lodges and the upbuilding of the Order. That they have been successful in their efforts is clearly evidenced in the detailed report of the Grand Secretary as well as the interest and proficiency in the work of the Order, shown by the lodges.

Much good has been done, not only to the personnel of the membership, by the elevation of character, but also in the relief of distress, the kindly nursing by the bedside of pain and suffering, the loving care vouchsafed the fatherless little ones and the gentle ministrations to the widow, the aged and infirm; tongue can never tell the good accomplished, the evil avoided, the sorrow lessened or dispelled, and the happiness and sunshine of life augmented.

We are pressing hard on the line of a 60,000 membership in the subordinate lodges and the quality of the membership was never higher. A few lodges forgetting in fraternity to be fraternal and in business to pursue business methods have had little share in our general success; it is the old story of self and carelessness with them; as best we could we have sought to aid them to better live up to their opportunities.

REBEKAH LODGES.

The Rebekah Lodges are generally prosperous and wherever we find a good Rebekah Lodge, we are sure to find a good Subordinate Lodge, each materially helping the other, thus demonstrating anew the force of our motto, "In union there is strength." We have found, however, a number of Rebekah Lodges that have not met for years; these we have either tried to revive or close. The Assembly officers, especially Sister Withey, the President, deserve much credit for their work in reviving some of these lodges; also some of the officers of the District Assemblies have been of invaluable aid to their districts. Some few lodges are still dormant or are very weak and need much fostering care, which they will no doubt continue to receive from the Assembly officers.

A study of the causes leading to the failures of some of these lodges while others are having success, would be interesting; but, perhaps, beyond a cursory survey, would serve no good purpose here. Too great care can not be exercised in the admission of new members; ladies are naturally more select than men in their associations, and a single objectionable member may mean the failure of the lodge. Some brothers and Subordinate Lodges have held aloof from the Rebekah Lodge, claiming it is a ladies' lodge and brothers should leave it to them. It seems to me that this is a dangerous mistake. Here is the only place in Odd Fellowship where brothers and sisters meet on an equal footing, and instead of a separation, we need a closer union.

The plan of its institution is such that brothers and sisters alike have a part in it, and each should feel that its success depends upon the faithfulness of both. It is true that the brother has the Subordinate Lodge to direct, and because of this, it is undoubtedly wise to place sisters at the helm in the Rebekah Lodge, but that does not excuse the brothers from co-operating with them and discharging their full duty to the lodge; their interest and active work should be kind, but nevertheless unceasing and hearty.

Last year this Grand Body provided that the Secretary of the Assembly alone should send out pass words. The Rebekah Code places this duty in the hands of the Grand Master, or with the consent of the Grand Lodge, with the President of the Assembly. So long as we have Deputy Grand Masters for the Rebekah Lodges, I feel that the Grand Master should have this matter in his hands. I have complied with the direction of the Grand Lodge in this particular, but I question its legality and ask a careful review of last year's work.

If this Grand Body provides for the appointment of deputy Presidents, then the Assembly President should be permitted to select and promulgate the pass words as she may see fit. As a matter of courtesy, I have asked the President to select the words this year.

I have asked the Assembly, through its President, to amend the Rebekah Lodge constitution so as to bring it in harmony with the Rebekah Code, and submit it to you for your approval. No doubt the Assembly will recommend to you other legislation for your approval. I would ask you to give it careful consideration. We are too prone to show a lack of interest by approving everything sent us by the Assembly, without consideration.

This Grand Lodge may authorize the Assembly to levy a per capita tax on the Rebekah Lodges of our jurisdiction, and did so in Section 464 of the Code, but it seems that this authority was later dropped out of the constitution and that no other authority has ever been given on this subject. I would recommend that the Assembly be authorized to levy necessary per capita tax on the Rebekah Lodges of this jurisdiction, not to exceed a fixed rate, or at such rate as may be approved from year to year by this Grand Lodge.

In all our relations with this branch of our Order, we have ever had the pleasure of the earnest and hearty co-operation of the Assembly officers, the District Assembly officers and all sisters or brothers called upon for assistance. To them we extend our hearty thanks. As best we could we have tried to help this branch of our beloved Order and aid the Assembly and other officers whenever called upon.

DECISIONS.

Many decisions have been made regarding our laws and usages. The following are perhaps among the more important, either intrinsically or from the frequency with which inquiries have been made in regard to them.

SUBORDINATE LODGE DECISIONS.

1. A brother who has resigned his membership, can not thereafter visit his old lodge until he has been regularly elected to membership again.

2. A brother who has resigned his membership and later desires to go back into the lodge, must petition for membership as an Ancient Odd Fellow, in the same manner as if he had never held membership in the lodge.

3. The initiation of an elected candidate may not be stopped by the written objection of two members. The lodge may, by vote, postpone the initiation and finally, if satisfied that he is unworthy, or so disabled by disease or otherwise that he may become a burden on the lodge, his election may be annulled by a two-thirds vote.

4. A ballot electing an applicant to become a member, should be annulled by a two-thirds vote of the lodge, should he, prior to initiation, declare a lack of belief in a Supreme Being.

5. A member, dropped for non-payment of dues, may be reinstated without regard to the place of his residence, when applying for reinstatement.

6. A member, dropped for non-payment of dues, may not visit his old lodge unless he is on trial.

7. A brother, taken sick while in arrears, pays all arrears but finally dies from the sickness. The lodge is not liable for funeral benefits or expenses, but if there is not sufficient estate to pay for burial, the lodge must, as a matter of charity, pay for decent burial, an unsuspended member must not rest in a pauper's grave. The lodge would control the manner and amount of funeral expenses.

8. A member suspended as a punishment, is liable for dues, and should he ask for a receipt, the official certificate should be given him, duly endorsed across its face—not good for visiting until ———.

9. A lodge may reinstate a brother more than fifty years old, as a beneficial member; the provision of the constitution as to non-beneficial membership is permissive, not compulsory.

10. A brother, disabled from work on account of an exacerbation of a chronic affection, is entitled to sick benefits, if not debarred on account of arrears for dues.

11. A lodge may, under sections 1004 and 1401 of the Code, assess its members to purchase necessary paraphernalia, but it is a power to be exercised reasonably and with extreme caution.

12. A lodge has no authority to assess its members for our Homes, but may, from time to time, make reasonable donations to the maintenance of either Home, from its general fund.

13. A lodge must give a brother thirty days written notice before dropping him for non-payment of dues; the notice may be given any time after all dues, assessments and fines, accruing during eleven full months immediately preceding the notice, have accrued.

14. A lodge has no authority to credit, by bylaw or otherwise, the accounts of brothers attending the funeral of a deceased brother, and a bylaw to that effect is null and void.

15. Sections 1497 and 1497b cover the law for sick benefits of the insane. Should the insane brother sufficiently recover to return to his home, from the hospital and resume work, he would not be entitled to sick benefits during the time of such work, but should he later, be re-committed to the asylum, for a second detention, it would be a continuation of the first sickness, unless a competent court had declared him sane on his first discharge, in which case, his second detention would have to be considered as a new sickness in determining sick benefits.

16. A lodge may not make donations to a sick brother in comfortable circumstances, who is so far in arrears as not to be entitled to sick benefits, but if he is in poor circumstances and distress, donations may be made him as special relief.

17. A sick brother's wife is never entitled to nurse hire for caring for him, that is a duty she owes him.

18. It is illegal for a lodge to donate $50.00 from their special funds to the widow of a brother who died while under suspension for conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow; if in distress, a reasonable relief, as a matter of charity might be extended to her from a special fund, but not from the general fund.

19. Unpaid sick benefits of a deceased brother who left no beneficiaries, are a debt to his estate.

20. A lodge may certify to a Sick or Accident Association or Company, the length of time a member has been disabled for work by sickness or accident, the character of the disability and the general reputation or character of the disabled, but it may not certify anything in regard to the sick benefits paid or not paid him by the lodge, nor the number of visits made him by the visiting committee nor the time when such visits were made.

21. A lodge, refused permission to conduct or co-operate in the funeral of a deceased brother, is not liable for funeral expenses, but is liable for the funeral benefit.

22. A lodge having acquitted a brother cannot retry him on the same charges, nor having voted a penalty, can it revote on the penalty, unless the case is remanded to the lodge for that purpose on appeal.

23. A lodge may not limit the arguments to be made in a trial to a certain time. The prosecuting committee and counsel of both sides may mutually agree to such limitation, and having done so, the lodge may enforce the agreement. The lodge may not permit any argument in the case except by the prosecuting committee and counsel.

24. A lodge may not exclude from the lodge any brother qualified to sit in a Subordinate lodge, during any part of a trial, until it is ready to vote on penalty, when it causes the defendant alone to retire.

25. Section 1637 of the Code authorizes a lodge to confer, upon proper certificate, degrees upon a brother of another Grand Jurisdiction, though his official certificate or visiting card has expired at the time. The lodge should exercise a reasonable discretion in the matter, and should not permit a brother to remain in the lodge after receiving the work.

26. A lodge nearest a candidate's residence is the one having primary jurisdiction, even if it is located in another city, town or township, and is the only lodge he can legally join unless there happens to be one or more lodges located in the same place with it, in which case they will have concurrent jurisdiction, and he may petition any of them for membership.

27. A petitioner for charter or for initiation in a new lodge about to be instituted, must reside within the jurisdiction of the location where the lodge is to be instituted.

28. "Undoubted securities," as mentioned in the Subordinate Constitution, would mean good real estate mortgages, U.S. bonds, county or town or school bonds of Illinois.

29. Trustees should immediately pay over all moneys received to the Financial Secretary. They have no authority to expend lodge funds, except as dictated by the lodge, and cannot draw warrants on the Treasurer.

30. When two lodges consolidate, the members of neither should be required to resign the constitution; their original signatures hold good in the consolidated lodge.

31. When two lodges are consolidated, all the old officers of both lodges are out of office, and the Special Deputy consolidating them, conducts an election and installation of new officers as in a new lodge. Officers-elect must be eligible to office for which chosen, as in an old lodge.

32. A lodge is liable to charges if it fails to discipline a brother in the business of saloon keeper or bartender, in violation of the laws of our Order.

33. The holder of an expired withdrawal card, dismissal certificate, certificate of resignation, or Grand Lodge card, if a saloon keeper or bartender, is not eligible to membership, though he has been continuously such since before the Sovereign Grand Lodge amended Article XVI of its Constitution in 1895.

34. A lodge is liable to charges if it initiates a saloon keeper or bartender under some other occupation, though he is actually engaged in such occupation in addition to the prohibited one, and the candidate is liable to charges for fraudulently securing membership, if he wilfully concealed the fact that he was also a saloon keeper or bartender.

35. A bookkeeper or shipping clerk for a brewery is not a saloon keeper or bartender, and if otherwise qualified is eligible to membership.

36. A driver of a beer wagon delivering beer to saloons or to families in unbroken cases is eligible to membership if otherwise qualified.

36. An official certificate or visiting card in date is an order for the A.T.P.W. and if issued by a lodge of this state, is also an order for the semi-annual password.

37. It is unlawful for a Financial Secretary to give any receipt for dues, assessments or fines except the official certificate, and it is unlawful for any lodge to permit him to do so.

38. The semi-annual pass word is for members of this state only, under no circumstances should a brother holding membership in another state be invested with it; should he accidentally acquire it, and use it, for visiting purposes, he should be warned, and if the offense should be repeated, reported to his Subordinate Lodge for charges.

39. A lodge has no power to pass a By-law, to be operative only for a fixed period of time.

40. A lodge may not suspend a By-law for a fixed period of time.

42. A Financial Secretary is required to send written notices of arrears at stated times; should he fail to do so, the lodge may not take advantage of his neglect to deprive a brother or his widow of pecuniary benefits.

43. Under the Constitution, the Financial Secretary informs the Treasurer from time to time or at the close of the semi-annual term, how much of the funds belong to any special fund. Any error he may make may be corrected on proper report of the Finance Committee.

44. An officer coming in after roll call, may be fined for absence, if the Lodge has a by-law providing for a fine of officers for absence.

45. It is the duty of officers to be present at the opening of lodge, but should they come late, it should be shown in the records when they enter and assume their chair, and the roll call book should show them late or tardy.

46. In the absence of the Noble Grand, the Vice Grand assumes his station and duties, but the meeting would not be illegal if he invited a Past Grand to take the Noble Grand's place.

47. When the Noble Grand-elect is absent at installation, and is excused, the new Vice Grand, not the old Noble Grand, takes the Noble Grand's chair, and assumes all his duties. He may appoint the appointed officers, but this is a right to be exercised with caution and a wise discretion.

48. A lodge may have public installation of officers without a special dispensation from the Grand Master, but must use the public ceremony found in the book of forms, never using the form found in the ritual in public.

49. The Grand Master may grant a dispensation permitting a lodge to change its meeting night, pending the action of the committee on Judiciary and Appeals, upon an amendment to its by-laws, providing for such change.

50. A lodge securing a dispensation for a certain social function, may not without permission of the Grand Master, give an entertainment, different in character or inconsistent with the terms of the dispensation.

51. Pleasure clubs by whatsoever name, composed of or controlled by members of the order, so as to be identified in public opinion with our Order, or with any particular lodge or lodges of our Order, are required to secure dispensations for picnics, excursions, balls and entertainments, of whatsoever kind, from the Grand Master, with the same restrictions as those provided for the Subordinate lodge.

52. Under Section 939 of the Code, a Lodge Deputy is authorized to confer the Past Grand's Degree on qualified brothers of his lodge, but the Grand Lodge Degree is conferred by the Grand Lodge alone.

53. A Lodge Deputy may not act as an attorney in a trial in his Lodge, and if avoidable should not be a member of a prosecuting committee.

54. A rubber stamp, fac simile signature on a card or Official Certificate is legal, but such signatures are discouraged and had better not be used. The same is true of a rubber impression of the regular lodge seal.

55. If a rubber stamp fac simile signature is used at all, it should be used only by the officer whose signature it is.

56. Question—Has a lodge authority to issue and sell bonds to its members to raise money to purchase a building site, and erect thereon a building containing a hall for lodge purposes?

Answer—The rights given by our special charter from the state, while not providing for such bond issue, is apparently broad enough to permit it. The usage of the Order has been to make such purchases and erect such buildings, securing any indebtedness by notes or mortgages. The issue of bonds would be but another form of like indebtedness and therefore permissible.

REBEKAH LODGE DECISIONS.

1. A lady whose husband is not an Odd Fellow, is not eligible to membership because her father held an expired withdrawal card at the time of his death.

2. A withdrawal card from a Subordinate Lodge, whether expired or unexpired, does not qualify a wife, mother, sister or daughter of the holder for membership in a Rebekah Lodge.

3. A white lady 18 years old, whose husband is not an Odd Fellow is eligible to membership on a certificate from a Subordinate Lodge showing that her father, brother or son is a member therein, in good standing, or was a member at the time of death. It should also show the relationship existing between the lady and the brother.

4. A lady is not eligible to membership if a saloonkeeper or bartender, neither is she if she only occasionally waits on the bar as an accommodation to the proprietor, unless her application is made on an unexpired card, and she had been constantly in membership and in the prohibited business since before the adoption of the S. Grand Lodge constitutional amendment to Art. XVI, in 1895.

5. The wife of an Odd Fellow must be white and 18 years old to be eligible to membership.

6. The holder of a certificate of resignation of membership, may petition for membership thereon.

7. A member more than one year in arrears for dues cannot be dropped until the Financial Secretary has given, by delivering or mailing, to the last known address, a thirty days written notice of arrears.

8. The fee of one year's dues paid for reinstatement, is a reinstatement fee and is not applied on dues, which begin to accrue from the time the reinstating vote was taken.

9. An elective officer should not be installed unless all dues to the beginning of the term have been paid.

10. A brother dropped or suspended from his Subordinate Lodge stands suspended from his Rebekah Lodge; when reinstated in his Subordinate Lodge, he is reinstated ipso facto in his Rebekah Lodge, unless he had been dropped therefrom for arrears. His Rebekah Lodge should receive dues from him if tendered during his suspension in his Subordinate Lodge.

11. An official certificate or visiting card in date is an order to any Noble Grand for the A.T.P.W., and to any Noble Grand in the state issuing it; it is also an order for the semi-annual pass word.

12. Under no circumstances should a person holding membership in another state be given the term pass word, and should it be accidentally acquired by such member, its use would be an offense.

13. The holder of an unexpired withdrawal card visits only on the A.T.P.W. current at the date the card was issued. The pass word can only be given by the Noble Grand of the issuing lodge or upon her written order under seal.

14. A lodge may omit meetings if they fall upon a legal holiday.

15. Applications for membership may not be received at a special meeting, neither can an applicant for membership be elected at a special meeting.

16. A Rebekah Lodge may meet in the afternoon of any week day if it so provides by an approved by-law.

17. The ballot as announced by the Vice Grand and declared by the Noble Grand can not be challenged.

18. The Vice Grand should inspect the ballot box before ballot. The ballot box for voting purposes should be placed on the altar or suitable pedestal near the center of the room.

19. A Rebekah Lodge may hire a night watcher for a sick sister member, if it so provides by proper by-law.

20. An officer in a staff must be one qualified to fill the same office in regular lodge work.

21. A staff may not give an exhibition drill in staff robes in public, nor have photographs taken in such robes.

22. If petitioners for a charter are absent at the time of institution, they fail to become charter members and must secure membership upon regular applications, the same as any other applicant.

23. Resignation of membership is inoperative unless dues are paid to the time of its presentation. The lodge should not give such an one a certificate of resignation.

24. Resignation of membership does not become operative until the close of the meeting when it is presented, therefore such a member is privileged to remain to the close of the meeting and should not be given a certificate of resignation until then.

25. The election of a candidate to membership should be annulled by vote of the lodge should the candidate, prior to initiation, express a disbelief in a Supreme Being.

26. A P.N.G. should wear a P.N.G. collar, a badge of pink and green ribbon may be worn by only those sisters who are not officers or Past Noble Grands.

27. It is illegal for a Rebekah Lodge to charge less dues than 2c per week or $1.04 per year.

28. Should an officer enter after roll call that fact should be shown on the record book and may be shown on the roll call book.

29. Minutes of a meeting should not be approved until copied in the record book.

30. A candidate for office should not act as a teller or judge of election.

31. When an election is not held at the regular time, it should be held at the next regular meeting, never at a special meeting.

32. An unfavorable ballot for membership should be set aside by vote of the Lodge, should it be discovered that so many unqualified members voted that the result might have been affected. When set aside, the Lodge should proceed as directed in Section 1733 of the Code.

33. Under Art. IV, Section 5 of the Rebekah Constitution, it is the duty of the Financial Secretary at the first meeting of each term to make a written report giving the balance of account of each member of the lodge.

34. A Deputy may stay any illegal act of her Lodge, or point out to it a duty it should perform, but she has no right to hear appeals. Should the Lodge refuse to perform its duty or to act legally, she should report the matter, with her actions thereon, to the Grand Master.

35. A Deputy may not act as Noble Grand or Vice Grand of her lodge or, if avoidable, serve on a prosecuting committee. She may act as Secretary.

36. None but a Past Noble Grand or a Past Grand who is a member of a Rebekah Lodge may serve as Deputy Grand Master of a Rebekah Lodge.

37. A Deputy can not give a dispensation to wear regalia in public, or for a ball, picnic, or excursion or entertainment of any kind.

38. A sister may be elected from the floor as Vice Grand or Noble Grand if all qualified members present decline the nomination, provided a dispensation for that purpose shall be obtained from the Lodge Deputy Grand Master.

39. A sitting V.G., unless a P.V.G. from previous service, is not eligible to be elected N. G. to fill a vacancy; she must be a P.V.G. at time of installation into the chair of N.G., and that she is not until the end of her term as V.G.

40. It is an offense, subject to expulsion on conviction, for any officer or member of a Rebekah Lodge to commit to writing in full or in cipher any portion of the Ritual.

41. A lodge securing a dispensation for a certain event can not legally hold another and different event under it without first securing a modification of the dispensation from the Grand Master.

42. On general principles, the President and Vice President of a District Rebekah Assembly should be Past Noble Grands.

43. A District Rebekah Assembly may apportion its expenses among the lodges of the district, and ask each to pay its apportionment, but it can not legally levy a per capita tax in any amount or for any purpose against any Rebekah Lodge.

44. Dues do not begin to accrue against one elected to become a member by card or certificate of a Rebekah Lodge until the Constitution is signed, as that is the time membership begins. This is true even if several months elapse between the election and the time the Constitution is signed.

CIRCULARS, PROCLAMATIONS, ETC.

The following letters and proclamations have been issued:

Chicago, Ill., December 1, 1900.

To the Subordinate Lodges of Illinois—GREETING:

BROTHERS: We appreciate the honor of being placed at the head, in this great State, of such a Fraternity as ours, yet it is with a deep sense of responsibility that we assume the office. We desire to give it our best efforts, and our ambition is to ever promote the best interests of our beloved Order. We may make mistakes—who does not—but we can assure you that they will be of the head and not of the heart. The Grand Lodge elected the following officers to co-operate with me: Deputy Grand Master, J. W. Yantis, of Shelbyville; Grand Warden, Charles S. Harris, of Galesburg; Grand Treasurer, Thomas B. Needles, Nashville, and Grand Secretary, James R. Miller, of Springfield, Ill.

They are all brothers of ability, love our Order, and are devoted to its work; yet, strive as we may, we will fall far short of the realization of our expectations, unless we have the hearty co-operation of the 55,000 Odd Fellows and 15,000 Rebekahs of our great Prairie State.

Our cause is a noble one—the betterment of mankind; and the principles of our philosophy—Friendship, Love and Truth—appeal to all good men. Then let us with union of hearts and hands, with harmony of purpose and concert of action, labor for the upbuilding of our brotherhood. No one so humble but that he has a part to perform; none so great but that he can find a field worthy of his best efforts. Visit your lodge, take an interest in its proceedings, assist in its work, hold up the hands of your officers, and thus prepare yourselves for the true, practical work of Odd Fellowship in every day life.

J. M. Yantis

Grand Master.

Quality is above numbers, yet there are thousands of good men in our Garden State outside the pale of Odd Fellowship. The harvest indeed seems ripe, shall we go forth and garner?

We may be justly proud that so many lodges conduct their business and degree work without having to refer to the Ritual. Certainly anything that is worth doing at all is worth doing well; and I would that all the work in our Grand Jurisdiction could be conducted without the aid of the Ritual. Officers, if any of you are doing yourselves, the Lodge and our Order the injustice of trying to slip along reading the red book in the lodge work, won't you right about face and show your fellow members that you have a personal self-respect, a love of the Lodge and our Order sufficient to lead you to do the very best ritualistic and other lodge work of which you are capable?

I enclose a blank certificate for your recommendation of a Past Grand of your lodge for the office of Lodge Deputy Grand Master. The office is an important one, the occupant of which should possess a full and ready knowledge of our laws and usages. We are led to believe that very much of the correspondence relating to the laws and usages of our Order, reaching the Grand Master, should pass through the hands of the deputy. Your lodge should be in possession of the Code of 1896, carefully brought down to date from the Grand Lodge Journals. If for any reason you have no copy, send two dollars to the Grand Secretary for one. If possible your deputy should be well versed in the unwritten work. We suggest that you make your selection by ballot, in the same manner in which your regular officers are elected, at the first meeting following this letter. The blank you will please return to the Grand Secretary as soon as filled.

With the hope that your growth in numbers and good works will be great, and with the best wishes for your prosperity in every way during the coming year, I am,

Fraternally yours in F., L. and T.,

J. R. KEWLEY, Grand Master.

CHICAGO, ILL., Dec. 20, 1900.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER: According to the recommendation of your lodge, I take pleasure in enclosing your commission as Lodge Deputy Grand Master for the year 1901. The office is one of importance and responsibility, and should be maintained with dignity and absolute impartiality. If you are not familiar with the unwritten work of the Order so as to enforce intelligently sections 1117 and 1206, Illinois Code, 1896, advise me and we will try and give you an opportunity to learn it. I would especially call your attention to Section 932 to 947, both inclusive, of the Code of 1896; study them carefully. If for any reason your lodge has no copy of the Code, ask that they send $2.00 to the Grand Secretary for one.

See that your lodge property is properly insured, and encourage it to require a surety company's bond for your Treasurer and Financial Secretary, the lodge paying for the bond in some good company.

While you have the same right of debate that any member of the lodge has, yet if you will carefully avoid taking part in any controversy that may arise in the lodge, until your decision may be asked for, under seal of the Lodge, you will no doubt add to the dignity of your office, and your decision will be less likely to be partisan, and will be received with greater respect.

Try by tact and diplomacy and in a spirit of broad fraternity, rather than adherence to narrow technical law, to maintain peace and harmony in your lodge, and settle any controversy, should any unfortunately arise.

I shall be pleased to hear from you at any time, and rest assured that at all times you, as well as the lodge, have my best wishes. I sincerely hope that, during the year, your lodge will add the names of many good men to its roster.

Fraternally yours,

J. R. KEWLEY, Grand Master.

ANNIVERSARY PROCLAMATION.

1901.

Chicago, March 1, 1901.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges—Greeting:

Whereas, in compliance with time honored custom, the Grand Sire of the Sovereign Grand Lodge has issued his Proclamation, in which he enjoins upon all Grand and Subordinate bodies to take appropriate action for the due commemoration of the 26th day of April, 1901, it being the eighty-second anniversary of our Order, by suitable exercises of the day and by public thanksgiving to Almighty God for His manifold mercies to us as individuals and as an Order, and whereas, the Order in our Grand Jurisdiction has especial and abundant reason for thanksgiving for the many blessings received and prosperity enjoyed during the past year.

Now, therefore, I, J. R. Kewley, Grand Master, by virtue of the authority vested in me, do direct and earnestly enjoin all Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges of this Grand Jurisdiction to carry out the directions of our esteemed Grand Sire by proper public observance and exercises on the 26th day of April, 1901, or on a day approximate thereto. To all of said Lodges, I do hereby grant a general dispensation to wear the regalia of the Order upon such occasion, subject to the restrictions prescribed by our laws; balls and entertainments not directly relating to the subject of this Proclamation, can not be held in the name of the Order, without a special dispensation, as at other times.

Done at the city of Chicago this 1st day of March, Anno Domini 1901, and of our beloved Order, the eighty-second.

Attest:

J. R. KEWLEY,

JAS. R. MILLER, Grand Secretary.

Grand Master.

March 1, 1901.

To the Subordinate Lodges:

BROTHERS: Proficiency in lodge work in all matters is greatly to be desired; any officer who reads his parts and fails to study up parliamentary methods of doing lodge business shows a lack of self-respect and a lack of love for his lodge and our Order, because these are within the easy reach and capability of all, and a Lodge with due regard for its own peace, harmony and success should expect this much from any brother honored with official station. While this is true in the written work it is also desirable to have equal proficiency in the unwritten work, but here, at times insurmountable obstacles are found as no one in the lodge, or perhaps even in the county, can be found who has it perfectly. For this reason I am sending you below a full list of all Official Examiners and Instructors in the state at the present time. No doubt there are others perfect, but they have not been examined this year. It is our earnest desire, that so far as possible the lodges of the state will try to have all their county lodges join them in schools of instruction, calling upon some brother in the list to instruct in this work. To this end I wish the deputies of the various lodges would, upon the request of their lodges arrange for such schools during the month of March somewhere in their county, so that the deputies themselves can brush up on the work and the officers-elect be afforded an opportunity to get the work correct. I urge all the instructors to give a reasonable degree of time to this work during the month of March with no charge upon the lodges except their actual expenses, and thus bring the work up to its old perfection. With best wishes for the highest attainable proficiency in lodge work of all kinds, I am Yours in F., L. and T.

J. R. KEWLEY, Grand Master.

MEMORIAL DAY PROCLAMATION.

Chicago, Ill., May 7, 1901.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges of the State of Illinois—Greeting:

In compliance with the standing resolution of the Sovereign Grand Lodge and the proclamation of the Grand Sire, I, J. R. Kewley, Grand Master, do hereby request all Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, whose ranks have been invaded by death, to assemble on the second Tuesday of June next, being the 11th day of June (or such other day approximating thereto as may be more convenient) and engage in appropriate memorial services in memory of their dead.

I would call attention to the death of David D. Hatfield, P.G.R., of our State on December 17, 1900, who was a valiant worker in our Order.

A general dispensation to parade in regalia on said memorial day, is hereby granted to all Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge.

Done at the city of Chicago, State of Illinois, this seventh day of May, 1901, and of our Order the eighty-third year.

J. R. KEWLEY, Grand Master.

Attest:

JAS. R. MILLER, Grand Secretary.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 8, 1901.

To the I. O. O. F., of Illinois—Greeting:

The Sovereign Grand Lodge will meet at Indianapolis, September 16 to 21, next, and the brethren of Indiana are making arrangements for a grand demonstration of the Order—one that will excel, if possible, anything ever given in this country by a secret society. In this demonstration our own state of Illinois should have an honorable part, and we appeal to our lodges and members to aid in this good work. This demonstration will consist of a great parade, drill contests of Cantons (prizes, $2,800), Rebekah and Subordinate contests in degree work (prizes, $2,535), banquets, receptions, public meetings, and numerous attractions of particular interest to Odd Fellows.

Indianapolis is considered the largest inland city and the most beautiful home city in the world, and it is an ideal place for this proposed great demonstration.

Lodges and brethren of Illinois, shall we not join with our brethren of Indiana on this occasion? To do so will not only stir our own enthusiasm, but will give the Order an impetus throughout the middle states. The Hoosier brethren invite us most earnestly and sincerely, and will give us a most hospitable welcome. The members of Indiana have always responded to this jurisdiction when a general demonstration was made, and we have the opportunity of reciprocating these favors. We hope there will be many of our lodges in the parade, and that our best degree staffs will contest for the various prizes.

One fare rate is already secured on railroads in the Central Passenger Association, the Western Passenger Association have made no rate yet, but probably will make a rate of one fare for round trip. Parties may be able to secure even better terms. Hotel accommodations may be secured at reasonable cost. Lodges desiring fuller information are requested to communicate with W. H. Leedy, Grand Secretary, Indianapolis, Ind.

Fraternally,

J. R. KEWLEY, Grand Master.

Chicago, Ill., June 22, 1901.

To the Deputy Grand Masters of Rebekah Lodges—Greeting:

Enclosed you will find the Pass Word for the ensuing term.

Before installing the officers you will personally see that the reports for the past term are properly filled out in every respect for the Grand Lodge and the Rebekah Assembly; that the per capita tax is either paid or placed in your hands to be paid to the Secretary of the Assembly; and that all officers are duly qualified, that is have paid their dues to June 30, 1901, have had sufficient previous service in office and are familiar with their various charges. Some lodges seem to have forgotten that our laws require that the only receipt to be given for dues is the official certificate, and that no lodge can give a festival or other entertainment, where the name of the lodge or the emblems or the regalia of the Order are to be used without first securing a dispensation from the Grand Master; you will please see that your lodge observes these as well as all our laws and usages.

Many Rebekah Lodges have not appointed committees on the Endowment Funds of our "Homes," as requested some months ago by the circular sent them by the special committee appointed by the Grand Lodge for that purpose; if your lodge is among the number you will please have the circular read to the lodge again and ask the lodge to appoint the committee as requested therein. We feel that your work for the "Homes," if wisely directed, will do your lodge very much good and we feel equally sure that it will do our "Homes" very much good, not the least of which will be that they will be drawn closer to the hearts of your membership.

Trusting that your lodge will be crowned with abundant success next term, I am,

Fraternally yours in F., L. & T.,

J. R. KEWLEY,
Grand Master.

JAS. R. MILLER.
Grand Secretary.

Chicago, Ill., June 26, 1901.

To the Subordinate Lodges I. O. O. F., in Illinois—Greeting:

My attention has been officially called to the fact that there are various members of our Order, engaged in the saloon business, either as proprietors or bartenders, in open violation of the plain provision of the Constitution of the Sovereign Grand Lodge and the laws and decisions enacted by that Grand Body thereunder.

As Grand Master of the State of Illinois, it is my duty to require Subordinate Lodges to support and maintain the laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge. It is therefore deemed wise to call specific attention to the amendment enacted by the Sovereign Grand Lodge in 1895, and to the more important decisions made by that Grand Body under said amendment, and to direct any Lodge that may have a Brother, in any one of the three prohibited avocations, in open violation of our laws, to immediately see that proper charges are preferred against him or them, and that if found guilty, the penalty provided by our laws, which is expulsion, shall be inflicted.

The amendment is Section 5 of Art. XVI of the Sovereign Grand Lodge Constitution, reads as follows: "No saloon keeper, bartender or professional gambler shall be eligible to membership in this Order." In 1896, decision No. 88 of Grand Sire Stebbins was approved. In effect it provides that any Odd Fellow who shall since the adoption of the amendment, engage in the saloon business, as proprietor or bar tender, is guilty of conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow, and is liable to charges.

In 1896 the Sovereign Grand Lodge also decided that a brother engaged in either of the three prohibited avocations, at the time the amendment was adopted, could continue therein, could change his membership from one Lodge to another on a live withdrawal card, or secure membership in an Encampment or Rebekah Lodge, but in 1898 it decided that a bar tender, legally in the Order, could not change his business to a saloon keeper, or vice versa, without violating the Constitution and making himself liable to expulsion.

In 1896 the Sovereign Grand Lodge also decided that it was an evasion of the Constitution to admit to membership a saloon keeper or bar tender under the term of "clerk," "merchant," "restaurant keeper," etc. The same year it also decided that if a brother was legally engaged in the saloon business as a bar tender and gave it up, the resumption of such business at a later date, would be an overt act and make him liable to charges.

In 1899 it was decided that a Subordinate Lodge must prefer charges against and try any member of their Lodge engaged illegally in any one of the three prohibited avocations, and refusing to do so, its charter should be revoked.

In 1900 the lines were drawn a little closer and the Sovereign Grand Lodge decided that no Odd Fellow can become a bar tender for any purpose, not even to accommodate a friend temporarily for a few days without pay, without violating the fundamental laws of our Order, and called attention to the fact that the terms were used in the Constitution without qualification or limitation of any kind.

We are glad to say that our Subordinate Lodges throughout our Grand Jurisdiction, are, as a rule, loyal to all our laws, and we believe all desire to be so hence I sincerely trust that not a Lodge in the state will fail to comply fully with the letter and spirit of this law; should a brother, unwisely, desire to engage in any of these prohibited businesses, a due regard for his own welfare, as well as respect for the laws and good name of our Order, should lead him to tender his resignation of membership to his Lodge. A word to the wise is sufficient, and we do not expect to be called upon to deal specifically with any Lodge. We want to praise the good work of our Subordinates, not to censure.

Fraternally yours in F., L. and T.,

NEW LODGES.

In issuing dispensations for new Lodges, both Subordinate and Rebekah, I have exacted a list of not less than 25 petitioners for membership, in addition to the card members petitioning for the same.

In a few cases, lodges have been instituted with less than this number for reasons unknown to me, not all petitioners presenting themselves for admission at the institution of the lodge.

In a number of cases dispensations to open lodges have been refused, as it did not seem for the best interest of the Order to permit them to start, refusal was usually based on lack of population to support a good lodge at the place desired or in the interest of old established lodges. There are, however, a good many towns of 800 or more people, scattered over the state, without a Lodge. We have been trying to encourage the institution of Lodges in some of these places. There are nearly twenty places that have had correspondence with either the Grand Secretary or this office about new lodges. This correspondence is nearly all on file with the Grand Secretary and will no doubt produce some good lodges within a short time.

From quite a number of places letters are on file with the Grand Secretary regarding the institution of new lodges; most of them will probably result in new lodges in the near future. There is still a large field unoccupied by Rebekah lodges where they might find great success. We have had no occasion to refuse a dispensation for a new lodge during the year except where the request came from a community where they already had a Lodge and a second one could hardly fail to injure the old one.

SUBORDINATE LODGES CONSOLIDATED.

On proper petition, I granted petitions for the consolidation of the following lodges; as in each case it seemed that such consolidation would be for the best interests of the Order:

Feb. 8, 1901, Alhambra Lodge No. 547 and Edwardsville Lodge No. 46 were consolidated under the name and charter of Edwardsville Lodge No. 46, of Edwardsville, Madison county, by Geo. G. Colonius, Special Deputy.

March 23, 1901, Rockbridge Lodge No. 638 and Kember Lodge No. 596 were consolidated under the name and charter of Kember Lodge No. 596 at Kemper, Jersey county, by C. O. Daniels, Special Deputy.

March 30, 1901, Ora Lodge No. 280 and Amity Lodge No. 132 were consolidated under the name and charter of Amity Lodge No. 132 at Murphysboro, Jackson county, by Robert Watson, Special Deputy.

April 1, 1901, Home Lodge No. 416 and John G. Rogers Lodge No. 745 were consolidated under the name and charter of Home Lodge No. 416 at Chicago, Cook county, by J. R. Kewley, G. M.

April 9, 1901, Joliet Lodge No. 856 and Wilhelm Tell Lodge No. 219 were consolidated under the name and charter of William Tell Lodge No. 219 at Joliet, Will county, by J. R. Kewley, G. M. The consolidated lodge was authorized to conduct its work in the English language and the name changed to William Tell. The change of name necessitated no change in the charter, as on examination of the charter the name thereon was found to be William Tell.

April 27, 1901, Murphysboro Lodge, No. 461, and Amity Lodge, No. 132, at Murphysboro, in Jackson county, were consolidated under the name and charter of Amity Lodge, No. 132. by John G. Hardy, Special Deputy.

May 1, 1901, Progress Lodge No. 524 and Atlas Lodge No. 261 were consolidated under the name and charter of Atlas Lodge No. 261 at Chicago, Cook county, by J. R. Kewley, G. M.

July 9, 1901, Lily of the West Lodge No. 407 and Eintracht Lodge No. 531 were consolidated under the name and charter of Lily of the West Lodge No. 407, working in the German language, at Chicago, Cook county, by J. R. Kewley, G.M.

REBEKAH LODGES CONSOLIDATED.

April 3, 1901, Forget-Me-Not No. 532 and Helena No. 221 were consolidated under the name and charter of Helena Rebekah Lodge No. 221, at Mechanicsburg, Sangamon county by J. R. Miller, G. Sec., as Special Deputy.

May 16, 1901, Elite No. 2 and Patience No. 62 were consolidated under the name and charter of Elite No. 2, at Chicago, Cook county, by Martha J. Van Duzer, Assembly Warden, as Special Deputy.

SUBORDINATE LODGE CLOSED.

Oct. 30 Oneida Lodge No. 228 was closed by Bro. Chas. S. Harris, G. W., as special deputy, and all effects sent to the Grand Secretary.

All the effects of the above have been sent to the Grand Secretary.

Materna R. Lodge No. 185, at Carmi, White county, was closed Feb. 8, 1900, by Chas. Helmer, but by mistake this was omitted from the list of Rebekah Lodges closed last year. Some of the above Rebekah Lodges have had no meetings for years. The Rebekah Assembly President concurred in closing these Lodges. There are still others in process of being closed, commissions to deputies being out for that purpose.

WEAK LODGES.

There are a number of Lodges that are so weak that they have hard work to get along. So far as we have been able, we have tried to help them by correspondence or visitations by nearby brethren. Some good work has been accomplished. We are led to believe that much can be done for our weak Lodges if the stronger Lodges near them would show an interest in them and visit them frequently, helping and encouraging them in their work. At least one of the oldest lodges in the state has been saved to our Order during the year by such friendly visitations, Lodges on either side of it helping to re-enthuse the remnant of the membership and conferring the degrees for them.

The weak Rebekah Lodges, of which there are quite a number, could be helped and are helped by sister Lodges in the same way. The system of Rebekah District Assemblies opens up the same field of usefulness, and we are pleased to note that in some districts, the officers have been quick to note this and have given time to visiting and encouraging the weak lodges of their district in every way possible.

LODGE SUSPENDED.

Coatsburg Lodge No. 836, having refused to comply with the decision of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, rendered at its August meeting in 1901, in case No. 286, I issued an order for the Lodge to expel Brother D. B. Boren, who had plead guilty to the charges against him as recited in the opinion of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals. The Lodge refusing to expel him, I suspended it and filed a charge of insubordination and contempt, setting the trial for the 19th of November before the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, in the office of the Grand Secretary.

As the case will be reported by that committee, it is unnecessary for it to be given here in detail. I am very sorry that it seemed necessary to suspend this Lodge.

PERMISSION TO REINSTATE EXPELLED MEMBERS.

I have, upon proper petitions and after due investigation, permitted the reinstatement of the following members:

Jan. 12, 1901—J. P. Williams, of Sciota Lodge No. 552, of Sciota.

Jan. 26, 1901—S. A. Galyean, of Vernon Lodge No. 324, at Vernon.

Feb. 2, 1901—L. H. Grooms, of Prospect Lodge No. 636, at Humboldt.

Feb. 20, 1901—Harry Phillips, of Marblehead Lodge No. 535, at Marblehead.

Mar. 7, 1901—W. W. Adcock, of Macon Lodge No. 687, at Macon.

Mar. 29, 1901—W. J. Roswell, of Ladd Lodge No. 803, at Ladd.

Apr. 27, 1901—Julius Zettsch, of Koerner Lodge No. 756, at Chicago.

May 17, 1901—James Ballows, of Creal Springs Lodge No. 504, at Creal Springs.

June 27, 1901—F. H. Negus, of Rock Island Lodge No. 18, at Rock Island.

July 6, 1901—H. L. Mason, of Vera Lodge No. 551, at Independence.

SUBORDINATE LODGE REMOVED.

I was petitioned for a new Subordinate Lodge at Alpha, Mercer county. On investigation, I found that New Windsor Lodge No. 518, located only three miles west of Alpha, had been burned out some two years ago, since which time it had held no meetings. It could not apparently be revived, so I suggested to the petitioners at Alpha the advisability of uniting with the remnant of the lodge at Windsor and petitioning for removal to Alpha. This was done, the petitioners asking that the name be changed to Alpha Lodge No. 518 and that a duplicate charter be issued as the old one had been badly scorched at the time of the fire and subsequently lost. I appointed Chas. S. Harris, G. W., as special deputy to superintend the removal and the re-opening of the Lodge at Alpha. This duty he performed on June 27, 1901. Under the authority of his commission, he remitted all back per capita tax due from the Lodge. The Grand Secretary issued the duplicate charter free of charge, endorsing across its face the change of name and location. The prospect of a good Lodge at Alpha is bright and I believe it was wise to save the old charter of New Windsor.

REBEKAH LODGES REMOVED.

Alhambra Rebekah Lodge No. 339, of Alhambra, petitioned to remove to Edwardsville, Ill., and as the Subordinate lodge at Alhambra had been consolidated with the Subordinate lodge at Edwardsville, leaving no Subordinate lodge at Alhambra, and there being no Rebekah lodge at Edwardsville, the petition was granted and the removal was effected on June 22, 1901, by the Lodge Deputy, Mary E. Schein. Endorsement on charter of changed location authorized.

Sweet Brier Rebekah Lodge No. 449, of Yorkville, petitioned to remove from Yorkville, to Ohio, Bureau county, as the lodge at Yorkville was very weak and the prospects of a good lodge at Ohio were bright. The petition was granted, the effects moved and the lodge reopened at Ohio on July 9, 1901, at which time, under a special dispensation, 20 applicants were initiated and one received by card. Woodbine Rebekah Lodge, of Sandwich, conferred the degree. The removal was superintended by the Deputy, Mary Bennett, of Yorkville, and De Etta Bates, Special Deputy of Ohio. We authorized the Grand Secretary to endorse the change of location on the charter.

CHANGE OF NAME.

On proper petition received from New Trier Lodge No. 892, of Wilmette, Cook county, on March 20, 1901, I authorized the change of name to A. T. Sherman Lodge No. 892.

CHANGE OF LANGUAGE.

Oct. 10, 1901, Bureau Lodge No. 428, of Princeton, presented a unanimous petition to change its work from the German to the English language. The petition was granted and the change was effected, Oct. 30.

FIRES.

During the past year, some lodges have lost their all by fire, but I am glad to say that nearly all were reasonably insured. Those reported are the lodges at Walnut Hills, Cook's Mill, Trilla, Rantoul and Cooksville. Each of these lodges has with courage taken up the work of rebuilding, except the last which had its fire on Oct. 28, and Clear Creek Lodge at Trilla, which may be removed to an adjoining town.

The fire at Rantoul consumed the entire business portion of the city and some thirteen residences. Union Lodge No. 9, with a true fraternal spirit, donated officers' and members' regalia to Bluffs Lodge No. 605 at Cook's Mill; Atlas Lodge No. 261, with the same kindly spirit, donated officers' regalia to Treasury Lodge No. 237 at Rantoul; Home Lodge No. 416, with the same liberality, made a like donation to Walnut Hill Lodge No. 710; and Lily of the West No. 407, with its well known generosity, donated a set of officers' regalia to the lodge at Cooksville. We authorized the Grand Secretary to furnish to each lodge a duplicate charter and two second hand rituals free of charge.

CHANGE OF VENUE.

On proper petitions, changes of venue were granted as follows:

Van Buren Lodge No. 875 vs. J. A. Mallahan to Templar Lodge No. 440.

Mt. Pulaski Lodge No. 454 vs. S. B. Fryer to Lincoln Lodge No. 204.

Peabody Lodge No. 613 vs. M. Rosenberg to Home Lodge No. 416.

COMPLAINTS AND APPEALS.

We have been called upon to decide more than one hundred cases involving either complaints or appeals, in addition to those referred to the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals. All interested parties have accepted our decisions except in one case, from which Bro. John Farrington has appealed to your Grand Body. We will burden this report with the recital of only this one case. There are, however, some cases still pending that it may be necessary to give in a supplemental report.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 14, 1901.

John Farrington

vs.

Remembrance Lodge No. 77, I.O.O.F.

STATEMENT.

It appears that Bro. John Farrington, of Remembrance Lodge, No. 77, has been on the sick list under the care of Puritan Lodge No. 678, of Indianapolis since May 1, 1900.

That Remembrance Lodge has, through Puritan Lodge, paid him all sick benefits claimed by Bro. Farrington up to April 12, 1901, at which time Puritan Lodge was instructed to pay no farther benefits until farther instructions.

Bro. Farrington was a blacksmith helper and according to his physician's certificate was suffering from nervous prostration resulting from heat exhaustion.

Puritan Lodge, December 8, recommended the payment of sick benefits, stating that the lodge made the recommendation upon the strength of the doctor's certificate alone, that the relief committee were of the opinion that he was not even then entitled to sick benefits under the laws of our Order, as they deemed him able to engage in ordinary work, not requiring such hard physical exertion as is the case with a blacksmith helper. He was not confined to his house.

Under date of June 16, Puritan Lodge again reported that Bro. Farrington was on the streets, looking to be in better health than he did a few months before and that he acknowledged that he might do light work, such as would not require him to exert himself very much.

Under date of June 24, Drs. Wynn and Hoag certified that he was suffering from nervous prostration, the result of heat exhaustion, and that upon slight physical movement his skin became clammy and his heart action rapid to an abnormal degree, indicating weakness; that it would be impossible for him to follow the avocation of blacksmith helper on account of such weakness and that if he avoided extreme heat and taxing physical exertion, and had proper medical treatment, they thought by fall he would be able to resume his usual avocation.

A member of Remembrance Lodge, while in Indianapolis, during the past winter, made two calls at the home of Bro. Farrington, but did not find him in at either time. He reported to his lodge that the consensus of opinion seemed to be, among the members of Puritan Lodge, that Bro. Farrington could work at ordinary light work if he tried.

Remembrance Lodge No. 771 refused to pay further benefits, believing that Bro. Farrington was at least able to do light work.

It appears that since July 1, 1901, Bro. Farrington has been engaged in some work, overseeing some men, and that he reported to Remembrance Lodge that he was willing to be declared off the sick list from and after July 1, 1901.

OPINION.

We are of the opinion that Bro. Farrington is suffering from nervous prostration as claimed, and that his physicians no doubt are correct in saying that he is unable to follow his usual avocation, but the weight of evidence just as clearly indicates that he could have followed, without injury to himself, any other avocation, in which the physical exertion required is less than that required from a blacksmith helper.

The laws of Odd Fellowship do not require the payment of sick benefits to a brother who is simply unable to perform hard manual labor, but it requires the payment of sick benefits to a beneficiary brother who, from sickness or disability, is unable to follow his usual avocation or some other whereby he might obtain a livelihood. We are of the opinion that Bro. Farrington has the physical ability to gain a livelihood in many avocations other than that of blacksmith helper. The lodge is hereby sustained in refusing to pay Bro. Farrington any sick benefits claimed to have accrued subsequent to April 12, 1901, and the appeal of Bro. Farrington is hereby dismissed.

J. R. KEWLEY, Grand Master.

PETITIONS.

Many petitions of various kinds have been passed upon, but as the parties in interest accepted the conclusions reached, with a single exception, it is unnecessary to mention them. The exception was a petition of J. H. Miller, a member of Eureka Lodge No. 64, praying a rehearing in his claim for sick benefits against that Lodge. The petition was granted and later the case was referred to the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals and was passed upon by that committee at its August session as case No. 280. Eureka Lodge No. 64 appeals to your Grand Body from a reopening of the case.

PROPERTY OF DEFUNCT LODGES.

Last year, this Grand Body legislated on the disposal of the property of defunct Rebekah Lodges, see page 266 of the Grand Lodge Journal of 1900. Feeling that this was hardly authorized and not desiring to pass upon it, myself, I submitted the question of its legality to the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals at its February session.

The opinion rendered by that committee shows that we need some new legislation along this line. See case No. 271 of that committee. I would suggest that legislation be enacted to permit the disposal of the property of defunct lodges by the Grand Master and Grand Secretary on the best terms possible, any time after the closing of the lodge has been approved by this Grand Body; the results of such sales to be held intact in the hands of the Grand Treasurer, until the time of a possible restoration of the charter had elapsed, and providing for its return with the charter, should the charter be restored within the time prescribed by law, or should the charter not be restored providing for its final disposition.

BY-LAWS OF SUBORDINATES.

So many by-laws have been submitted to me during the year that were in conflict with our laws and that were claimed to have been approved by the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, that it would seem wise to require Lodges to send two copies of all by-laws or amendments thereto, to the Grand Secretary for presentation to the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, one copy to be returned to the Lodge with the action of the committee and the other to be filed with the Grand Secretary. In this way alone can it be determined whether the printed by-law is such as has been duly approved.

MEMBERSHIP FEES.

Many applications have been received asking for permission to admit members, conferring the initiatory and three degrees, for a limited time, for $10.00, the plea usually being that the lodge was weak in numbers and finances and if permission was granted, they felt they could get a large class of applicants. Not infrequently they would cite sister fraternities that granted such permission under special dispensation.

Under our law, all dispensations for this purpose were refused, the fact being urged upon our brothers that our Order, when our Homes and our other beneficent work were taken into consideration, was vastly cheaper at the usual fees provided for by our Constitution than any other fraternity could possibly be, though they admitted members gratis.

SURETY BONDS.

This Grand Lodge has encouraged Subordinates to secure bonds for its bonded officers from surety companies. In order to make this encouragement effective, it would seem to be necessary to have additional legislation. At present the law on the subject may be found in Art. III, Section 7, Subordinate Constitution, and Sections 1152 to 1154, inclusive, of the Code. At the August session of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals (see case 287) it is held that a lodge may not require a surety bond.

The surety companies offering bonds have sometimes provisions therein that would make it well nigh impossible for a lodge to enforce any collection upon them in case of a defalcation.

As an instance illustrative of this I would report, that Hyde Park Lodge No. 722 had its Treasurer bonded in the Fidelity and Casualty Company of New York. He defaulted in a sum of nearly $1,000; the company refused payment on a technicality. I secured the opinion of an able attorney on the enforcement of this bond, but he reported that such an effort would be useless. I wrote to the company twice about it, but my only reply was from a local agent, that my letter would be forwarded to the home office: The lodge was obliged to compromise the loss as best it could with the defaulting Treasurer.

Should this Grand Lodge permit these bonds, the form used by any company should be first approved by the Grand Master or the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals.

DEDICATION OF HALLS.

We believe that under our law, a dispensation should always be applied for to dedicate a hall, thus alone can we have a full record of the halls dedicated. I have personally assisted in dedicating halls at Peoria, Fort Clark Lodge No. 109; Colchester; Bloomington, Remembrance Lodge No. 77; Galesburg, three lodges; Allendale and Westville. At Colchester, a fine three-story building was erected in conjunction with the Knights of Pythias, costing about $16,000. Those at Peoria and Bloomington are veritable temples and the others, though not as fine, are nevertheless well fitted for their respective localities, and are indeed a credit to the Order.

DISPENSATIONS.

Over two hundred dispensations have been issued and yet many lodges never apply for dispensations, while others, only partially conversant with our requirements, try to evade the law by forming clubs and societies, confined to the membership of the lodge or to it and a few outsiders, thinking that they can thus give picnics, balls, etc., without the restraint of our wholesome laws. Rebekah Lodges are especially prone to forget the necessary dispensations. The attention of the Deputies has been called to this matter with favorable results, yet there seems much more to be accomplished. The law on the subject reads in part as follows:

"No Subordinate or Grand Lodge, Rebekah Lodge or Assembly, Subordinate or Grand Encampment or Canton, and no member of any of the above organizations of any rank or station in the same, shall hold or make any arrangement for, or manage or to any extent control any anniversary, excursion, picnic, ball or party, or entertainment of any kind, where regalia, emblems or name of the Order will be worn, assumed or used, without first obtaining the consent of the executive Grand officer in the jurisdiction or department of the Order in which the entertainment is proposed to be held, such permission only to be predicated upon the direct promise through the officers of the Subordinate or Grand Body seeking the permission, that no intoxicating beverages of any kind shall be offered to the members or guests present on the occasion."

SUNDAY.

It has come to my notice after the occurrences that lodges either in their own names or that of pleasure clubs, composed largely or wholly of lodge members, have gone on Sunday excursions or picnics. Such have even visited our Orphans' Home. In no case has a dispensation been applied for or granted for any of these functions.

OFFICIAL INSTRUCTORS.

W. E. Carlin, P.G.R., was reappointed as Chief Instructor, and with Henry A. Stone, P.G.M., as Assistant Chief, and a large corps of Past Grands scattered over the state, have accomplished good work. Many schools of instruction have been held, yet many lodges might have received much benefit, that were perhaps most in need of it, but they failed to call for any. Those Past Grands who had made marked proficiency and had shown good work in former years, were commissioned as Official Examiners, thus rewarding merit. Mrs. Nellie L. Harris, P.P., as Chief Instructor, with Olive J. Blackman, P.P., as Assistant Chief, and an able corps of assistants, have done good work in this branch of our Order. Only Past Noble Grands were commissioned, some of whom having held commissions in former years and having done good work, were commissioned as Official Examiners, thus rewarding merit and at the same time securing an able corps of Examiners. The Chief's report is very full and complete, but as it is only of especial interest to the Rebekah branch of the Order, it will appear in the Assembly proceedings and is therefore omitted from this report. Owing to lack of space we give the report of the Chief Instructor alone, which is as follows:

Jerseyville, Ill., Oct. 31, 1901.

Dr. J. R. Kewley, Grand Master I.O.O.F.:

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER: I have the honor to present the following report as Chief of Official Examiners and Instructors, as required by law, and the commission issued by you shortly after the last annual session of the Grand Lodge of Illinois. From the examinations made at Springfield during the School of Instruction held in that city, just preceding the last Grand Lodge, and during the sessions of said Grand Body, I forwarded to you in December last an extended list for appointments of qualified Past Grands throughout the state, as official Examiners and Official Instructors—such Past Grands having been examined by competent Official Examiners, whose knowledge of the unwritten work had been verified by Bro. Henry A. Stone, P.G. Master, Assistant Chief, Sam J. Baker, P.G.Rep., or by me. To each of the Official Examiners and Instructors, so appointed by you, I mailed a circular letter of instructions, which you approved. From time to time I have forwarded to you additional names, of those examined by me as well as of those who have been certified as correct by Examiners and Instructors, with the recommendation that you commission them as Official Instructors.

In the circular letter referred to, the necessity and importance of a full report to be made to you, on or before Oct. 15, was fully set forth, together with the request that a similar report be sent to me at the same time. I regret to say that many of the Examiners and Instructors have failed to comply with such requirement. If each had made specific report, the Chief of Instructors could compile them and prepare one that would substantially show the results of the combined work throughout the jurisdiction. With so many reports lacking, however, an effort to compile and tabulate results would be incomplete, and therefore not satisfactory.

From the reports received I find that in many portions of the state the members manifest a commendable ambition to become proficient in the unwritten work, and the majority of those reporting show that good progress in that direction is being made.

With so many qualified instructors as we now have, it seems that every lodge should have one or more members learn the work practically correct. Many of those commissioned have tendered their services to lodges in their vicinity, and at very reasonable expense. In some instances, the Instructors have offered to hold schools without any cost whatever to the lodge. In view of these facts, I feel that the lodges that do not have any member who is correct in the work, should make the necessary arrangements to hold schools. In all cases, however, the instructor should at least be reimbursed his actual expenses.

I have held no schools this year, but have instructed lodges, when visiting them, and have heard various brothers rehearse the work: those who have been found proficient have been recommended to you for appointment.

In conjunction with Bro. Stone, I have arranged for schools for examination and instruction for the afternoon and evening of Monday, Nov. 18, at Springfield, due notice of which will appear in the Odd Fellows Herald and in the Illinois Odd Fellow.

Some plan should be devised by which those lodges who have no brother well up in the work could be impressed with the importance of securing the presence and service of an Official instructor for two or three days. Circular letters on this subject have heretofore been sent to each lodge, the fraternal papers have from time to time called attention to the matter, and Instructors have been requested to inform lodges in their immediate locality of the desire of the Grand officers that they make an effort to learn the work. I am at a loss what further to suggest in the premises.

Illinois stands at the front in the number of members who are proficient in the unwritten work, and in order to maintain this advanced position, we should continue to push forward along the lines we have followed for several years, and use every effort to further progress in this branch of the work, as this great jurisdiction has in every other branch of the work of Odd Fellowship.

In conclusion, I desire to return you my sincere thanks for the appointment as Chief of Examiners and Instructors and for your cordial co-operation in the work of the year. I also desire to express my thanks to Bros. Henry A. Stone, P.G.M., Assistant Chief, and Sam J. Baker, P.G.Rep., for their valuable aid in the work, as well as to all the Official Examiners and Instructors who have been active during the year. I can not close without expressing my appreciation of the able and faithful manner in which you have discharged the duties of Grand Master during your term, now closing, and to congratulate you upon the substantial progress made by the Order in Illinois during your administration.

With kind personal regard, this report is fraternally submitted.

W. E. CARLIN, P.G.Rep.,

Chief of Examiners and Instructors.

LODGE DEPUTY GRAND MASTERS.

We have very much for which to thank our large corps of deputies, as with very few exceptions they have been prompt in responding to every request. The experience of the year has demonstrated that nearly all of them are earnest in their desire to raise the standard of their lodges, yet the frequent changes made each year in their appointment prevents them from becoming as well posted in our laws and usages as they otherwise would be.

The tendency seems to be for lodges of high ideals and loyalty to our usages and laws, to recommend brothers for this important position that are capable; while lodges that are content with inefficient work or to whom our wholesome laws are distasteful, will recommend for their deputy some brother that will either allow them to drift along as they please, or one whom they can control at pleasure. We have become convinced that we have outlived the usefulness of the present method of selecting our deputies.

Among the methods that might be suggested would be the reappointment of efficient deputies at the pleasure of the Grand Master, wherever possible, requiring them to furnish an Official Certificate showing their good standing prior to sending them passwords. When new men were needed for any cause, leave the method of their selection entirely to the Grand Master. We would get men in this way more free from the influence of the lodge, and on the average, men better for the lodge and the Order. Another method would be district deputies having charge of a group of lodges or those of an entire county. This would tend to draw the lodges of a district closer together in their fraternal relations, and would facilitate the consolidation or revival of weak lodges and the establishment of new lodges in good territory.

On January 24th and again on October 28th, I met with the deputies of Cook county. Each meeting seemed to be of much interest and profit. At the latter the deputies organized and will hold meetings occasionally in the future.

SPECIAL DEPUTY GRAND MASTERS.

Outside of special deputies to open, close or remove lodges, there have been but few appointed. Those that have been, have done good work and are entitled to our thanks; among the number I would especially mention Brothers L. H. Martin, W. R. S. Wheatley, P. G. M., Charles S. Harris, Grand Warden, A. B. Garrett, Geo. H. Tuck, W. L. Anderson, Jno. R. Davis, Eva R. Withey, and Dr. Wm. T. Easley. The lodges have paid their expenses in some cases, in others they have been paid out of the stipend allowed this office for expenses and in still others from the fund for Special Deputies, but in no case has any one been paid anything except actual expenses incurred, all freely giving their time to the work.

The expenses of deputies closing lodges have been paid, so far as possible from the effects of the lodge. The brothers and sisters giving their time freely to the work, each and all of them are entitled to our thanks.

ART. XVI OF THE SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE CONSTITUTION.

The circular letter of June 26th, relative to saloon keepers and bar tenders in the Order, brought forth many letters of inquiry and made the lodges generally scan their membership lists. Some were gratified at finding a clean list, but not a few were surprised to find brothers on their roster who had engaged in one or the other of these prohibited kinds of business. Some, with a deep love for the Order in their hearts, have given up the business rather than leave the Order, while many more have either resigned their membership or have been expelled. In a few cases it may have seemed a hardship to a lodge and to a brother, otherwise worthy, but we feel sure that if the present vigilance shall be maintained the result will be only good, our Order thus attaining a higher position in the estimation of the public and in the personnel of its membership. We teach that we war against vice in all its forms, and surely there is much vice connected with the modern saloon.

Because some men may be engaged in one of these businesses and some other at the same time, the form of our petition for membership should be so amended as to make an applicant certify that he is not engaged in any of the prohibited businesses.

GALVESTON SUFFERERS.

Illinois, with the single exception of the state of Pennsylvania, with more than double our membership, gave more money than any other Grand Jurisdiction, outside of Texas itself, for the relief of distress among the Galveston sufferers. We are pleased to report that after all distress was relieved, so far as money could relieve it, the Grand Lodge of Texas returned to us 50 per cent. of our willing contributions, all of which amount has been placed in our special relief fund.

ODD FELLOWS' SANITARIUM AT GAINESVILLE, FLA.

In 1900, the Sovereign Grand Lodge directed the Grand Sire to request each Grand Master to ask his subordinates to contribute not less than 50 cents and not more than $1.00 for the benefit of the sanitarium. On June 8, 1901, I granted permission to the Board of Trustees to solicit not less than 50 cents and not more than $1.00 from each Subordinate and Rebekah Lodge that had not made a contribution to the Sanitarium since Jan. 1, 1901. At the last report $246.20 had been secured from 233 lodges.

Under date of Oct. 25 we have been again asked to grant permission to solicit lodges of our state that have not contributed anything to this fund. The Sovereign Grand Lodge at its late session, removed the limitation as to the amount to be contributed. We would refer this last request to this Grand Body for such action as it may deem proper.

APPEALS FOR AID.

Many times during the past year we have been asked for permission to solicit aid either for members, widows of deceased members or lodges; in the case of lodges, the requests have been to lift mortgages off buildings or to rebuild after a loss by fire. In the first class, requests have been from members, who have been sick and unable to work, those with mortgages on their little homes or widows desiring help to rear their little ones. Some have appealed for help to engage in some line of work whereby they might obtain a livelihood. Some of these cases would make the heart ache and local lodges have done nobly. Rarely has a lodge asked help until all other resources were exhausted. In no case, however, did it seem wise to permit appeals to lodges of the state, although in some cases an appeal to the lodges of the home county or to a group of nearby lodges, might have been a wise thing. In the following cases I drew on our special relief fund and I submit for your approval the papers in each case so relieved:

First: Bro. John Adams, living in New Memphis, but a member of Sherwood Lodge No. 879, received on March 20, 1901, $50.00.

Second: Mrs. Paulina Olsiva, widow of a deceased member of Pride of the Valley Lodge No. 435, of East St. Louis, received on May 27, 1901, $50.00.

Third: Bro. H. G. Pierce, a member of Cyclone Lodge No. 743, of Huntsville, on July 18, 1901, received $50.00, which was paid to him through the lodge Secretary, L. O. Graham.

During the administration of Bro. M. P. Berry, see page 18 of his report, $100.00 was placed in the hands of Kickapoo Lodge No. 90 for the relief of the widow and children of a deceased member of Arcola Lodge. The following report has been received:

Charleston, Ill., Sept. 24, 1901.

To the Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Kickapoo Lodge No. 90 desires to make the following report in regard to the relief fund sent us for the widow Skelton and her children:

Nov. 16, 1899, received from the Grand Lodge $100.00 for the relief of the widow Skelton and her children. It was paid out at intervals as she needed the money until the last was paid her on May 13, 1901. In our opinion this has been a much needed relief. Hoping that this will meet with the approval of the Grand Lodge, we remain yours,

(SEAL)

ANDREW BURKE, Fin. Sec.

JOSEPH ASHMORE, N. G.

W. G. BROWN, Rec. Sec.

SPECIAL SESSIONS OF THE GRAND LODGE.

Special sessions of the Grand Lodge and schools of instruction have been held at Vandalia, Moline and Rock Island, Rushville, Chicago (three sessions), Bloomington, Kankakee and Galesburg. Several hundred Past Grands took advantage of these sessions to receive the Grand Lodge and Past Grand's Degrees. Much interest was shown in the work and we can but feel that much good was accomplished. The expense of a session is not great and the good that may be gained leads me to recommend their continuance whenever and wherever practicable.

OFFICIAL VISITATIONS.

No record has been kept of the exact number of visitations, but the number has been considerable to both branches of the Order in different parts of the state. Most of them were more social in character than official and were very pleasant and I trust will be of benefit to the Order, as I am sure they were to me. I am only sorry that time and strength forbade a larger number. It was my pleasure to visit the Grand Lodge of Indiana in special session in September and at the same time the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

COMMITTEE VACANCIES.

Bro. Fred Merrills was appointed chairman of the Finance Committee to fill the vacancy caused by the death of our lamented brother, Jacob Krohn; Bro. J. E. Davis, of No. 450, was transferred to fill the vacancy on the Finance Committee caused by the promotion of Bro. Merrills; and Dr. Samuel Willard, P.G.R., of No. 214, was appointed to fill the vacancy on the Committee on Credentials caused by the promotion of Bro. Davis.

Bro. John J. Brown resigned his membership on the Railroad Committee, and Bro. Charles Dinges, of Lodge No. 122, was appointed to fill the vacancy.

GRAND LODGE COMMITTEES.

In harmony with the Constitution, all committees were appointed within twenty days after adjournment of our last session. In order to give all representatives an equal show and as a matter of economy to this Grand Body, representatives, with a very few exceptions, were selected from even numbered lodges, those having the hold-over representatives. We felt the need of old and experienced committeemen in part, and made use of the permission permitting the appointment of non-representatives. Last year, representatives in some instances resigned after being appointed on Grand Lodge committees, so this Grand Lodge had the expense of nearly fifty committeemen who were not representatives. Time alone will tell the result of this year's plan. Experience seems to indicate the wisdom of a return to small compact committees, composed of experienced brothers, leaving the representatives largely on the floor of the Grand Lodge.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE.

Pursuant to your direction in Document 93, page 276 of the Grand Lodge Journal of 1900, Geo. C. Rankin, P.G.M.; George W. Stubblefield, Chas. P. Skaggs, G. C.; S E. Erickson, G. Mar., and W. E. Trautman were appointed a special committee to secure if possible an amendment to our state criminal code, relative to the wearing of our emblems by non-members. They report the passage of the following bill:

A BILL.

For an act to prohibit personating officers or members of any Grand or Subordinate Lodge or Fraternal society chartered or having Grand or Subordinate Lodges in this state, and to prohibit wearing or using the insignia or badges of any such lodges or societies by other than the members thereof.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the people of the state of Illinois represented in the General Assembly: That it shall be unlawful for any person to falsely personate any officer or member of any grand or subordinate lodge or fraternal society chartered or having grand or subordinate lodges in this state.

Section 2. It shall be unlawful for any person to wear any insignia or badge of any lodge or fraternal society chartered or having grand or subordinate lodges in the state, or to use the same to obtain aid or assistance, personal or social recognition thereby, from any person, unless he shall be entitled to use or wear the same under the constitution, by-laws, rules and regulations of such lodge, lodges, society or societies: Provided, That section 2 of this act shall not prohibit the wearing of the badge or insignia of any lodge or society by the mother, sister, wife or daughter of any members of such lodge or society entitled under this act to wear such badge or insignia.

Section 3. Any person convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of either of the foregoing sections one (1) and two (2) of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined any sum not less than twenty (20) dollars, and not more than two hundred (200) dollars.

OTHER GRAND JURISDICTIONS.

All relations with the Grand officers of other Grand Jurisdictions have been very pleasant and while in a few instances Grand Masters of other Grand Jurisdictions have found it necessary to present to me complaints against Subordinate Lodges of our state on account of the non-payment of sick benefits or nurse hire, investigation showed the complaints were invariably found to have arisen through a misunderstanding in the Subordinate Lodges complained of. In every case prompt settlements were effected and as all parties interested seem to have been satisfied, it is unnecessary to burden this report with their enumeration.

It became necessary, in behalf of our Subordinate Lodges, to present a number of cases to the Grand Masters of other Grand Jurisdictions, cases usually involving sick benefits, nurse hire, funeral benefits or expenses and jurisdiction of subordinates. These have all been satisfactorily settled with the exception of the following cases:

CASE I.

Hope Lodge No. 232, of DuQuoin, cared for and at his death buried a member of Metasnia Lodge No. 533, of the Grand Jurisdiction of Indiana. Hope Lodge was unable, with the greatest care and economy, commensurate with a decent burial, to make the bill less than $40.00. The by-laws of Metasnia Lodge No. 533, provided for only the minimum amount of funeral benefits and expenses of the Indiana Subordinate Lodge Constitution, which is $30.00, and the lodge refused to reimburse Hope Lodge for the extra $10.00 incurred by it. The Grand Master of Indiana used his best efforts to induce Metasnia Lodge to meet its just and moral obligations and pay the bill, but the lodge continued to refuse payment, and Hope Lodge has had to sustain the loss, unless they secure it from the little estate left by the brother.

CASE II.

Wabash Lodge No. 35, of Mount Carmel, had the wife of a member of Valeen Lodge No. 553 of Indiana, resident in their town, the husband having been committed to the insane asylum at Anna, Ill. Early in 1900, the brother died and the widow, being in poor circumstances, appealed to the Noble Grand of Wabash Lodge for assistance to send the remains of her late husband to Valeen, Ind. The Noble Grand of Wabash Lodge telephoned to the Noble Grand of Valeen Lodge and was authorized, as he understood the message, to go ahead and do what was necessary. Wabash Lodge No. 35 thereupon took charge of the remains and had them sent to the old home at Valeen at a total expense of $60.82. Valeen Lodge promptly remitted $30.00, claiming that was all they were responsible for under their bylaws for both funeral expenses and funeral benefits. The Grand Master of Indiana, up to the date of this report, has found it impossible to induce them to settle this bill. The correspondence, not transmitted to the Grand Master of Indiana, is hereby submitted for such action as you may deem proper.

CASE III.

In May, 1901, Bismarck Lodge No. 893 reported that Illiana Lodge No. 240 of State Line City, Ind., had admitted to membership seven persons, resident of Illinois, one living nearer Bismarck Lodge than Illiana Lodge, and two of the number being only 19 years of age. In each case, the initiatory and three degrees had been conferred for $10.00, the minimum fee provided in the Grand Jurisdiction of Indiana. The case was laid before the Grand Master of Indiana with the statement that the violation of the age limit was not a matter for this Grand Jurisdiction, which would be satisfied with a payment in full of all fees received from the brother living nearer Bismarck Lodge than Illiana Lodge, and a farther payment of $4.00 for each resident of our jurisdiction admitted, which amount was the difference between the fee charged and the fee provided by the bylaws of Bismarck Lodge, citing the Sovereign Grand Lodge law as found in Sections 622 and 631 of White's Digest, edition 1895. The Grand Master of Indiana ordered Illiana Lodge to make such payments and to admit to membership no resident of our Grand Jurisdiction without the consent of the Grand Master of Illinois. The lodge has not made payment. They have since asked for consent to initiate a resident of our Grand Jurisdiction living a few blocks from their lodge hall. Consent was refused pending a settlement of these cases.

In this connection I have found that none of our lodges can admit a resident of an adjoining Grand Jurisdiction, without first obtaining the consent of the Grand Master as is provided for in Section 623 of White's Digest. I would suggest that our reciprocal law as found in Section 1683 of the Illinois Code of 1896, be amended to agree with Section 623 of White's Digest.

CASE IV.

Metropolitan Lodge No. 108, of Centralia, cared for a brother holding membership in Pine City Lodge 156, of Pine Bluff, Ark., during his last illness, expending therefor $36.00 as authorized by his visiting card. Pine City Lodge 156 refused payment and when the Grand Master of Arkansas ordered payment, they appealed from the order to the Grand Lodge of Arkansas. At the session of that Grand Body, last month, the appeal was dismissed and the lodge ordered to pay the amount; but at the writing of this report payment had not been made.

CASE V.

Kewanee Lodge No. 128 cared for a member of Bluff City Lodge No. 35, of Pine Bluff, Ark., during his last illness, and buried him in conformity with a visiting card held by the deceased brother. Bluff City Lodge refused payment and when the Grand Master of Arkansas, A. C. Jones, ordered payment, appeal was taken from the order to the Grand Lodge. The Grand Lodge at its session last month, dismissed the appeal and ordered payment, but at the writing of this report, payment had not been made.

ENDOWMENT FUNDS.

The following circular letter, with necessary blanks, was sent to all Subordinate Lodges and a very similar one to all Rebekah Lodges by your regular Endowment Committee, from the Grand Secretary's office:

Springfield, Ill., March 1, 1901.

To the Subordinate Lodges, I.O.O.F., in the State of Illinois:

Brothers: The Grand Lodge at its last session in November, 1900, adopted the following report, to wit: To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.: Your special Committee on Endowment Funds have duly considered the matters referred to them, and are in hearty sympathy with the proposition that an Endowment Fund for the benefit of the Orphans' Home at Lincoln, and the Old Folks' Home at Mattoon, should be raised, and that it should be protected by the Grand Lodge.

To this end it is recommended that a special committee, consisting of the Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master and the Grand Secretary, and their successors, be charged with the duty of securing the above Endowment Funds, and that all moneys raised by said committee, or donated by any person, shall be received by the Grand Secretary, and by him paid over to the Grand Treasurer, and said committee in conjunction with the Grand Treasurer, shall have power to invest any such funds and donations in such securities as are now authorized, or may hereafter be authorized, by this Grand Lodge. That said committee may take such measures as it may deem best to secure such Endowment Funds, but shall not incur in so doing any liability on the part of this Grand Lodge. It is recommended that the representatives from each Lodge be requested to aid the special committee in securing Pledge Cards, and in such other manner as said committee may request.

ALFRED ORENDORFF,
E. S. CONWAY,
T. B. NEEDLES,

Knowing that both Homes are close to the hearts of our entire membership, and that working unitedly, shoulder to shoulder, and in accordance with the means a kind Providence has blest us, we can, without it being burdensome to any, create magnificent endowment funds, such funds of which we will all be as proud as we are of the Homes themselves, your Special Committee deem it wise to give all an opportunity to have part and share in raising them. To this end we ask your hearty co-operation and the adoption of the following plan: Each lodge to appoint a committee of three, one to serve until Oct. 1, 1901, one to serve until April 1, 1902, and the third to serve until Oct. 1, 1902; and thereafter, immediately succeeding installation in April and October, the Noble Grand shall appoint one member to serve eighteen months, the member having the shortest term to serve being the chairman.

The names and addresses of the committee shall be sent at once to the Grand Secretary. The duties of the committee shall be to solicit pledges from the entire membership of the lodge, seeing the resident members personally and corresponding with the non-resident ones. It is desired that the first canvass be completed by May 1, 1901. All subscriptions received shall be filed with the Financial Secretary, who shall enter the names and the amounts subscribed in a book kept for that purpose and collect the various amounts with dues, turning the amounts thus collected over to the Treasurer. Subscriptions to the pledge cards may be made by the lodge and raised by public entertainments or otherwise. The lodge shall transmit, at the close of each semi-annual term, all amounts received to the Grand Secretary, and when individual subscriptions have been made, the name of each subscriber and the amount paid by each shall be given.

It shall be the duty of the committee to aid the Financial Secretary to make collections.

The enclosed pledge cards are kept by the Grand Secretary in stock, and additional ones may be obtained from him at any time.

(SEAL)

J. R. KEWLEY, G.M.
J. W. YANTIS, D.G.M.
JAS. R. MILLER, G.Sec.

The form of the pledge card is as follows, viz:

In consideration of my interest in the Orphans' and Old Folks' Homes, I.O.O.F., of Illinois, I agree to pay to said institutions equally divided, unless otherwise stipulated by myself on back of card, to be added to the Endowment Funds, the sum of $..... per annum, for a period of ten years, the right being reserved by me to cancel this pledge any time by giving six months' written notice to the Secretary of my lodge. It is also understood that in case of my death this pledge terminates. Payments to be made to the Financial Secretary of my lodge the first of April, and the first of October of each year.

In response, 113 Subordinate and 30 Rebekah Lodges reported the appointment of committees. Desirous of getting better results and learning how the committees were succeeding, the following circulars were sent out, the one to those lodges that had not reported committees and the other as indicated:

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 20, 1901.

To the Officers and Members of Lodges which have not Appointed an Endowment Committee:

BROTHERS AND SISTERS: The Grand Lodge Endowment Committee addressed a circular letter to you last spring, setting forth in detail the action of the Grand Lodge, endorsing the proposition to raise endowment funds for the Orphans' and Old Folks' Homes, also the action of the Special Committee appointed by the Grand Lodge, requesting lodges to appoint an Endowment Committee, etc. To date you have made no report of the appointment of a committee. We would therefore ask you to read this letter in the lodge and take up the matter afresh.

We do not wish to force or over-urge you to take up this work, but we would like your interest and co-operation, feeling that in helping our Homes, you will receive a blessing yourself.

The time for the first payment to the Grand Secretary for Subordinate Lodges will be with the term report, Oct. 1. During the next six weeks, it would be possible to see practically all your membership. Will you do it?

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 20, 1901.

Chairman of the Endowment Committee, I.O.O.F.:

I would be pleased to hear how your committee has succeeded in securing pledges for the Endowment Funds of the Orphans' and Old Folks' Homes from the membership of your lodge.

The first payment will be due with your first term report. I trust that your committee will be able to assist the Financial Secretary in the collections, so that all pledges will have been paid on or before the close of the present term. With the large number of committees appointed in the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges throughout the state, it is hoped that the additions to our Endowment Funds for the year will be very encouraging. The members of a single lodge may not be able to do much, but if each will do what he can, the aggregate will be large, as many small sums make a large one. Trusting that I may soon hear from you personally, and with best wishes for the continued success of your work, I am,

Fraternally yours in F., L. & T.,

Attest:

JAS. R. MILLER,

Grand Secretary.

J. R. KEWLEY,

Grand Master.

P. S. Pledge cards can be secured from the Grand Secretary without expense.

Some new committees have been appointed, but still those lodges with committees are in the minority. About one-third of the chairmen have responded, some reporting good, many indifferent results, while many more had apparently made but little effort, but promised to be more active in the future. The amounts received are disappointing though not disheartening. The Grand Secretary's report will give the amounts received. I want to emphasize the wisdom of sending not only these funds, but all cash donations direct to the Grand Secretary.

INVESTMENTS.

In harmony with the directions given last year, the Grand Treasurer purchased a 3 per cent U. S. $500.00 bond with the John Buehler Orphans' Home Fund.

With the approval of the Endowment Committee, a $500.00 City of St. Louis gold bond, bearing 3.65 per cent interest, was purchased with the funds from the German Rebekah Orphans' Home Fund for $515.00; it matures in 1907.

With like approval, 10 City of Carthage water bonds, $500.00 each, were purchased; they bear 5 per cent interest and mature in series of two, beginning December 1, 1909; the five first maturing were purchased for the Orphans' Home Endowment Fund at $2,598.10; the five last maturing for the Old Folks' Endowment Fund at $2,616.30, making the entire investment net 4½ per cent.

$3,000.00 of the funds in the Special Relief Fund have been invested in City of Peoria Park Bonds, maturing in 1921 and bearing 3½ per cent interest and purchased at 101 and accrued interest, thus netting our Order 3.45 per cent. Still farther investments can be made in the near future.

We are inclined to believe that all investments should be paid for by regular warrant on our Grand Treasurer and the investment made in the corporate name of this Grand Body. Indeed, as a guide for the Grand Master, the details of the method of making investments should be clearly defined.

BEQUESTS.

Bro. Carl A. Koenig, a member of Koerner Lodge No. 756, of Chicago, who died over two years ago, made under his will our Old Folks' Home his residuary legatee. He left property both real and personal. The personal property was insufficient to meet the indebtedness of the estate and the legacies provided by the will, so the executor petitioned the Probate Court for permission to sell the real estate.

I authorized Bro. Chas. S. Thornton to look after the legal interest of this Grand Body in the estate, he kindly promising to do so without any fee other than actual expenses incurred. The firm of Thornton & Chancellor report that the petition came up in the Probate Court Oct. 14, but was continued until Nov. 15. It is not likely that this Grand Lodge will, on account of the depreciation of realty, benefit much from this estate, however kindly our deceased brother may have felt toward our Old Folks' Home.

It would seem wise to encourage our brothers who are able to do so to remember our Homes in their wills, and to this end and as an aid to the form of a legal bequest, we would suggest that a proper form of bequest be prepared by our Committee on Judiciary and Appeals and printed each year in our Grand Lodge Journal as a part of the reports of the Boards of our Homes.

OUR FRATERNAL PRESS.

Our fraternal press is a mighty educator, the best at our command. It affords the best medium to keep in touch with the work outside the individual lodge. It is strange that more do not avail themselves of it. The older paper, the Odd Fellows Herald, issued 24 times a year for only $1.25, is ever ready to promote the best interests of the Order and its rich fund of information, furnishing news from all parts of the state, must surely prove acceptable. The Illinois Odd Fellow, issued twelve times a year for $1.00, is a neat and tasty paper, ever working for the advancement of the Order. If one or both of these papers was in every Odd Fellow's home we feel sure that a more lively interest would be taken in our Order, fewer would be dropped for the nonpayment of dues and our membership would be better posted in our laws and usages and keep in closer touch with one another.

IN MEMORIAM.

Many of our loyal hearted brothers and sisters have been called from labor to reward, indeed the year has been a painful reminder of the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death. We are admonished to so conduct life's work that when called upon to join the silent majority beyond the boundaries of time, no duty shall be left undone, no obligation unfulfilled. The vacant chair in the humblest home as well as in the home of wealth, causes the heart to ache and death touches the chord of sympathy in the human breast and makes the whole world akin. Among the departed brothers who have held positions of trust among us, with credit to themselves and honor and profit to our Grand Lodge, I would mention David D. Hatfield, P.G.R., who died Dec. 17, 1900; A. T. Sherman, P.D.G.M., who died on Feb. 6, 1901, and Jacob Krohn, P.G.P., so long the efficient chairman of the Finance Committee, who died June 21.

OUR HOMES.

Both of our Homes continue to touch a sympathetic chord in the heart of every Odd Fellow and Rebekah and those outside our Order who come in contact with them, are filled with admiration of the work we have accomplished. The care and education of the hand, head and heart of the helpless little one, and the kindly care and ministration to the aged and infirm, those from whom the winds of adversity have swept the means of sustenance and the ability to earn shelter and bread, are indeed the crowning fruits of Odd Fellowship. Following in the footsteps of my predecessors, I invited the Deputy Grand Master and the Finance Committee to pay each Home an official visit with me. The Deputy Grand Master, on account of other duties, was unable to make the visit, but did visit each Home at other times, meeting with the Board at the Old Folks' Home.

The entire Finance Committee met with the Board at the Old Folks' Home on Oct. 23, carefully inspected the Home and its management and received from the Board the appropriation budget desired for the coming year. This Home is in a flourishing condition and the forty-one members of the Home family seem happy and contented and all in a fair condition of health, although two are nearly helpless from paralysis and a few more are nearly helpless from the infirmities of age or disease. The kindly management of Superintendent Baldwin and his good wife is to be commended, while wonders have been accomplished by the gardener; the garden and fruits promise much for the future needs of the Home.

On Oct. 24 the Orphans' Home was visited. It is sufficient to say that the same happy family and school were found there as in years gone by, and all the former words of praise given of this Home and its management by other Grand Masters, we desire you to consider repeated here.

The Board of our Orphans' Home have changed the fiscal year to Oct. 31, so as to agree with the fiscal year of this Grand Body and to comply with Section 2235 of the Code.

Each of these Homes spends large sums of money each year and we deem it but just to the Boards of each that all books and accounts should be carefully audited by the Finance Committee and it had been hoped to have this work done on this official visit, but this was found to be impracticable until a later date, therefore the Finance Committee were called to meet at the Grand Secretary's office for this purpose, Nov. 6, and their report will be attached hereto, together with the following report on the "Homes:"

To the Hon. James R. Kewley, Grand Master, I. O. O. F., of the Grand Lodge of Illinois:

Sir:—Your Committee on Finance, in compliance with your request, would respectfully report that we visited the Old Folks' Home and the Orphans' Home on Oct. 23, 24 and 25, 1901, and made an inspection of the management and affairs of both Homes. We find that they are both in good condition, well managed, and the expenditures of the Grand Lodge in their behalf, continuing to produce good results toward the relief of our aged and afflicted brothers and their wives and orphans.

We have also made a careful examination of the accounts of both Homes, also the reports of the receipts and expenditures which they have made to you, and find said accounts and reports to be correct.

We also desire to report that the Old Folks' Home Board desire the following appropriations at the coming session of the Grand Lodge for the uses and purposes herein set forth.

For additional appropriations for hospital, over and above the appropriations made last session.....	$4,500.00
For one horse, farm machinery, hot house, furniture, painting outside woodwork on main building, paving walk from front door to street, and maintenance of the Home during the coming fiscal year.....	8,000.00
Total.....	$12,500.00

We also desire to report that the Orphans' Home Board desire the usual appropriation for maintenance and ordinary repairs, and the balance (one-half) of the purchase price of the additional land which was authorized to be purchased at the last session by the Grand Lodge.

We are unable to make any recommendations as to the appropriations asked for at this time and therefore beg permission to take the matter under advisement and reserve our recommendations until the Grand Lodge convenes.

Finance Committee.

Chas. S. Harris,
Deputy Grand Master.

Among the things that have been impressed upon our minds is first, the advisability of having all the printing for the Homes, placed under the direction of the Printing Committee, in the manner provided in our constitution.

Second: Do we really need a Board for each Home composed of five members? Would not a Board of three members for each Home serve both the Homes and this Grand Body as efficiently as the present number? As composed at present, the railroad fare for the year if every member is present at every meeting, amounts to $482.56 for the Old Folks' Home and $410.00 for the Orphans' Home. Would it not be wise to reorganize these Boards by putting both Homes under the management of one Board, and one Advisory Board with bi-monthly meetings at each Home; or to reduce the number on each Board to three, permitting those already on the Board to serve out the time for which each was appointed, making no new appointments until the reduction had been made and so arranging future appointments that the time of service would be three years instead of five?

Third: All insurance policies should be in the corporate name of this Grand Body with all deeds, etc., deposited with our Grand Treasurer.

Fourth: All contracts for either Home, other than that of maintenance, salaries and ordinary repairs, should be executed in the corporate name of this Grand Body, by the Grand Master, attested under the seal of the Grand Lodge by the Grand Secretary.

Fifth: Provisions should be made to exempt brothers and sisters, members of the Old Folks' Home, from dues while in the Home, and for some method whereby they can be invested with our current pass words.

The reports of each Board attached hereto will give all necessary details of the Homes with two exceptions: First, under date of April 13, I received a communication from Union Lodge No. 9 asking my opinion as to the right of the Board of Trustees of the Old Folks' Home to charge the lodge $3.00 per week for the care of their brother, John Davidson, and his wife, at the Home. After communicating with the Board, giving it the privilege of being heard, I rendered the following opinion and submit it here for your approval:

May 2, 1901.

Union Lodge No. 9, I.O.O.F.,

vs.

Trustees I.O.O.F. Old Folks' Home.

STATEMENT.

This is a request of Union Lodge No. 9 for a decision as to whether the Trustees of the Old Folks' Home are authorized, under the by-laws adopted by the Grand Lodge for the government of the Home, to charge a lodge a maintenance rate in excess of $1.50 per week for the maintenance at the Home, of a member of a lodge accompanied by his wife.

It appears that Union Lodge No. 9 made application to the Trustees of the Home April 30, 1900, for the admission to the Home of Bro. John D. Davidson, a nonbeneficial member of the lodge, and his wife. As a result of said application, the brother and his wife were admitted to the Home May 24, 1900, and both are still members of said Home.

The Trustees claim that the lodge signed the usual application to pay for each $1.50 per week, that Art. IV of the bylaws, adopted by the Grand Lodge Nov. 17, 1898, had always been interpreted by the Trustees as authorizing a charge at such rate and that in charging Union Lodge No. 9 $3.00 per week for the maintenance of the said brother and his wife they were within the provision of the bylaws, that their interpretation of the by-laws should be sustained and the lodge be directed to pay in full all bills rendered it, at the rate of $3.00 per week for the maintenance of the said brother and his wife.

The Trustees further claim that no representation had ever been made to the lodge or any member thereof, by the Board of Trustees or by any member of said Board of Trustees, that a less rate than $3.00 per week would be charged the lodge in this case during the time that the said brother and his wife should remain members of the Home.

OPINION.

At the session of the Grand Lodge in November, 1898, the Board of Trustees, the Advisory Board concurring, presented two sets of by-laws, both being identically the same except Art. IV.

Art. IV, in the first set of by-laws, provided for the principal maintenance of the members of the Home by requiring the local lodges, sending their members to the Home, to pay therefor; the Grand Lodge to contribute to the Old Folks' Home not less than 10 cents per capita.

Art. IV, in the second set of by-laws, provided that the Grand Lodge should pay the entire cost of the maintenance of the members in the Home.

Art. IV of the first set, so far as it related to the admission and payment for members of the Home, read as follows: "Art. IV. Terms of Admission. The lodge in which the applicant for admission holds membership, or in which the deceased brother held membership whose widow applies for admission, shall pay all the expenses in transit to the Home of the approved applicant, and of his wife if she accompanies him, and shall pay to the Trustees of the Home, quarterly, the amount of $2.00 weekly for each member of their lodge or widow receiving the benefits of the Home. If a brother and his wife are admitted together, the lodge in which the brother holds membership will be required to pay the weekly fees prescribed for the brother only, and the wife shall be admitted free of cost.

A wife who accompanies her husband to the Home shall, after his decease at the Home, leave the Home, unless she, by reason of age or affliction, shall on her own account be entitled to membership therein; in which case the lodge to which the brother belonged at date of admission shall, during the life of the widow, for her maintenance pay said Home $2.00 weekly, as required in case of brothers."

Art. IV. of the second set of by-laws so far as it related to the admission and payment for members of the Home read as follows: "Art. IV. Terms of Admission. The lodge to which the applicant for admission holds membership or in which the deceased brother held membership whose widow applies for admission, shall pay all the expenses in transit to the Home of the approved applicant, and of his wife if she accompanies him. A wife who accompanies her husband to the Home shall, after his decease at the Home, leave the Home, unless she, by reason of age or affliction, shall, on her own account, be entitled to membership therein."

The Grand Lodge considered these two articles very carefully and the general consensus of opinion was that Art. IV of the first set of by-laws as presented entailed a greater possible expense upon the local lodges than they could bear or could reasonably be expected to bear. Very few of the local lodges providing in their by-laws for a payment to their disabled members of a sum in excess of $1.00 per week after their disability had continued for one full year. As a result of this opinion, the Grand Lodge substituted Art. IV of the second set of by-laws for Art. IV of the first set of by-laws; but feeling that the Grand Lodge should not pay for the entire maintenance of the members of the Home, and that it was eminently just for the local lodges sending any of their members to the Home, to pay a reasonable per cent of the charge of their maintenance at the Home, and also to pay a reasonable fee for the maintenance of the widow of any of their deceased members who might be admitted to the Home, it proceeded to amend the by-laws until finally it was amended to read as follows and duly adopted: "Art. IV. Terms of Admission. The lodge in which the application for admission holds membership, or in which the deceased brother held membership whose widow applies for admission, shall pay all the expenses of transit to the Home of the approved applicant, and of his wife if she accompanies him, and shall pay to the Trustees of the Home a reasonable fee, at the discretion of the Trustees, not to exceed $1.50 per week for each member."

"A wife who accompanies her husband to the Home shall, after his decease at the Home, leave the Home, unless she, by reason of age or affliction, shall on her own account be entitled to membership therein; in which case the lodge to which the brother belonged at date of admission shall, during the life of the widow, for her maintenance pay said Home a reasonable fee, at the discretion of the Trustees, not to exceed $1.50 per week for each member.

"Any lodge recommending admission of any person to this Home shall, on the approval of application, see that the person is cleanly and properly clothed, and is supplied with one change of clothing; otherwise the Trustees shall procure the same at the expense of the lodge.

"All lodges whose members are admitted to the Home shall keep such members in good standing in said lodge by payment of dues while members of said Home."

In interpreting this by-law as finally adopted, it is necessary to take into consideration the intent of the Grand Lodge as well as its expression in the language used. The intent of the Grand Lodge certainly was that a charge of $2.00 per week for a member of a lodge with the free admission of his wife during his life was too great a charge on the lodge, then surely, it never intended that the charge might be $3.00 per week at the discretion of the Board, or 50 per cent more than the amount rejected by the Grand Lodge as being an excessive charge.

As to the language of the by-law, does the provision for a charge of $1.50 per week in the first paragraph apply to the wife of a brother accompanying her husband? It would seem not; it clearly provides that the transportation to the Home shall be paid by the local lodge and the second paragraph as clearly states that at the death of her husband she shall leave the Home unless entitled to remain of her own right, in which case the local lodge shall pay for her maintenance, etc. This second paragraph does not read, shall continue to pay, etc., as it should have done had her maintenance been previously paid, indeed the entire second paragraph, so far as it relates to the payment for such wife, is absolutely superfluous had her maintenance been previously paid under the provision of Paragraph I.

I am therefore forced to the conclusion that the Board of Trustees have erred in the interpretation of this by-law and that a lodge is not required under the by-laws to pay $1.50 per week for the maintenance of the wife accompanying her husband, a member of the lodge, to the Home.

J. R. KEWLEY, Grand Master.

The other case is fully covered by the following two communications which are also submitted for your approval, and such farther action as may be deemed wise and proper.

Mattoon, Oct. 24, 1901.

Hon. J. R. Kewley, G. M.:

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER: There has been organized a drainage district including therein about one hundred acres of the land of the Old Folks' Home. We are advised by competent attorneys (Andrews and Vause) that the organization is not a legal one. A large part of the other land owners affected, have employed said attorneys to contest the district organization. Each owner to pay attorney fees and expenses in proportion to the amount of land involved.

The commissioners have classified our land too high and this should be attended to.

We therefore recommend the employment of Andrews and Vouse to attend to our interests in said litigation in the state courts and county, circuit and city courts until the further order of the Grand Lodge.

C. F. MANSFIELD,

Chairman Board of Trustees.

Chicago, Oct. 28, 1901.

Chas. F. Mansfield, P.G.M.

Chairman Old Folks' Home Board, Mansfield, Ill.:

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER: Your request of the 24th is before me. The Grand Lodge should surely be protected against the imposition of having our Old Folks' Home farm or any part of it, included in a drainage district as such a district could do our farm, which is perfectly drained, no good but would actually injure it and entail upon us, in perpetuity, an unjust expense; therefore in compliance with your request, your Board is hereby authorized to arrange with Messrs. Andrews and Vause for our Grand Lodge to bear its proportionate share of the expense in the legal proceedings already started in our state and city courts, or that may be started in our federal courts, pending the coming session of our Grand Lodge on the 19th proximo. You will please acquaint Messrs. Andrews and Vause with this permission and aid them, so far as possible, in all necessary work hereby authorized or that may become necessary to resist the classification made by the commissioners and now awaiting confirmation.

Your Board will make a full report to the Grand Lodge of all actions under this permission and receive from it such farther instruction and authority as may be deemed proper. This permission is not to be construed as binding the Grand Lodge in any way for any expense or fees that may accrue or to be earned beyond the time of the coming session of our Grand Lodge.

Fraternally yours,

J. R. KEWLEY, Grand Master.

The Advisory Boards will report direct to the Rebekah Assembly and while their reports will contain matters of interest, not embraced in the reports of the regular Boards, yet as part of their reports duplicate that of the regular Boards we will not include them.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

There are a number of unfinished matters at this writing that will be given in a supplemental report, unless closed before the opening of your regular session.

CONCLUSION.

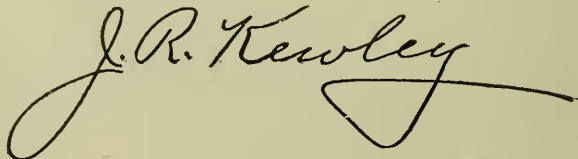

This report has become much more voluminous than was our intention, and yet there seems to be nothing that we could very well omit; we apologize for its great length, but trust that it, like a mirror, will reflect somewhat the work of our beloved Order during the past year and our present condition. We have done the best we could and regret more than any one can, the lack of time and talent to expend for the good of this, the greatest fraternity known to man; greatest in numbers, greatest in purpose and greatest in works of benevolence and humanity. During this administration we have been peculiarly blessed with a Fraternal Press, ever loyal and ready to help in the work and advancement of our Order; a corps of Grand Lodge officers, capable and ever willing to sacrifice time and convenience to extend a helping hand; Lodge Deputies and Official Instructors ever anxious to use for the lodges and the general Order, their best efforts, no sacrifice of time was too great, no request but was quickly responded to, no task but was quickly performed; indeed the entire brotherhood and sisterhood of this Grand Jurisdiction deserve and have my sincere thanks.

To Grand Secretary Miller, especially, thanks are due; to him I am indebted for wise counsel and able assistance both in and out of his office; no information sought but it was quickly found and sent me and with his able assistant and stenographer, few offices are as well kept as his; he has ever been ready to sacrifice his convenience and go any place in the state, where, by his eloquence and wisdom, he might be of help; it is no light thing to have an officer willing and capable of presenting our Order in its best phases to the public, and thus encourage men of intelligence and integrity to join us in our work.

To the President of the Assembly, Sister Eva R. Withey, my sincere thanks are due for her assistance and her devotion to the Rebekah branch of our Order, a branch that does so much for Odd Fellowship.

Again thanking you all for the great honor conferred upon me, and the confidence you have shown, I wish to assure the incoming Grand Master and this Grand Lodge, that in laying down the scepter of this high office and again joining the ranks, it will be my earnest desire and purpose to be ever ready to do all within my power, at any time when called upon, or opportunity presents itself, to further the best interests of our beloved Order.

Fraternally and sincerely yours,

Hon. J. R. Kewley, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Illinois:

The Trustees of the I.O.O.F. Old Folks' Home in presenting this, the fourth annual report, do it with that pleasure that fills all Odd Fellows' hearts, and while through the year that has just closed there have been many unpleasant things come before them, and yet it has been sweetened with that mellow influence of friendship which opens the door to our Brothers and Sisters; that love which removes all biased feeling and truth which elevates man to a loftier sphere of his existence. With all these objects in view it innerves us to push forward with this glorious work which this Grand Body has placed under our care.

HOSPITAL.

Your Board of Trustees, after reviewing many sketches and plans, decided they could not do justice to the Grand Lodge by erecting such a building as the appropriation would permit and therefore deferred its action until sufficient funds could be appropriated. The Home needs this Hospital very badly. There are some members suffering with chronic ailments and such ailments are of such a nature that they should be in separate apartments, where proper care and nursing could be given them. It is almost impossible to render such care in the main building and knowing the immediate necessity for the hospital, we would ask the Grand Lodge to grant the appropriation asked for by your Board of Trustees.

GARDEN.

Our Garden has produced an over abundance of vegetables this year. Mr. Henry De Buhr, the gardener, has wholesaled vegetables in the markets of Mattoon and Alton to the amount of $525.89, and also the Home has been furnished fresh vegetables each morning from the garden and the wholesale price of the same has been kept account of and amounts to $395.65. The excessive drouth has interfered greatly with this work, but we hope to be able next year, with our competent and efficient gardener, to receive a nice income from the same. The garden has produced the following: 160 bushels of Irish potatoes, 300 bushels of tomatoes, 100 dozen mangoes, 25 bushels of beets, 10 bushels of apples, 3,000 head of cabbage, 50 bushels of beans, 10 bushels of carrots, 10 bushels of parsnips, 200 bunches of oyster plant, 500 heads of cauliflower, 75 bushels of sweet corn, 100 bushels of turnips, 2,000 heads of lettuce, 2,000 bunches of radishes, 2,000 bunches of onions, 9 bushels onions for pickles, 15 bushels of sweet potatoes and 500 musk melons.

PLANTED FOR THE SEASON.

2,000 strawberry plants, 1,500 asparagus plants, 500 rhubarb plants, 75 plum trees, 75 grape vines, 300 horse radish plants.

FARM.

The Farm has been rented this year and we have received as rent, 250 bushels of new corn, 400 bushels of oats, 10 tons of oat straw, 100 shocks of choice fodder, and 24 acres of clover has been sown during the summer and looks very nice considering the dry summer.

STOCK AND FARMING IMPLEMENTS.

Four head of horses, 6 milch cows, 5 heifer calves, 15 brood sows, 10 sucking pigs, 1 boar, 300 chickens, 1 covered wagonette, 1 vegetable wagon, 1 farm wagon, 1 plow, 1 cultivator, 1 harrow, garden tools, 24 hot-bed sashes and 2 sets of harness.

FRUIT AND VEGETABLE CELLAR.

Our cellar contains the following fruits and vegetables: 167 quarts of tomatoes, 460 quarts of apples, 100 quarts of peaches, 20 quarts of plums, 50 quarts of cherries, 20 quarts of blackberries, 30 quarts of raspberries, 20 quarts of watermelon preserves, 12 quarts of beets, 12 quarts of gooseberries, 76 quarts of catsup, 84 quarts of chili sauce, 1 barrel sour kraut, $\frac{1}{2}$ barrel sour kraut, 7 bushels of pickled beans, 3 bushels of dried beans, 14 gallons pickled cucumbers, and 50 gallons pickled chow-chow.

The Home and its entire surroundings are in a fine condition. The sanitary condition is excellent, showing the Home to be healthy and fresh, pure air tempered with the proper amount of heat entering the sleeping and living apartments, renders it ideal summer and winter. The food is bountiful and of the proper kind, properly prepared and served at regular times and the regularity of this has made a marked improvement on the old brothers and sisters. This has been done under the close supervision of the Superintendent, D. E. Baldwin, and his assistant, Mrs. Kate Baldwin. They have complied most cheerfully with the requirements of the Board and the entire work of the past year has been satisfactory to the Board in every particular.

We have practiced strict economy in every department in a sufficient degree so as to not interfere with the good management and the welfare of the members of the Home and their interests.

The Advisory Board has lent a helping hand to a degree that they deserve great praise. Many suggestions of management have been accepted from them which proved to be of inestimable value.

We wish to thank the Rebekahs for their kindly donations to the Home, for such generous gifts have made the "Old Folks" happy in various ways.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to the President and Secretary of the Rebekah Assembly, the Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master and Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge for kindly advice and assistance extended to the Home. "The Odd Fellows Herald" and the "Illinois Odd Fellow" are also remembered for their kindly assistance.

Our needs are many. The hospital, laundry, bakery and greenhouse have not been provided for and we hope to see them erected this coming year.

In closing our annual report, we extend to all Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and friends our sincere thanks and trust that our labors for this noble work have not been in vain, but will be accepted by all, who may say, "Well done thou good and faithful servants."

This beautiful Home has been erected as a glowing monument to Odd Fellowship of the grand jurisdiction of the State of Illinois, and should be looked to with pride by all who cherish Friendship, Love and Truth, one of God's most noble works that was ever planted on earth and when the present generation has passed away may the coming say, We will build greater monuments to Odd Fellowship than our forefathers left to their memory.

Yours fraternally,

CHARLES F. MANSFIELD, Chairman.

WM. T. EASLEY, M. D., Secretary.

Dr. Henry Goebel, Lincoln.....	Dentist
To J. R. Kewley, Grand Master of Illinois:

Every public officer, every person in whom a great trust has been reposed, should at least once a year fully report all their acts and doings to those entitled to know how their business has been conducted. Such is the law of Odd Fellowship, and in obedience to that law, the Board of Directors of our Orphans' Home beg leave to report to you, and through you to the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Illinois, the manner in which they have conducted the Home during the past year, hoping that our work will receive only such commendation as it deserves.

"The Orphans' Home" and "The Old Folks' Home" are now considered by our Order as the crowning glory of Odd Fellowship. Here the Friendship of David and Jonathan and the Love of the Good Samaritan have crystallized into a loving service that "angels would not—nay, do not—scorn to perform."

We fully realize, Grand Master, the great importance of the work the Grand Lodge has entrusted to us—the expenditure of several thousand dollars each year, the supervision of property now worth more than $100,000, and the care and oversight of one hundred and fifty small children is a work of much importance, and a responsibility calculated to make men pause and reflect before undertaking it. We have done the best we could, and our greatest pleasure lies in the fact that the past year has been a pleasant and a profitable one, and we are happy at this time to report to you that "we are all well."

A good many changes have taken place in the Home during the past year; quite a number of our older children—children who have been with us for several years, and whom we had learned to love—have gone from us into the world to fight their own battles, and win their own victories; some of them have gone to a surviving parent and several into good positions. We now have several Alumni—some who have been out of the Home for several years, and it gives us great pleasure to report that all of them are doing well. They seem to realize that fifty thousand Odd Fellows and twenty-five thousand Rebekahs are watching them and bidding them "God speed."

At the date of report in 1900, we had in the Home 140 children. During the past year we have discharged 25 and received 17, making the number in the Home at this writing 132. Three of these—Beulah Haines, Minnie Echle and Clara Braden—are attending High school in Lincoln; 29 are in the primary room; 45 in the intermediate room and 47 in the grammar room of our Home school, and 8 are too small as yet to attend school.

Below is given the name of each child now in the Home, with its age at the time it was received in our Home, the date received, where from, and the name and number of the lodge of which the parent was a member:

HOW TO GAIN ADMITTANCE.

Lodges or guardians wishing to place in the Home children who are eligible to its benefits, should apply to the Superintendent at Lincoln for a blank form of application, this to be filled and signed by the guardian and lodge (under seal) of which the father was a member at the time of his death. The application should then be returned to the Superintendent, who will present it to the Board of Directors for consideration at their first meeting thereafter. Parties presenting applications will be notified as soon as practicable of the result.

All applications coming before the Board are carefully considered as their individual merits demand.

Each child received is expected to come with at least one change of clothing.

CASH DONATIONS, ETC.

Below is given in detail, the cash receipts by donations and otherwise, during the year. There have been the usual number of valuable articles donated as in former years, but the persons and lodges sending them, have all received an acknowledgment of them, and the list has been published, from time to time, in The Odd Fellows' Herald and Illinois Odd Fellow, and as the articles are so numerous, we do not deem it necessary to again enumerate them.

FARM, ORCHARD AND GARDEN.

Receipts.

Our farm now consists of 77 acres. As directed by the Grand Lodge, at the last session, we purchased the tract of land lying directly south of our Home forty, consisting of 37-43 100 acres, for which we paid $200 an acre, or $7,486.

There were about three acres in the corner of this forty, that we could not get a perfect title to, and did not buy it.

One-half of this purchase price was paid last year; the balance—$3,743, with one year's interest on same at 6 per cent—being $224.58, will be due about January 12, 1902, and the Grantors reserved in their deed to the Grand Lodge, a vendor's lien on the land to secure the last payment. This note has a credit of $37.43, being the interest on same from its date to March 1, 1900.

This land is a most valuable addition to our farm, and will soon assist much in the support of the Home. The present season, the exceedingly dry and hot weather greatly injured our crops, as it did all others, and for this reason our receipts will not seem so large from the farm as they otherwise would. Below, we take pleasure in giving you a detailed statement of the receipts from the Farm, Garden and Orchard as near as we can estimate it.

425 bushels potatoes.	15 bushels pop corn
25 bushels sweet potatoes	100 bushels turnips
10 bushels parsnips	38 bushels pears
39 bushels beans	50 bushels cherries
85 bushels beets	50 bushels peaches
200 bushels carrots.	40 bushels grapes
710 head cabbage	500 quarts strawberries.
32 bushels cucumbers.	250 quarts currants.
60 bushels lettuce	40 quarts gooseberries.
45 bushels radishes	45 quarts raspberries
285 muskmelons	60 quarts blackberries.
125 watermelons	14 tons timothy hay.
315 dozen bunches rhubarb	140 bushels corn.
970 dozen bunches onion sets (green.)	200 shocks corn fodder.
20 bushels sweet corn

2 horses.	21 shoats.
13 cows.	1 boar.
1 bull.	9 brood sows.
2 heifers.	200 chickens.

The reasonable cash value of which is about $1,400.00.

Insurance.

The insurance on our property is the same as in our last report. What policies expired during the year have been re-written.

OUR BUILDINGS.

We now have eight buildings, having completed our cellar and cold storage building since our last report, and it has proven to be a most valuable building, and is substantial enough to last us many years. Our needs, so far as buildings are concerned, are supplied for the present, but we find it necessary to make a good many repairs each year, and to do considerable painting in order to keep them in good condition.

Jas R. Miller
Grand Secretary.

Our main building and cottages were considerably damaged by a very severe wind storm that passed over us in June. The damage, aside from that done our fruit trees, was repaired at a cost of about $100.00 and are all now in fair condition.

PER CAPITA.

The average number of children in the Home the past year has been about one hundred and thirty-five and our expenditures for the support of the Home has been $18,583, making the cost per capita about $136.17. In computing this cost per capita, we have not included the cost of building new building, or of repairing our present ones.

OUR SCHOOL WORK.

Our schools are in a very prosperous condition. Our teachers are doing most excellent work. The children are all deeply interested and are certainly making splendid progress. The work of our school rooms is not excelled, and we do not believe that it is equalled by the average public school in the state. We are more than pleased with it, and can assure you, Grand Master, and every member of this Order, that we are faithfully obeying the commands of Odd Fellowship in "educating the orphan." We would be glad, indeed, if every member of our Order in the state could visit our neat, cosy school rooms, and observe the work we are doing.

Owing to the fact that the majority of older children had been returned to homes, provided by guardians or others, there were no graduates last June, excepting Anna Culley, who graduated with full honors from the High school of Lincoln, receiving a diploma.

HEALTH.

During the early spring months, an epidemic of measles broke out in our midst, and over seventy cases were treated. While no children, with but one or two exceptions, were critically ill, many dregs of the disease have been manifest since, such as ear and eye trouble, which has swelled our doctor's bill to much larger proportions during the past year than any previous. The general health of the children has been most excellent.

"OUR BAND."

Our band boys deserve special mention; they have been doing splendid work the past year. Most of them are quite young, and new members. The older members have gone out from the Home. The Patriarchs Militant of Illinois extended to them a kind invitation to attend the Sovereign Grand Lodge at Indianapolis, which they did. The Patriarchs paying all expenses and the boys acquitted themselves in a splendid manner and created much enthusiasm by their playing and their presence. The boys have purchased nice uniforms and have already paid for them. All moneys contributed for the use of the band and all the money they make playing, is kept in a separate fund, and it is hoped they will soon be able to do much toward paying for their musical instruction as well as buy their instruments. They are in great demand by the lodges and the Superintendent has let them go as often as she thought best. They create a great interest in our work wherever they go, and we deem it an important feature of the Home. The band now has a membership of 15, with 13 instruments, and are under the care of Prof. Eaton, of Lincoln.

IN MEMORIAM.

The angel of death has taken from earth the past year two of our former children, Bertha Beck and Ellis Campbell.

Bertha Beck came to the Home through Douglas Lodge No. 432, of Chicago, in 1894, and remained with us until 1898, about four years. She was a full orphan, a good girl and was loved by all who knew her. She possessed a good mind, a true, loving heart and a sweet disposition, and we were all sad to hear that the light of her young life went out so early. She died at the home of her sister in Chicago.

Ellis Campbell entered the Home Aug. 29, 1896. He too was a full orphan, whose father died a member of Fairland Lodge No. 791. Ellis left the Home in July, 1897, and died after a lingering illness July 6, 1901, at the home of an older brother in Carmaga. Ellis was an industrious, ambitious boy, and mourned by many friends, and none more sincerely than those who knew him in the Home.

WEDDING BELLS.

It is with pleasure that we report to you the marriage of three of our former girls—Lucile Meredith, Dora Gilleland and Ida Voight.

Miss Meredith during the past year was married to Dr. H. W. East, and now resides at Xenia, Illinois; Miss Gilleland was married to Mr. Amando Cespedes, and now resides in San Jose, Costa Rica, Central America; Miss Voight has not as yet reported her marriage, and we regret that we are not able to give her present name and address. We are pleased to report that all three have married well, and now have pleasant, happy homes of their own. These three "girls" will be remembered by very many Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, and we know the entire membership of our Order joins us in extending to them our hearty congratulations and well wishes for their future happiness.

OUR THANKS.

Our thanks are again due to the many lodges and individuals that have remembered us in a substantial way during the past year. Your "girls of love" have cheered us and encouraged us, and made each member of our family to feel that there were many interested in our welfare, and we trust these gifts may be as "Bread cast upon the waters" that will return in due season to the generous donors. The Odd Fellows Herald and Illinois Odd Fellow have again placed us under obligations to them, for their zeal and interest in our behalf, and we desire to publicly thank them.

To our Superintendent, Sister Morrison, we also return our thanks, once more, for her patient, painstaking labors in behalf of our children. The excellent health and good conduct of our children speak in higher praise of her services than any words of ours can do.

To our teachers, and to all our assistants, we desire to extend our thanks, for their faithful work, during the year; for to them we owe much for the success we have earned, for, without any exception, we believe all have faithfully performed the duties assigned them.

IN CONCLUSION.

It will be seen from our report that vouchers, numbered 1386 to 1401, both inclusive, have been cancelled. These vouchers were, by mistake, issued to the individual members on our pay roll, when it is our custom to include them all in one, which was afterwards done, and the sum total of them was included in No. 1385.

Hoping and trusting, Grand Master, that our administration of this trust, during the past year, will meet with your approval, and with the approval of the entire Order, we remain,

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

J. O. HUMPHREY,
M. P. BERRY,

REPORT OF GRAND SECRETARY.

To the Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

DEAR BROTHERS: Complying with the laws and duties governing the office, I herewith submit to you a report, including a statement of the financial business of the office, a summary of the membership and tabulated statements representing the various subjects of interest placed in charge of the Grand Secretary.

The Grand Lodge, as well as the membership of the different branches of the Order in our jurisdiction, may be congratulated on the encouraging and gratifying results attained during the year just closed.

The institution of thirteen subordinate lodges and twenty-three Rebekah Lodges, with a marked and gratifying increase of membership, attest the value of the good work performed, and the popular recognition of the worth of Odd Fellowship as a ministering agency to the needs of society and to the necessities of humanity.

Never in the history of the Order in this state has there been greater reason for rejoicing in the general favorable and prosperous conditions of Odd Fellowship than at present. A large increase in membership, a reduced capitation tax, an ample amount of money to meet all the demands of the Order, the two Homes in a prosperous, healthy and happy condition, with the most kindly and fraternal spirit pervading the whole membership, we could expect nothing but success in the great work of Friendship, Love and Truth, and the greater harvest of Faith, Hope and Charity.

TRUSTEES OF THE ORPHANS' AND OLD FOLKS' HOMES.

All bills allowed by the two Boards of Trustees are forwarded to me with an attached certificate signed by the President and Secretary of the Board and countersigned by the Grand Master. These bills and vouchers are kept on file in my office for future reference, and orders on the Grand Treasurer are drawn for the several amounts. Upon these vouchers the Grand Master and myself have drawn orders on the Grand Treasurer for the sum of $12,215.61 to pay bills contracted by the Trustees of the Old Folks' Home, and the sum of $25,175.99 to pay bills contracted by the Trustees of the Orphans' Home, making a total disbursement for these two charities of the sum of $37,391.60.

JUDICIARY AND APPEALS COMMITTEE.

As Secretary of the Judiciary and Appeals Committee, I report that four sessions of this committee were held, as provided by law, on the third Tuesdays of November, 1900, February, May and August of the present year. At the November session five opinions were rendered and the by-laws from forty-nine Subordinate and thirteen Rebekah Lodges were acted upon. At the February session four opinions were rendered and the by-laws from fifty Subordinate and five Rebekah Lodges were acted upon. At the May session eight opinions were rendered and the by-laws from thirty-seven Subordinate and five Rebekah Lodges were acted upon. At the August session nine opinions were rendered and the by-laws from thirty Subordinate and three Rebekah Lodges acted upon—making a total of twenty-six opinions rendered and 192 codes of by-laws acted upon.

GRAND LODGE JOURNAL OF 1900.

The Grand Lodge Journal for the session of 1900 consisted of 437 pages, being ten pages larger than the Journal of the previous year.

To arrange copy, read proof and index the Grand Lodge Journal requires the entire time of a thoroughly competent person, whom we have for several years secured in the person of Bro. Past Grand Secretary N. C. Nason. As has been the rule of this office for many years, the journal was delivered to all Subordinate Lodges and Representatives in a little more than thirty days after adjournment.

ABSTRACT OF REPORTS OF REBEKAH LODGES.

Formerly all report blanks for Rebekah Lodges were sent out by the Grand Secretary and capitation tax was remitted to him as well as all supplies for Rebekah Lodges being furnished by him. It would seem to be the policy of this branch of the Order to detach itself from the Grand Lodge so far as the business is concerned and I think it wise to do so. All blanks of whatsoever kind as well as all lodge supplies are now furnished by the Secretary of the Assembly. In the Grand Lodge Journal of 1900, pages 374 to 393, inclusive, constitutes an abstract of Rebekah Lodge reports. This is matter which properly belongs in the proceedings of the Rebekah Assembly and I see no reason why it should be duplicated in the Grand Lodge Journal, thus entailing a great deal of labor and considerable expense to the Grand Lodge. It is practically impossible to abstract them to agree exactly with the figures made by the Secretary of the Assembly for the reason that the reports received at this office are not in many cases duplicates of those sent to the Secretary of the Assembly. I would recommend that the publication of this abstract be discontinued in the Grand Lodge Journal.

DONATIONS.

My report shows in detail all moneys received for the Orphans' Home, the Old Folks' Home, the Orphans' Home Endowment Fund, and the Old Folks' Home Endowment Fund. These four accounts have added largely to the work of this office. Many of these remittances have been as small as ten cents, and when it is remembered that every amount, however small, requires a receipt, must be entered in detail on our books and posted to ledger accounts, properly indexed, etc., an idea of the labor involved can be had, added to which is the further fact that in many cases it is almost impossible to read the names of the donors, the reports being made out with pencil and poorly written. A large per cent of these donations are sent with no instructions as to the account for which they should be credited.

GALVESTON SUFFERERS.

After my report for the year 1900 was closed, I received the sum of $117.50 donated by lodges for the Galveston sufferers. I forwarded it to Grand Secretary G. C. Fahm with instructions. Later the amount was returned, together with a draft for $2,044.14, being a rebate of one-half of the donations previously sent him. These amounts were turned over to the Grand Treasurer and are now in the general fund, but since the contributions were given for special relief it would seem that this amount should be transferred to the Special Relief Fund of the Grand Lodge to be held in readiness for future needs. The generosity of the Order was never more forcibly demonstrated than in the giving for the relief of distress occasioned by the Galveston disaster.

GRAND SECRETARY'S OFFICE.

On Dec. 26, 1896, by instructions from the Grand Lodge, the present quarters occupied by the Grand Secretary were leased for a term of five years at a rental of $600.00 per year. The present offices are very commodious and pleasant and the rent reasonable, as compared with other buildings in the city. The building is in no sense a fire proof building, as we have none such in the city. Insurance to the amount of $3,000.00 is carried on Grand Lodge property, which expires Feb. 25, 1902. This, however, would not replace the accumulated stock of Grand Lodge journals and other property.

ANNUAL AND SEMI-ANNUAL REPORTS.

The annual and semi-annual blanks for lodge reports are printed to conform with the requirements of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, to which we make an annual report. We are required to show the following receipts and expenditures: Receipts for dues, receipts from admissions and degrees, receipts from rents and invested funds, receipts from all other sources, disbursements for the relief of brothers, relief of widowed families, relief of orphans, education of orphans, burying the dead, and special relief. In order that lodge reports may be abstracted to conform with these requirements all receipts and disbursements must come under these heads. The creation of an Orphans' Home account, an Old Folks' Home account, an Orphans' Home Endowment Fund and an Old Folks' Home Endowment Fund are matters of local law. These funds are built up by contributions from lodges, individual members, proceeds of excursions, festivals, suppers, dances, collections, mite boxes, etc. These funds, as a rule, do not go through the regular channels of the lodges, and consequently are not officially reported to this office. For this reason the abstract of lodge reports does not show all of the money given for these purposes, but by consulting the detailed report of the Grand Secretary, and the reports of the Orphans' and Old Folks' Homes full information can be had.

DONATIONS TO THE ORPHANS' AND OLD FOLKS' HOMES.

Following is a detailed list of the donations received by me during the past year as Grand Secretary, to be placed to the credit of the Orphans' Home account, the Orphans' Home Endowment account, the Old Folks' Home account and the Old Folks' Home Endowment account:

AMENDMENTS TO THE GRAND LODGE CONSTITUTION OF ILLINOIS APPROVED BY THE SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE.

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on Constitutions have examined the amendments to the Constitution of the Grand Lodge of Illinois and recommend their approval.

Signed by the Committee.

Your committee therefore recommend the adoption of the following new article to the Grand Lodge Constitution, to be known as Article ten (X):

"Aged Odd Fellows' Fund and Relief," Section 1. This Grand Lodge shall create, maintain and disburse an Aged Odd Fellows' Fund under the following provisions:

Sec. 2. Hereafter, all assets of all Subordinate Lodges whose charters have been surrendered shall be placed to the credit of a fund to be called and known as "Aged Odd-Fellows' Fund."

Sec. 3. The Grand Secretary shall keep a register to be known as the "Aged Odd Fellows' Register."

Sec. 4. Any Odd Fellow over 50 years of age, who has been in continuous membership for twenty-five (25) years or over, and whose Subordinate lodge shall surrender its charter, and who would under the laws of the Grand Lodge be entitled to receive a Grand Lodge Card, may petition the Grand Lodge to place his name on the Aged Odd-Fellows' Register. Said petition shall be accompanied with a certificate from the Grand Secretary, setting forth the actual standing of the applicant at the time his lodge surrendered its charter. Upon such petition being granted by this Grand Lodge, the Grand Secretary shall place the name of such petitioner upon the Aged Odd-Fellows' Register.

Sec. 5. Any Odd-Fellow enrolled according to the above provisions may apply for admission to any Subordinate Lodge under the conditions hereinafter set forth.

Sec. 6. Any Odd Fellow enrolled upon the Aged Odd-Fellows' Register may be admitted to membership in a Subordinate Lodge; he shall pay to the Grand Secretary, through the Lodge to which he has been admitted, an admission fee of five dollars ($5.00), and shall pay as dues the sum of five dollars and twenty cents ($5.20) per year. Said admission fee and dues shall be placed to the credit of the Aged Odd-Fellows' Fund.

Sec. 7. Any Odd Fellow enrolled as above in a Subordinate Lodge as herein provided, who becomes sick or disabled, so as to be incapable of earning a livelihood, shall receive from the Grand Secretary, through the lodge to which the brother has been admitted, the sum of two dollars ($2.00) weekly benefits so long as the money collected under the provisions of this article shall permit the payment of the same.

Sec. 8. The Secretary of the Lodge shall immediately notify the Grand Secretary, in all cases of sickness or disability referred to in the preceding section, of their commencement and termination; and the Grand Secretary shall notify the lodges having members on the Aged Odd-Fellows' Register when the said fund shall be depleted.

Sec. 9. A member of a Subordinate Lodge admitted under the above provisions shall not be entitled to vote or speak on any question involving a disposition of the funds or property of the Lodge, but shall be entitled to receive the attentive benefits of the lodge. Also, he shall be liable to watch with the sick members of said lodge.

Sec. 10. Upon the death of an Aged Odd-Fellow enrolled as above, and who shall be entitled to the benefits of this fund, there shall be paid as a funeral expense the sum of $35.00 so long as the moneys collected under the provisions of the Aged Odd-Fellows' Fund shall permit the payment.

Sec. 11. No Lodge receiving such members as above provided shall be liable for the payment of any sick benefits or funeral expenses to or on account of such members, nor shall any such member be required to pay any dues or assessments to such Subordinate Lodge, except for the benefit of the Aged Odd-Fellows' Fund.

Change present Article X, "Amendments," to become XI.

ARTICLE VI, SECTION 10.

"Section 10. The Committee on Mileage and Per Diem shall report the number of miles necessarily traveled by the shortest traveled route by each Grand Officer and Representative and member of the various Grand Lodge committees, the number of days' attendance of same, and the amount due to each. The committee shall make its estimate by allowing five cents mileage one way, and two dollars per diem."

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The following proposed changes in law were introduced at the Annual Session, 1900, to be acted upon in 1901:

DOCUMENT NO. 67.

Resolved, That Article VIII, Section 1, of the Constitution of the Grand Lodge, be repealed and amended to read "that the Grand Lodge shall meet annually on the second Tuesday in October."

DOCUMENT NO. 92.

ARTICLE XI.—GENERAL RELIEF COMMITTEES.

"Sec. 1. This Grand Lodge hereby authorizes the formation of General Relief Committees in towns or cities in which are located two or more Subordinate Lodges. Said General Relief Committees shall be vested with all the power and authority to carry out, so far as may be, the requirements for relief found to exist in their several jurisdictions, for the maintenance of which they shall have authority to receive contributions from the lodges which may decide to belong to such General Relief Committees, also from individuals.

"Sec. 2. The lodges, or a majority of the same, located in any town or city may petition the Grand Master for a dispensation to organize a General Relief Committee; and if said petition complies with this section, then the Grand Master shall grant the dispensation.

"Sec. 3. Each Subordinate Lodge in the town or city applying for said dispensation shall be entitled to elect two (2) representatives as members of said General Relief Committee, said representatives to serve one year, and to be elected at the regular election of officers in the month of September.

"Sec. 4. The officers of said General Relief Committee shall consist of a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, who shall be elected from the representatives at the last regular meeting in the month of October, and shall hold office for one (1) year.

"Sec. 5. The same restrictions are hereby placed upon said General Relief Committees in the giving of entertainments as are placed upon Subordinate Lodges under dispensations for like purposes.

"Sec. 6. Nothing contained in this article shall be so construed as to divest Subordinate Lodges of their rights or prerogatives in the case of assistance and relief of sojourning members of the Order, or to compel the formation of such Relief Committees."

Change present "Article XI" to "Article XII."

DOCUMENT NO. 82.

Resolved, That Section 1 of Article 1, of the Grand Lodge Constitution for Rebekah Lodges of Illinois, be amended to read as follows:

"This lodge shall be constituted by not less than five members, irrespective of sex, including one qualified to preside at its meetings: Provided, that the application shall be approved by at least two-thirds of the Rebekah Lodges at such place, and shall be hailed and entitled ————— Rebekah Lodge, No. —, I.O.O.F., of the State of Illinois."

Case No. 270.

Macon Lodge No. 687 }
vs. } Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals,
Daniel Kalips. } February Session, 1901.

Opinion by Bro. Alfred Orendorff, of No. 465.

In this case charges were preferred against Daniel Kalips, a member of Macon Lodge No. 687, accusing him of abusing the Noble Grand in open lodge and cursing and abusing a brother on the streets.

The records show that the accused in proper time applied for a change of venue, and that the lodge refused to consider the same, the lodge erroneously claiming that an application should have been signed by three members of the lodge.

The application for a change of venue should have been forwarded to the Grand Master and the effect of its filing was to suspend all action by the lodge, in the case, until the order of the Grand Master thereon was received by the lodge.

Instead of complying with the plain requirement of the law, the lodge proceeded with the trial and expelled the brother.

The offense charged is a serious one, and the brother, if proven guilty, should be adequately punished, but the Order has thrown around every brother the protection of its humane provisions, one of which is the right to apply for a change of venue, and have the same acted upon by the Grand Master. Its denial in this case deprived the brother of a substantial right and for this reason the case should be reversed.

It is therefore ordered that the appeal of Bro. Daniel Kalips be sustained, that his expulsion be set aside, and that all the acts in this trial subsequent to the application for a change of venue be set aside, that Macon Lodge No. 687 is ordered to forward the application of Bro. Daniel Kalips for a change of venue to the Grand Master, and that upon receipt of the order of the Grand Master, the trial on the charges and specifications herein be proceeded with in accordance with the law governing such cases.

Case No. 271.

Rebekah Assembly
vs.
Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F. } Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, February Session, 1901.

Opinion by Bro. Henry Phillips, of No. 16.

To Bro. J. R. Kewley, Grand Master I. O. O. F., Illinois:

Dear Sir and Brother: You submit to this committee for its consideration and opinion the question, "What are your rights, duties and obligation as to charters and property of Rebekah Lodges which have in any manner become defunct by surrender of charter or otherwise?"

By an amendment to the "act for the incorporation of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and the subordinate lodges thereunto belonging," passed by the legislature, approved Feb. 16, 1865, and accepted by the Grand Lodge at its session in 1865, it is provided:

Sec. 2. In case any subordinate lodge, under the jurisdiction of said Grand Lodge, shall cease to exist or forfeit its charter, then all the estate, real and personal, together with all the records, books, papers, vouchers, furniture, jewels and seals belonging to said lodge shall immediately vest in said Grand Lodge; and all personal property, books, records, papers, vouchers, jewels, seals, furniture, deeds, money, evidences of debt, leases or mortgages belonging to said lodge so forfeiting its charter or ceasing to exist, shall be delivered over by its last Secretary, Treasurer or Trustees of the same, or other person or persons having custody of them, to the proper officer or agent of said Grand Lodge on demand, and the person or persons holding or having in their possession such funds or property failing to do this, each and every such person shall be liable to the said Grand Lodge in an action of debt for the value of the same. See Thornton Code, page 187, Section 2.

It is provided by the laws of the Grand Lodge of Illinois "that in all cases where a lodge shall have been suspended or expelled or its charter shall have been forfeited, the charter, funds, books, properties and effects of all kind, shall revert to the Grand Lodge, and it shall be the duty of the last installed officers of such lodge to deliver immediately to the Grand Master, or the brother deputized by him to receive them, such funds and other effects as the lodge may have claim to." See section 2 of By-laws of Grand Lodge, page 27 of the Book of Constitutions.

The Constitution for Rebekah Lodges provides as follows: "The laws controlling this lodge shall be the laws, rules, usages and general regulations of the Order, the Constitution of this lodge and other laws for their government enacted by the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, and the By-laws of this lodge not inconsistent therewith. The laws of the subordinate lodge and the decisions thereon by the Grand and the Sovereign Grand Lodge shall so far as applicable, control in the government of this Rebekah Lodge in all cases not specially provided for by the laws of the Rebekah branch of the Order." See Section 1, Article 13.

"This lodge shall forfeit its charter if it fails to comply with the requisitions and laws of the Grand Lodge, and in such case it shall be the duty of the last installed officers to comply with the provisions of the first and second sections of Article 2 of the By-laws of the Grand Lodge." See Constitution for Rebekah Lodges, Article 13, Sections 1 and 2, Book of Constitutions.

By the action of the Sovereign Grand Lodge at its session in Detroit in 1899, it is provided "that such property as comes from defunct lodges, who are directly subordinate to this Sovereign Grand Lodge, be at the discretionary disposal of the Grand Sire and Grand Secretary, likewise that such property coming from defunct lodges to a Grand Lodge be at the disposal of the Grand Master and Grand Secretary of such jurisdiction." See Sovereign Grand Lodge Journal, 1899, page 327, number 68.

From the foregoing extracts from the Constitution, both of the Grand Lodge of the State and the Rebekah branch of the Order and the act of incorporation, followed, as it is, by the action of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, we take it as being the settled law of the Order that the title and the possession of all property of every kind of any defunct lodge immediately vests in and becomes the property of the Grand Lodge, and it becomes the duty of the Grand Lodge to retain possession of such property for the reason that under the law a defunct lodge may be again revived, and if so, is by the law entitled to receive back its charter and its property.

There seems to be no limit to the time that this forfeited property should be held.

It is the opinion of this committee, so far as property interests at least are concerned, that all Rebekah Lodges are to all intents and purposes Subordinate Lodges, governed by and liable to the same laws and obligations that Subordinate Lodges are.

At the last session of the Grand Lodge of this state a resolution was adopted by the Assembly and approved by the Grand Lodge, by which all the effects and assets of Rebekah Lodges, surrendering their charters should be converted into cash and placed in the Assembly treasury.

We are fully satisfied that such action of the Grand Lodge was improvidently taken, and that the same is unconstitutional and void, and that the assets and property of a Rebekah Lodge, which has for any reason become defunct or surrendered its charter, pass into the hands and control of the Grand Lodge, and are to be held and disposed of in the same manner as the assets and property of a Subordinate Lodge, and that the Grand Master and Grand Secretary have no authority to convert the same into cash and place the proceeds thereof into the Assembly treasury.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY PHILLIPS,
ALFRED ORENDORFF,
HENRY A. STONE.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SECOND SESSION.

May 21, 1901.

Case No. 268.

Hazel Dell Lodge No. 410, I. O. O. F., } Before Committee on Judiciary vs. } ary and Appeals, May Ses-
Bro. A. A. Meeker. } sion, 1901.

Opinion by Bro. Duncan McDougall, of No. 41.

The records in this case are presented in such shape that the Committee might well decline to consider it.

There are three packages of papers apparently the original evidence taken in the case, but uncertified. There is another package of papers purporting to be minutes of the lodge record, affixed to which is a certificate by the Commissioner that it is a correct copy of the evidence taken before him. There is also among the papers what purports to be the original charges, but there is no certificate affixed thereto. We also find among the papers what purports to be the record of the vote of acquittal upon each of the seven charges upon trial, had in some lodge to which a change of venue had been taken, but this certificate is merely signed "R. L. Cramer, Sec.," and there is affixed a seal, but of what lodge we are unable to determine, nor is there anything connected with the papers to show from what lodge it emanates.

There also appears among the papers what purports to be the original notice of appeal in this case, but there is no evidence that it was ever presented to the lodge. It is signed T. J. Laymon, W. E. Henry and H. L. Flint, but there is nothing in the notice of appeal, nor is there any other evidence before us, that these persons are members of Hazel Dell Lodge No. 410, or even that they are members of the Order; true, the seal of Hazel Dell Lodge No. 410 is affixed, but no certificate. We are informed by the Grand Secretary that due and timely notice was sent to the Secretary of Hazel Dell Lodge No. 410 to send up record of this case and that no attention was given to such notice.

However, waiving all these informalities and assuming that what purport to be the original charges are such, we find such charges to be wholly insufficient upon which to place Bro. Meeker on trial. The charges are in the words and figures following, to-wit:

"We, the investigating committee, on complaint filed against Bro. A. A. Meeker, of Hazel Dell Lodge No. 410, I. O. O. F., working under the jurisdiction of the state of Illinois, do hereby find the following charges:

"1st. For not keeping accurate minutes between this lodge and its members without prejudice or partiality.

"2d. For making false record and false report.

"3d. That he did attempt to disfigure the record of the lodge.

"4th. Was guilty of getting mad in open lodge.

"5th. That he refused to answer communications as directed to by the lodge.

"6th. For attempting to wrong the lodge out of its funds.

"7th. For making false statement concerning the counting up of the finance report."

Then follows a list of the names of twelve witnesses, and then the signatures, H. L. Flint, Chas. Yelton, Will Kelly, investigating committee.

It will be seen by reference to Thornton's Illinois Code of 1896, Sec. 1872, that: "The charges should state the offenses in general terms and the specifications give details showing where, when, and in what way the offenses were committed. It is not necessary to give the evidence, but a sufficient number of facts should be stated to fully inform the accused of the particular transaction concerning which he is to be tried. The charge may be a single one, with either one or more specifications." Also by reference to Sec. 1873: "Charges and specifications must not be vague, but must be certain and definite."

No reasonable effort was made in this case to make the charges conform to these clear requirements of the Code. Seven distinct charges are made in the most general terms, and no specifications showing where, when and in what way the offenses were committed are made under either charge.

Certainly these charges are neither certain nor definite, but vague and uncertain as to all the details necessary to apprise the brother of the specific matters upon which he was to be tried.

We see no sufficient reason why the acquittal of Bro. A. A. Meeker by the lodge, by which he was tried, should be disturbed.

We therefore affirm the judgment of "not guilty," and dismiss the appeal.

Case No. 269.

S. C. McCauley	}	Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals. May Session, 1901.
vs. Noble Lodge No. 482.

Opinion by Bro. Henry Phillips, of No. 16.

From the records in this case, it appears that Bro. McCauley was taken sick on the first of July, 1900, and on the 3d day of July was visited by his physician, who prescribed for him and left medicine sufficient for several days, and afterwards sent him more medicine. The doctor found Bro. McCauley sick in bed with rheumatism, unable to attend to his work. On the 3d day of July, the Vice Grand of the lodge was notified of Bro. McCauley's sickness, and on the 7th day of July, at request of the Noble Grand, visited Bro. McCauley, and as a result of his report, Bro. McCauley was taken off the sick list on the 10th day of July by order of the Noble Grand, who had placed Bro. McCauley on the sick list at the first meeting of the lodge in July.

We have nothing before us to show what are the provisions of the By-laws of Noble Lodge concerning payment of benefits. The claim is made for one week's benefits at three dollars. We have no doubt as to the right of Bro. McCauley to one week's sick benefits from July 1 to the 10th, provided the By-laws of the lodge permit benefits for the first week's sickness, at the rate per week provided by such by-laws.

The evidence clearly sustains this conclusion. For the reason that no By-laws of Noble Lodge are in the record, we can say nothing further.

Case No. 273.

Joe Wilcox et al. }
vs. } Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals.
Lorraine Lodge No. 641. } May Session, 1901.

Opinion by Bro. Henry Phillips, of No. 16.

By the records before us it appears that charges were duly preferred against Bro. Hedrick, and a commissioner appointed to take evidence upon the same, and evidence was taken: That at a regular session of said lodge on February 2, 1901, the case of Bro. Hedrick was called and the attorney for the defendant, Bro. Hedrick, made a motion that the case be dismissed, which motion was carried and cause dismissed.

From the action of the lodge an appeal was attempted to be taken to this Committee. Under a misapprehension of the law no doubt, the notice of appeal was never presented or filed with the lodge, so far as the record shows, but was sent direct to the Grand Master, and was by him sent to the Grand Secretary for the purpose evidently of coming before this Committee. The law is very plain that the notice for an appeal must be filed or presented to the lodge, and if this is not done, we hold that there is no appeal taken.

As the time has now passed in which an appeal can be taken, the action of the lodge must evidently stand, and as this Committee for reasons above stated, has no jurisdiction of the case, the attempted appeal is dismissed.

Case No. 274.

Advance Lodge No. 590 }
vs. } Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals.
Frank E. Bemis. } May Session, 1901.

Opinion by Bro. Henry A. Stone, of No. 122.

This is an appeal taken by Frank E. Bemis from the action of Advance Lodge No. 590 in expelling him from the Order, on the charge of embezzling the funds of Ark Encampment No. 143, which he failed to pay over to said Encampment when called upon to do so, and after his office as Treasurer had been declared vacant, and his bondsmen were called upon and paid the amount of his shortage.

From all the evidence before this Committee, we are unanimous in the opinion that the action of the lodge be sustained.

Ruling: Appeal dismissed and action of lodge sustained.

Case No. 276.

A. F. Neiman et al.	}	Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals. May Session, 1901.
vs.
Dove Lodge No. 600.

Opinion by Bro. Charles S. Thornton, of No. 858.

Your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals has considered the evidence offered in the case of A. F. Neiman et al vs. Dove Lodge No. 600 and finds that Bro. Frank Cressler, of Dove Lodge No. 600, of this jurisdiction, became ill prior to June 8, 1899, and so continued until Dec. 21, 1900, when he died.

The Visiting Committee of the lodge investigated and reported in favor of allowing seventy-nine weeks of sick benefits and the lodge accepted and approved of this report.

We see no reason why the finding and action of the lodge should be disturbed and we therefore dismiss the appeal and affirm the action of the lodge.

Case No. 277.

Stephen Yanka	}	Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals. May Session, 1901.
vs.
Divernon Lodge No. 200.

Opinion by Bro. Alfred Orendorff, of No. 465.

In this case Bro. Stephen Yanka, a member of Divernon Lodge No. 200, claims sick benefits for three weeks on account of an injury received by having his third finger mashed, by being caught between two cars, so as to incapacitate him from following his usual occupation of mining.

The evidence shows two of the members of the lodge thought the injury was not sufficiently severe to render the lodge liable for benefits and so testified. The brother who received the wound claimed that he was, on account of his injury, unable to use a pick in the mines, and that that was his usual business. He presented a certificate from a practicing physician of Divernon, which states that he professionally attended the brother at his office commencing on the 7th day of November and ending on the 3d day of December, 1900. That in his opinion he has been unable to follow his avocation of miner or any other work from the 7th day of November to the 3d day of December, 1900, and that such injury was not caused on account of intemperance or any other immoral conduct. The testimony of this physician was taken, which shows that he dressed the finger seven or eight times. He states that the injured brother could better decide than he could whether the injury would prevent him from following his usual work. He thought a man with a finger mashed might do some light work, but could not say that he could use a pick in mining. There is nothing in the evidence or circumstances in this case that tends to show that the claim for benefits is not made in good faith. On the other hand, the amount paid the doctor is as much as the claim against the lodge. In cases of doubt much weight should be given to the finding of a subordinate lodge which is familiar with the witnesses and the facts. We have given this fact due consideration, but believing the evidence is greatly in favor of the brother's claim, the appeal is therefore sustained. Therefore, it is ordered that Divernon Lodge No. 200, I. O. O. F., pay to Bro. Stephen Yanka the sum of nine dollars for three weeks' sick benefits.

Case No. 278.

Jas. H. Walker	}	Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals. May Session, 1901.
vs.
Hurricane Lodge No. 617.

Opinion by Bro. Charles S. Thornton, of No. 858.

Your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals finds in this cause that Bro. J. H. Walker, a member of Hurricane Lodge No. 617, I. O. O. F., presented to his lodge a claim for sick benefits amounting to the sum of $18, accruing from Feb. 16 to March 30, 1901, accompanied by the certificate of a reputable physician showing that the brother was ill and unable to follow his usual vocation during the period of time for which sick benefits are claimed.

The Secretary of Chosen Friends Lodge No. 86, of Metropolis, Ill., certifies that a committee of that lodge found the brother sick and that he is entitled to the benefits named.

We find nothing on behalf of Hurricane Lodge, excepting a notice of appeal under its seal which states that the claim was presented to Hurricane Lodge and that the same was not allowed.

A letter from Hurricane Lodge under date of May 10 forwards the papers and states that the lodge will send in its evidence, but this committee finds nothing before it on behalf of the lodge, and believing that in all claims for sick benefits brothers making the claim should receive prompt action, we are of the opinion from the papers before us that the claim is just and that Hurricane Lodge should be ordered to pay the same.

Your Committee therefore sustains the appeal from the action of Hurricane Lodge and directs said lodge to pay $18.00, the same being for six weeks' sick benefits.

Adam Koenig	}	Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals. May Session, 1901.
vs. Neilson Lodge No. 25.

Opinion by Bro. Charles S. Thornton, of No. 858.

Your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals has investigated the papers on file in this case and is of the opinion that Bro. Adam Koenig is entitled to sick benefits for a period of three weeks at the rate of four dollars per week.

The brother claims a larger amount, but your Committee believes that he is not entitled to more than the sum named.

In justice to the lodge it should be said that the brother has been treated very generously and that it seems willing to pay the amount your committee finds to be due.

We therefore sustain the appeal of Bro. Koenig and direct payment by the lodge to him of the sum of twelve dollars.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE THIRD SESSION.

August 20, 1901.

Case No. 221.

J. B. Turner Lodge No. 420, I. O. O. F.,	}	Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, August Session, 1901.
vs. John Blakeley and James Combe.

Opinion by Bro. Charles S. Thornton, of No. 858.

At the February Session, 1900, of this Committee it was decided that the appeal of Bro. John Blakeley and James Combe should be sustained and that the brothers should be reinstated to membership in the Order, and a report to that effect was filed with the Grand Secretary for presentation to the Grand Lodge. At the last session of that Grand Body the report was withdrawn at the request of J. B. Turner Lodge No. 420, to enable those representing the Lodge to present additional arguments and records. Since that time the case has been argued upon three several occasions before this Committee and a petition has been presented signed by apparently a majority of the members of the Lodge asking that Brothers Blakeley and Combe be reinstated, and stating that such action would be to the best interest of the Lodge.

Your Committee has carefully considered the evidence and arguments and sees no reason to change its opinion as first declared.

A somewhat heated and acrimonious contest seems to have been waged between members of the Lodge resulting from the death of a dog and also from a division of sentiment at a school election, which ended in the presentation of charges of contempt against the defendants in that they refused to answer questions upon a matter being tried by the Lodge. It appears that Bro. Blakeley attended the hearing and submitted to examination for the period of fourteen hours, when after repeated protests, that questions relating to the school election and to some other matters had nothing to do with the controversy, a decision in which your committee quite agrees, he together with Bro. Combe withdrew and refused to be interrogated or to answer further.

Your Committee is of the opinion that they were entirely justified in their action so far as the record shows, and that Bro. Blakeley would have been justified in refusing to answer long before he so decided. It is possible of course that cases may arise in which a prosecution might legally require attendance for a longer period of time, but this record shows no such necessity, and the law does not contemplate that a witness shall be subjected hour after hour to the infliction of the asking of useless and immaterial questions, apparently asked with no other purpose than of testing the patience, disposition for amiability and physical endurance of the witness. The only other question presented is that the defendants entered a plea of guilty, which it is claimed precludes them from making defence or of contesting the decision of the Lodge. The plea however, was entered literally to the fact as charged, that after fourteen long hours of patient submission the defendants refused to remain longer.

Following the precedent established in the case of E. J. Dunlap vs. Bushnell Lodge No. 322, reported in the Journal of the Grand Lodge, Session of October 10, 1876, your Committee sets aside the pleas of guilty, and the action of the Lodge in expelling them and directs the Lodge to reinstate both of the brothers. The differences between the members of the Lodge seem to have resulted from political affiliations and actions and the sooner they abandon so untenable a position the better it will be for the Order.

Your Committee therefore affirms its prior action and sustains the Appeals of the brothers, sets aside the action of the Lodge, and reinstates the brothers to full membership in the Order.

Case No. 266.

Powhan Lodge No. 29, I. O. O. F.,	} Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, August Session, 1901.
vs.
Bro. George Niver.

Opinion by Bro. Duncan McDougall, of No. 41.

This case was before the Committee at its February Session, 1900, at which time it was reversed, for the reason that "No offense was charged and therefore that the Lodge was without jurisdiction to try and adjudge the brother guilty," and it was ordered "that the Lodge have leave to prefer proper charges and proceed with trial thereof, in case the Lodge shall see fit so to do." The record now before us shows that at the regular meeting of Powhan Lodge No. 29, February 28, 1900, the opinion of the Committee, sustaining the appeal and reversing the action of the Lodge, was read, and the matter laid over "till next meeting night." At the regular meeting, March 7, 1900, the record shows "in matter of the appeal of the case of this Lodge against Bro. George Niver, it was regularly moved and carried that the matter be referred to the same prosecuting Committee, with instructions to bring in charges in proper form, as instructed by the report of Committee on Judiciary and Appeals." At the regular meeting, March 14, 1900, the Committee reported the following charges:

We charge Bro. Niver with falsehood and slander.

Specification first. That he falsely accused the Permanent Secretary with requiring him to pay $11.00 for dues to this Lodge, for the year 1898, which was $4.00 in excess of our yearly dues, and that he held the Permanent Secretary's receipt to prove the same.

Specification second. That he falsely accused the Lodge of discriminating between its members, by refusing to pay sick benefits to some members who happened to be a few days over thirteen weeks in arrears, while others were paid sick benefits, who were nearly a year in arrears.

Specification third. That these statements were made in open Lodge, at the regular meeting of this Lodge, on March 29 and April 5, 1899.

Thereupon a motion was made to strike out all proceedings in the Niver case, which motion was lost, and the Secretary was instructed to "send proper notice," to Bro. Niver. The Secretary reported, March 21, 1900, (but whether this was a regular or special meeting is not stated,) that he had sent proper notice, and copy of charges and specifications, to Bro. George Niver, as directed on March 14.

At the regular meeting of Powhan Lodge No. 29, May 2, 1900, the accused being present, "each charge and specification was read, and he entered a plea of not guilty to every one." Thereupon, a commissioner was appointed to take the evidence, and he was duly obligated.

The case was tried May 2, 1900, and the accused was acquitted on Specification 1; found guilty on Specification 2, no vote being taken on Specification 3. A vote being taken upon the question of punishment, the punishment was fixed at reprimand, and the Noble Grand deferred administering reprimand for two weeks, and "Bro. Niver was instructed by the commissioner in open Lodge, and instructed to appear on night of May 16th, for reprimand," but whether this was a regular or special meeting does not appear from the record.

May 16th, the accused "not being present, motion made by Bro. Crandall, and seconded by S. A. Goodspeed, that Bro. Niver be expelled for contempt, unless reasonable excuse be brought forward. None being, vote was taken, but not declared, as the question was asked, of legality of vote. Motion made and carried we reconsider former vote. Then the ballot was prepared for expulsion; there being twenty-four white balls and one black ball, the Noble Grand declared Bro. Niver expelled from this Lodge for contempt. Secretary instructed to notify George Niver of the action of the Lodge. July 16, 1900, "the accused presented notice of appeal in the matter of charges preferred against him." assigning the following grounds:

1st. The charges are indefinite as the records fail to show the objectionable words used.

2d. What was charged was no offense, for the words used by the appellant were in defense of appellant's rights.

3d. The findings are not warranted by evidence given.

4th. The finding of the Lodge was not legal, as some evidence was used in second trial, that Judiciary Committee held of no value."

Also, notice of appeal from the judgment of the Lodge in expelling him for contempt, assigning the following grounds therefor:

1st. No offense was committed, as no legal notice has been given to appear.

2d. As George E. Niver was sick, and unable to attend on that night, no offense was committed, even if Lodge notified. Also, he had no way to notify the Lodge of same sickness.

3. This action of the Lodge is a piece of persecution for reasons not understood by defendant."

OPINION.

In this case, the Lodge erred in instructing the Committee "to bring in charges in proper form, as instructed by the report of Committee on Judicary and Appeals." The Committee on Judiciary and Appeals had no authority to so instruct the Lodge, and did not do so. It merely ordered "That the Lodge have leave to prefer proper charges." The complaint should have been referred to a Committee, the same as though there had been no previous trial, and unless "they find (found) evidence sufficient on which to base a charge or charges, they should so report, privately, to the Noble Grand," as in cases of original complaint. As we understand the language of the record, the Lodge instructed the Committee to prefer charges, thus barring the Committee from considering and determining whether there was "evidence sufficient on which to base a charge or charges." It may be that had the Committee been left unfettered by such an instruction, it would have found there was no evidence sufficient on which to base a charge or charges."

The charges and specifications are subject to criticism.

Specification 1 reads: "That he falsely accused the Permanent Secretary with requiring him to pay $11.00 for dues to this Lodge, for the year 1898, which was $4.00 in excess of our yearly dues, and that he held the Permanent Secretary's receipt to prove the same." In this specification, neither the "time" nor the "place" of the making of the alleged false accusations are stated. The specification should show "where, when and in what way" the offense was committed. (Code 1896, Sec. 1872).

Specification 2 charges "that he falsely accused this Lodge of discriminating between its members, by refusing to pay sick benefits to some members who happened to be a few days over thirteen weeks in arrears, while others were paid sick benefits, who were nearly a year in arrears." This specification is subject to the same criticism as the first; it does not specify "when, where, and in what way."

It is true the Committee undertook to supply the deficiency in each of these specifications, by the third specification, but we are of the opinion that each specification must stand or fall alone.

It appears, however, from the record, that the accused appeared at the regular meeting, March 28, 1900, and entered a plea of not guilty, to each charge and specification. The Code (1896), S. 1875, provides that: "Objections to form of charges (as informal, vague or indefinite), must be made before the plea of guilty or not guilty, and cannot be made afterward." Therefore, the accused must be held to have waived these errors, by appearing and pleading not guilty, without raising any question as to the sufficiency of the specifications or the other errors pointed out.

The accused was found not guilty, under the first specification, and guilty under the second specification, and the punishment was fixed at reprimand. The time for administering the reprimand was deferred, and the accused being present in the Lodge room, was notified to be present at the meeting of the Lodge on "night of May 16, 1900 for reprimand." The record shows that at the meeting, May 16, 1900, "under head of unfinished business, Bro. Niver was called for, but not being present, he was adjudged guilty of contempt and expelled."

The record of this meeting is very inartistically written, but we think the legal effect of it is to show that at the time the accused, pursuant to notice, should have been present for reprimand, he was called for, and failed to appear, and that thereupon the Lodge, by ballot properly spread, expelled him for contempt. The Code (1896), S. 2161, provides. "If an accused member shall evade, the receiving of a citation, or, having received the same, shall neglect or refuse to attend the Lodge at the time therein fixed, and there remain throughout the investigation or trial of a case, the Lodge may proceed, in such absence, to expel such accused member, for contempt. We think the Lodge had the right to expel for contempt, under the circumstances, the accused having been notified to be present, and not being present, and not having made any excuse for his absence. If it is true, as stated in his notice of appeal, that he was sick, and unable to be present, and unable to send any notice, he should have availed himself of his rights under S. 2162 of the Code (1896), which reads: "At all stages of the proceedings, the accused shall have all opportunity of vindication, and in case of suspension or expulsion following the constructive citation provided for in S. 2162 supra, of this article, or in case of alleged contempt, the accused shall be entitled to a new trial at any time within six months, if it be shown that the absence was produced by unavoidable circumstances, or that injustice was done." The accused, instead of appealing in the first instance from this judgment of expulsion for contempt, if he intended to rely upon the second ground for appeal; that he was sick, and unable to attend, on that night, ought to have made application to the Lodge, under the section of the Code last quoted, in order that the record might show sickness and inability to attend. In view of his failure to make such application, there is no showing, in the record, of sickness or inability to attend. We find the first ground of appeal from the judgment of expulsion for contempt, without merit. We think sufficient notice had been given the accused to appear.

It is therefore ordered that both appeals be dismissed, and the judgment of "guilty," under the second specification of the charges, and the sentence of reprimand; also the sentence of expulsion for contempt, be, and they are hereby affirmed.

Case No. 272.

S. B. Fryer,	}	Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, August Session, 1901.
vs.
Mt. Pulaski Lodge No. 454, I. O. O. F.	}

Opinion by Bro. Duncan McDougall, of No. 41.

STATEMENT.

In this case charges, based upon an information dated November 20, 1900, were presented January 1, 1901, as follows:

Charge 1. Embezzlement.

Specification 1. In the month of May, 1894, Bro. S. B. Fryer collected from the members of this Lodge, on subscription, the sum of $1.75, which sum he has retained and refuses to pay same to this Lodge.

Specification 2. In November, 1897, Bro. S. B. Fryer collected from Bro. Henry Weisenant, on account of Odd-Fellows' Herald, the sum of $3.40, which sum he still retains and refuses to pay.

Charge 2. Making false charges against a brother.

Specification 1. On the evening of the 8th of November, 1898, Bro. S. B. Fryer, after being defeated for Lodge representative, did make charges against Bro. J. A. Ducker, which charges proved to be false and malicious, and without any foundation.

Charge 3. False detention of Lodge funds.

Specification 1. On the 16th day of July, 1897, Bro. S. B. Fryer did receive, from the Treasurer of Central Rebekah Lodge No. 313, the sum of $8.20, payable to J. R. Miller, Grand Secretary, as capitation tax, which sum he retained and appropriated to his own use, and did not pay over until November 17, 1897.

Specification 2. On the 30th day of July, 1897, Samuel B. Fryer did receive, from the Treasurer of Central Rebekah Lodge No. 313, the sum of $17.80, payable to the Treasurer of Mt. Pulaski Lodge N. 454, for lights and fuel, which sum he retained and appropriated to his own use, and did not pay over until December 7, 1897.

Charge 4. Obtaining money under false pretenses.

Specification 1. October 24, 1896, Bro. S. B. Fryer did receive from Bro. C. L. Shennemann, the sum of $25.00, to pay for a certain set of harness, which Bro. S. B. Fryer did take and sell to Thomas L. Rothwell and has refused to return the money or replace the harness to Bro. C. L. Shennemann.

Specification 2.—Bro. S. B. Fryer did on or about the 25th day of December, 1899, receive from Bro. John Zah the sum of $5.00, on promise to pay back the same to Bro. Zah, which sum he still retains, and refuses to pay.

Specification 3.—Bro. S. B. Fryer did, by misrepresentation, on the 16th day of January, 1897, secure Bro. Alfred Fletcher's signature to two certain notes for the sum of $50.00 each, on which he received the money, and yet refuses to repay to Bro. Fletcher.

Specification 4.—Bro. S. B. Fryer did, in the month of May, 1900, receive from J. A. Downey, the sum of $2.00, on pretense that Geo. T. Downey would pay the same (as he owed Bro. Fryer), which sum Bro. Fryer has failed to pay or make good, up to the present time.

Charge 5.—Making false representation of his standing in the lodge.

Specification 1.—Bro. S. B. Fryer did make statement, in the Lodge, that he had paid to the Financial Secretary, the sum of $1.75, as dues, which payment the Secretary's cash book and the record does not hold good, which would make him non-beneficiary.

Specification 2.—Bro. S. B. Fryer did, in the month of October, receive from Mt. Pulaski Lodge No. 454, the sum of $12.00, as benefits, which he was not entitled to according to the records.

January 15, accused appeared and presented "plea for dismissal of the charges," which was refused and plea of not guilty entered. "The plea for dismissal of charges" not being preserved in the record, it cannot be determined on what grounds the plea was based, but it will be treated as a motion to quash the charges on the ground of insufficiency. At the same meeting a commissioner was appointed to take evidence and was duly obligated. January 28, a motion was made, but not sustained, "that the committee be intructed to withdraw charges against Bro. Fryer." March 12 the Grand Master ordered a change of venue to Lincoln Lodge No. 204, and the evidence, with all records relating to the case "were filed with the Noble Grand of Lincoln Lodge No. 204." The accused was tried March 29, 1901, and was found guilty under Specifications 1 and 2, charge 1, also specification 1, charge 2, and was acquitted under all other charges and specifications. The punishment was fixed at expulsion, and the accused was declared expelled. It does not appear from the record that any notice was given the prosecuting committee or the accused of the hearing of objections to testimony, nor does it appear that any notice was given of the trial, but the accused was present in person. The transcript of the record of the trial in Lincoln Lodge was presented to Mt. Pulaski Lodge, March 29, and April 9 the accused filed with the Secretary of Mt. Pulaski Lodge, notice of appeal. The record does not show that any of the dates above enumerated, except one, were dates of either regular or special meetings of Mt. Pulaski Lodge. The accused was not tried at the fourth regular meeting after the charges were preferred, nor was the case then continued to a time certain for trial. Neither the information nor the charges were signed, and if the witnesses were either obligated or sworn, before being examined, or signed the usual certificate that the testimony given by them was true, these facts do not appear from the record.

The matters upon which specification 1 of charge 1 is based, were generally known in the lodge as early as June, 1894, but no charges were preferred until January 1, 1901. In the meantime, the accused had held all of the elective offices in the Lodge and twice represented it in the Grand Lodge. The matters covered by specification 2 occurred and were known to members of the Lodge more than three years before charges were preferred; and the matters covered by specification 1, charge 2, occurred in open lodge more than 2 years before charges were presented.

The accused having been acquitted on all other charges and specifications, it is not necessary in this statement to give the details of the other charges further than they appear in the charges and specifications. The record does not show that the accused was furnished with a copy of the charges.

OPINION.

We first consider the sufficiency of the charges and specifications upon which the accused was found guilty. The code provides that the charges may be stated in general terms, but that the specifications shall give details, "showing where, when and in what way the offenses were committed;" also that "a sufficient number of facts be stated to fully inform the accused of the particular transaction concerning which he is to be tried." Code of 1896, Sec. 1872, and the succeeding section, 1873, further provides, "when charges of calumny; contempt, misrepresentation and conduct unbecoming are made, specifications should explain definitely in what language, acts, etc., the calumny, misrepresentation and misconduct consist. Charges and specifications must not be vague, but must be certain and definite."

It is possible specification 1, under charge 1, is sufficiently definite to comply with the requirements of the code, but we think it would have been much better, had the specification stated on what subscription and from whom the money was collected.

It is reasonably clear that specification 1, under charge 2, being a charge of calumny or slander, falls far short of stating "definitely in what language" the accused made the charges against Bro. J. A. Duck-er. The motion to quash the charges on the ground of insufficiency ought to have been sustained, to specification 1, under charge 2, for the reason stated.

It was the duty of the Secretary to furnish the accused with a copy of the charges. (Code of 1896, Section 326. The record fails to show that the accused was furnished with a copy of the charges. The same section provides that the charges shall be "read in open Lodge at a regular meeting." The record fails to show that the charges were read "at a regular meeting." The same section provides that when the accused appears and pleads not guilty, the cause shall be continued two weeks for the purpose of taking testimony, and section 1933 provides that at the fourth regular meeting, or at such other time as may then be fixed, the case shall be tried. This case was not tried at the fourth regular meeting, nor was it then continued to a definite time for trial. The record also fails to show that the accused had any notice of the time and place where the Noble Grand would hear the parties interested regarding the objections to testimony made before the commissioner. The Code of 1896, Section 1879, specifically requires such notice. The Code of 1896, Section 1908, prescribes the form of the obligation to be administered to witnesses; also the form of certificate to be signed by the witnesses. The record fails to show that any of the witnesses were obligated, and none of them signed the prescribed certificate. The Code of 1896, Section 1927, further provides that "in the trial, the records of the Lodge must show that all the proceedings have been conducted in due form, and no presumption of fair dealing on the part of the Lodge can be made that the records do not show." In view of this provision of the code, it is clear that many of the matters to which attention has been called, ought to appear of record, and in the absence of such showing by the record there is no presumption of compliance with the law in the particulars enumerated.

The record is burdened with hearsay and other incompetent evidence, but only in a few instances did the accused preserve his rights by making proper objections or motions to exclude. In view of other errors to which attention has been called, we deem it unnecessary to discuss the rulings of either the Commissioner or Noble Grand touching the competency of evidence.

Under the provisions of the code the mere lapse of time does not bar the presentation of charges and conviction thereunder, but in many cases great weight has been given to the fact that the charges were presented after the lapse of the usual statutory periods of limitation, and in some cases, charges have been held to have been stale and therefore barred because a longer period of time had elapsed between the commission of the alleged offense and presentation of charges, than would be allowed for prosecution in the courts for the offenses charged. The Criminal Code of this State bars prosecution for all felonies, except murder, arson and forgery, unless the indictments shall have been found within three years next after the commission of the crime (Starr & Curtis Statute 1896, page 1371, Sec. 494, 495-496 and 497), and Section 13 of Chapter 83, entitled "Limitations" bars actions for slander and libel, unless the action shall have been commenced within one year next after the cause of action accrued. (Starr & Curtis, 1896, page 2624, Sec. 13).

We are not to be understood as holding that the presentation of charges was barred by the lapse of time, but, in view of the fact that the matters which are made the foundation of specification 1, under charge 1, were generally known in the Lodge more than six years and six months prior to the presentation of charges, and the matters which constitute the foundation of specification 2, under charge 1, were known in the Lodge more than three years prior to the presentation of charges; and the matters which are the foundation of specification 1, under charge 2, occurred in open Lodge more than two years prior to the presentation of charges, we cannot refrain from giving great weight to the delay in the presentation of the charges. Under the statutes of the State, a criminal prosecution would have been barred as to the matters set forth in each specification under charge 1; and a civil suit for damages would have been barred as to the matters set forth in specification 1, under charge 2, long before the presentation of charges upon which the accused was convicted, and pursuant to which conviction he was expelled.

Assuming specification 1, under charge 1, to have been sufficient, did the evidence warrant conviction? The evidence shows that the Lodge was raising by subscription, money for a picnic in May, 1894; that the accused solicited some of the subscriptions, and it is contended that he collected $4.75, which he did not turn over to the Treasurer. The persons most competent to speak, the members from whom the money was collected, were not called as witnesses; and the record does not disclose the name of any person from whom the accused collected money. Subjecting the testimony to the ordinary rules applied for determining the weight to which it is entitled, we are constrained to hold that the evidence in support of this specification was insufficient to warrant conviction. Why let so serious a charge sleep six years and six months, and then, when memory has become dim, and written evidence mislaid or lost, rouse it from slumber, and make it serve to convict and expel a member, who, in the meantime, has been elected, as the record shows in this case, by his Lodge to every elective office in the Lodge and twice to represent his Lodge in the Grand Lodge. If charges ought to have been preferred because of the matters specified, they certainly ought to have been presented years before they were presented, especially in view of the fact that the record leaves no doubt that they were generally known in the Lodge immediately after the occurrences complained of.

In specification 2, it is charged that in November, 1897, the accused collected from Bro. Weisenant on account of Odd Fellows Herald, the sum of $3.40, which sum he still retains and refuses to pay. In support of this specification, the Grand Secretary, J. R. Miller, one of the publishers of the Odd Fellows Herald, was called as a witness, but nearly, if not quite all of his testimony, except in so far as he testified to the payment of $3.40 by the accused, is mere hearsay, and had proper objections been made, would have been held incompetent.

Evidently the prosecution relied chiefly upon the testimony of Bro. A. A. O'Connor to establish this charge, who testified, in substance, that in the fall of 1897 he was in company with Bro. Weisenant, and the accused when the accused asked Bro. Weisenant "for subscription on Odd Fellows Herald," and he paid him $3.40; that Bro. Weisenant asked for a receipt; that the accused gave him a receipt; that he, the witness, saw the receipt, and knew that it was for $3.40; that he subsequently saw the receipt "perhaps a month after;" that he took it to Springfield and presented it to the Grand Secretary and bookkeeper; that he asked the bookkeeper how much Bro. Weisenant was in arrears, and she answered $3.40, and after that he showed her the receipt; that Bro. Miller then directed her to give Bro. Weisenant credit for that sum. However, this testimony is wholly inconsistent and unreconcilable with the testimony of the bookkeeper, who testified, in substance, that the accused had authority to make collections when bills were sent to him; that she sent to him for collection November, 1898, the bills then due from subscriptions in the town where he lived; that he collected three of these bills for $1.25, making $3.75, which he did not remit; that he was entitled to a commission of 10 per cent upon the sum collected; that there was, therefore, due from him on account of collections made for the Odd Fellows Herald, $3.40; that she wrote him subsequently, and he answered making inquiry as to what sum was due, and she sent him a statement and that the account was not paid until the week preceding the time the witness testified.

The testimony of the bookkeeper makes it clear that the memory of Bro. O'Connor was at fault in the matter of Bro. Weisenant paying the accused $3.40 on subscription to Odd Fellows Herald, and receipt being given therefor by the accused, which he, the witness, subsequently took to Springfield, as testified by him; also, the contention that when said receipt was presented, the account of Bro. Weisenant was credited with $3.40, and the accused charged with $3.40, is not only unsupported, but clearly contradicted by the greater weight of evidence introduced by the prosecution.

In this connection we cannot overlook the fact that the alleged receipt for $3.40 was not introduced in evidence by the prosecution, nor was any evidence offered that said receipt could not be obtained. It is equally noticeable that Bro. Weisenant, who of all living witnesses best knew whether he paid the accused $3.40, in November, 1897, was not called to testify, notwithstanding the evidence shows that he was living in the neighboring State of Iowa at the time the testimony was being taken.

Why omit the receipt, and why fail to call Bro. Weisenant, if the whole truth was wanted on so vital a question? It is quite certain Bro. Weisenant neither owed nor paid $3.40.

Specification 1, Charge 2, charges that "on the evening of the 8th of November, 1898, Bro. S. B. Fryer, after being defeated for Lodge Representative, did make charges against Bro. J. A. Ducker, which charges proved to be false and malicious and without any foundation." No brother ought to be placed on trial upon a specification so vague and uncertain. "Did make charges." What charges? None are specified. The evidence as to what charges is little, if any, more definite, but assuming the specification to be sufficient, was it true or false? The uncontradicted evidence shows that Bro. Ducker admitted in open Lodge that he had received a remittance from a non-resident member of the Lodge to pay dues, and had converted the money to his own use. And it is made probable from the testimony of Bro. Ducker, that this is the matter concerning which charges were made by the accused. A committee was appointed, but failed to report charges. Bro. Ducker, when called as a witness, did not take the trouble to contradict the testimony of Bro. Zah to the effect that he, Bro. Ducker, had admitted in open Lodge he had received the money from a non-resident member for the purpose of paying his dues, and had converted it to his own use; that he had apologized therefor in open lodge and expressed a willingness to make repayment, but contented himself with stating "The complaint was filed with the Noble Grand, for charges unbecoming an Odd Fellow." A committee was appointed to investigate the complaint. They made due investigation, and reported to the Noble Grand "No ground for charges." We cannot avoid feeling in view of the evidence, it would have been more becoming for Bro. Ducker, if he had, in fact, not received money to pay dues for an absent member, or members, and converted it to his own use, to have made a clear and unconditional contradiction of the evidence of Bro. Zah. His failure to do so warrants the inference that there was reasonable ground for charges of conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow. Can it be said that to receive the money of an absent brother for the purpose of paying the absent brother's dues to the lodge, and then converting the money to his own use, even though he subsequently apologized therefor, and expressed a willingness to "pay it back," is not conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow? If not, it will be found somewhat difficult in the future to draw the line between becoming and unbecoming conduct on the part of an Odd Fellow.

As to all other charges and specifications, the accused was found not guilty, and we think, properly so. As to most of them, there was absolutely no evidence produced to sustain them.

In view of the numerous errors in this record, only a part of which time and space have permitted us to notice, we sustain the appeal of Bro. S. B. Fryer, and set aside the action of the Lodge in convicting and expelling him.

Case No. 280.

J. H. Miller	}	Before Committee on Judic- ary and Appeals, August Session, 1901.
vs. Eureka Lodge No. 64, I. O. O. F.

Opinion by Bro. Henry Phillips, No. 16.

From the record in this case we understand the facts to be in substance as follows: Bro. Miller was a member of Eureka Lodge No. 64, and lived at Marietta, Ga., where he was sick, and Cherokee Lodge of Marietta wrote to Eureka Lodge for four weeks' sick benefits for him, and for instructions in regard to the case. Sick benefits for three weeks, amounting to $9.00 were sent, no benefits being allowed for first week's sickness; $6.00 was afterward sent to Bro. Miller for two additional weeks sickness, and Eureka Lodge declared Bro. Miller off the sick list, giving no notice to either Cherokee Lodge or Bro. Miller of such action.

Bro. Miller continued to file claim for continuous sick benefits, and Cherokee Lodge demanded same. Doctor's certificate was furnished to establish claim for 17 weeks, and on the 11th of November, 1899, Eureka Lodge formally rejected the claim and notified Bro. Miller of such action, who notified the Lodge on November 20, 1899, of his appeal to this committee. No action was taken by his Lodge on this appeal, and the Lodge was urged at various times to take proper action, until the matter came into the hands of Grand Master McKinley some time in April, 1900, who wrote a private letter to Bro. J. C. Perdue on May 1, 1900, in which he stated that "he finds no reason why Eureka Lodge should not be sustained in its action in this matter." which letter was turned over to Eureka Lodge about May 7, 1900, and is claimed to be a decision of the case.

On Sept. 28, 1900, Bro. Miller claims that he first received official notice that the Grand Master had determined the case, and wrote to him for copies of papers upon which he had so determined, and was informed that the papers were then ready to be turned over to his successor in office and could not be furnished. Bro. Miller wrote to the Grand Lodge at its session in November, 1900, reviewing his case and praying that some action be taken, which letter, by direction of Grand Master McKinley, was referred to the incoming Grand Master, Bro. Kewley, who instructed Bro. Miller to give notice of appeal from the action of the Grand Master to the Grand Lodge or petition for a rehearing. He did both, Eureka Lodge was given ample time to be heard, and failing to pay any attention to the matter, the petition for a rehearing was granted, notice of same sent to Eureka Lodge, which then on the 11th of January, 1901, protested against reopening the case, and on Jan. 26, 1901, gave notice of appeal to the Grand Lodge, and was informed that an appeal did not lie until the case was reheard, upon which the Lodge joined in interrogatories to be asked concerning the controversy.

The claim is for 12 weeks from June 20, 1899, at $3.00 per week, and 42 weeks at $2.00 per week, a total of $120.

There seems to be no doubt as to the sickness of the brother being of such a character as to entitle him to benefits. All the evidence was before Eureka Lodge, which after some 10 days was returned to the Grand Master with the information that it would rest upon its appeal to the Grand Lodge from a reopening of the case. Thereupon the Grand Master affirms the previous order of reopening the whole case, "not only the claim for sick benefits of Bro. Miller made by him on Oct. 18, 1899, and formally rejected by the Lodge on Nov. 11, 1899, but also the subsequent claim for sick benefits by Bro. Miller up to and including May 5, 1900, to the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, and I do hereby so refer the case."

OPINION.

Your committee is of the opinion that the communication of Grand Master L. L. McKinley, under date of May 1, 1900, addressed to Hon. J. C. Perdue, was not an official adjudication of the case. It was not addressed to the lodge nor to any officer of the Lodge.

Immediately preceding the expiration of the official term of Grand Master McKinley he appears to have turned this entire case over to his successor, Grand Master J. R. Kewley.

Under the authority cited in the decision of Grand Master J. R. Kewley reopening the case, we have no doubt of his authority to reopen and refer the case to this Committee, and we sustain his action in that regard.

We have carefully reviewed the entire correspondence and the evidence subsequently taken upon interrogatories, joined in by the Lodge, and are of the opinion therefrom that Bro. J. H. Miller was clearly entitled to the benefits claimed.

The appeal is therefore sustained, the action of the Lodge, in refusing to pay the sick benefits claimed, reversed and the Lodge directed to pay Bro. J. H. Miller the sum of $120 sick benefits.

Case No. 281.

H. D. Barrows	}	Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, August Session, 1901.
vs.
Newark Lodge No. 162.

Opinion by Bro. Chas. S. Thornton, of No. 858.

It appears from the record that Bro. Barrows was taken sick July 17, 1899, and on August 10, was reported to his Lodge, the members of which voted not to allow the brother sick benefits, for the reason that his dues had not been paid since April 1, 1899, and therefore that he was in arrears for a period exceeding thirteen weeks.

The brother claims that he had performed work for and furnished material to the Lodge, at its request, and that on the 6th day of July, eleven days before the beginning of his illness there was due him for the same the sum of $10.59, which was ordered paid by the Lodge August 10.

The question is whether this indebtedness could be set off against his arrears for dues so as to make him a beneficiary member.

Section 1412 of the Code of 1896 determines the matter. It states that "A brother may not offset his dues with an unadjusted claim, even if just, for sick benefits. The lodge and not the brother must make the offset."

The appeal of Bro. Barrows must therefore be dismissed and the action of the Lodge is hereby sustained.

Case No. 283.

I. H. Martin	}	Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, August Session, 1901.
vs.
Litchfield Lodge No. 202.

Opinion by Bro. Henry A. Stone, of No. 122.

This is an appeal by Bro. I. H. Martin, from the action of Litchfield Lodge No. 202, in granting a new trial, after acquittal and subsequent expulsion.

The Lodge records, evidence, letters and papers, all in due form, seem to warrant the following conclusions:

Bro. I. H. Martin, a member of Litchfield Lodge No. 202, but a temporary resident with his children in Smithboro and Greenville, was asking benefits from said Lodge for sickness. In one of his letters to the Lodge he expressed his ideas in language to which some member of the Lodge took offense, and a complaint was entered to the Noble Grand, who appointed an investigating committee. This committee preferred charges against Bro. Martin; charging him with using language unbecoming an Odd Fellow.

Bro. Martin appeared and pleaded, not guilty. A commissioner was appointed, witnesses examined, and on trial before the Lodge, in due form according to the laws of Odd Fellowship, was acquitted of the charge on the 24th day of May, 1901.

On the 31st day of May, 1901, a motion was made for a new trial, and the motion, on vote of the Lodge, was declared carried, and trial set for June 14, 1901.

From the action of the Lodge, an appeal was taken to the Lodge Deputy Grand Master, as to whether it was legal to try a brother twice for the same offense. In answer to this, the Lodge Deputy gave his answer to the Lodge in writing, "that the Lodge could not grant a new trial, and that such action of the lodge was illegal." The Lodge Deputy then reported his construction of the laws, to J. R. Kewley, Grand Master.

On June 17 Grand Master Kewley wrote his decision, sustaining the Lodge Deputy, and this decision and letter of instructions was read to the Lodge at their regular meeting, June 21, 1901.

At this same meeting, and in open defiance of the action and instructions of the Grand Master, the Lodge voted to ignore them, and to proceed with the new trial.

At their next regular meeting on June 28 went through the farce of a trial, and by vote sustained the charges of the former trial (no new complaint or charges being preferred) and the penalty, by vote of 14 to 1, the Noble Grand declared him expelled from the Lodge and the Order.

From this action of the Lodge, Bro. I. H. Martin takes an appeal to this committee.

After careful examination of the records, letters and papers in evidence in this case, we are of the opinion that the action of the Lodge in granting a new trial, and its subsequent results, is clearly unconstitutional, illegal and void; that the action of the Lodge in allowing the proceedings of a new trial, after having received the decision from the Grand Master, sustaining the action of his Lodge Deputy, is rank insubordination, and should be disciplined.

Accordingly the appeal is sustained, and every act of the Lodge in this case, subsequent to the acquittal, is void, and Bro. Martin is entitled to all rights and benefits of the Order.

D. B. Boren
vs.

Coatsburg Lodge No. 836.

Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, August Session, 1901.

Opinion by Bro. Henry Phillips, of No. 16.

The Record in this case presents the following facts:

Bro. Boren was charged with conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow, by selling liquor contrary to law, not having a license or authority from the United States to sell intoxicating liquor, and also to having sold liquor to habitual drunkards, contrary to law.

He was indicted in the United States Court for the Southern District of Illinois for the first of these offenses, and in the Adams Circuit Court for the second one.

Bro. Boren plead guilty to the charges in both of said Courts. Upon the charges being made in the Lodge, Bro. Boren entered his plea of guilty, and upon a vote being taken on the punishment to be inflicted, it was ordered that the brother be reprimanded, and from this action of the Lodge an appeal is taken to this committee.

We are of the opinion that the offense with which the brother was charged, and to which he pleads guilty, is of so grave a character as to require the greatest punishment allowed by our laws, which is expulsion.

It is therefore ordered that the action of the Lodge in ordering a reprimand, be and is hereby set aside, and the Lodge directed to inflict a greater penalty for the offense charged, and this committee recommends that such penalty be that of expulsion from the Order.

Appeal sustained, cause remanded with direction and recommendation.

Case No. 287.

H. Rosenberg and Others,	{	Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, August Session, 1901.
vs.
Peabody Lodge No. 613.

Opinion by Bro. Alfred Orendorff, of No. 465.

In the matter of the appeal of Bro. H. Rosenberg and others from the action of Peabody Lodge No. 613 in accepting a personal bond from Bro. A. R. Goldberg, Treasurer of said Lodge, it appears that objections are made to such bond on the grounds that by a resolution of the Lodge it is provided that a surety corporation bond shall be given, and also that the bond in question was not approved by the Trustees of the Lodge.

The Subordinate Constitution provides: Article III, Section 7, that "the Treasurer-elect shall give a joint and several bond to the Trustees of the Lodge, with two sureties to be approved by the Lodge, with such penalties and conditions as may from time to time be prescribed by the Lodge. Such bond before being presented to the Lodge must have been submitted to and be approved by a majority of the Trustees."

This provision of law made by the Grand Lodge for the government of Subordinate Lodges could not be amended or changed by any action of the Subordinate Lodge.

The law expressly provides for two sureties and the approval of a majority of the Trustees, and the giving of a corporation bond would be illegal, unless two sureties signed the bond with the approval of the Trustees.

The bond given by the Treasurer should have been submitted to the Trustees for their consideration, and inasmuch as this was not done, the appeal is sustained and the Lodge is directed to require a bond to be executed in accordance with this decision.

G. W. Rhodes	}	Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, August Session, 1901.
Lecture Lodge No. 563.

Opinion by Bro. Alfred Orendorff, of No. 465.

In this case, charges and specifications were preferred against Bro. G. W. Rhodes, a member of Lecture Lodge No. 563.

On trial he was found guilty of the offense of using profane and scurrilous language against Odd Fellows, and was suspended for three months.

From this action the brother has appealed.

The evidence shows that the offense was practically admitted by Bro. Rhodes, and it was clearly proved by the testimony of other witnesses.

The Lodge appears to have acted with great fairness, and the penalty is not more severe than the offense deserves.

The appeal of Bro. G. W. Rhodes is hereby dismissed and action of Lodge sustained.

CONCLUSION.

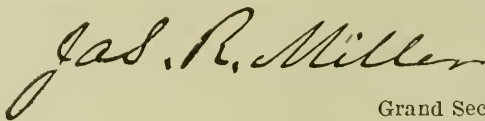

At the close of a year's work, it is a pleasant and satisfactory experience to realize that the various duties discharged and the unavoidable difficulties and annoyances encountered were rendered lighter as burdens and were more patiently and cheerfully borne by reason of the generous support, courteous treatment and charitable disposition manifested by all the members of the Order.

The business of this office is closely allied with the work and official acts of the Grand Master, consequently involving much correspondence, and in this relation, I have found Grand Master Jas. K. Kewley one of the most genial, able and reliable counsellors, conscientious in his motives, thorough in his work and successful in the results of that work.

To Gen. C. M. Seckner, Department Commander, Patriarchs Militant; Grand Patriarch George A. Seeley, Grand Scribe Henry C. Feltman, Sisters Eva R. Withey, President, and Lola L. Rickard, Secretary of the Rebekah Assembly, I wish to express my sincere thanks for their generous and cheerful readiness to co-operate in all matters pertaining to the best interests of the Order, giving ample evidence of ability and loyal service. To my assistant, Bro. John H. Sikes, I am duly grateful for valuable services cheerfully performed.

Fraternally submitted.

GRAND REPRESENTATIVES' REPORT.

To the Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

BRETHREN:

The seventy-seventh session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge was held in the city of Indianapolis, Ind., September 19, 1901. Never in the history of the Grand Body did its members receive a warmer welcome than that extended by the Fraternity of Indiana. The committee in describing the city of Indianapolis said in part:

In welcoming the Sovereign Grand Lodge to Indianapolis we present to its representatives the most beautiful inland city in the world, a city of nearly 200,000 population, the capital and metropolis of the State of Indiana, the hub of the great American railway system, and within a few miles of the center of population of the United States; a city with natural gas, famed for its cleanliness, its healthfulness, its progress in manufacturing and commerce, for its charitable and benevolent work, its public institutions, its public buildings and monuments, its parks, its suburbs, and, above all, for its thousands of pleasant and hospitable homes.

Its growth within the last decade is regarded by census officials as something less than phenomenal. In the last fifteen years it has more than doubled its population. Its business and its enterprises, both public and private, are healthy and flourishing, its industrial conditions are of the best, and its people, true Hoosiers, have never been found lacking in the welcome extended to the stranger within the city's gates.

The following Grand Officers were present:

OFFICERS.

A. C. CABLE.....	Grand Sire
JOHN B. GOODWIN.....	Deputy Grand Sire
J. FRANK GRANT.....	Grand Secretary
M. RICHARDS MUCKLE.....	Grand Treasurer
ELVIN J. CURRY.....	Asst. Grand Secretary
JOHN B. COCKRUM.....	Grand Marshal
JOHN WELSH.....	Grand Guardian
CHARLES H. LYMAN.....	Grand Messenger

PAST GRAND SIRES.

JOHN C. UNDERWOOD.....	Kentucky
CHARLES M. BUSBEE.....	North Carolina
CL. T. CAMPBELL.....	Ontario
J. W. STEBBINS.....	New York and all of the Representatives.

The Grand Chaplain, Rev. J. W. Venable, of Kentucky, being absent, the Grand Sire appointed Rev. J. I. McCoy, P.G.Rep., of Indiana, Grand Chaplain pro tempore.

We submit herewith extracts of the splendid report of the Grand Sire, A. C. Cable; also a full report of the decisions of the Grand Sire, approved by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, to-wit:

REPORT OF THE GRAND SIRE AND COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.

BROTHERS:—Let us take this thought of Shakespeare and apply it to ourselves:

“Thyself and thy belongings,
Are not t.h.y own so proper as to waste
Thyself upon thy virtues, they on thee.
Heaven doth with us as we with torches do,
Not light them for themselves; for if our virtues
Did not go forth of us, 't were all alike
As if we had them not.
Spirits are not finally touched
But to fine issues.”

Standing on the threshold of the twentieth century, facing the great problems that are pressing for solution—with men everywhere contending that the spirit of our age is evil; that it will not, cannot be righted as it is; that doom must come and sweep all away before the earth can be what God designed it to be, the abode of innocence and perfect happiness—it therefore becomes us to quit ourselves like men and set ourselves to solve many of the problems that perplex and vex our race.

Nathaniel Hawthorne, dreaming in the old manse, saw the earth swept clear of the present race, leaving the results of their work and inventions untouched and undiminished.

To re-people this wasted and deserted earth, he supposed a new Adam and Eve to be created in full development of mind and heart, but with no knowledge of their predecessors, nor of the diseased circumstances by which they had been surrounded.

These two awoke to consciousness in a great city and entered with wonder and awe upon the forsaken heritages of the old.

They entered the great stores, prisons, factories, libraries, churches and cemeteries, and were struck by the contrasts which were everywhere presented in the signs of inequality in the dwellings.

They were troubled by the evidence that part were rich and part were poor.

We can all see in this imaginative story, the perplexity of the great hearted author, and feel while we read that his experience is our experience.

We all feel at times that the good things of this life are unequally divided.

We see men who have never done a stroke in this world, setting out from their cradle to a long life of ease, and know them to be without merit and without principle, plucking the ripe fruit of others' toil. So much to one and nothing in the hand of another but a hammer or a trowel. In the house of luxury the sound of romping children; in the house of poverty the cry for bread.

So has grown up enmity between the classes; but despite all the hatred of classes, many causes have operated to create a broad and deep sympathy for the sorrows of our suffering Brothers, and this is at once the honor and glory of our age. It is the evidence of a quickened moral conscience, a renewal of the highest and noblest capabilities of our nature, and as an Order we may claim some humble part in the world's advancement in benevolence and brotherhood.

In the providence of God we have been permitted to strip off some of the strange and terrible aspects of selfishness, and now see lying before us a vast and faithful image of the abiding order of man's life.

Odd Fellowship has found the clew to the worth of human life in that love which burns with pure and holy flame on to the end.

Up the shining rounds of transfigured and immortal brotherhood we rise to behold the supreme glory of the Fatherhood of God, and just as the law of gravitation binds together the physical universe, atom to atom, in darkness and in light, so the law of brotherhood binds together soul to soul, in sorrow and in joy, around God the source of all love and power.

There is in Odd Fellowship insight and power enough to hold an entire civilization to faith in the future of our race.

We all know that unselfishness is locked in tremendous struggle with selfishness, and though often defeated, that unselfishness triumphs in the end.

Goodness can live and rejoice without outward visible power, and from out the ruin to which it is often times reduced, rises to bless and captivate the world.

Odd Fellowship believes in man, in whose life there is a meaning and a prophecy that fills the whole future with the light of better things,

For truly based upon the maxim proclaimed by Wildey—"Friendship, Love and Truth"—it has beaten down the barriers of caste and wealth, and by its faith in the brotherhood of man, has made the world to marvel at its hold upon the affections of the people.

To-day our Order stands in the van-guard of the world's fraternal progress, with a membership that believes in progressive fellowship, that has learned to love the deeds of the good Samaritan and cherished his charity; that believes that resistance to the clutch of distress is obedience to the teaching of the Nazarene.

What a glorious consolation, my Brethren, it is to feel that ours is a friendly Order, an Order of true and generous freedom shared alike by all worthy men and women, regardless of caste or creed. It becomes us to recognize this conquest over self and gratefully acknowledge the assistance rendered by those who have passed on to their reward.

The Revolution that gave us a republic, rich in the blessings enjoyed by us freemen and which holds together the institutions born of the eloquence of Patrick Henry and nurtured by the blood of patriots at Concord and Bunker Hill, at Brandywine and Yorktown; institutions endowed by the pen of Jefferson and immortalized by the fidelity of Washington, awakened in this new land of the free, aspirations that would unite us in bonds of personal friendship.

The birth of Odd Fellowship in America was inevitable.

Although our patriotic fathers had secured our independence as a nation, final peace with reconciliation was not had between this and the mother country until long years after Washington had gone to his eternal home.

Then when came rest from strife of war and battle's deadly hate, men began to feel the pulsings of fraternal love and sought to give it expression in some visible tangible form.

Odd Fellowship was born of this human yearning and desire.

It was Seneca who said: "When you see a man in distress recognize him as a brother;" and that sentiment of the wise old Roman had its influence upon the founder of our Order.

He could say with Virgil: "Having suffered, I know how to help those who are in distress."

Brethren, taking a retrospect of that which was accomplished by Father Wildey, and understanding that his life was imbued with self-denial, and his fortitude knowing no such word as fail, we inevitably reach the conclusion that, that which met the sanction of his brain, became a purpose with him as fixed as the stars.

He was of the common people and hard indeed was the task to hoist the standard of revolt against the power of caste, which in its greed of lust and self had forgotten the poor and needy.

Wildey, blacksmith and laborer that he was, sought not to drown the cries of distress with the clanging of his anvil, but rather than that, he seems to have so graded the strokes as to make the vibrations come with a tender melody, resounding in tones that echoed the pulsations of a saddened heart.

His great heart throbbed in distress for others; his pulse-beats were tuned with the anvil's song, and it may be that the world has heard grander music and such as filled vast cathedrals with symphonies that stirred the soul with power, but to me, in my imagination, as I listen to Wildey's touch of the anvil with his heart throbbing under the problem of relief and his eyes filled with tears for the widow's grief, there comes a sound "As sweet and musical as bright Apollo's lute strung with his golden hair."

So, Brethren, was our Order born of a beautiful and sublime fidelity to unselfish duty. "Originating with the Sons of Toil, it has permeated and even blessed the people of the century in which it originated.

The courage and fortitude of its founder gave it existence, and his friendship for man furnishes it an example of charity that has challenged the admiration of the world to live with time and be embalmed in the memory of the last historian.

In the ranks of our Order, the sage and philosopher, the financier and statesman walk side by side with those who live in the humbler walks of life.

NECROLOGY.

I turn to where all our thoughts have run, to this vacant chair, in confirmation of what true Odd Fellowship can do. On the morning of March 5th, 1901, I received the following telegram:

"PHILADELPHIA, Penn., March 4, 1901.

A. C. CABLE, Grand Sire, Covington, Ohio.

Past Grand Sire, James B. Nicholson, died to-day.

WILLIAM P. ROSE, G.M."

This was indeed sad and sorrowful news to me, and although I was wholly unable to convey to the friends how badly shocked I was and how truly sincere was my grief, I sent the following telegram:

"COVINGTON, O., March 5, 1901.

CLARENCE B. NICHOLSON, Philadelphia, Pa.

In the name and on behalf of the Sovereign Grand Lodge and the more than a million Odd Fellows throughout the globe, I tender to you their and my heartfelt sympathy in this, your darkest and saddest hour of sorrow and bereavement.

A. C. CABLE, Grand Sire."

Who in the whole history of our Order was more illustrious and cultured than our dear departed Brother? Although so eminent yet he moved among us in all simplicity and loveliness.

Brethren, when listening to his modest utterances, we were made to feel that we were indeed listening "to the voice of wisdom, speaking from age and experience." Who more than he, holding high the banner of our grand enterprise of philanthropy, led the mighty army of Odd Fellowship in the dissemination of benevolence and love?

He was distinguished and respected as a citizen; faithful, loving and true as a husband; kind, affectionate and attentive as a father, loved by all who knew him.

He was indeed an "Odd Fellow in truth and in spirit;" so kind, generous and tender in his disposition; so delicate and modest in sensiility; true in his friendships, warm and strong in his attachments; in the discharge of his duty always conscientious; with an intellect that was clear and cultivated; lofty, noble and unswerving in his purposes; high and holy in his ambitions; and no member of the Order was more thoroughly familiar and deeply impressed with its workings and principles. He had indeed a ripe experience and we were always safe in following his judgment, which was apt, as well as his example, which was exalted; a man whose morality was pure, with a discernment that was keen; whose insight of the world and its interminable devices was thorough. The reward that awaited his coming into the Celestial Lodge above was surely worth striving for, and what a cordial, glorious welcome he must have received from the immortal Ridgely. Think of the songs, of the glad hallelujahs rendered in their most heavenly sweetness by the widows and orphans who have gone on before him, praising him for the good works he has done while here on earth.

If we had the vision that St. John, the divine revelator, possessed on the isle of Patmos, and were permitted to draw aside the veil, for only a moment, and look beyond and call him, methinks he would stop, turn, and looking back, would say:

"Wisely my son, while yet thy days are long,
And this fair change of seasons passes slow,
Gather and treasure up the good they yield—
All that they teach of virtue, of pure thoughts
And kind affections, reverence for thy God
And for thy Brethren; so when thou shalt come Into these barren years, thou mayest not bring A mind unfurnished and a withered heart."

To which, before drawing back again the veil, we would answer:

"Of the sweetness and the zest
Of thy happy life possessed,
Thou hast left us at thy best.
Warm of heart and clear of brain,
Of thy sun-bright spirit's wane
Thou hast spared us all the pain.
Therefore on thy unknown way,
Go in God's peace; we who stay
But a little while delay.
Keep for us, O friend, where'er
Thou art waiting, all that here
Made thy earthly presence dear."

No words of mine can measure his worth. He could say and did say in every line of his great life:

"It is enough—
Enough—just to be good!
To lift our hearts where they are understood,
To let the thirst for worldly power and place
Go unappeased; to smile back in God's face
With the glad lips our mothers used to kiss.
Ah! though we miss
All else but this.
To be good is enough."

With him the "watches of the night" are passed and One leads us as One led him through the watches of the night.

"By the ceaseless intercession of our loved ones lost to sight,
He is with us thro' all trials in His mercy and His might;
With our mothers there about Him all our sorrow disappears,
Till the silence of our sobbing is the prayer the Master hears
And His hand is laid upon us with the tenderness of tears,
In the waning of the watches of the night."

God bless his memory and so preserve his good deeds and virtues in the interest of our beloved Order that all will honor him.

How mighty and inexorable is death, halting not before rank or station.

During the past year, the mighty king Death has touched and summoned twenty-six who once honored this Grand Lodge with their presence, and the places that once knew them know them no more this side the grave.

A proper proclamation announcing their deaths was made. See Document No. 14, Appendix.

Death is the road that must be trod by all who expect to see God. It but crystallizes all our good thoughts, words and actions into the durability of eternity.

STATE OF THE ORDER.

Odd Fellowship has long since crossed the rubicon of fear and doubt, and now stands firmly planted, stout in the hearts of the people, as an agency for the betterment of man's condition unsurpassed in the annals of the world, and is to-day united under one standard, the rallying ensign for more than one and one-quarter million of people, who have determined in their hearts that its banner, bearing its maxim of Friendship, Love and Truth, shall wave over the civilization of the whole world.

You are to be congratulated upon the healthy and prosperous condition of the Order in all its various branches throughout your Jurisdiction, as shown by the statistics compiled by the Grand Secretary, and from which I quote freely, adopting practically the form used by my predecessor to show, by comparison, the true condition of the Order.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT OF THE SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE.

Your attention is directed to the splendid showing of this Body, as disclosed by the report of the Sub-Committee on Finance.

It is quite gratifying indeed to note the gain of $3,114.44 in receipts over expenditures, and $4,087.24 gain in assets; particularly is this so, when, as the committee states, the expenses attending the holding of the meeting of this Body in Richmond last year were $35,000.00, as against $29,137.44 for the Detroit session in 1899.

The cost of the session to be held this year in the city of Indianapolis, it being so centrally located, will, no doubt, be greatly reduced as compared with the expenses attending the session of 1900, so that it is fair to presume that the receipts this year will again be greatly increased over the expenditures.

The Subordinate Lodges.

The Subordinate Lodges, the great bulwark of the Order, are in a most healthy and prosperous condition, bidding fair to outstrip all former records. None but good men need apply, seems to be the sentiment or motto governing the action of the Lodges almost universally.

Fraternity.

I believe as Ridgely well said, that "Fraternity is the cornerstone of our Order," and everything that is calculated to interfere with the development of that basic principle should be guarded against.

Benefits.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge has (wisely, as I believe) cut loose from all insurance societies or associations, thereby relieving itself, so far as it can, of the evils arising therefrom, and when I see upon every hand a tendency to create in our Brotherhood the spirit of greed, lust and selfishness by reason of the paid benefit system, a system that has, to my mind, been given too much prominence, one that has caused much litigation and created many divisions and heart-burnings among men, I begin to think that one of the duties confronting the Order is to get it thoroughly aroused to the dangers that are lurking behind our present system of paying sick benefits. I understand and appreciate the fact that the benefits of a pecuniary character have been for so long a time an integral part of Odd Fellowship that they cannot now be expunged, in fact hardly abridged.

Under our present system of paying benefits, many Lodges, most, in fact, pay lawfully the maximum amount of benefits allowed per week at the beginning of the sickness, just at a time when the Brother least requires such assistance, or when he could best afford to receive the minimum amount.

Not as a recommendation, but simply expressing an opinion, I have often thought that if a plan just the reverse to that which we are now following was adopted, viz.: the payment of the minimum sum of benefits during the first part of the term of sickness, say for two or three months, if necessary, and from that time on increase to the maximum amount during the continuous sickness of the Brother, there would be as a result thereof, fewer members drawing sick benefits and more Lodges that would be able to pay those who were in absolute need. I have always felt that the great mission of our Order was to break down the curse of selfishness and make mankind more fraternal and less greedy, strengthening the bonds which bind us in one common brotherhood. I would like to see fraternity, genuine fraternity, be the leading attraction and governing principle of Odd Fellowship, and that paid benefits should forever remain as the founder, Wilkey, and the builder, Ridgely, intended—merely incidental.

I believe that the adoption of a uniform law to apply to Subordinate Lodges, whereby all weekly sick benefits should be paid not to exceed a sum per week equal to one half the annual dues paid, and that dues should be paid in advance, would greatly strengthen the Order over its present condition.

Paid Nurse System.

I believe the paid nurse system has many, many advantages over the old system of detailed watchers, and I would not detract a single one of the many advantages the system possesses. On the other hand, I believe it to be a mistake for the Order to rely wholly upon the Relief Committees and paid nurse to look after its sick and distressed. I would continue the nurse system and improve it wherever possible, but in addition thereto, I am greatly of the opinion that if a general law were enacted requiring all Subordinate Lodges, when a Brother shall be taken sick, in addition to sending the paid nurse, they should be required to detail one or two of their members each day during the sickness of the Brother, whose duties should be to pay the sick Brother a friendly visit during the day or night for which they had been detailed; not to take the place of the paid nurse, not to stay all day or all night, but simply to give the Brother a friendly call, a kind word, a cheerful look, a warm grasp of the hand, a beautiful bouquet or a basket of fruit: This would be genuine fraternity, this would be carrying out the lessons of Odd Fellowship.

The paid or skilled nurse goes to the bedside because he is hired to do so, and the sick Brother is liable to regard him as an hireling, and as has come to my knowledge, an opportunity is offered whereby a designing Brother and a scheming nurse have entered into an understanding, by which the Brother is continued on the sick list through the report of the paid nurse, and the nurse is continued on the pay-roll by reason of the Brother being continued on the sick list, and the Lodge treasury is being drained of that which rightfully belongs to others. This, of course, is an extreme case and is cited because it shows the evils that can come out of a paid nurse system. On the other hand, the Brother who is detailed to pay a friendly visit, goes to pay a fraternal debt and arouses within the heart of the one visited, a sense of gratitude, and makes him feel that a brother indeed and in truth has called. The Brother or Brothers visiting, coming in contact with the distressed condition of their fellow-man, have had their feelings and sympathies aroused and are made to exclaim, as did the good Samaritan, "Is he not, after all, my brother?"

Rebekah Lodges.

The Rebekah Lodges are doing all that the friends (of whom I may modestly claim to be one) of this beautiful and sublime Degree could hope for its advancement, gaining rapidly in Lodges and members, working harmoniously for the amelioration of the race in that unselfish way for which they have long since been noted. They are, indeed, regular "Beehives of Industry."

The increase in 1900 in Lodges.....	257
The increase in 1900 in Members.....	24,287
The increase in 1900 in Revenue.....	$23,377.99
The increase in 1900 in Funds invested.....	$87,189.07
Savings in relief in 1900 over 1899....	$1,512.89

The above figures tell their own story. They prove conclusively that as a social organization this Branch of the Order is far more prosperous than if it were a beneficial one.

Rebekah National Convention.

Permit me to respectfully call your attention to a petition received during the year, requesting that a Rebekah National Convention be called to meet in Indianapolis at the same time the Sovereign Grand Lodge should hold its present session. (See Document No. 19, App.)

The Sovereign Grand Lodge having declared in 1890 "That hereafter the National Conventions of the Degree of Rebekah Lodges shall be held" (see pp. 12,196, 12,198 and 12,199, S. G. L. Journal, 1890), I declined, therefore, to grant the prayer of the petitioners. The subject is respectfully submitted for your consideration.

Subordinate Encampments.

The Encampment Branch of the Order is in much better condition than it has been for many years.

The increase in 1900 in Subordinate Encampments.....	23
The increase in 1900 in Members.....	5,197
The increase in 1900 in Revenues.....	$18,264.19
The increase in 1900 in Funds invested.....	18,007.14
Decrease in Relief in 1900 over 1899.....	10,182.76
Decrease in Expenses in 1900 over 1899.....	8,388.51

The great saving in relief and expenses as shown can largely be accounted for by reason of the laws recently enacted by you at the session held in Dallas, Texas, in 1896 (see Report No. 197, pp. 15,074 and 15,092), "That Grand Encampments be and they are hereby permitted to provide suitable legislation for the removal of the requirement that weekly benefits be paid by Subordinate Encampments."

In the Encampments, as in the Rebekah Lodges, the social feature is without doubt proving quite advantageous, adding much to its success.

Patriarchs Militant.

The Patriarchs Militant, while not showing, proportionately, as large gains as the other divisions of the Order, yet the report of the Adjutant General discloses the fact that the Patriarchs Militant have taken on new life in many departments.

Gaining in Cantons.....	21
Gaining in Admissions.....	1,908
Gaining in Members.....	299
Gaining in Revenues.....	$8,577.51

This division of the Order was intended wholly for sociability and display. The uniforms are very handsome, attractive and universally admired. The Degree when properly conferred is one of the most beautiful and impressive of the many Degrees in the Order.

A Canton should never be mustered into service or instituted except in such sections as are densely populated with Odd Fellows.

In this connection permit me to express as my belief, based upon close observations covering a period of several years, that all branches of Odd Fellowship would be greatly strengthened, a new and lasting interest awakened all along the line, if the qualification for membership in the Canton was, as is now the case with the Subordinate Encampments, based upon the Third or Scarlet Degree.

Many members of the Encampment branch fear that such a change of qualification would work an injury to that division of the Order. I do not believe, however, that such fears are well founded. On the contrary, for many reasons, I believe such a change would not only strengthen the Militants, but would prove to be the greatest blessing or help this Body has ever given to the Encampments and Subordinate Lodges. The feeling of opposition to fixing the qualification for membership upon the basis of the Scarlet Degree was a few years since quite strong, based largely upon grounds that were untenable, possibly of a personal character.

To-day I venture the opinion, without having carefully investigated, that the Jurisdictions, at least a majority of them, having the largest Subordinate, Encampment, Rebekah and Militant membership are heartily in favor of such a change.

I have written upon this subject at considerable length, not for the purpose of drawing from you an expression of your opinion upon the subject at this session, but that the attention of the whole Order might be invited to it; nor have I written as I have because of any partiality I might have for this division of the Order; not so, for, if I have any feeling of partiality for any particular division of the Order, it is for the great bulwark of the Order—the Subordinate Lodge.

DECISIONS.

I hereby submit the decisions made by me during the past year:

Subordinate Lodge Decisions.

No. 1. Statement—Mr. A. files an application for membership by initiation, in Lodge No. 1. By that lodge he is elected to membership. Lodge No. 1 issues order requesting Lodge No. 2 to confer the Initiatory Degree. The brother signs the Constitution of Lodge No. 2.

Question—Where is the brother's membership, in the lodge that elected him, or in the lodge that initiated him?

Answer—The brother's membership is in the lodge that elected him, although his initiation was illegal. (See White's Digest, Sections 674-689-690.)

No. 2. Question—Can a brother who is over fifty years of age, who is a Third Degree member in good standing, be admitted as an honorary member of an Encampment by initiation?

Answer—No. (See Sections 613 and 618 of White's Digest, also Decision No. 20, page 15, 165. S. G. L. Journal, 1897.)

No. 3. Question—Are Eurasians, of good repute, but who are of mixed foreign and Japanese parentage, eligible to membership in the Order?

Answer—No. (See Section 2 of Art. XVI of the Constitution.)

No. 4. Statement—Lodge No. 33 (in the Jurisdiction of Oklahoma) reports a brother in their town to be in destitute circumstances, a member of Lodge No. 59, Indian Territory, who is an Indian.

Question—What shall Lodge No. 33 do in this particular case?

Answer—The brother, although an Indian, is a member until the Subordinate Lodge terminates his membership in a manner provided by law, and is entitled to the privileges of the Order. (See Decision No. 16, page 18, S. G. L. Journal of 1899.)

No. 5. Question—Under the laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge and our Constitution (Jurisdiction of New Hampshire), can a Subordinate Lodge lawfully refuse to pay weekly benefits to a sick brother of the Third Degree, on the ground that his sickness is incident to old age, the brother being over eighty years of age?

Answer—If a brother is over eighty years of age, in good standing in his lodge and is taken sick (whether such sickness is incident to old age or not), he is entitled to benefits. If the aged brother is not sick, but merely infirm from old age, then by a strict construction of the law, he would not be entitled to benefits. (See White's Digest, Sections 49-50-53.)

No. 6. Statement—Under the minimum benefit law, a brother being on the sick list four weeks and four days, is the brother entitled to benefits for the full four weeks and four days, or only for the full four weeks, there being no provision that benefits shall (or shall not) be paid for a fractional part of a week?

Answer—Benefits are payable weekly, and unless there is positive legislation in your Jurisdiction (New Hampshire) providing for the payment of benefits for the fractional part of a week, it is held that the brother is entitled to payments for the full weeks, and that the fractional part is excluded. (See Section 6, White's Digest, also Section 2 of Art. III, page 477, White's Digest.)

No. 7. Statement—A brother resident of Ohio, and a member of an Ohio Lodge is taken sick with a fatal illness when he is eight days in arrears for dues. After he becomes sick, he pays his dues, which are accepted by the lodge and continued in good standing until his death. The local lodge took charge of the remains and he was buried with all honors accorded all worthy members.

Question—Is the lodge liable for funeral expenses?

Answer—No. Under the laws of the Grand Lodge of Ohio, a brother to be entitled to other than attentive benefits, must have his dues paid in advance. The funeral expense provided for by the laws of the Grand Lodge of Ohio, are predicated upon the fact that the brother was, at the time of his death, in good standing. (See Sections 97-105, White's Digest.)

No. 8. Statement—The By-Laws of Sterling Lodge, No. 4, working under the Grand Lodge of Vermont, Section 2, Clause 1 of the Constitution, reads as follows: "The regular contributions of this Lodge shall not be at a less rate than 6¼ cents per week, the same to be determined by the By-Laws."

Art. III, Section 2 of the By-Laws reads as follows: "Every member of this lodge shall pay into the general fund of this lodge, as dues per quarter, the minimum amount fixed by the Grand Bodies under which this lodge has jurisdiction. Quarters to commence on the first day of January, April, July and October."

Art. II, Section 7 of the By-Laws is as follows: "The lodge may grant a brother a Withdrawal Card when he may request it by a majority vote by ball ballot, if he is clear on the books—on the payment of twenty-five cents on his dues for the time for which the card was granted."

Question—In case a brother whose dues are paid to January 1, asking a Withdrawal Card, the second meeting night in January, should he be required to pay for the quarter ending April 1, $1.00, as the lodge collects its dues, or for only two weeks, being the two weeks elapsed since the time to which his dues were paid?

Answer—The Constitution is higher authority than the By-Laws, and it provides, as set forth in Section 2, Clause 1, quoted at the beginning of the statement, "That the contributions shall not be at a less rate than 6¼ cents per week," thereby recognizing the fact that dues accrue weekly. Section 2, Art. III of the By-Laws, which provides for the payment of the dues quarterly, is only for the convenience of the lodge. It is held, therefore, if a brother pays his dues up to the time when making application for his Card, together with the fee for the same, he has complied with the law. (See Section 257, White's Digest.)

No. 9. Question—Does the "proviso" to the resolution embodied in Report No. 230, from the Legislative Committee, found on page 15,640, Journal, 1897, take any of the powers from the lodge, by By-Laws, to fix the re-instatement fee at a less sum than the fee charged for an initiate of the same age; or does said "proviso" simply enlarge the powers of the lodge, so it may by By-Law charge more than the fee for an initiate of the same age, when the initiation fee is fixed by its By-Laws at less than one year's dues?

Answer—It enlarges the power of a lodge. It authorizes a lodge by whose By-Laws the fee of initiation is less than the sum of one year's dues, to amend its By-Laws so that it may charge for re-instatement a fee not less than the sum charged for one year's dues.

No. 10. Statement—Hon. Robert A. Mosley, a former member of Talladega Lodge, and a Past Grand Master of the Order in this State, was recently suspended for non-payment of dues. Since his suspension he died in China, where he was as U. S. Consul in the city of Singapore. The government will return his remains to Talladega for interment, and the Odd Fellows of the State desire to bury the remains of our late brother according to the rites and ceremonies of Odd Fellowship.

Question—Can a brother who stands suspended for non-payment of dues, be buried with the honors of the Order, no expense to be incurred by the Order?

Answer—If the proceedings were in every particular regular at the time of the brother's suspension, it is held that the lodge cannot extend the funeral honors. (See White's Digest, Sections 331-332.)

No. 11. Statement—A Grand Master decides that a Subordinate Lodge will have to wear a funeral badge or be granted permission to wear the regalia of the Order at the funeral of a deceased brother. The decision was approved by the Grand Lodge. The Constitution for the government of Subordinate Lodges of the Jurisdiction is silent upon the question.

Question—Will the decision stand as law?

Answer—Yes, in so far as it applies to the Jurisdiction of West Virginia. See Section 335, White's Digest.

No. 12. Statement—A member of the Order is a duly admitted inmate of the Odd Fellows' Home in Massachusetts. As such an inmate in case of sickness he is cared for by the Home, but by the provision of the law his lodge is not liable for payment of sick benefits on account of said sickness. While an inmate of the Home, after a judicial investigation he is legally declared insane and committed as such to one of the State Hospitals for the insane. As an inmate of one of the hospitals for the treatment of the insane the expense of his care and treatment is paid by the town or city in which he has a legal settlement.

Question (a)—Upon the admission of the brother to the Hospital for the Insane, what is his relation to the Odd Fellows' Home?

Answer—Being a duly accredited inmate of the Home at the time it became necessary to transfer him to the Hospital for the Insane, when his mental condition is restored, his return to the Home follows.

No. 13. (b). Question—What is the liability of said Home for the expense of his care and maintenance in said hospital?

Answer—The Home is liable for the expense incurred for his care while an inmate of the hospital.

No. 14. (c). Question—While an inmate of the Hospital for the Insane, what is the relation and liability of the lodge toward the brother?

Answer—In accepting him as an inmate of the Home, they agreed to the provision of the lodge law, exempting the lodge from liability for sick benefits and assumed the care of him, and although the brother's relation to his lodge continues as a member, yet the Home is liable for his care whether he remains at the Home or is transferred to another place that will be more effective as a means of cure.

No. 15. Statement—A brother being admitted to an Odd Fellows' Home by the request of his lodge, his income being sufficient to pay the amount per week that the Home requires and the brother voluntarily paying that amount.

Question—Should the brother be sick and require night care, is his lodge bound to furnish such care, and if his lodge pays his board at said Home, is his lodge under obligations to furnish night care?

Answer—Yes. This answer is based upon the assumption, on my part, that the brother admitted to the Home was at the time of his admission thereto in good standing, and that the local law authorized the payment of night service, or, in other words, for what is known as attentive benefits, and under such circumstances the lodge cannot absolve itself from the payment of either pecuniary or attentive benefits. The lodge is liable to the extent of its legal obligations. See Sec. 123, White's Digest, also S.G.L. Journal 1895, pp. 14,250, 14,487 and 14,570; S.G.L. Journal 1862, pp. 3,466; S.G.L. Journal 1880, pp. 8,464 and 8,465; S.G.L. Journal 1882, pp. 8,953 and 9,081; S.G.L. Journal 1892, Report No. 7, page 12,994 and Sections 41-46, W.D.

No. 16. Question—Does the Warden, on examination prior to the opening of the lodge, receive the P.W. from the Noble Grand, or does the Noble Grand receive it from the Warden?

Answer—The Noble Grand being the custodian of the P.W., should communicate it to the Warden.

No. 17. Question—Which semi-annual word should be given in Grand Jurisdictions of issue?

Answer—There can be but one semi-annual Password in force, and a brother presenting a card bearing a date which extends to a date later than when the same is presented, is entitled to receive the semi-annual Password. See Report of the Committee on Legislation, No. 102, page 314, Journal of 1899.

No. 18. Statement—The Noble Grand of a lodge is asked, under the law of 1895, to give the holder of a Visiting Card or Official Certificate, still in date for visiting purposes, but issued during the preceding calendar, the A.T.P.W.

Question—Should the Noble Grand give the A.T.P.W. current at the time he had the Card presented to him, or the one current when the Card was issued?

Answer—He should be given the A. T. P. W. current at the time, the Card bearing a date which extends to a later date.

No. 19. Question—Is a brother of a Subordinate Lodge entitled to the A.T.P.W. who pays his dues only to the date of requesting it?

Answer—No. See decision No. 13, pp. 15,165, 15,534, 15,584, 15,613, S.G.L. Journal of 1897, resolution found in report No. 192 from the Committee on Legislation, page 344, S.G.L. Journal of 1899; also decision No. 4, found on page 17, Journal of 1899.

No. 20. Question—Keeping in mind Section 194 of White's Digest of 1895, has a Noble Grand authority, under the legislation of 1899, to communicate the A.T.P.W. to the holder of an Official Certificate or Visiting Card showing dues paid in advance, if the Certificate or Card has been signed by the holder prior to its presentation to the Noble Grand?

Answer—Yes. See resolutions from the Committee on Legislation in Report No. 102, found on page 344, Journal 1899, the last one of which reads: "Resolved, That all laws in conflict herewith be, and the same are hereby repealed."

No. 21. Statement—A member of a lodge paid his dues last month (December) up to and including January 21, 1900.

Question—Can he visit for three months after the date to which he paid up, upon the official receipt (Certificate) given him? Is the Official Certificate good for the term?

Answer—No. See Journal 1897, pp. 15,165, 15,174, 15,534, 15,584, 15,613.

No. 22. Statement—A brother was a bartender at the time of the Constitutional Amendment of 1895, and as such he (has) continued up to the present time. He has now purchased the business of his late employer and has thus become the proprietor of a saloon, which is run by himself with the aid of a bartender.

Question—Is it legal for the lodge to retain him in membership?

No. 23. Statement—A brother in good standing in a lodge was engaged in the hotel business with bar attached, at the time of the enactment of Section 5 of Article XVI of the Constitution of the Sovereign Grand Lodge. He continued in said business two years thereafter, then disposed of the "furniture and good will" to another party; said lease expired three years thereafter, when from force of circumstances the brother, who had owned the building at that time, bought the "furniture and good will," and ran the business as in the first place.

Question—Is the brother a subject for charges, or does the fact of his leaving the business for a time and then returning to it, he having been interested all that time as owner of the building, give him the standing of one who has continued in business?

Answer—Having been a saloonkeeper since the adoption of the law cited, he is subject to charges. He is ineligible to membership.

No. 24. Statement—A candidate applies for membership in one of the lodges of this Jurisdiction, giving his occupation either as a merchant or grocer (I am not sure which). After being a member of the lodge for several months he engaged in the saloon business. This fact coming to my knowledge, I directed the lodge to prefer charges against him (that member) for violating Section 5, Art. XVI of the Constitution of the Sovereign Grand Lodge. The lodge at first refused to prefer charges, but finally did so, and the accused, in his pleading before the Trial Committee, filed the following statement: "First, that it is out of the jurisdiction of the lodge on these grounds, that he was engaged in the saloon business at the time that he joined the lodge, and has been a member of the lodge for twenty-two months or thereabout, and did not intend to commit a fraud when he made the statement that he was not a saloonkeeper, but at that time he held an interest in a saloon, and he was under the impression that the law referred to bartenders. Second, the accused admits the fact that he is a barkeeper, and was at the time he joined the Order, but did not intend to commit a fraud when he joined the Order; it was purely an error on his part."

Question—An applicant having been initiated into our Order and received the degrees, but who at the time of making application for membership was engaged in the saloon business as proprietor or bartender, but in his application for membership named his occupation as merchant or grocer, is he not liable to have charges preferred against him for violating the laws of the Order, and if convicted, what is the penalty?

Answer—Yes. For such an offense there can be no grading of the penalty, and those engaging in such business are declared ineligible to membership in Section 5, Art. XVI of the Constitution of the Sovereign Grand Lodge. It is an act that calls for expulsion, and expulsion is the only penalty that must and should be imposed.

No. 25. Question—A member of the Order, who, when initiated had an interest in a saloon, but after becoming a member engaged in the business as bartender. Is he not liable to charges, and if convicted, what is the penalty?

Answer—Yes, charges should be preferred against the brother, and on conviction he should be expelled from the Order.

No. 26. Question—A member of the Order, who when initiated, was in the saloon business as proprietor or as bartender, but failed to make known that fact in his application for membership, when it is ascertained at some subsequent time that he was a saloonkeeper or bartender. Is it not the duty of the lodge in which he was initiated and in which he holds membership, to prefer charges against him, and if convicted, what is the penalty?

Answer—Same as given to Questions No. 24 and No. 25.

No. 27. Question—Can a brother running a grocery store handle or sell liquors in bottles or keep it for sale (not to be drank on the premises) without violating the laws of the Order?

Answer—If the liquors are sold under a liquor license in bottles containing less than one quart, without prescription, as required by law for druggists, the brother so selling or keeping it for sale is violating the laws of the Order. The laws of your State (Nevada) classify all persons as saloonkeepers who keep for sale and sell liquors in quantities less than one quart.

No. 28. Question—Can his son, as clerk, and who is also an Odd Fellow, sell it for him without violating the laws of the Order?

Answer—No.

No. 29. Question—Can a merchant running a grocery store, selling liquors in bottles or larger quantities, not to be drank on the premises, but to be carried away as other merchandise, but who does not keep a bar or sideboard of any kind or character whatever, and who does not sell liquors by the drink, petition for membership in a Subordinate Lodge?

Answer—If the liquors are sold in such quantities as to make the seller thereof, under the laws of your State (Nevada) a saloonkeeper, such person would not be eligible to membership in the Order. The Constitution of the Sovereign Grand Lodge prohibits those who are engaged in selling liquors, either as a saloonkeeper or bartender, from becoming members.

No. 30. (a). Statement (1)—A saloonkeeper since before the amendment to Art. XVI, in 1895, but dropped for the non-payment of dues, applies for and receives a Dismissal Certificate, on which he regains active affiliation with the Order.

Question—Can the holder of a Dismissal Certificate, who has been a saloonkeeper continuously from a period prior to the new Art. XVI, Section 5 of the Sovereign Grand Lodge Constitution, legally apply for membership in a Subordinate Lodge on such certificate?

Answer—The brother is not eligible to membership, and the lodge electing such an applicant to membership acted in violation of the laws of the Order.

No. 31. (b). Statement (2)—One like the above stated in his application for membership, that he was say, a horse dealer (which he was as a side business), but did not mention that he was a saloonkeeper.

Question—Is he liable under the amendment?

Answer—Yes.

No. 32. (c). Statement (3)—An applicant for membership since 1895, stated that he was a real estate dealer (which he was a part of the time), but he did not state that he was a bartender, which he is, most of the time.

Question—Is he liable under the amendment?

Answer—Yes.

No. 23. (d.) Question (4)—If any or all of the above are liable under the amendment (Section 5, Art. XVI), would any penalty, save expulsion, be proper after conviction?

Answer—No.

No. 34. (e). Statement—In a regular pool room, where pools are sold on horse races, there are generally employed a number of men whose duties consist of acting as cashier, making out pool tickets, placing on blackboards the odds offered on different horses, registering the results of the races, paying the winning tickets, and other things usual to a business of that kind.

Question (1)—Is a man who is regularly engaged in a pool room, earning his living by performing any one or more of these duties, eligible to membership in the Order?

Answer—Yes.

No. 35. (f.) Question (2)—Is he liable to charges for violation of Sec. 5, Art. XVI, S.G.L. Constitution?

Answer—No.

No. 36. (g.) Question (3f)—If a man is regularly employed in a pool room, receiving his pay from the profits of said business, is he a "professional gambler?"

Answer—No.

No. 37. Statement—A was recommended for D.D.G.M.; I issued commission and communicated P.W.; later I received a letter from the Noble Grand of his lodge, stating that A was ineligible, and the incoming officers would not be installed by him. I immediately communicated with the D.D.G.M., who belongs to that same lodge, to investigate the matter. The records of the lodge show that A was elected and installed in the office of Vice Grand January, 1898. In a short time the Noble Grand left. The office of Noble Grand was declared vacant, and A was elected thereto and installed by the Grand Master, and A filled said office to the end of the term. Subsequently, in 1899, A was elected Representative and received Past Officer's Certificate. From the above information I annulled A's commission (as D.D.G.M.), and decided that A had not legally passed the chair of Vice Grand, taking for my authority Section 1005, page 270, White's Digest, 1895; also Sections 3, 985, 986, page 267, White's Digest.

Question—Was I right or wrong in so deciding?

Answer—Your actions were in accordance with the laws of the Order. In addition to the section that you cite, see Report No. 8 from the Committee on Appeals, pages 803 and 872, S.G.L. Journal of Proceedings 1900.

It is assumed, however, that the Vice Grand was nominated and elected without first calling upon those who were present and qualified to accept a nomination and election to the office of Noble Grand. If, on the other hand, all present who were eligible by previous service in office to hold the office of Noble Grand declined to accept such position, then, under former decisions, the Vice Grand would be eligible the same as any other Scarlet Degree member, provided that a dispensation for the purpose had been obtained from the proper authorities, as set forth in Decision No. 11, found on page 505, S.G.L. Journal 1900.

No. 38. Statement—Decision No. 9, by Grand Sire Pinkerton, and which was approved (at the session held at Richmond in 1900), reads as follows: "It is not necessary for the officers of a Subordinate Lodge to wear during initiation the working regalia of their office in addition to the robes prescribed to be worn for such initiatory ceremony."

Question—Does this mean that the Jewel of office need not be worn?

Answer—The officers under the decision just quoted are not required to wear either the working regalia or Jewel of office. The paraphernalia of the Degree Staff used in conferring the Degree has been recognized by the Sovereign Grand Lodge as forming an integral part of Odd Fellowship, and a brother clothed in appropriate paraphernalia needs no other designation.

No. 39. Statement—A brother is appointed Right Supporter to the Vice Grand and accepts the appointment, commits charge of office and serves every night in the term except four, but for some cause not his own he was never installed.

Question—Is he eligible to the office of Vice Grand?

Answer—No, except as provided under Section 985, White's Digest.

No. 40. Question—Which Secretary must place the seal of the lodge upon an official receipt (Certificate), the Financial or the Recording Secretary?

Answer—The Recording Secretary. See Section 3 of Article VIII, found on page 493, White's Digest, 1895, and Decision No. 46, found on page 15170, S.G.L. Journal of Proceedings 1897.

No. 41. Question—Who is the proper officer to whom the I.G. reports all "alarms" for admission?

Answer—The Vice Grand usually, but this is a matter left for the convenience and determination of the Subordinate Bodies.

No. 42. Question—Does the Ritual of 1896 take precedence over a Constitutional or Statutory law in matters purely ritualistic, such as opening and closing lodges, conferring degrees, etc.?

Answer—Yes.

No. 43. Question—Does the law require a Subordinate Lodge under whose By-Laws watchers are furnished at $1.50 per night to pay such an amount when the brother is in a hospital and not sick enough to require the attention of one nurse, the rules of the hospital not allowing anyone but their own nurses to care for patients and only one nurse at night in a whole ward?

Answer—No. The purpose of the law is to provide for an expense necessary to be incurred by the employment of a nurse. The amount of $1.50 per night for a nurse is not a gratuity to be paid by reason of the fact that the brother is sick, but to meet a necessity. A brother in a hospital, not sick enough to require the attention of a nurse, and is nursed under the rules of the hospital by the nurse of the ward, it is not incumbent upon his lodge to pay the $1.50 for something he never got or was not required.

Rebekah Decisions.

No. 44. Question—Does the adoption of the new Rebekah Code authorize Rebekah Lodges to pay sick and funeral benefits?

Answer—No. Under Section 18 of the Code, if a majority of members present should so vote, they might possibly have the right to occasionally make donations on charitable and benevolent grounds to their members or any other proper object within the scope of the purpose of the degree.

No. 45. Statement—Section 33 of the Rebekah Code, as amended at the recent session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, reads as follows: "Sec. 33. The membership of Rebekah Assemblies shall be limited to Past Noble Grands of Rebekah Lodges and Past Grands of Subordinate Lodges, who are members in good standing of the Rebekah Lodge, and those who have heretofore received the Assembly Degree."

Question—Under said section, is it imperative that Past Noble Grands of Rebekah Lodges and Past Grands of Subordinate Lodges shall be members of a Rebekah Lodge subordinate to the Grand Lodge of the Jurisdiction in which the Rebekah Assembly is located?

Answer—Yes. See Decision No. 34, page 509, Journal of 1900.

No. 46. Question—Are all members in good standing in a Rebekah Lodge privileged to attend the Rebekah Assembly and to receive the Assembly Degree?

Answer—No. Only such as are specified in Section No. 33 of the Code.

No. 47. Statement—Under Section 33 Rebekah Code, as amended at the recent session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, the membership of the Rebekah Assembly in this Jurisdiction includes many who are neither Past Noble Grands or Past Grands.

Question—Can such Rebekah Assembly, with the approval of the Grand Lodge, legally adopt a law which provides that none but Past Noble Grands and Past Grands shall take part in its deliberations, vote upon any question or hold office?

Answer—Yes, while the Sovereign Grand Lodge makes the necessary qualifications for membership, Rebekah Assemblies, by concurrence of the Grand Lodge, control their own legislative, judicial and executive departments.

No. 48. Question—When Section 33 of the Rebekah Code, as enacted at the session of 1900 (See daily Journal, page 127), shall take effect, will it annul or repeal a section of the Rebekah Assembly Constitution, which provides that all Past Noble Grands of Rebekah Lodges in the Jurisdiction and all delegates selected in accordance with another section providing that delegates must be Past Noble Grands of Rebekah Lodges, except that when no Past Noble Grands will accept an election as delegate, all Past Grands in membership in Rebekah Lodges may be elected as delegates, shall be members of the Assembly, thus limiting the Assembly membership to Past Noble Grands and a very small class of Past Grands, the latter not to be members except when selected as delegates. In other words, does the new Section 33 enlarge the membership of such Assembly by adding all the Past Grands formerly excluded, or is this Section 33 to be construed as a limitation not contrary to a more restricted limitation?

Answer—All Past Noble Grands, all Past Grands of Subordinate Lodges in good standing in Rebekah Lodges, and all who have heretofore received the Assembly Degree, are members whether delegates or not, and on presenting themselves with satisfactory proof of qualifications, must be admitted to the Rebekah Assembly.

No. 49. Question—Is it improper for a member in the opening ceremony of a Rebekah Lodge or lodges, to repeat in unison with the Chaplain, the Lord's Prayer?

Answer—While the law prescribes the form of prayer to be used in opening, and closing the meetings of the lodge, yet it is not imperative that the lodge shall open and close its meetings with prayer; but when it does, it must be the form prescribed by the Sovereign Grand Lodge. (See White's Digest, Section 1477.) There can be no impropriety in the members uniting with the Chaplain in repeating the prayer prescribed by the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

No. 50. Question—Can the D.D.G.M. Jewel be sold to and worn by a sister who is a D.D.G.M. in a Rebekah Lodge or Rebekah Lodges?

Answer—No. All the laws so far enacted upon the subject refer to brothers who have been appointed District Deputy Grand Masters.

No. 51. Question—Is it permissible for a sister of the Rebekah Degree to wear the Three Links?

Answer—While the law is not specific upon this question, which no doubt originated from the fact that many persons not members of the Order, have by the use of the emblems, badges and jewels proved themselves impostors, the law adopted upon the subject may have possibly been intended to apply to brothers only, yet there can be no impropriety in the Three Links being worn by any member of the Order, the Rebekah Degree being a division of Odd Fellowship. It would seem to be permissible, therefore, under the law as enacted at the late session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, found on pages 855 and 875, for a sister of a Rebekah Degree to wear the Three Links.

No. 52. Question—Is it right to give a brother or sister, upon initiation, the A.P.W., or would you only illustrate how the examination in the A.P.W. is conducted?

Answer—The A.P.W. is communicated to the candidate after having signed the Constitution. (See pages 22 and 23 of the Ritual, particularly the instructions contained in the brackets near the bottom of page 22.) This would seem to be in conflict with Decision No. 55, pages 15,171, 15,534, 15,584, Journal, 1897. While this last decision was approved, yet at the same session the Rebekah Ritual was adopted in secret session, which changes the instructions by striking out the word "prior" and inserting the word "after" in lieu thereof.

No. 53. Question—Is a brother or sister entitled to the A.P.W. who has paid his or her dues only to the date of requesting it?

Answer—If by analogy, Decision No. 13, found on page 15,165, Journal of 1897, is to apply to the A.P.W., the answer would be no. However, if an initiate, after having signed the Constitution, is entitled to the A.P.W., as set forth on page 22 of the Ritual, also on page 27 of the Rebekah Code and Digest of Laws, if these govern, although the initiate may not have paid any dues whatever on the night of initiation, then by a like analogy a brother or sister would be entitled to the A.P.W. "The A.P.W. is intended as a further proof test of membership in a Rebekah Lodge," and like the A.T.P.W., is to be used in conjunction with a Visiting or Withdrawal Card or a Certificate, but until the law and Ritual are made to harmonize, it is held that a brother or sister is entitled to the A.P.W. who has paid his or her dues only to the date of requesting it.

No. 54. Question—Is it permissible for a sister of the Rebekah Degree to wear the Three Links as a badge or emblem, prescribed by the law for members of the Order?

Answer—The law (pp. 855, 875, S.G.L. Journal, 1900) is not specific upon this question and may have been intended to apply to brothers only, but the Rebekah Degree being a division of the Order of Odd Fellowship, it is held to be permissible for a sister of the Rebekah Degree or any other member of the Order to wear the Three Links as a badge or emblem.

No. 55. Statement—A husband and wife received the Rebekah Degree in a Subordinate Lodge in an adjoining Jurisdiction. The husband has since died and the widow was suspended for non-payment of dues. She has again married, but her present husband is not an Odd Fellow. She now desires to be readmitted into the Order.

Question—Does the fact of her having taken the degree in a Subordinate Lodge change her standing in regard to re-entering the Order?

Answer—No. See Clause 1, sections 6 and 8, pages 4 and 5. Rebekah Degree Code; also on page 36 appears the following reference: "A suspended sister, having married a non-Odd Fellow, may be reinstated into the Rebekah Lodge." (1895 Journal, pp. 14,239, 14,487, 14,570).

No. 56. Question—Can a Rebekah Lodge provide, by proper By-Laws, for hiring a night watcher or nurse, for a sick sister member of the Lodge, paying for the same out of the General Fund of the Lodge?

Answer—Yes, if authorized or approved by the Grand Lodge to which the Rebekah Lodge is subordinate.

No. 57. Question—Can a Rebekah Assembly limit or restrict the right to vote for officers of the Assembly, to legislative members; i. e., can a Past Noble Grand, a member in good standing in a Rebekah Lodge, and being present in the session of the Assembly, be deprived of the right to vote for Assembly officers by a constitutional provision limiting the right to vote to Representatives?

Answer—No.

No. 58. Question—Can the right to vote for Assembly officers be limited by local law to Sister Past Noble Grands?

Answer—No.

No. 59. Question—Does "the inherent vested right" of Past Grands, mentioned in Section 1116, page 294, White's Digest, have any bearing on the question of the right to vote for Assembly officers of a Past Grand who is a member of a Rebekah Lodge and present at the Assembly (session)—during the election of officers?

Answer—Yes. In addition to Section 1116, cited in one of the series of three questions, see Section 1121, White's Digest; also Sections 33 and 34 of the Rebekah Code and Digest of Laws of 1900.

No. 60. Question—Is there any law of the Sovereign Grand Lodge requiring the President and Secretary of the Rebekah Assembly to sign dispensations or charters for new Rebekah Lodges? If not, has the Grand Lodge a right to so require?

Answer—No. See Section 45, page 22, of the Rebekah Code, edition 1900.

Encampment Decisions.

No. 61. Question—Is there any law permitting Subordinate Encampments to discard their regalia and wear in place of it a jewel?

Answer—No. See Article XXII, page 30, W.D., edition of 1895; also the chapter under the title of "Regalia," beginning at Section 1215, on page 355, and ending on page 360; also Decision No. 40, page 15,753, Journal of 1898, and the resolution by Representative Blumenthal, found on pages 14,880 and 14,881; Report No. 130 therein, found on pages 15,005, 15,071, Journal of 1896.

No. 62. Question—Can a Past Chief Patriarch, who has never taken the Grand Encampment Degree, be legally nominated and elected to office in a Grand Encampment?

Answer—Yes, but after his nomination and election he must further qualify himself by receiving the Grand Encampment Degree before being installed into office.

No. 63. Question—Can a brother who is over fifty years of age, who is a Third Degree member in good standing, be admitted as an Honorary member of the Encampment by initiation?

Answer—No. See Sections 613 and 618 of White's Digest; also Decision No. 20, page 15,166, S.G.L. Journal, 1897.

Patriarchs Militant Decisions.

No. 64. Statement—A Canton of the Department of Iowa, having regularly elected a Patriarch to membership therein, requested a Canton in the Department of Missouri to make the Patriarch a Chevalier.

Question—Would such a making be legal, and would the applicant be a member of the Iowa Canton?

Answer—The Iowa Canton was regular in electing the Patriarch to membership. It was wrong when it requested a Canton in the Department of Missouri to confer the degree upon the candidate. The candidate, however, having acted in good faith and as directed, is not responsible for the illegal request of the Iowa Canton, nor the illegal conferring of the degree by the Canton of the Department of Missouri. The newly made Chevalier's membership will be in the Canton that received his application, passed upon his qualifications and elected him to membership, viz., the Iowa Canton.

No. 65. Question—Would it be lawful for a Canton to elect to membership an officer or Chevalier from another Canton, on deposit of his receipt for dues paid for discharge, said discharge having been granted but not called for?

Answer—A Chevalier can only be admitted to membership upon a presentation of a certificate of honorable discharge from a Canton of which he was last a member, or a certificate of dismissal from a defunct Canton issued by the Commander of the Department in which the said defunct Canton was located. See Section 23 of the Code.

No. 66. Question—When shall the election of the successors of General, Field and Canton Officers, whose term of office expires April 26, 1901, be held?

Answer—As provided in the Code as amended at the session of 1900.

No. 67. Question—A Chevalier who fails to equip himself with a regulation uniform sixty days after having been mustered in as a member of a Canton (as per our application), does he by that act become an Honorary member?

Cecelo Lindley

Grand Representative.

Answer—No. Unless the By-Laws of the Canton provide for such a penalty or transfer.

No. 68. Question—An active member of a Canton sells his uniform and fails to purchase another. Does he by that act become an Honorary member?

Answer—No. Unless the By-Laws of the Canton provide for such a penalty or transfer.

No. 69. Question—A Chevalier, a member of a Canton located in one State or Department, whose Subordinate Lodge and Encampment membership is in another State, is he entitled to any elective office in the gift of the members of the Canton to which he belongs?

Answer—Yes.

No. 70. Question—Has the Canton the right to demand proof of his good standing in the Encampment to which he belongs?

Answer—No. It is the duty of the Scribe of his Encampment to notify the Canton of which the member of the Encampment is a member upon the termination of his membership in the Encampment over the seal of the same. See Section 25 of the P. M. Code.

No. 71. Statement—A Rebekah Lodge in the Jurisdiction of Kansas recommends to the Department Council of Missouri, a member of that lodge to receive the Decoration of Chivalry.

Question—There being no Department Commander in that Department, will it be legal for the Department of Missouri to authorize and confer the degree?

Answer—Yes.

No. 72. Question—In a Competitive Drill where Chevaliers make mistakes and are dropped from the lines, are not the intervals closed by the command, Right or Left Face, Close Intervals, March. The Chevaliers on right or left, who are already at close intervals, retain their position at Carry, and those between the intervals obeying the command, Closing the Intervals, Facing into Line and Dressing into Right, immediately turning the Head to the Front?

Answer—By the "Side Step."

No. 73. Question—Is the organization of what is known as "The Daughters Militant" authorized by existing law?

Answer—No. All laws, rules, orders and resolutions existing prior to the laws enacted in 1895, relating to the Militants, were repealed, except such as are specifically excepted in Section 131. Report No. 125, found on pages 14,547, 14,548, 14,549, 14,550 and 14,551, S.G.L. Journal 1895, also Sec. 132, page 33, of the Code.

No. 74. Question—Can a Canton call a special meeting for the nomination of General and Field Officers, or are they compelled to nominate at the regular meeting?

Answer—Section 60 of the Code says in part, "Nominations for General and Field Officers shall be made by the Cantons on any regular meeting night in July."

No. 75. Question—Is it absolutely necessary that a Chevalier be nominated by a Canton prior to an election, to be eligible to an election or can they elect a Chevalier regardless of nomination?

Answer—It is held that a nomination should precede an election, although by reason of unforeseen circumstances, the nomination may not have been made at the time provided by law. Sections 60, 64 and 67 of the Code are cited. If for any cause a nomination and election is not held at the proper time, the Department Commander may fill the vacancy by appointment, or he may order and conduct another election.

No. 76. Statement—The Commission of Brig.-Gen. Charles S. Martin, Commander of the Department of Michigan P.M., I.O.O.F., expires April 26, 1902.

Question—When should an election for Department Commander be held, December, 1901, or December, 1902?

Answer—December, 1901.

No. 77. Question—When should the Department Commander assume the duties of Commander after his election?

Answer—First of January nearest in point of time to the date of his commission. See Section 67 of the Code.

MISCELLANEOUS DECISIONS.

No. 78. Statement—At a regular meeting the Secretary presented the resignation of a member of the lodge at the same time charges were preferred against the Brother by the Grand Master, a Trial Committee was appointed; after which a motion was made to accept the resignation of the Brother and the same was adopted by the Lodge.

Question—Is that lodge guilty of insubordination?

Answer—Yes, in so far as it failed to carry out the instructions of the Grand Master.

No. 79. Question—Is it a violation of Section 1823 White's Digest, edition of 1895, or the Grand Sire's decision S.G.L. Journal 14,676 for a staff to have a photo taken in its robes for the exclusive use of its members, none being sold or offered for sale, and would it be permissible to have such a photo framed and hung in the lodge room?

Answer—Yes, it is a violation of Section 1828 W.D., and is therefore not permissible to have such a photo framed and hung in the lodge room. In addition to Section 1823, see Section 327 White's Digest, together with Decision No. 48, found on page 14,676, Journal of 1896, and Decision No. 52 found on page 15,170 Journal 1897.

No. 80. Statement—In our State (Illinois) the Grand Lodge grants Charters for the institution of new lodges upon the application of five or more brethren, holding live withdrawal cards, where there is no lodge in the same language. On the application of ten or more brethren in good standing where there is no more than nine lodges working in the same language, and also upon the application of twenty or more brethren in good standing where there are ten or more lodges working in the same language. The Grand Sire on page 11,484 of the S.G.L. Journal decided, so long as the number of members desiring to retain the Charter of a lodge and work thereunder, is equal to that prescribed by law as the minimum number of applicants to whom Charters will be given, such Charters cannot be taken from them by force of consolidation with another lodge.

Question—Is it legal under the above statement, to consolidate two lodges in a place where there are three (lodges) working in the same language, where seven members of one lodge are opposed to such consolidation?

Answer—No. See Section 1510, White's Digest, edition 1895.

No. 81. Question—Would it make any difference if the seven opposing members belonged to the lodge whose Charter and number they wish to retain after consolidation?

Answer—No.

No. 82. Statement—The Constitution of Subordinate Lodges in this Jurisdiction provide: "Section 80. A member who shall divulge to an applicant for membership the name of a brother who reported unfavorably upon such application, or otherwise opposed said applicant becoming a member of the lodge, shall, upon confession or conviction thereof, be expelled."

The Constitution for Rebekah Lodges contains no provision on that point, but provides: "Article X, Section 1. The Constitution for Subordinate Lodges shall be considered authority, as far as applicable, on topics and procedures not specifically mentioned in this Constitution."

A member of a Subordinate Lodge who is a member of a Rebekah Lodge reveals to an applicant for membership in his Rebekah Lodge the names of members of such lodge who are opposing the admission of said applicant to membership in said lodge.

Question—Has the Subordinate Lodge to which the brother belongs Jurisdiction to try such brother for conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow for violating the provisions of Section 80 of the Subordinate Lodge Constitution, when such an offense was committed in, or in connection with the work of the Rebekah Lodge?

Answer—No.

No. 83. Question—Is it the duty of his Subordinate Lodge to proceed against him in case complaint is made to them in proper manner, or should they wait until he has first been arraigned and tried in the Rebekah Lodge?

Answer—No. The Subordinate Lodge has no jurisdiction.

No. 84. Question—Does Section 25, page 72, White's Digest, 1889 (Sec. 51, W.D., 1895), still stand as the law of the Sovereign Grand Lodge upon the subject named therein?

Answer—Yes.

No. 85. Statement—At the last session of the Grand Lodge of the State of Delaware, held in November, 1900, that body elected to the office of Deputy Grand Master a minister of the gospel, a member of the Order in that Jurisdiction and at that time a resident of the same. In March, 1901, he was appointed to a church for one year in another Jurisdiction, and moved to the Jurisdiction of Maryland.

Question—Does the removal of a Deputy Grand Master from his Jurisdiction before his term expires vacate the office? If not, would he be eligible to the office of Grand Master in the Jurisdiction from which he removed during the continuation of said term?

Answer—The removal of a Deputy Grand Master from the Jurisdiction vacates his office, and he would not be eligible to the office of Grand Master in the Jurisdiction from which he moved by reason of any right arising out of his election as Deputy Grand Master. See Sections 896 and 897, White's Digest, page 248.

No. 86. Statement—Minnehaha Lodge No. 7, I.O.O.F., Winnipeg, Manitoba, desires to have a By-Law read as follows: "Clause 1. This lodge shall be hailed and entitled 'Minnehaha Lodge, No. 7, I.O.O.F.,' and the location thereof shall be Winnipeg, Manitoba."

This By-Law was submitted to the Committee on Laws of Subordinates of the Grand Lodge of Manitoba, who disapproved of the same on the ground that the Constitution and Charter of the lodge provided the name, and that naming the lodge by by-law was not a proper subject for a by-law, as a by-law could be changed upon due notice being given and the necessary two-thirds vote cast in its favor.

The Constitution, Article 1, reads as follows: "This lodge shall be constituted of at least five members of the Third Degree, and shall be hailed and titled 'Minnehaha Lodge, No. 7, I.O.O.F.,' and shall possess the full power and privileges of a Subordinate Lodge holding a legal, unreclaimed and valid Charter, duly granted and formally presented by the Grand Lodge of Manitoba. This Constitution can only be changed by the Grand Lodge."

Question—Was the committee correct in its ruling?

Answer—The Committee on Laws of Subordinate Lodges of the Grand Lodge of Manitoba was wrong. As long as the name set forth in the By-Laws (or it should properly be called Constitution) was the same as prescribed in the Charter, the Grand Lodge had no power to disapprove it. The lodge cannot, even if it desired, change its name, except by petition to the Grand Lodge. See White's Digest, Section 1,425.

Among the prerogatives granted by the Sovereign Grand Lodge to their Subordinates is the right to enact their own By-Laws so long as they do not conflict with the laws of the Order.

No. 87. Statement—Certain of the members of Crystal Lodge, No. 8, within this Jurisdiction, applied to and procured from the Manitoba Executive Council (our provincial government) letters of incorporation, issued under the great seal of the province incorporating them "and such others as may become shareholders of the Company," under the name of the "Odd Fellows' Building Company, of Crystal City, Limited," for the purpose and with the object of acquiring, purchasing, leasing and selling real estate and personal property, and erecting and constructing buildings, of borrowing money on the security of the real and personal property of said Company, by way of mortgaging said property, and also of lending money on mortgage and chattel mortgage as security on such terms as the Directors may authorize, and to do all such other acts as are necessary for the purposes of the company.

Question—Is it lawful for the members of our Order to use the name "Odd Fellow" in connection with any private or public business, such as is set forth in the foregoing statement upon which this question is predicated?

Answer—The proposition is clearly in violation of the laws of the Order, and the members of our Order who are also members of "The Odd Fellows' Building Company, of Crystal City, Limited," should be notified of their violation of the laws of the Order and directed to omit the words "Odd Fellows" from its title. (See chapter under the title "Emblems" in White's Digest, particularly paragraphs 1, 2, 3 and 4 of Sections 325, 326, 328, 329, 330.)

No. 88. Question—Has a sick benefit Association, under our laws, a right to advertise in the Order, that it is conducted by Odd Fellows and for Odd Fellows only, and then when a claim for sick benefits is presented, unless a Subordinate Lodge certifies under seal that the claimant is a member of that Lodge in good standing and was disabled for a fixed period of time, during which time he had been regularly visited by the Visiting Committee of the lodge, and for which disability the lodge had paid..... weeks' sick benefits?

Answer—No. (See chapter entitled "Emblems," beginning at Section 325, White's Digest, edition of 1895, and ending with Section 331; also pages 15,566, 15,567, 15,568 of the S.G.L. Journal of '97, pages 314, 352, S.G.L. Journal of 1899, and pages 975, 976, 977, 978, Journal of 1900.) These last citations bear more particularly upon insurance societies, but it is assumed that the sick benefit association of which you make mention is of a similar character.

No. 89. Statement—The Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania has for several years provided for an officer of the Subordinate Lodge called an Assistant Secretary. When the Grand Lodge recently revised the Constitution for Subordinate Lodges, it provided for three Secretaries of the Subordinate Lodge, namely, Permanent Secretary, Financial Secretary and Assistant Secretary. Based upon the following Articles of the Constitution for the Government of Subordinate Lodges for this Jurisdiction (Pa.), viz.:

"Art. XIV. Secretary. Section 1. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep accurate minutes of the proceedings of the Lodge in a book prepared for that purpose, receive all moneys due to the lodge and pay same to the Treasurer, taking his receipt therefor, and attest all orders or drafts on the Treasurer for moneys ordered to be paid. He shall fill up all certificates and shall forward to the Grand Secretary, within one week after installation, the certificate to entitle the Junior Past Grand to membership in the Grand Lodge, and annually the certificate of the election of the Representatives of the lodge. He shall have prepared for the installing officers at their visit for the purpose of installation, the annual or semi-annual report required by the Grand Lodge, and perform such other duties as may be required of him by the By-Laws or by resolution of this lodge. At the expiration of his term of office he shall deliver to his successor all books, papers, vouchers and keys belonging to his office. He shall receive for his services such sum as the By-Laws specify.

"Whenever the By-Laws of this lodge provide for a Financial Secretary, the Secretary is relieved from the performance of the duties devolving on such officer by the Ritual, this Constitution, and the By-Laws of this lodge.

"Sec. 2. At the opening of the lodge he shall call the officers' roll, and mark thereon those who are present.

"Sec. 3. It shall be his duty, whenever an application shall be made by card for relief by any Odd Fellow not belonging to this lodge, to endorse on the said card the amount of relief granted (if any), after which he shall address a communication to the lodge of which said applicant is a member, setting forth the name of said applicant and the amount of relief granted.

"Article XV. Assistant Secretary. It shall be the duty of the Assistant Secretary to aid the Secretary in the performance of his duties, supply his place when absent, give official notice to all applicants for membership of the election, notify the members of special meetings, and perform such other duties as may be enjoined by the By-Laws or a resolution of the lodge. He shall receive for his services such sum as the By-Laws may specify.

"Article XVI. Treasurer. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive from the Secretary all money collected by him, pay all orders drawn on him by the Noble Grand and attested by the Secretary. He shall keep regular and correct accounts of all money received and paid by him, have his accounts ready for settlement on the night of the election; and shall, at the expiration of his term of office, deliver to his successor all moneys, papers, vouchers in his hands. Before entering on the duties of his office he shall give security satisfactory to the lodge, and shall receive such compensation for his services as the By-Laws may specify.

"Article XVII. Financial Secretary. When a Subordinate Lodge provides in its By-Laws for the office of a Financial Secretary, it shall be his duty to keep correctly the accounts between the lodge and its members, and pay all moneys in his hands to the Treasurer, taking his receipt for the same. He shall, at the end of the month of September in each year, furnish the Permanent Secretary with a statement of the financial operation of the lodge, containing such facts as may be required to complete the annual report, and perform the duties as set forth in the obligation of the office."

Said laws clearly provide for an Assistant Secretary, although if the lodge see fit it may dispense of the Financial Secretary.

Question—Has the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania authority to add to the list of officers of the Subordinate Lodges that of an Assistant Secretary, and if so, what part of the installation ceremony shall be used at the installation of such officer into office?

Answer—No. The Sovereign Grand Lodge has declared who the officers of a Subordinate Lodge are, as will be seen by referring to Section 958, White's Digest, page 261, edition of 1895, which reads, as amended in 1897 S.G.L. Journal page 15,594, found in Report No. 171, as follows:

"Section 958. Officers of a Subordinate Lodge. The officers of a Subordinate Lodge are Noble Grand, Vice Grand, Secretary, Financial Secretary (if necessary), and Treasurer, who are elected by the lodge; Warden, Conductor, O.G., I.G., R. and L.S. of N.G., R.S.S., L.S.S., who are appointed by the N.G.; and R. and L.S.S. of the V.G., who are appointed by the V.G." Hence there can be no ceremony for installing a brother into office, that has not been authorized by the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

No. 90. Statement—At the last session of the Grand Lodge of Alabama a series of resolutions were adopted contemplating the establishment of a Home for the infirm Odd Fellows and orphans of Odd Fellows. All the sections relating to the questions following hereafter are set out in full:

"Whereas, We believe that the good of the Order demands that a Home for widows and orphans and for aged and indigent Odd Fellows should be established and maintained under the patronage and control of the Grand Lodge of Alabama, and

"Whereas, The time is now ripe for the inauguration of this good work.
"Sec. 2. That a Board of Trustees to be known as 'The Trustees of the Odd Fellows' Home,' to be elected at this session of the Grand Lodge, for the following terms of office: one for one year, one for two years, one for three years, one for four years, one for five years, their successors to be elected by the Grand Lodge at the expiration of the term of office of their predecessors.

"Section 3. That the Trustees of the Odd Fellows' Home be instructed to organize a business corporation with proper powers under the general laws of Alabama for the purpose of establishing and maintaining an Odd Fellows' Home pursuant to the premises hereof.

"Section 4. That said Trustees be charged with the promotion, location, control and management of said 'Home' free from all interference except upon the part of the Grand Lodge in session assembled."

A corporation is proposed and urged, the powers of which are as follows:

"The general purposes of the corporation shall be to own, carry on and conduct a Home or Asylum for children and widows and orphans of deceased Odd Fellows and for aged and indigent Odd Fellows and for such other persons as the officers of such corporation shall decide to admit; to receive and care for, control and educate for hire all such persons as said officers may agree to accept; to buy, sell, lease, own and improve real estate; to operate farms, gardens and orchards; to buy, sell, own and deal in personal property of every kind, securities and stocks in other corporations; to receive contributions and to make gifts when so provided by By-Laws it may adopt; and to generally have, exercise and enjoy all rights and privileges of corporations engaged in any business herein before designated; and to have all rights and powers granted and conferred by Section 1256 of the Code of Alabama of 1886, which section is made a part hereof."

"Under the general laws of Alabama any person may subscribe to the stock of a business corporation, and when a business corporation is formed, under general law, the stockholders elect the directors and these directors have the exclusive management and control, as is determined by Section 1257 of the Code. 'A Board of Directors consisting of such number as may be prescribed by the By-Laws must be elected annually by the stockholders, and must hold office for twelve months and until their successors are elected and qualified, vacancies occurring in the Board must be filled by the remaining directors; and the management of the property and business of the corporation is under the control of the Directors, who have power to elect and appoint all officers, agents and servants, removing them at pleasure, fixing their compensation and prescribing their duties; and to exercise such other powers as may be delegated to them by the By-Laws of the adoption of the Stockholders.'"

Question—(a)—Can the Grand Lodge of Alabama establish any such corporation?

Answer—No, not lawfully.

No. 91. Question—(b) Did the Grand Lodge of Alabama by its resolutions intend to establish any such corporation?

Answer—From Section 3, stated above, it would appear that the Grand Lodge did intend to establish a corporation, over which it would not have full control, when it said therein, "That the Trustees of the Odd Fellows' Home be instructed to organize a business corporation with proper powers under the general laws of Alabama" and not under the laws of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows.

No. 92. Question—(c) Can the Grand Lodge of Alabama levy a tax upon its Subordinates to support such a corporation?

Answer—No.

No. 93. Question—(d) Can the Subordinate Lodges appropriate their General Fund for the support of such a corporation?

Answer—No.

No. 94. Question—(e) Can the Subordinates appropriate their Widows and Orphans Fund for the support of such a corporation?

Answer—No.

No. 95. Question—(f) Is not such a corporation proscribed by the general laws of the Order, which prescribe that no private business enterprise shall appropriate the name or any of the emblems of the Order in carrying on its business?

Answer—Yes.

No. 96. Question—(g) Is it not the duty of the Trustees elected by the Grand Lodge for the purpose of establishing, locating and controlling a Home, to refuse to create a corporation alone and independent of them?

Answer—Yes.

In addition to the foregoing, the following statement and questions precluded upon Statement No. 90 and the questions and answers found thereunder have been submitted:

No. 97. Statement—"Section 2. That a Board of Trustees to be known as 'The Trustees of the Odd Fellows' Home' to be elected at this session of the Grand Lodge for the following terms of office, one for one year, one for two years, one for three years, one for four years, one for five years, their successors to be elected by the Grand Lodge at the expiration of the terms of office of their predecessors. Section 3. That the Trustees of the Odd Fellows' Home be instructed to organize a 'Business Corporation' with proper powers under the general laws of Alabama for the purpose of establishing and sustaining an Odd Fellows' Home pursuant to the premises hereof."

Question—(h) If the action of the Grand Lodge in the premises aforesaid is illegal does it not follow that the election of the Board of Trustees held in the Grand Lodge in pursuance to said Section 2, is also void?

Answer—The Grand Lodge of Alabama acted in accordance with the laws of the Order when it adopted the following preamble setting forth its desire and purpose to locate, erect and maintain an Odd Fellows' Home:

"Whereas, We believe that the good of the Order demands that a Home for widows and orphans and for aged and indigent Odd Fellows should be established and maintained under the patronage and control of the Grand Lodge of Alabama and

"Whereas, The time is now ripe for the inauguration of this good work."

The title or preamble of a bill or a proposed law should always disclose the object thereof. All matters contained in the law not in harmony with the title or preamble are unconstitutional. From the preamble or title just quoted, it is evident that the Grand Lodge of Alabama intended not only to authorize the location, erection and maintenance of an Odd Fellows' Home, but that the same should be done under the supervision or control of a Board of five Trustees of its own selection.

No. 98. (i.) Question—Has the Board of Trustees under said Section 3 the right to establish a benevolent corporation?

Answer—No.

No. 99. (j.) Question—If the Board of Trustees established any other but a "business corporation," would they not exceed or overstep the authority vested in them by Section 3 of the series of resolutions adopted by the Grand Lodge?

Answer—No. It is competent for the Board of Trustees to "promote, locate and control," under the laws of the Order, an Odd Fellows' Home such as is set forth in the preamble aforementioned, and is further authorized in Section 4, adopted by the Grand Lodge of Alabama, which reads:

"Section 4. That said Trustees be charged with the promotion, location, control and management of said 'Home,' free from all interference, except upon the part of the Grand Lodge in session assembled, except that all after the word 'Home' in second line of said Section 4, which reads: 'Free from all interference, except upon the part of the Grand Lodge in session assembled,' is hereby declared null and void."

—ne italics in all the foregoing are mine.)

No. 100. Question—Is the Decision No. 92 made and approved at the last session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge correct, or may the Subordinate Grand Jurisdictions refuse to establish an "Ancient Odd Fellows' Fund" and dispose of the effects of defunct lodges as may seem most expedient, provided that the usages and customs of the Order are not violated?

Answer—It is held that Decision No. 92 is correct.

No. 101. Statement—A brother received from his lodge a Dismissal Certificate; the lodge became defunct, and the person having never disposed of his Dismissal Certificate, lost or mislaid it.

Question—Can the Grand Lodge grant him a duplicate Dismissal Certificate, or a Defunct Certificate, he not being a member of the lodge at the time it surrendered its Charter?

Answer—Yes. There is no other source for the brother to receive a Dismissal Certificate except from the Grand Master and Grand Secretary during the interim, or from the Grand Lodge itself at the session.

No. 102. Question—Is the Grand Secretary authorized to issue a Grand Lodge Card to a brother who, being a member of a defunct lodge, pleads guilty in the courts of the state to a felony and is sentenced to the state penitentiary, and, after serving for a number of years, is pardoned; and afterward application is made for a Grand Lodge Card by virtue of his old membership in the defunct lodge, it appearing that the lodge was defunct when the felony was committed and no proceedings by the Order were had against him?

Answer—Yes. The Grand Secretary is authorized to issue a Dismissal Certificate upon payment of the required fee. The issuance of such Dismissal Certificate only recites a fact already known—his membership of a defunct lodge. Our laws only take cognizance when brought to attention by the methods prescribed therein. When he seeks to use the Certificate the question of his former conviction, etc., will be in the discretion of the lodge in which the Certificate is deposited for membership. Under the statement as embodied in the question, he could not have been expelled because of a lack of jurisdiction. His lodge being defunct prior to the offense, conviction and servitude, he is already cut off the Order, hence there is no way to accuse and bring him to trial. After his servitude he applies for a Certificate of the fact that he was formerly a member of the Order in good standing at the time his lodge was defunct. The Grand Secretary of our Order does not take legal cognizance of any acts of the courts independent of our Order.

No. 103. Question—Who are the proper officials to sign the "Certificate for a member of a Subordinate now defunct" issued by a Grand Encampment? In other words, will the signature of the Grand Scribe alone be sufficient to make the Card valid?

No. 104. Question—Can a Grand Representative elected from the Grand Encampment introduce a brother into the Subordinate or Grand Lodge?

Answer—Yes. See Sections, 1,706, 1,708, White's Digest; also Art. XIV, page 27, White's Digest, edition of 1895, which reads in part: "Grand Representatives of either branch being hereby authorized to introduce visiting brothers in both Subordinate Lodges and Encampments."

No. 105. Question—Who is the proper officer to sign Certificates for Grand Representatives? Is it the Grand Master who presided at the time of the election, or is it the incoming Grand Master?

Answer—The Certificates should be signed by the officer or officers duly authorized by law who may be serving at the time the Certificate is issued.

No. 106. Question—Is it unlawful to elect or nominate a candidate for Grand Representative from a State Grand Lodge upon the candidate simply stating that he is in good standing in a Subordinate Encampment and has received the Royal Purple Degree, or should he produce evidence saying that he in fact is a member in good standing in a Subordinate Body?

Answer—A candidate to be eligible for Grand Representative must be at the time of his election "a Fast Grand in good standing and a member of a Subordinate Lodge and Rebekah Lodge in good standing. He must have received the Royal Purple Degree, be a member in good standing of an Encampment in good standing, and he must reside in the State, District or Territory in which the Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment which he represents is located."

In our report last year we gave the action of the Sovereign Body in relation to the Galveston sufferers. The following is the report:

GALVESTON SUFFERERS.

Honorable Mention.

The members composing the Special Committee, consisting of T. R. Anderson, Grand Master; G. C. Fahm, Grand Secretary; S. W. Porter, Grand Treasurer, of the Jurisdiction of Texas, appointed by this Grand Body at its session in 1900, to receive and distribute funds donated and forwarded to them, in such manner as in their judgment would afford the greatest relief to the largest number of those who were made to suffer by reason of the terrible storm and flood that visited the City of Galveston, Texas, and the country surrounding it, September 5th and 9th, 1900, together with those whom they called to their assistance, as well as the entire membership of the great and good Jurisdiction of Texas, deserve not only the thanks of this Body, but the sincere thanks and just praise of all Odd Fellows for the splendid, courageous, faithful, self-sacrificing and honest manner in which they performed the laborious duties assigned them, thereby reflecting great honor upon our Order, and for which too much credit cannot be bestowed upon them.

Statistical.

From the report of the Committee, we learn that seventeen Subordinate Lodges, three Rebekah Lodges, five Subordinate Encampments and one Canton lay in the pathway of those terrible storms. Twenty-seven Odd Fellows and sixty-nine members of Odd Fellow families, making ninety-six in all, were lost forever this side the grave.

Relief.

Relief was furnished to 678 Odd Fellows and their families. Individuals, Subordinate Lodges, Rebekah Lodges, Subordinate Encampments from the various Jurisdictions responded promptly and liberally.

The amount donated being $40,012.57, of which Texas gave the munificent sum of $9,532.20.

There was expended by the Committee, $17,508.44. By others than the Committee, $717.26.

The Committee and Grand Lodge of Texas found by regarding the $9,532.20 donated by the Order of Texas, as being expended, they had $15,329.27 that could be refunded to the donors—which they did upon a basis of fifty per cent. of the amount donated—to all Jurisdictions, individuals, etc., except to Texas, as previously stated. A display of unselfishness, seldom equalled, if ever, and never surpassed. All hail! to the Odd Fellows of Texas.

Funds Refunded Belong to the Donors.

I believe that the various Grand Officers, who acted as agents in receiving from the donors, their donations and forwarded the same to the Special Committee of the Jurisdiction of Texas, appointed by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, should in turn return to the donors all funds refunded by the Special Committee. In other words—the Grand Officers acting as agents, had just as much right to fail to forward to the Special Committee all funds received from the donors, as to withhold or fail to return to the donors all funds refunded to them by the Special Committee, except in cases where the donors voluntarily or upon special solicitation should authorize the withholding of the funds so refunded to be used as the Grand Bodies might direct.

I appreciate the fact that in making the foregoing statements, that they are not in full harmony with Section 369. Paragraph 2 of Section 369 says in part: "That should there be any surplus left * * * after the purposes for which such sum is contributed, * * * said obligator shall pay the same to the Grand Treasurer of the Sovereign Grand Lodge upon the order of the Grand Sire."

Paragraphs 3, 4 and 5 of Section 369 read as follows:

"3. In such an event as is set forth in the first resolution, any Committee appointed to administer a relief fund shall be required, within a reasonable time, to make to the Grand Master of the Jurisdiction a full and complete report of their proceedings in the premises, and especially if there should be a surplus of money on hand, to report the amount thereof.

"4. Should any surplus of said moneys be reported, as aforesaid, the Grand Master shall notify the Grand Sire of the same who shall forthwith proceed to draw for the same to the order of the Grand Treasurer.

"5. Any such surplus moneys that shall come to the hands of the Grand Treasurer, as aforesaid, shall be invested and held by him under the orders of the Grand Lodge, to be kept for such purposes of special relief as may seem best to conserve the purposes for which they were contributed."

It will be noted in Paragraph 5, just above quoted, that the funds shall "Be kept for such purposes of special relief as may seem best to conserve the purposes for which they were contributed." Believing that the purposes for which the funds under consideration were contributed, have been wholly conserved, I think the rule as laid down in Section 371, governs, which reads as follows:

"371. Surplus Aid to be Returned.—When any Lodge or Lodge members in any locality shall suffer and shall ask and obtain permission to solicit aid in other than the Jurisdiction where they reside. Such aid so obtained shall, if a surplus above actual need be obtained, be returned to those contributing it, and the Grand Lodge of the Jurisdiction shall see that it is promptly done."

Grand Bodies may be holding these funds so refunded, waiting your instructions. Your decision upon this subject is, therefore, most respectfully requested. For additional information upon this subject, see Document No. 10, in the Appendix.

Fraternal Press.

It was my privilege and pleasure, at the very outset of this report, to congratulate you upon the splendid condition of the Order. I now desire to call your attention to the Fraternal Press, and the wonderful work that is being accomplished for the upbuilding of our beloved Order. The spirit of unselfishness is everywhere made manifest by the editors and publishers of these papers. A duty is now being performed by them in the cause of humanity in the spirit of love for their fellowmen seldom equalled and never surpassed. These papers should receive every encouragement possible. They are a power for good. I not only congratulate them upon what they have done and are doing, but take this opportunity of publicly thanking them for the very valuable support they have given to my weak efforts during the year and most earnestly request their continued support.

Jewels.

In addition to the handsome and greatly appreciated Jewels that have been provided for District Deputy Grand Masters and District Deputy Grand Patriarchs, there should be an appropriate Jewel designed, owned and controlled by this Body, for District Deputy Presidents, or as Special Deputy Grand Masters, or Special Deputy Patriarchs and Past District Deputy Patriarchs, Past Special Deputy Grand Masters or Past Special Deputy Patriarchs, for the use of Deputies in Rebekah Lodges. As the law now stands, these officers cannot wear a Jewel.

Official Key to the Unwritten Work.

The demand for an Official Key to the Unwritten Work comes from almost every Jurisdiction. The fear, if there ever really was any entertained, that the secret work of the Order would not be as safe in the vaults of the various Grand Bodies as in those of this Grand Body certainly is groundless now. I believe in uniformity and correctness in the Unwritten Work. I am firmly of the opinion that an Official Key to the Unwritten Work published by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, gotten up in first-class style as to paper and binding, insuring durability, and sold to the various Grand Bodies at a price that would well repay its cost, allowing the various Grand Bodies, under such restrictions as you might suggest, to in turn supply Subordinate Bodies each a copy thereof at a fair price, which they would willingly pay, knowing that the demand for such a work would necessarily be limited to the present Subordinate Bodies, plus what will be a fair estimate of the increase in Subordinate Bodies for the next few years to come. I am further of the opinion that the officers of the Subordinate Bodies can each be trusted with a copy of a Key, as they are now, without questioning, trusted with the Rituals.

Return to Covington, Ohio.

When by your partiality of 1900, you elected me to the position of Grand Sire, the Executive Officer of the grandest, greatest fraternal and benevolent society in the wide world, it seemed to me that my cup was full, that no higher honor could be bestowed upon mortal man, that nothing could possibly be done that would arouse deeper feelings of gratitude on my part. It was only necessary, however, to dispel this feeling, for me to wait until my arrival at Covington, Ohio, whose people are noted for their honesty, integrity, industry, frugality, intelligence, generosity, purity and true Christian character, the place that I call home, the home of Covington Lodge No. 383, I.O.O.F., the Lodge that honored my name by giving it a place on its Constitution, and be received as I was upon that occasion, by the whole population of that most beautiful little city and of the matchless country surrounding it, together with the immense throngs that came from neighboring towns and cities, and such a spirit of love, affection and joy as was manifested, on that ever to me eventful evening, see the smiling countenances, the eyes filled with tears of joy and gladness, feel the hearty clasp of hands, whose warmth pulsated the love with which the hearts were filled, listen to the shouts of Welcome Home, heard on every hand, and witness such an evidence of good will, the like of which I may never hope to see again. All of which was sufficient to cause the honor of my election to dwarf into insignificance, and yet, my brothers, having lived almost my entire life in that community, going in and out before its people, and having enjoyed, as it may not be improper for me to state, a full share of their confidence and respect, yet all that demonstration was not intended as an honor to me personally, no, no. It was to the Executive Officer of the great Order represented by me temporarily.

These acts on the part of our neighbors, our Brothers and our friends, make us believe that life is worth the living, create in us new and lofty aspirations, fill our hearts with purer thoughts, higher and holier motives, and encourage us in the performance of nobler acts.

These are the most beautiful bouquets that fall across our pathway as we journey through life. They make the way smoother and shorter, our labors lighter and pleasanter, and our respect for our fellowmen greater and more enduring. Such evidences of man's friendship for his fellow man throw around the sacred name of friend and Brother a halo of glory, respect and devotion.

I can never hope to reciprocate or convince all those dear people of my great appreciation of that most wonderful testimonial of respect, confidence and love.

I hope you will pardon whatever has been said that refers personally to myself. I feel, however, that I would have been untrue to myself and every instinct of my nature, to have said less concerning my home, Covington Lodge, and the people of that little city and community. I wish I could say more.

Conclusion.

The year has been an extremely busy one with me, but the work has been that of love, and the pleasure resulting therefrom far out-weighed the troubles that have attended the duties of the office.

I have endeavored at all times, under all circumstances, to hold the banner of Odd Fellowship up as a beacon light to all the world, bidding and beckoning all who believe in the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of man to come and assist us in the great work we have started out to accomplish, that of fraternizing the world, breaking down the bigotry of caste and the curse of selfishness.

Expressing the hope that each officer and member will take for his guide in all his actions during this session—what can I do that will promote and protect the best interests of our beloved Order, and returning my sincere thanks to all for the many courtesies at their hands, I await your further pleasure.

Fraternally submitted,

A. C. CABLE,

Grand Sire and Commander-in-Chief.

The membership of the Order has made a wonderful increase during the past year, and to-day the Independent Order of Odd Fellows number more in their ranks than any other "fraternal organization in the world." On this subject the Secretary of the Sovereign Grand Lodge says, in part, to-wit:

"In contemplating the scene presented before us in the statistical tables in this report, our hearts are gladdened and our hope and confidence strengthened. There is absolutely nothing to excite our fears or to create anxiety for the future of our Order. Its career is prosperous and promising in the highest degree. The high hopes created by the great advance made in 1899 have had ample fulfillment in the stronger growth of 1900. The close of the nineteenth century marked the most important epoch in the history of Odd Fellowship, witnessing, in its closing year, an increase in Subordinate Lodge membership which has never been equalled. By adding the growth of the Subordinate Lodge membership in the year 1900 to the Sisters uniting with Rebekah Lodges, an increase of nearly 70,000 is shown, the largest of any year in our history. Pursuing the same course with the aggregate membership in Subordinate Lodges and Sisters, members of Rebekah Lodges, a grand total of about 1,130,000 members of the Order is shown. These figures show that the Independent Order of Odd Fellows is the leading fraternal organization in the world.

OFFICIAL CERTIFICATES.

In last year's report we called special attention to the report of the Special Committee on Mileage and Per Diem, found on page 171 of the Grand Lodge Report of Illinois. To give this Jurisdiction some idea of the increase in the use of the certificates we print the following table from the Grand Secretary's report:

[See page 205]

ORPHAN HOMES AND OTHER HOMES.

We were very proud of our Orphan Home band. It was complimented by every one. Illinois can justly point with pride to our Odd Fellows' Homes in this state. That this Grand Lodge may know what the Order is doing in our sister Jurisdictions, we offer the following table from the Grand Secretary's Report:

[See pages 206 and 207.]

STATISTICAL TABLES.

Since the Sovereign Grand Lodge has limited the supply of the reports of that Grand Body, your Representatives have received many letters from this Jurisdiction asking for the statistical reports, or a part of them, referring to other states. That each member of the Grand Lodge of Illinois may have the same, we offer the following statistical tables:

FINANCIAL CONDITION OF THE SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE.

Report 10. By Rep. Conway, of Illinois, from the Sub-Committee on Finance:

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Sub-Committee on Finance begs leave to submit the following report: On the 12th of August, 1901, we visited the office of the Grand Secretary, at Baltimore, and made examination of the vouchers and books of the Grand Treasurer and the expense accounts and books of the Grand Secretary.

We found the cash account of the Grand Treasurer correct; also the accounts of the Grand Secretary, and submit herewith the following:

Cash Account, as Shown by the Books of the Grand Treasurer.

Receipts on hand July 31, 1900.....	$50,287 81
Receipts to July 31, 1901.....	64,368 72
Interest on deposits.....	811 87
Total.....	$115,468 40

Disbursements.

Paid warrants, mileage and per diem and other expenses of session of 1900.....	$36,894 80
Paid warrants for supplies, salaries, etc., to July 31, 1901...	25,171 35
Balance in the hands of the Grand Treasurer July 31, 1901..	53,402 25
Total.....	$115,468 40

Assets of the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Cash in hands of Grand Treasurer.....	$53,402 25
Cash on deposit for insurance.....	300 00
Steel and electrotype plates, etc.....	15,529 53
Library (cost of binding volumes).....	1,273 83
Supplies (at cost).....	16,723 49
Sovereign Grand Lodge real estate (building).....	30,642 61
Paintings and furniture.....	11,453 78
Debtor balances.....	1,704 09
Total assets.....	$131,029 58
Assets, July 31, 1900.....	126,942 34

Increase in fiscal year just closed..... $4,087 24

At the close of the fiscal year, July 31, 1900, we found that a gain of $1,613.78 had been made in cash on receipts in excess of expenditures, and the net gain in assets for the fiscal year, closing July 31, 1900, $1,525.70, with the expense of the session during that fiscal year, $29,137.44. This was the Detroit session, and the expense was low on account of it being a very central point. Our meeting last year at Rich-miond cost us for session expenses, $36,894.80, $1,500 of which was donation to the Galveston sufferers, still leaving the regular expense of the session over $35,000; but, notwithstanding this large increase in the cost of holding our annual communication, your committee takes pleasure in calling attention to the fact that our gains for the fiscal year just closed in receipts over expenditures have been in cash, $3,114.44, and in assets, $4,087.24.

This is certainly a magnificent showing, in fact the best record, we believe, that has ever been made in any one year in the business end of our Order, and your committee is clearly of the opinion that the Sovereign Body is at the present time on a basis whereby we can feel morally sure that the ordinary annual receipts will hereafter be equal to or in excess of the ordinary annual expenditures—a proud position, and one that we should always endeavor to maintain.

This splendid showing could not have been possible were it not for the magnificent work and careful business management of the Grand Secretary, coupled with the very able work of the Printing Committee, and great credit is due the Grand Secretary and the Printing Committee for their untiring zeal in the interests of our beloved Order.

We closed our books July 31, 1899, with cash on hand, $48,671.03; July 31, 1900, with $50,287.81, and July 31, 1901, notwithstanding the extra expense of the Richmond session, caused by the distance traveled and the donation to the Texas sufferers (one-half of which was by that Jurisdiction subsequently returned), with $53,402.25 cash in the treasury.

Amendments to Constitution of Grand Lodge of Illinois Approved.

Report 24. By Rep. Small, of Maine, from the same committee:

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on Constitutions, to whom were referred the amendments to the Constitution of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, report that we have examined the same, and recommend that the action of the Grand Sire in approving these amendments be ratified.

NEW LEGISLATION.

The following amendment to the Constitution of the Sovereign Grand Lodge was adopted, giving the Grand Lodge or Encampment of a state the right by legislation to provide for the admission of male persons of mixed Indian and white blood who have arrived at the age of twenty-one. The amendment adopted is as follows, to-wit:

Resolved, That Section 2, Article XVI, of the Constitution of the Sovereign Grand Lodge be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 2. No person shall be entitled to admission to the Order except free white males of good moral character, who have arrived at the age of twenty-one years, and who believe in a Supreme Being, the Creator and Preserver of the Universe: Provided, however, That in Australia, New Zealand and other countries not on the continent of North America in which the Order has been or may hereafter be established, and a Grand Lodge or Grand Lodges formed, the qualifications as to age shall be left to local legislation: And provided, further, That in Jurisdictions where there is a population composed of a mixture of Indian and white blood a State Grand Lodge or Encampment may, by legislation, provide for the admission of male persons of mixed Indian and white blood who have arrived at the age of twenty-one.

The question being on the amendment, Rep. Dunton, of Idaho, moved that its consideration be indefinitely postponed, when, after much discussion, Rep. Farnham, of Rhode Island, moved the previous question, when the Grand Sire asked, "Shall the previous question be now put?"

Which was decided in the affirmative.

The question recurring on the indefinite postponement, it was not agreed to.

The question recurring on the amendment it was adopted, 135 voting in the affirmative and 41 in the negative.

Another amendment to the Constitution was adopted which gives all Grand Lodges chartered after the year 1900 a right to elect a Grand Representative with limited privileges. The amendment is as follows:

The following amendment, page 875, Journal of Proceedings of 1900, was considered:

Resolved, That a section be added to Article IX of the Constitution of this Sovereign Grand Lodge to read as follows, to-wit

Sec. 6. Each independent Grand Lodge, which shall have accepted and which shall be working under the charter adopted in the year 1900, to be offered to all such independent Grand Lodges and each independent Grand Lodge chartered by the Sovereign Grand Lodge after the year 1900, may elect a Grand Representative to this Sovereign Grand Lodge whose qualifications, term of office, and privileges and duties, shall be the same as those of other Grand Representatives, except that no compensation shall be paid to any such Grand Representative by this Sovereign Grand Lodge.

The consideration of all other amendments to the Constitution was killed by the usual motion to indefinitely postpone.

Charters.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., September 12, 1901.

I hereby certify that the following is a true copy of the memorial adopted by the Grand Lodge, I.O.O.F., of Indiana, at the May Session, 1901.

W. H. LEEDY, Grand Secretary.

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred the memorial to the Sovereign Grand Lodge, submitted by Grand Secretary Leedy, concerning the rights of Grand Lodges to sell and issue charters to Subordinates, as follows:

At the session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge held at Richmond, Va., in September, 1900, the following resolutions were adopted:

"Resolved, That the Committee on Printing Supplies be, and they are hereby, authorized and directed to prepare a form of charter for Subordinate Lodges and Encampments, which shall be uniform in design and in language, and place the same on sale by the Grand Secretary with the salable supplies of this Sovereign Body, and that said committee fix the price of said charter at a reasonable percentage above its cost; provided that such charter shall not be finally adopted until it has been submitted to the Grand Sire, and receive his approval.

"Resolved, That the Grand Secretary shall notify the several Jurisdictions of this form of charter when it is ready for sale and inform all such Jurisdictions that this charter only must be used when a new Lodge or Encampment is instituted, or when a duplicate charter is issued to replace one that has been lost or destroyed, and that its purchase is to be made from this Sovereign Grand Lodge through the Grand Secretary of each of said several Jurisdictions." (Pages 840-873, Journal of 1900.)

It would appear to this Grand Lodge that such legislation is in contravention of its vested rights. The Constitution of the Sovereign Grand Lodge reserves to that body only such powers as it specifically sets out, and grants to State Grand Bodies all other powers. Acting under this literal construction, this Grand Lodge has for more than half a century exercised the right to prepare and issue its own form of charter, and in doing so, had executed at a cost of several hundred dollars, lithographic plates for the charters of each of its Subordinate branches. The value of these plates is wholly destroyed if such legislation is constitutional. Farther, such legislation is in contravention of its own authority. The revenues of the Sovereign Grand Lodge are restricted by the Constitution to sales of books, diplomas, cards, certificates and odes. Sale of charters is not contemplated therein, and there is a serious question, in view of the reservations made by the Constitution itself, if the Sovereign Grand Lodge may resort to a means wholly foreign to its conditions, for that purpose.

The Grand Lodge of Indiana, therefore, through its Grand Representatives, respectfully memorializes the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and asks that it judiciously review such legislation, that injustice may not be done its subordinates, and that the strength of the Constitution be not impaired by its violation, if such shall be found to be the case.

Rep. Hogate, of Indiana, moved that the resolution be referred to a committee of five to be appointed by the Grand Sire, which was agreed to.

Special Committee on Charters: Reps. Hogate, of Indiana; Norris, of Nebraska; Lindly, of Illinois; Hawkes, of Pennsylvania; Goudy, of Colorado.

Report 91. By Rep. Hogate, of Indiana, from the Special Committee on Charters:

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Special Committee on Charters have had before them the memorial from the Grand Lodge of Indiana, found on page 18 of the daily journal, and after due deliberation report that, in the opinion of the committee, the action of this Grand Body at its session in 1900, found on pages 840 and 873, Proceedings of 1900, is not warranted by the Constitution. We therefore recommend that the prayer of the Grand Lodge of Indiana be granted, that the action of this Body in 1900 be reviewed, and that the above named enactment be and the same is hereby repealed.

Signed by the Committee.

New Charter.

Report 123. By Rep. Lindly, of Illinois, from the Rebekah Committee:

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on the Rebekah Degree have considered resolution No. 13, page 26, by Rep. Mack, of Nevada, and report on the subject matter of the resolution as follows:

We find upon examination that the charter prepared by the Committee on Printing Supplies for Rebekah Lodges does not contain a single emblem of the Rebekah Degree, and is only to be distinguished from the charter for Subordinate Lodges by the insertion of the word "Rebekah" in the body of the instrument. Such form of charter is, in the opinion of this committee, inappropriate and wholly unsuitable for Rebekah Lodges, and we therefore offer and recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That the form of charter prepared for Rebekah Lodges be not issued; that the Grand Sire appoint a special committee of three to design a form of charter for Rebekah Lodges containing the emblems of the Rebekah Degree, and that the Committee on Printing Supplies be, and hereby are, directed to prepare a charter in accordance with such design.

Signed by the Committee.

Reports of the Committee on Judiciary affecting the Grand Sire's decisions, printed in another part of this report. We call attention to these changes; they are important in construing the law.

Report 103. By Rep. Benedict, of South Dakota, from the Committee on the Judiciary:

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on the Judiciary, to whom were referred questions numbered 12 (a), 13 (b) and 14 (c), of the decision of the Grand Sire, having had the same under careful consideration, respectfully report as follows:

The committee recommend:

1. That the answer to question No. 12 (a) be approved.
2. That the answer to question No. 13 (b) be amended so as to read: "The Home is not liable."
3. That the answer to question No 14 (c) be amended so as to read: "While an inmate of the hospital for the insane the relation and liability of the Lodge to the brother is the same as to its other members. It is liable to pay him sick benefits."

Signed by the Committee.

Report No. 104. By Rep. Bullard, of Montana, from the same committee:

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on the Judiciary, to whom were referred decisions numbered 24, 25, 26 and 33 of the Grand Sire, respectfully report:

For the reasons set forth in the report this day presented by your committee on the queries submitted by Representatives Campbell and Gamble at the session of 1900, we recommend that the answer in each of the decisions numbered 24, 25, 26 and 33 be amended so as to read as follows:

Yes. The penalty to be inflicted upon an Odd Fellow convicted of being a saloon-keeper or bartender contrary to the law of our Order, and who, at the time of his conviction, continues in such business, is expulsion; but if the offending member has, prior to his conviction, in good faith, discontinued such business, then the penalty is such as may be determined by the trial by the Lodge.

Signed by the Committee.

Report 105. By Rep. Benedict, of South Dakota, from the same committee:

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on the Judiciary, to whom were referred questions Nos. 34 (e), 35 (f) and 36 (g), under the head of "Decisions," by the Grand Sire, having had the same under consideration, beg to report as follows, to-wit:

The committee recommend:

1. That the answer to question No. 34 (e) be amended so as to read "No."
2. That the answer to question No. 35 (f) be amended so as to read "Yes."

3. That the answer to question No. 36 (g) be amended so as to read "Yes."

Signed by the Committee.

Report 106 (Majority). By Rep. Bullard, of Montana, from the same committee:

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on the Judiciary, to whom were referred decisions numbered 27, 28 and 29 of the Grand Sire, respectfully report:

In the judgment of your committee, the definition of the term "Saloon-keeper," as used in Section 5 of Article XVI of the Constitution of this Grand Lodge, is not found by reference to the classification prescribed by statutes fixing the license to be paid for the privilege of carrying on various lines of business, but by looking to the meaning of the term as understood in the ordinary use of the English language. The term "saloon-keeper" is applied by common consent to one who maintains a place of public resort where intoxicating liquors are dispensed in small quantities, that is by the drink, to be consumed on the premises where sold.

We, therefore, offer the following resolution, and recommend its adoption:

Resolved, That the answer to each of the decisions numbered 27, 28 and 29 be amended so as to read as follows:

Answer: Yes.

As thus amended we recommend that each of said decisions be approved.

Fraternally submitted,

MASSENA BULLARD

G. W. NORRIS,

W. E. BENEDICT,

C. I. RINEHART.

Report No. 108 (Majority). By Rep. Goudy, of Colorado, from the same committee:

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on the Judiciary, to whom were referred decisions Nos. 82 and 83 of the Grand Sire, would report thereon as follows, namely:

That the answer to the question in decision No. 82 should be "Yes," as a subordinate lodge unquestionably has jurisdiction to punish a brother for offenses committed in a Rebekah lodge (White's Digest, Secs. 1608 and 1616). The exposing of the business of any branch of our Order is undoubtedly an offense against our laws.

The question in decision No. 83 must be divided, and to the first part, "Is it the duty of his subordinate lodge to proceed against him in case complaint is made to them in proper manner?" the answer should be "Yes," this being the duty of a subordinate lodge in case of any proper complaint. To the second portion of the question, "Should they wait until he has first been arraigned and tried in the Rebekah lodge?" the answer should be "No," as the action of the subordinate lodge on an offense is entirely independent of any action of any other branch of the Order. We, therefore, recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That decisions numbered 82 and 83, respectively, are disapproved, and that the answers to the questions therein contained as above set forth by this committee be and are hereby approved.

Fraternally submitted,

FRANK C. GOUDY,
A. B. LOVAN,

Report 110. By Rep. Bullard, of Montana, from the same committee:

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

At the 76th annual communication of this Grand Lodge certain queries submitted by Reps. Campbell and Gamble, at the request of the Grand Lodge of Minnesota, and found on page 815 of the journal of that communication, were referred to the Committee on the Judiciary. The committee presented three reports upon said queries, which reports were by the order of this Grand Lodge omitted from the journal and recommitted.

Your Committee on the Judiciary, having had the said queries a second time under consideration, now report thereon as follows:

To avoid the inconvenience of a reference to the Journal of 1900, we quote so much of the queries as suffices to present the questions involved.

"1. Q. A brother, having started in the saloon business July 1st, made application for withdrawal card July 10th. Can this lodge grant the card?"

Your committee recommend that the answer to the first query be:

Yes; unless charges have been preferred against him or shall be preferred at the meeting to which the application for card is presented.

"2. Q. There is an application for membership of a man who is agent of a brewery, but not a dispenser of beer or liquor over bar or in a saloon, and we desire your ruling on the same as to whether he is eligible to become a member or not."

Your committee recommend that the answer to the second query be: He is eligible.

"3. Q. We have a brother who has recently started a hotel. He does not tend the bar himself. The name of the hotel is the Vail Hotel, which is his name. The license is taken out in the name of the Vail Hotel. Is he a saloon keeper or not?"

Your committee recommend that the answer to the third query be: He is not a saloon keeper.

"4. Q. What is the penalty that must be imposed on a brother that engages in the saloon business?"

Under the provisions of Section 5 of Article XVI of the Constitution of this Grand Lodge, no saloon keeper, bar tender or professional gambler is eligible to membership in this Order. In construing the provisions of said Section 5, this Grand Lodge has determined that an Odd Fellow, not a saloon keeper, at the date Section 5 became a law, who thereafter becomes a saloon-keeper, is guilty of conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow, but the penalty for such offense has not thus far been fixed by general law. If an Odd Fellow becomes a saloon keeper, in violation of the constitutional provision on that subject, he puts himself in a position where he would be ineligible if an applicant for membership. If, on conviction, he shall be continuing in the business of a saloon keeper, he is then ineligible to membership, and expulsion appears to be the only penalty to be inflicted. But, if an Odd Fellow shall become a saloon keeper, in violation of our laws, and prior to conviction shall in good faith discontinue the objectionable vocation, and thus render himself eligible to membership, the penalty may be such as in the judgment of the trial lodge, is adequate to the offense. Your committee, therefore, offer the following resolution and recommend its adoption as an answer to the fourth query:

Resolved, That the penalty to be inflicted upon an Odd Fellow convicted of being a saloon keeper contrary to the law of our Order, and who, at the time of his conviction, continues in such business, is expulsion; but if the offending member has, prior to his conviction, in good faith, discontinued such business, then the penalty is such as may be determined by the trial lodge.

Signed by the Committee.

Some Other Important Legislation.

The request for a Grand Lodge for Mexico was denied, the Subordinate membership in that country not being strong enough to warrant it.

In all future editions of the Subordinate Encampment charge book the ceremony for the institution of the new Encampments will be printed therein.

Permission was granted to the National Odd Fellows' Sanitarium of Florida to solicit funds from the various Jurisdictions for the support of that institution.

The Grand Secretary was authorized to exchange English Rituals for German ones of the edition of 1896 without expense, all transportation charges being paid.

An official cipher key will be prepared and sold to Grand Secretaries and Grand Scribes, where those entitled to see the same may do so. This will make it easier for members to get the work accurately, and was a good piece of legislation.

The official certificate was ordered changed in future editions, if thought advisable by the Printing Committee, by inserting a blank line under the words "in full for all charges to," and by printing the words "whose name is written by him on the margin hereof" under the second blank line.

Grand Lodges and Grand Encampments are authorized to legislate so that members of the Order in Odd Fellows' Homes are given the passwords, etc., the same as if at their own home. Most inmates in such Homes are not entitled to sick benefits, and their standing in the Order has not been clearly defined.

A committee of five was ordered on connecting link—that is, to consider and report at the next session the advisability and desirability of some form of intervisitation and interrelief between our Order and the Manchester Unity of Odd Fellows, the parent of our Order. The Manchester Unity has already expressed itself as being favorably disposed to the object sought by the resolution.

"If the motion to adjourn prevails, the Lodge must then proceed to close in due form, provided that in the event that cases of sick and distressed members have not been disposed of prior to the adoption of such motion, such cases shall be considered before the Lodge is formally closed."

That after one year from the date of suspension a member dropped or suspended for non-payment of dues may be reinstated upon the payment of the amount of one year's dues, or such greater sum as the by-laws may prescribe.

"That after a Brother has become 60 years of age, and has been a contributing member for 25 consecutive years, his name shall not be dropped from the roll by virtue of his being more than one year in arrears for non-payment of dues, but he shall be retained as a non-beneficial member, and as such shall be entitled to the password and fellowship of Lodges. Such honorary members shall have all the privileges of active members, except benefits, and Subordinate Lodges shall not be compelled to pay per capita tax on such honorary members. Such honorary members may be reinstated as provided for the reinstatement of dropped members by the Constitution and by-laws of the several Jurisdictions."

The legislation last year whereby a uniform charter was adopted for all new Lodges organized in the future, was repealed. It was shown that this was a local matter, each Jurisdiction being supreme regarding the form of charter it uses.

When the death of President McKinley was announced, the Grand Sire issued the following proclamation:

Covington, Ohio, Sept. 14, 1901.

DEATH OF WILLIAM MCKINLEY, PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

To the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, wherever dispersed throughout the globe, you who have been taught to be "Grateful to your Creator, faithful to your respective countries, and fraternal to your fellowmen:"

A terrible calamity has befallen one of the greatest nations on the earth. William McKinley, president of the United States of America, has been shot and killed by a seditious anarchist, a stealthy enemy to his country. What an awful, sad and terrible blow has been dealt to every lover of good government, liberty, Christianity and justice, in shooting down the president of a great nation by a cowardly assassin! This seems indeed too great a sacrifice for any people to be called upon to make. I believe that good will yet come out of it all, that justice will be meted out to the guilty one and his accessories. But as the President said in his dying moments: "It's God's way, His will be done."

Let us hope and pray that a rift will be made in the dark and dense cloud that is now hanging over a sorrow-stricken people of a great nation; that the sunshine of God's will, as to their future, their duty and their destiny, be made known to all.

Fraternally,

A. C. CABLE,

Attest:

Grand Sire and Commander-in-Chief.

J. FRANK GRANT,

Grand Secretary and Adjutant-General.

Rep. Daniel, of Georgia, moved that the proclamation of the Grand Sire upon the assassination of William McKinley be approved, and that the same be printed in the proceedings of this session, and also the following, which were agreed to:

Resolved, That a committee of fifteen be appointed to whom shall be referred all resolutions and papers in reference to the assassination of President McKinley, and that the committee report to this Grand Body resolutions expressing the sentiments of the Sovereign Grand Lodge upon the assassination and death of Mr. McKinley, president of the United States.

Rep. Daniel, of Georgia, offered the following, for which he asked immediate consideration:

Resolved, That the report of the special committee on the assassination of William McKinley, president of the United States, be assigned as a special order for 9:30 o'clock on Thursday, the 19th inst.

At 9:30 Thursday Morning, Sept. 19th.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge then declared a recess, in order that the public might be admitted, so that the report of the special committee on the death of President McKinley might be considered.

E. S. Conway

Grand Representative.

The committee submitted the following report:

Report 67. By Rep. Daniel, of Georgia, from the special committee on the assassination of President McKinley.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 19, 1901.

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

We stand to-day in the shadow of a great national sorrow.

Wm. McKinley, the president of the United States, was shot to death by an assassin.

Suddenly and terribly, without reason or excuse, the dastardly crime was committed, and one of the world's greatest men was ushered into the presence of God.

To-day, all that is mortal of this good man will be laid to rest in the bosom of his mother earth; under the sod he loved so well; wrapped in the folds of his country's flag, that he had so signally and gloriously exalted in life.

It is meet and proper that this Order, having a membership of over one million people in the United States, the Dominion of Canada and other foreign countries, should give expression to our sentiments on this occasion.

In the name and in behalf of Odd Fellowship, everywhere, we denounce the assassination of Wm. McKinley as wantonly wicked, inhuman and cowardly. Neither the assassin, nor that class he represents, had any cause for complaint against the president of the United States or the government whose affairs he was so wisely, justly and successfully administering.

Mr. McKinley was an extraordinary man. He possessed a heart of gold, and a nature gentle, kind and fraternal. He loved his fellowmen and sought in every way to better their condition. He was the representative and chief magistrate of a government whose flag is the symbol of freedom and liberty—a flag that ever floats an invitation to the oppressed and persecuted of earth to come and rest under its shelter, where no tyrant on earth can tear them from its protection.

The bright stars that bedeck it are as the crystal lights hanging in the heavens to the lonely mariner, pointing to a home and a haven of rest. The beautiful stripes that span it are as the rainbow across the heavens, a perpetual promise of protection to all who rest under its folds. Its stars are the coronets of freedom; its stripes the scourge for the tyrant. There can be no influence more powerful; there can be no holier thrill than that which the flag of this country should inspire in every patriot's heart.

Yet, that emblem of liberty has been foully assailed. The highest representative of that sentiment has been cowardly assassinated.

No wonder that the sun, next day, hid its head behind the clouds, and the God of love and peace draped the earth in shadow. For the citadel of liberty had been assaulted, the country of refuge had been attacked.

It behooves every law-abiding citizen of every land to rally around the standard of law and order in a determined and successful effort to suppress anarchy and anarchists.

Under the principles and teachings of Odd Fellowship the spirit of anarchy cannot live. To be an Odd Fellow, one must cherish and protect his fellow-man, not destroy him. He must, in "spirit and in truth be grateful to his Creator, faithful to his country, fraternal to his fellow-man and loyal to the government under which he lives."

In behalf of this vast brotherhood, we denounce the assassination of President McKinley as a dastardly crime against a fellow-man, and a wicked stroke against law, order and good government throughout the world.

In our official capacity we pledge the combined strength and influence of this Order to an effort to suppress and forever eradicate from our social system anarchy and anarchism.

Words cannot express the deep sorrow we feel in the loss to the nation of such a wise, conservative and just ruler as was Wm. McKinley.

He will live in history as one of the greatest presidents. He will live in the kindly affections of all his people, as a man whose life was a glorious type of American manhood.

Under his matchless leadership the United States have attained a first place among the nations of the earth.

The stars and stripes float proudly over new seas and in distant climes.

Born in one of the greatest nations on earth, Wm. McKinley readily partook of all its best principles, and rapidly advanced in popular favor, until a loving constituency twice placed him in the highest position in the gift of the American people.

Wm. McKinley was born an American, he lived for America, and he glorified America by his brave Christian death.

All over this beautiful land sorrowing hearts will hold in loving reverence the memory of our third martyred president, Wm. McKinley.

As a mark of respect to him, we submit the following:

Resolved, That the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the I.O.O.F. do now adjourn for the day in respect to the memory of Wm. McKinley, and that we attend in a body the memorial service at 11 o'clock at Meridian Methodist Church.

Resolved, That a certified copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the Hon. John Hay, Secretary of State.

Fraternally submitted,

JOHN M. BRODRICK.

ENOCH G. HOGATE.
HILL MONTAGUE.
CHAS. N. ALEXANDER.
JOHN S. GAUNT.

On motion of Rep. Daniel, of Georgia, seconded by Grand Secretary Grant, the report was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

On the same subject, appropriate addresses were delivered by Rep. Goudy, of Colorado; P. G. Sires Campbell and Underwood; Reps. Semmes, of Alabama; Robinson, of Maine; Montague, of Virginia; Duseault, of Massachusetts, which will appear in the Journal of Proceedings.

After which the officers and members of the Sovereign Grand Lodge arose and, with bowed heads, united in repeating the Lord's prayer.

In compliance with the resolution, the Grand Lodge did adjourn and in a body attended the memorial services at the Meridian Methodist Church.

DEATH OF P. G. SIRE NICHOLSON.

Report 100. By Bro. Durham, P. G. Sire, from the committee on the death of Bro. Nicholson, P. G. Sire:

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

The undersigned committee, to whom was referred that portion of the Grand Sire's report in relation to the death of Past Grand Sire James B. Nicholson, would report that the task, while a cheerful one, is difficult to put in proper compass and in befitting language the many virtues and deeds of our distinguished departed Brother. His biography as a father, husband, citizen and Odd Fellow would make quite a volume. His history, public and private, is so well known by every intelligent Odd Fellow as to make it unnecessary to dwell at any length on his many virtues and exemplary life. It is known and read as an open book by our brotherhood everywhere. He was born in St. Louis, Mo., in 1820, and died in Philadelphia, Pa., in 1901, being 80 years old. He joined the Chosen Friends Lodge, No. 100, in Philadelphia, in 1846. He served in a Subordinate office a short time, and was elected Noble Grand. Some time thereafter he received the Patriarchal Degrees, and in 1848 was elected as Representative to both the Grand Lodge and Grand Encampment of Pennsylvania. Recognizing his ability and fitness, he was elected Grand Warden in 1851, Deputy Grand Master in 1852, and Grand Master in 1853. In all of these offices he served with distinguished ability and benefit to the Order in that great Jurisdiction. That Jurisdiction recognizing his eminent qualifications, he was elected as one of its Representatives to the Grand Lodge of the United States, now the Sovereign Grand Lodge. This brought him in contact with the ablest intellects in our Order. That Body soon learned and saw his ability and merits as a legislator; and, after serving two terms, in the short space of four years was elected Grand Sire in 1862, and thus in sixteen years from his initiation was filling the highest office within the gift of his Brethren, which he did for two years with great ability and satisfaction to the Grand Body over which he presided and the Order at large. We believe after he retired as Grand Sire he attended every session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge to the day of his death, it mattered not where it met. The proceedings of that Grand Body, on its every page, and in all great questions arising for the furtherance of the great principles of the Order, will show the part he took in their deliberation and the influence exerted with his fellow-members. In addition to many others, we must mention two or three important matters he originated and carried through that Body. One, the law relating to dismissal certificates, which has conferred such blessings on unfortunate members suspended for the non-payment of dues. No member of the Order has devoted so much time and study as he did on the perplexing question of dues and benefits, and his reports on that subject as they appear in the proceedings of that Grand Body show great research and profound thought. No man has done more to bring order out of the chaotic condition of the Rebekah branch of the Order and make it an efficient auxiliary in the furtherance of the objects and aims of our great fraternity. Brother Nicholson was a fine speaker; really an orator of rare gifts. His zeal, his earnestness and his manner of presenting the questions he discussed impressed his hearers with the belief that he was sincere in all he said, and hence he had great weight with those who heard him. Such was his reputation as a speaker and his thorough knowledge of the laws of the Order and its great underlying principles, that he was requested to make addresses in many parts of the state, and in a number of instances out of his state, always delighting and instructing his audience. He was a keen observer of human nature, slow in forming acquaintances, but lasting in his affection for those in whom he had confidence. To him belongs much of the honor and lasting gratitude of keeping alive the fires of fraternity between the members of the north and the south during the civil war, and hailed with delight the return of the United Brotherhood. Duty was his guiding star. He possessed a high order of courage, forgetting self in the cause he espoused, believing it to be right, he was thus an inspiration to all who knew him. In carrying out his plans he never evinced timidity, hesitation, vacillation, never had recourse to the arts of diplomacy, but steadfast and upright he moved on, taking the rough with the smooth, the conflict with the ease, alike, cheerfully trusting in God for the result. His strong character and positive virtues, his refined taste and good judgment, his gentle manner and his solicitude for the happiness and welfare of others gave his life a magnetic charm highly appreciated. Gentle in manner, considerate for, and uniformly courteous to others, he was always ready to counsel and advise all who applied to him for instruction or information. Who that has been a member of this Grand Body but has been indebted to him for unnumbered courtesies, loving acts and kindness? All were his Brothers, and he had laid to heart and practiced the precept, "He that is greatest among you, shall be your servant." His gentleness and courtesy had endeared him to all who were associated with him, and none approached him that did not seem to love him. Really the true monument to our deceased Brother will be the loving remembrance in which he is held by countless thousands, and by thousands unborn, so long as Odd Fellowship lasts. He was Grand Secretary of his state for thirty-two years, and was filling that office at the time of his death. He filled that office with great benefit to the Order. To his untiring energy, to his knowledge of the laws of the Order, much is attributed to the unprecedented growth of the Order in that state. Lodges, Encampments, Grand Masters, and indeed all the Brotherhood sought his counsel and advice. As a citizen he was universally esteemed and respected. His integrity, tested by the vicissitudes of years in active business, was a controlling element in his character, and this as much as other traits commanded the respect and confidence of all. "Thus has terminated the life of a man who in an uncommon degree combined the element of a true and noble manhood. His plain common sense and his studious habits, his willingness to perform a multitude of duties from which many persons recoiled, and his readiness to engage in great labors, which threatened to overpower him, his affable address, and his persevering industry, his decided Catholic spirit, his caution and his force, all made him a man whom it is easier to praise than to imitate." As the setting sun leaves a trail of light above the sky and on earth behind, so this good man's life and death teach valuable lessons. A great Brother has fallen, yet being dead he speaketh. A strong link in our Order, in one sense, has not been broken, but rather welded itself to the throne of God, binding us by closer and holier ties to that land where one law is the Eternal Law, and one tongue the language of a redeemed and sanctified Brotherhood.

Rep. Conway, of Illinois, moved that the report be adopted by a rising vote with bowed heads, which was agreed to, and the report was adopted.

The next meeting of the Sovereign Grand Body will be held in the city of Des Moines, Iowa.

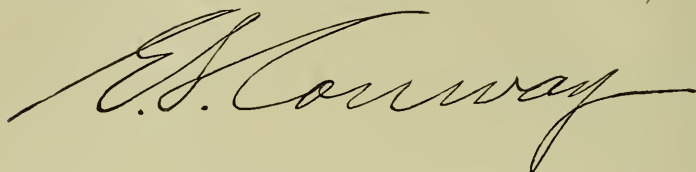

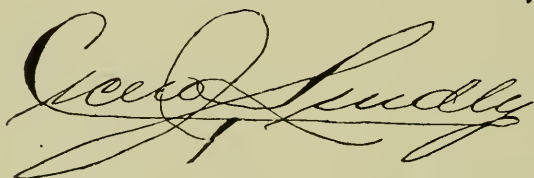

During the session the Grand Sire appointed the Representatives from Illinois on the following committees: Conway, chairman of committee on finance, special committee on death of the president. Lindly, Rebekah Degree, also special committee on charters. Raible, committee on international relations. Lytle, committee on the Patriarchal branch of the Order.

Conclusion.

This was one of the most interesting sessions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge. Your Representatives met many Odd Fellows and Rebekahs from Illinois. The next meeting will also be in easy reach of the Brothers and Sisters of this state.

It has been our purpose to serve this Grand Lodge faithfully and well. Thanking you for the confidence imposed, we beg to remain,

Yours fraternally,

GRAND MASTER'S SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT.

Springfield, Nov. 18, 1901.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Brothers:—I would respectfully submit for your consideration the following matters not included in my regular report:

REBEKAH LODGES CLOSED.

No.	Name.	Location.	County.	Date.	Deputy.
37	West Union..	West Union..	Clark	Nov. 14, 1901	John M. Lowe.....
131	Rossville.....	Rossville.....	Vermilion.....	Nov. 15, 1901	Charles Miller
94	Bell Air.....	Bell Air.....	Crawford ...	Nov. 16, 1901	G. P. Brent.....

PERMISSION TO REINSTATE EXPELLED MEMBERS.

Nov. 15, 1901, Joel Musgrave, Hutsonville Lodge, No. 106, of Hutsonville.

April 9, 1901, Nellie P. Lovelock, Saunemin Rebekah Lodge, No. 354, of Saunemin.

STATE FAIR HEADQUARTERS.

During the State Fair in September, I authorized the expenditure of a sum not to exceed $20.00, for the maintenance of a tent as a headquarters and resting-place for Odd Fellows. This was done in harmony with the course pursued last year. The comfort and convenience it gave to our visiting brothers and their families, and the favorable manner in which it placed our Order before the public, it seems to us, fully justified the small outlay.

BEQUESTS.

On page 46 of my regular report, I referred to the bequest of Bro. Carl A. Koenig, deceased. The realty is worth about $1,800 to $2,000, and is in a part of the city that is enhancing and bound to continue to enhance in value. It consists of a lot with a building containing three flats, which rents for a little over $20.00 per month. It is subject to a mortgage of $550.00 and accrued interest, which with other claims against the estate, and the fees for the closing up the estate, will amount to about $1,000.00. The court continued on the 15th the hearing of the petition to sell this property. I would recommend that the Grand Master be empowered, with the concurrence of the Endowment Committee, to secure title in the property, paying the claims from the Old Folks' Endowment Fund, if such a course, after due investigation, should appear wise.

COMPLAINTS.

Bro. L. M. Forth, Deputy Grand Master of Wayne City Lodge, No. 558, presented a written complaint, with a list of witnesses, against Asbury Lodge, No. 248, charging it with conferring the initiatory and three degrees upon petitioners for membership, for the sum of $5.00. I appointed Bro. W. L. Anderson as a special deputy to investigate and take evidence in the case. He has made a partial report, which seems to sustain the complaint. We would recommend that the case be referred to the incoming Grand Master, the special deputy being permitted to finish taking the evidence.

Case 2.

Last September, a complaint was presented to me that James A. Garfield Lodge, No. 698, had three members who were saloon keepers, and that they were all such when initiated in 1896 and 1897, although one gave in his petition that he was a metal dealer, another stated that he was a real-estate dealer, and the third gave his occupation as a cigar dealer; the names and addresses of each brother were furnished in the complaint. No one seems to question the truthfulness of the complaint, but no brother seemed willing to file a complaint against either of these brothers, each of whom had refused to resign his membership. Finally, however, a complaint was presented and an investigating committee appointed, but up to the present time no charges have been presented; the brothers on the committee, after retaining their position for a time, resigned, and the Noble Grand filled the vacancies with brothers apparently friendly to the offenders, as though he had no desire for the presentation of charges against either of them. However, the brother who entered the complaint against them had a complaint immediately filed against him, with the result of a fairly quick report with charges, which have not yet reached final trial; the charges being based on a matter that occurred, to the knowledge of the lodge, years ago. I report this case for such action as may be deemed proper by your Grand Body.

Case 3.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 16, 1901.

North Star Lodge, No. 355, Penn. }
vs. }
Carmi Lodge, No. 189. }

STATEMENT.

It appears that Bro. Myer Reis, a member of Carmi Lodge, No. 189, was taken sick in May, 1901, while in the jurisdiction of North Star Lodge, No. 355, of Pennsylvania, to which lodge his sickness was reported on July 24, 1901. The lodge continued to care for him until his death, Oct. 7, 1901.

It seems that North Star Lodge repeatedly reported the sickness to Carmi Lodge, but could get no answer. It then wrote to our Grand Secretary, who wrote to Carmi Lodge, and received in reply a letter stating that North Star Lodge had not complied with the forms necessary to insure attention to Bro. Reis.

The Grand Secretary replied, instructing the lodge in regard to its duty in the matter, but later received a second letter from the North Star Lodge, stating that nothing had been done, and under date of Oct. 23, 1901, he received a third letter, which was sent to this office.

On Oct. 28, 1901, the Deputy of Carmi Lodge, Bro. Edward Nelson, was instructed by me to see that the lodge either paid the claim at its next meeting or immediately give the reason why it did not do so.

Under date of Nov. 15, 1901, a letter was received from the Secretary of Carmi Lodge, W. R. Blaggs, stating that North Star Lodge had not complied with the provisions of the By-laws of Carmi Lodge.

OPINION.

There seems to be no question raised by any one but that Bro. Myer Reis was beneficiary at the time his sickness began, and there is certainly no question but that this sickness finally ended in death; neither is there any question but that he notified North Star Lodge on July 24 of his sickness.

He was clearly entitled to sick benefits and his widow is entitled to funeral benefits and expenses. Carmi Lodge, No. 189, is therefore directed and ordered to pay, through North Star Lodge, No. 355, to the widow of the late Myer Reis, ten weeks' sick benefits at the rate provided by the By-laws of Carmi Lodge, and it is further directed and ordered to pay in like manner, to the widow, the funeral benefits and expenses in the amount provided by its by-laws, the funeral expenses to be not less than $60.00, provided the expense amounts to that sum.

J. R. KEWLEY,

Grand Master.

W. H. Herdman
vs.
Marion Lodge, No. 13, I. O. O. F. } Appeal.

On July 30, 1901, I received a communication, through our Grand Representative E. S. Conway, from M. F. Doud, attorney, calling attention to the Sovereign Grand Lodge Journal of 1900, page 951, report 126, and the action of the Sovereign Grand Lodge thereon, page 963. The letter stated that P. G. M. McKinley had refused to farther consider the case or to allow it to come before this Grand Lodge in its annual session in 1900, and asked for relief.

I replied substantially that it seemed as though I had no jurisdiction, and that his relief, if any, lay in an appeal to your Grand Body, but invited him to cite any authority that would give me jurisdiction over the same. The two subsequent letters I received from him gave me no reason to change my opinion, and I refused to assume any jurisdiction over the case. Under date of Nov. 15, 1901, I received a communication from Bro. M. F. Doud, purporting to be an appeal to your Grand Body. I submit all papers in the case to you for such disposition as may seem to you proper.

PETITIONS FOR REMOVAL OF SUBORDINATE LODGES.

On Oct. 23, 1901, I received a petition from some of the members of Round Hill Lodge, No. 494, Saline Mines, praying for a dispensation to remove their lodge hall about one and three-fourths miles. I referred the petition to the Deputy of the lodge and the Deputy of a neighboring lodge. There seems to be a division of opinion as to the advisability of a removal.

Clear Creek Lodge, No. 712, of Trilla, petitioned, Nov. 1st, for permission to remove its lodge from Trilla to Johnstown in the same county. I referred this petition to our Deputy Grand Master, John W. Yantis, but as yet have received no report. I would recommend that each of these cases be referred to the incoming Grand Master.

COATSBURG LODGE, NO. 836.

Deputy Grand Master John W. Yantis commissioned S. L. McCrory, of Carthage, Ill., as the commissioner to take the evidence in the charge against this lodge. He promptly discharged his duty and presents the following bill, the payment of which we recommend:

To railroad fare, board, etc., of self and stenographer ...	$10 00
To services of stenographer.....	10 00
To services of self.....	15 00

-------------	---------

I engaged Bro. Charles S. Harris, Grand Warden, to prosecute this case in behalf of the Grand Lodge, and would ask your approval of the same.

OUR HOMES.

Since writing the regular report, warrants have been drawn for the Orphans' Home for the regular October expenses, for Vouchers 1503 to 1536 inclusive, amounting to $1,912.09.

At the time of closing the report of the Old Folks' Home, there were outstanding unpaid warrants amounting to $62.10.

Fraternally submitted.

J. R. KEWLEY,
Grand Master.

The Committee on Analysis and Distribution presented the following report, which, under suspension of the rule, was considered and adopted.

Document No. 3.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Analysis and Distribution, to whom were referred the Reports of the Grand Officers, have considered the same, and recommend that they be referred to the several committees as follows:

Document No. 10.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Brothers of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows of Illinois: You are cordially invited, while in this city, to visit Memorial Hall in the State House, and see the old battle-flags of a State which produced Lincoln, Yates, Grant, Logan, and 258,000 gallant soldiers who went forth to bring these grand old banners unsullied from the fields of fierce and bloody strife, and die, if necessary, rather than that one star should be erased from its azure field. The Custodian, who was a participant in the great struggle for four long years, will welcome you on behalf of the people of Illinois, in Friendship, Love and Truth, and Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty. The Grand Army is growing smaller every year, and in the course of another decade will have become but a glorious memory, to be enshrined in the hearts of a grateful people. Come and see the old banners that moved in triumph from Cairo to the sea, and from Fort Sumter to Appomattox, when the emblem of the lost cause was for ever furled in defeat and the foes of the Union were made to acknowledge the supremacy of the stars and stripes for ever.

Yours in F., L. and T. and F., C. and L.,

J. M. SWALER,

Custodian Memorial Hall.

The condition of our finances is the best shown in many years. We recommend that the canceled vouchers be filed in the Grand Secretary's office for future reference. We find that the books of the Grand Treasurer have been kept in an excellent condition, and that he has performed his duty in a faithful and efficient manner.

Rep. Eaton, of No. 703, offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on Finance. [See fourth report of that committee.]

Document No. 23.

WHEREAS, Experience has taught us that the present rate of per diem is too low; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the per diem be fixed at $3.00.

Rep. Morrison, of No. 416, offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on the State of the Order. [See fifteenth report of that committee.]

Document No. 24.

Be it Resolved, That Section 3 of Article X, of the Constitution for Subordinate Lodges in this jurisdiction, be amended to read as follows:

No person shall be admitted to membership in this Lodge for a less sum than is herein provided, viz:

Article X, Section 3. The fee for each degree shall not be less than $3.00, except in cities of 100,000 inhabitants or more, when it shall not be less than $5.00 for each degree.

Rep. Platt, of No. 43, offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on the State of the Order. [See eleventh report of that committee.]

Document No. 25.

WHEREAS, Numerous new orders are daily being organized throughout our land, which are throwing out special inducements to gain membership, by reducing the initiation fee to a minimum figure, and in some cases no fee is charged, under an open charter, and also receiving male members at the age of 18 years; and

WHEREAS, After realizing the above facts and giving them due consideration, I find that while in the past five years these orders are gaining membership very rapidly, under the above condition, this is not because of the insurance that is attached to them, but simply because the young men of our land anxiously await the arrival of their eighteenth birthday, that they may join some order; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Grand Representatives be instructed to use their influence, and endeavor to have the S. G. L. Laws so changed, at the next session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, that any male white person, of reputable character, of the age of 18 years may join the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

[See third Credentials report, Doc. 11.]

Addressing the beloved brother, who had been his companion on the field of blood as well as his almost lifelong associate and intimate friend, Bro. Smith revived many old memories, and was listened to with rapt attention. At the close of his address, he presented to Bro. Willard, on behalf of the several subordinate lodges in which from time to time he has held membership, a richly ornamented Honorable Veteran Jewel.

Replying, Brother Willard was wellnigh overcome by emotion. Concluding, he presented to the Grand Lodge a copy of the first Ritual of the Order, printed in 1821, of which only three copies are known to be in existence. This Ritual was given to him by Bro. John G. Potts, now for more than a quarter of a century numbered with the silent majority, who was Grand Master of Pennsylvania in 1829; later the pioneer and the faithful, trusted and indefatigable organizer of Odd Fellowship in the Northwest, from the headwaters of the Mississippi to the Great Lakes, west and southwest to the Missouri River, and south to the Missouri state line; and an honored member and counselor of the Grand Lodge of Illinois from its earliest days until his death. The relic will be sacredly preserved in the archives of the Grand Lodge.

Document No. 33.

First report, by Bro. C. B. Samson, of No. 440.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Legislation, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's Report on the subject of "Membership Fees" (found on page 31 of this journal) would respectfully report: That we are of the opinion that the Grand Master was right in refusing to grant dispensations to lodges to confer the Initiatory and Three Degrees for a less sum than the total amount specified in the Constitution for Subordinate Lodges.

By Sections 2 and 3 of Article X of such Constitution, the minimum is fixed for each and all of said degrees, and the Grand Master is without authority to suspend or annul any part thereof for the slightest period of time.

We therefore recommend that the action of the Grand Master in the premises be approved.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Legislation, to whom was referred Document No. 14, being a resolution relating to a change in Article X, Section 6, Constitution of Subordinate Lodges, would report that to them the proposed change seems already well provided for, and therefore most respectfully recommend that the resolution be not adopted.

Document No. 35.

Third report, by Bro. W. H. Bean, of No. 825.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Legislation, to whom was referred that section of the Grand Master's Report entitled "Lodge Deputy Grand Masters," on page 35, respectfully report: The committee are unanimously of the opinion that the laws of the Order give the Grand Master full power and authority in the appointment of Deputies, and if the custom which for several years past has been observed, that is, requesting the lodges to recommend a competent Past Grand for the position of Lodge Deputy, does not meet with approval of the incoming Grand Master, it is fully in his power to pursue such other method in making these appointments as, in his judgment, may seem most expedient, and we ask to be relieved from any further consideration of this subject.

Fraternally submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

Document No. 36.

Fourth report, by Bro. E. Dinkelman, of No. 238.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Legislation report as follows in regard to the matter of that part of the Grand Master's Report entitled "Dedication of Halls": That, in our opinion, the law requires a dispensation from the Grand Master where a public procession is held; and

Whereas, The lodges are required to make annual reports of property owned by them; and

Whereas, A great many halls are dedicated by our lodges but are only partly owned or even leased by them;

Therefore, we are of the opinion that no further legislation is required in this matter, and the committee therefore wishes to be relieved of its further consideration.

Fraternally submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

Document No. 37.

Fifth report, by Bro. C. B. Samson, of No. 440.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Legislation, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's Report (on pages 7 and 8) relating to the right of the Rebekah Assembly to levy a capitation tax, beg leave to report:

That such right was formerly embodied in the Rebekah Assembly Constitution and was duly approved by this Grand Lodge: that the Rebekah Assembly of 1896 adopted an amendment to its Constitution, which was also approved by this Grand Lodge at a former session; that by the amendment referred to (see Doc. 146, G. L. Jour. 1896) the provision for a capitation tax was omitted.

If the Rebekah Assembly is now desirous of having the right to levy a capitation tax embodied in its Constitution, it will be necessary that the Assembly first adopt such amendment in the manner provided in the Constitution, and that such amendment be then submitted to this Grand Lodge for its approval.

We therefore recommend that this committee be relieved from further consideration of this subject.

Signed by the Committee.

Document No. 38.

Sixth report, by Bro. A. B. Garrett, of No. 132.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Legislation would respectfully report as follows in regard to the matter of Document No. 13.

Document No. 13 seeks to amend Section 1 of Article IV of the Subordinate Lodge Constitution by adding a new committee to be known as a Committee on Employment. The same document also proposes to add to said Article IV a new section to be known as Section 5, which defines the duties of such Committee on Employment to be that of gathering information from week to week as to where vacancies exist, and furnishing such information to members of the Order who may be in search of employment.

Your committee is of the opinion that many lodges have little or no need of such a committee, and those that do need it have ample authority under the present law to provide by by-law for the appointment of such a committee.

Your committee, therefore, see no necessity for any legislation on the subject, and therefore recommend that the resolutions contained in said Document No. 13 be not adopted.

Your committee would recommend, however, that the Grand Master, each year, in his Annual Circular, call the attention of subordinate lodges to the law authorizing the appointment of such committee, and that he recommend that such lodges as may need the services of such committee make provision in their by-laws for the appointment and regulation of the same.

Signed by the Committee.

Document No. 39.

Seventh report, by Bro. W. H. Bean, of No. 825.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Legislation, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's Report entitled "Surety Bonds," are of the opinion that the suggestion of the Grand Master ought to be adopted, and we therefore recommend that Section 7 of Article III, Subordinate Lodge Constitution, be amended so as to read as follows:

Section 7. The Treasurer shall be elected annually at the election in March, and prior to his installation in office shall give a joint and several bond to the Trustees of the lodge, with two sureties to be approved by the lodge, with such penalties and conditions as from time to time may be prescribed by the lodge.

Provided that, in lieu of the bond above mentioned, the Treasurer may furnish a bond signed by some surety or guaranty company licensed by the State of Illinois, and that is engaged in the business of furnishing indemnity bonds, the expense of such bond to be defrayed by the lodge.

Such bond, before being presented to the lodge, must have been submitted to and approved by a majority of the Trustees. He shall keep the funds, notes and securities of the lodge; pay all orders drawn on him by the Noble Grand and attested by the Secretary, and none other; keep a full account of all moneys expended, and give the lodge, at the first meeting in each month, a statement of its funds. He shall keep a separate account of any special fund instituted by the lodge, and report to the Financial Secretary, at or before the last meeting in each term, any money received by him as interest or dividends on any notes, securities or stocks held by him. He shall make for the lodge, at the close of his term, a full report of his receipts and disbursements, and have his books written up for the Finance Committee, whom he shall meet prior to the first meeting in the next succeeding term, to exhibit his books, papers, securities, bonds, funds and other property in his possession; and at the first regular meeting of the next term he shall present his report to the lodge. He shall pay over and deliver up, when legally called upon, all moneys, bonds, books, papers, and other property in his possession or under his control, belonging to the lodge, to his successor in office, or to such person as the lodge may appoint to receive the same. [See pages 31-32.]

Signed by the Committee.

Document No. 40.

Eighth report, by Bro. Carlin, of No. 53, P.G.R.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Legislation, to whom was referred that portion of the Report of the Grand Master entitled "Rebekah Lodges," beginning on page 6, but referring more especially to that paragraph on page 7 regarding the matter of making and promulgating the S.A.P.W. for Rebekah Lodges, beg to report that, at the 1900 session of this Grand Lodge, action was had providing that the Secretary of the Rebekah Assembly alone be authorized to send such P.W. to Rebekah Lodges.

Section 37 of the Rebekah Code of 1900 provides that the Grand Master (or, if empowered by the Grand Lodge, the President of the Rebekah Assembly) of each jurisdiction is required to make a S.A.P.W. for use in all Rebekah Lodges. Under said section, the Grand Master (or the President of the Rebekah Assembly, by authority of this Grand Lodge) can make the S.A.P.W. And when so made,—if by the Grand Master, it would seem that it should be transmitted to the Rebekah Lodges by the Grand Secretary,—or, if by the President of the Rebekah Assembly, it should be transmitted to Rebekah Lodges by the Secretary of the Rebekah Assembly. We therefore offer the following and recommend its adoption:

Resolved, That authority be, and the same is hereby, granted to the President of the Rebekah Assembly under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge to make the S.A.P.W. for Rebekah Lodges; and, when so made, that the Secretary of the Rebekah Assembly shall alone be, and is hereby, authorized to send it to the Rebekah Lodges in this jurisdiction.

Signed by the Committee.

Past Grand Master Conway was called to the chair.

Bro. George W. Young, of No. 392, submitted the following, which was ordered to be entered on the journal for consideration at the next annual session.

Document No. 45.

Amendment to the Grand Lodge Constitution to stop translating and printing the Journal in the German language.

WHEREAS, It appears that during the last ten years there has been paid out of the treasury of this Grand Lodge the sum of Three Thousand Five Hundred and Forty-Seven Dollars and Twenty-Six Cents ($3,547.26) for translating and printing the proceedings thereof into the German Language, being an average of $354.72 a year, and an average of $2.37 each per single copy of said

German Journal: while the average cost per single copy of printing the Journal in the English Language was or has been only 23 cents each during said time: and

WHEREAS, By the statutes and the school-laws of the State of Illinois, all branches taught in our common schools are required to be taught in the English language (or more properly speaking the American language), so that the youth of the state, no matter what nationality their parents may spring from, are educated in the English language and the English-speaking tongue: and

WHEREAS, This Grand Lodge should practice the strictest principles of economy, on account of the great demand made by the two Homes which are now under its charge, and other growing expenses: therefore, be it

Resolved, That Section 8 of Article VI of the Grand Lodge Constitution be amended by substituting the word "the" for the word "both," and by striking out the words "and German," all in the seventh line of said section, as found in the Book of Constitutions for Illinois, 1896, so that the same, when so amended, shall read as follows:

"The Committee on Printing shall superintend all printing, and shall purchase all stationery and blanks not supplied by the Sovereign Grand Lodge. They shall advertise for bids for printing the Reports of the Grand Officers, the Proceedings of the Annual Sessions of this Grand Lodge in the English language, and such other printing as may be required by the Grand Officers, awarding the contract for such work to the lowest responsible bidder, and reporting the original list of said bidders, with the prices that they had offered to perform the work for, to the next session of the Grand Lodge. They shall sign all bills for which they may have awarded contracts, as being correct, and forward the same to the Committee on Finance for their approval; and no warrant or warrants shall be drawn by the Grand Secretary for the payment of any printing bill until the same has been approved by a majority of the Committee on Finance."

The Committee on Finance presented the following report.

Document No. 46.

Fifth report, by Bro. Fred. B. Merrills, of No. 650.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows, in regard to the matter of so much of the Grand Master's report as has been referred to us by the Committee on Analysis and Distribution:

I. We recommend that the investments reported by the Grand Master on page 43 of his printed report [page 45 of this journal] be approved.

II. That his recommendation that in the future all investments should be paid for by regular Grand Lodge warrant, signed by the Grand Master, and countersigned by the Grand Secretary, be approved and concurred in.

III. As to that portion of his report which refers to defining the details of making investments, we desire to report that we are of the opinion that sufficient details are to be found in the reports of the Finance Committee, page 229 of the Journal of 1899, and the report of the Special Committee on Endowment Funds, found on page 230 of the Journal of 1900, and we recommend that these details be strictly adhered to, and all future investments be paid for by regular Grand Lodge warrant, as recommended by the Grand Master.

IV. As to the recommendations of the Grand Master found on page 47 of his printed report, we recommend that his first, third and fourth recommendations be concurred in and adopted by the Grand Lodge. As to his second and fifth recommendations, we are of the opinion that they involve questions of legislation which should be passed on by the Committee on Legislation, and we desire to be excused from further consideration of same, and recommend that they be referred to that committee. [See page 49.]

Signed by the Committee.

The rule was suspended, and the last clause of Division IV of the report was considered and adopted. [See twelfth report of Committee on Legislation.] The remainder of the report was adopted Thursday afternoon.

That the action of Grand Master Kewley in reference to the bequest of Bro. Carl A. Koenig, a member of Koerner Lodge, No. 750, of Chicago, be approved, and that our incoming Grand Master, J. W. Yantis, be empowered to take such action in regard to this case as he may deem necessary to protect the interests of the Grand Lodge. [See pages 46 and 231.]

The Committee on Rebekah Degree presented the following reports, which were laid on the table, under the rule. [Both adopted Thursday afternoon.]

Document No. 49.

First report, by Bro. Louis Kistler, of No. 506.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Rebekah Degree would respectfully report as follows, in regard to the matter of the Grand Master's Report, on pages 6 and 7, on Rebekah Lodges, which was referred to this committee.

On clause 1, we fully concur in the Grand Master's Report.

As to the second clause, we, in the main, fully concur in the suggestions made therein: but we are also aware that there is danger in being too "select" and thus rather injure than promote the great interest committed to this branch of our brotherhood. We therefore earnestly recommend a larger measure of conciliation and tolerance.

As to the third clause, we think the Grand Master's suggestions are timely made, and this committee fully concur therein. The Sisters should take the lead, at all times, in this branch of the Order, and the Brothers should all hold up their hands in every good word and work, by counsel to them kindly extended at all times.

Respectfully submitted.

The Committee on Legislation presented the following reports, which were laid on the table, under the rule.
[All adopted Thursday afternoon.]

Document No. 51.

Ninth report, by Bro. Willis Melville, of No. 693.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Legislation would respectfully report as follows:

In regard to the matter of Article XVI of the Sovereign Grand Lodge Constitution, in the Grand Master's Report, on page 36 of this journal, your committee fully concur with the Grand Master in his recommendation, and desire to elevate the personnel of applicants, and deplore the admission of men who can not fully, in letter as well as in spirit, meet all the requirements and laws of our Order; but your committee believe that the powers now vested in the Grand Master and the Subordinate Lodge by the Constitution give them full and ample authority to enforce the laws of admission.

Your committee therefore ask to be relieved from further consideration of the subject.

Fraternally submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

Document No. 52.

Tenth report, by Bro. George F. Howard, P.G.M.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Legislation report as follows in regard to that part of the Grand Master's Report under the caption "Grand Lodge Committees," found upon page 39 of this journal.

Your committee have given the subject due consideration, and are unanimously of the opinion that the views advanced by the Grand Master in reference to the subject are correct, and worthy of the calm and unbiased consideration of the members of this Grand Lodge; but your committee do not believe that any proposed change in our laws upon this subject so soon after adopting the same, which would require an amendment to the Grand Lodge Constitution and lie over for one year for action, would be adopted by the Grand Lodge.

Your committee therefore ask to be relieved from the further consideration of the subject.

Fraternally submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

Document No. 53.

Eleventh report, by Bro. Geo. J. Brockett, of No. 204.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on the State of the Order would respectfully report that we have received petitions from the following named brothers: J. G. Roesing, Solomon Swig and Max Miller, former members of the late Kossuth Lodge, No. 569, located in the City of Chicago, and which lodge was expelled from the Order for insubordination on October 13th, 1898, with evidence accompanying said petitions that they were members in good standing in said lodge up to within two years of its expulsion. [See Doc. 29.]

They also furnish us evidence that they were true and loyal Odd Fellows and took no part whatever in the insubordination that existed in said Kossuth Lodge, and respectfully petition this Grand Lodge for withdrawal cards.

We, your committee, are satisfied that the brothers are deserving, and would therefore recommend that withdrawal cards be granted them upon the payment of the necessary fee of $1.00 each.

Document No. 72.

First report of Committee on Memorials.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Not a page of human history is written, glorious though it may be, but what is darkened by the shadows of gloom that death is constantly throwing about us every where. Not a session of this Grand Lodge convenes but that this shadow casts its somber hues over our happiest hours, causing us to pause and reflect that since last we met many of our brothers have passed to that great beyond from which no traveler ever returns. Should not a knowledge of this fact "humble human pride, should it not awake the soul to a just sense of responsibility to its God, of duty to itself?" Let us, then, upon this occasion, "seriously meditate the solemn admonition it affords." Let us "ponder well," brothers, and "see that our own hearts foster not evil."

Among the names of the departed brothers since last we met are found those of Brothers David D. Hatfield, P.G.R.; A. T. Sherman, P.D.G.M., and Jacob Krohn, P.G.P. and P.G.R., whose genial presence in this Grand Lodge will be remembered by those present, and whose zealous labors in behalf of our Order entitle their memories to be perpetuated by proper resolutions spread upon the records of this Grand Lodge; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of these brothers our Order has lost three of its members in whose lives were daily exemplified the beautiful teachings of Odd Fellowship; be it further

Document No. 73.

Second report of Committee on Memorials.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

During the past year our country has been shocked by one of the most dastardly crimes ever committed in the annals of its history. Our President, while in the bloom of health, the strength of manhood, and in the discharge of duty, was foully murdered by a vile assassin. The bullet that took the life of President McKinley represented the evils of anarchy, which is the mortal enemy of the principles of Odd Fellowship. As Odd Fellows "we war against vice in all its forms," and require of our entire brotherhood a faithful performance of the duties we owe to our country, as well as to our fellow man. Every true Odd Fellow is imbued with the principles of patriotism, as well as those of benevolence, and in the committing of this great crime every precept of our Order has been violated; and we feel in duty bound to enter here and now a vigorous protest and denunciation against all measures that would foster in our country the principles of anarchy, or make it possible for the anarchist to find here an abiding-place. In the life of President McKinley were exemplified many of the richest principles of Odd Fellowship. He was a patriot and a philanthropist. He loved his country and his fellow men. Odd Fellowship is not merely a beneficial society, having for its aim the relief of distress: but "it seeks to improve and elevate the character of men" as well, and in the life of President McKinley there was much that commends itself to our Order. His pure life, his constant devotion to his afflicted wife, are gems in his character that shine brighter than the diadem that decked the brow of a Caesar. His record as a President and a statesman will live for ever, but his noble traits of character will live for ever and a day.

In order that we may properly express our condemnation of all principles that work ruin to country and destruction of human life, and that we may commend those qualities in human life that make men God-like, we offer the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we deeply regret the untimely death of President McKinley, and deplore the manner in which his life was taken.

That we condemn the principles of anarchy as destructive of all that is good and pure, and hereby pledge ourselves to use our utmost endeavors to eradicate them from the lives of men.

Resolved, further, That, as Odd Fellows, we look forward with ardent joy to the coming of that day when one law shall govern and control all nations, tongues and creeds, and that law shall be the law of universal brotherhood; when friendship, love and truth will be the motive power in all human lives, and thereby render impossible even the conception of a great crime like the assassination of President McKinley.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

J. R. KEWLEY, Grand Master—In compliance with your directions, Andrews & Vause were employed as attorneys to look after the interests of the Grand Lodge in the matter of the Drainage District affecting the Old Folks' Home at Mattoon. The case has not been disposed of, and I recommend that said firm be continued as Attorneys of the Grand Lodge, under the terms named in Grand Master Kewley's letter of authority and instruction.

Respectfully submitted.

C. F. MANSFIELD,

Chairman Trustees Old Folks' Home.

The following was presented, and was referred to the Committee on the State of the Order. [See thirty-sixth report of that committee.]

Document No. 76.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

J. R. KEWLEY, G.M.—On Thursday, November 14, 1901, I called upon you in Chicago and notified you that Bro. Spencer Pickett, a member of the Old Folks' Home at Mattoon, had become insane; that it was unsafe to longer permit him to be at large; that the County Court had declined to hear the case, on the ground of non-residence. Upon your advice, I went to Mattoon and took necessary steps to present the case to the County Court of Coles County, and to have the brother sent to the asylum as a Coles County patient.

The court found that Bro. Spencer Pickett was insane, and committed him to the asylum at Kankakee as a Coles County patient. I agreed with the County Judge and State's Attorney that we would make up an agreed case and submit the same to the Circuit and Appellate Courts, to get a decision upon the question of whether the patient from the Old Folks' Home should be sent to the asylum as a patient from Coles County, or from the county in which the brother lived prior to his coming to the home.

I recommend that these arrangements be carried into effect by the incoming Grand Master.

Respectfully submitted.

C. F. MANSFIELD,

Chairman Trustees Old Folks' Home.

Bro. Henry Phillips, P.G.M., of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, presented the following, which was considered and adopted.

Document No. 77.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

In the matter of W. H. Herdman, Past Grand, of No. 13.

A STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Bro. Herdman was taken sick June 2, 1894, and after 15 weeks' sickness the lodge paid $45.00, the accrued benefits, from which three members of the Lodge appealed to the Judiciary and Appeals Committee, which committee sustained the lodge. Subsequent benefits accruing from the same sickness the lodge refused to pay, and Bro. Herdman took his case up on appeal to the Judiciary and Appeals Committee, and the benefits were ordered paid. Finally the lodge appealed to the Grand Lodge, and when the case was called, some of the papers in the case were missing, and the Grand Lodge sent the case back with instructions to Marion Lodge to retry the case de novo (as though the case had never been tried). After the lapse of one year, the Lodge having failed to retry the case, Bro. Herdman petitioned this Grand Lodge to try the appeal upon the original trial papers and the evidence taken therein, all of which was then on file with the Grand Secretary. On the presentation of the petition to the Grand Lodge, the Grand Master ruled the petition out of order, on the ground that, as the Grand Lodge had referred the case back to Marion Lodge for a new trial, it had lost jurisdiction in the matter. On this ruling being made, Bro. Herdman appealed from the decision of the Grand Master, and the Grand Master's decision was sustained by this Grand Lodge. Whereupon Bro. Herdman asked consent to appeal to the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and consent was given.

At a later date, Bro. Herdman applied to the Grand Master for relief, asking that he cause Marion Lodge to retry the case. The Grand Master refused to do this, holding that he had no jurisdiction, as Bro. Herdman had appealed the case to the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and thereby the Grand Lodge of Illinois had lost jurisdiction, and that the only relief that Bro. Herdman could obtain was through the prosecution of his appeal.

Subsequently, Bro. Herdman went before the Sovereign Grand Lodge, Session of 1900, Richmond. (See pages 834, 951, 963, Revised Journal of Proceedings, 1900.) The case was considered by the Committee on the Judiciary, whose report was unanimously adopted, and from which report the following is taken:

"Your Committee are of the opinion that when the Grand Master ruled the petition out of order and the Grand Lodge sustained this ruling, the petition was, in effect, dismissed by the Grand Lodge, and that the dismissal of the petition left the order of the Grand Lodge to Marion Lodge to retry the case of full force and effect, and that Bro. Herdman had two remedies remaining to him—the one to prosecute the appeal, the other to abide by the action of the Grand Lodge in dismissing his appeal and to rely upon the order of the Grand Lodge that Marion Lodge should retry the case.

"Your Committee are of the further opinion, as Bro. Herdman did not perfect his appeal, but applied to the Grand Master to enforce the order of the Grand Lodge to retry the case, he elected thereby to pursue his remedy under the order of the Grand Lodge.

"While it may be conceded that the Grand Lodge lost jurisdiction as to the trial of the appeal, by its order remanding the case, yet, by this act, it did not deprive itself of its supervisory power over Marion Lodge, and retained the right to demand of Marion Lodge that it should obey the order of the Grand Lodge; and as this power is vested in the Grand Master when the Grand Lodge is not in session, it is his right and duty to see that Subordinate Lodges comply with the mandates of their Grand Lodge; and if he fails so to do, when applied to, an appeal may be taken to the Grand Lodge upon such refusal.

"As Bro. Herdman had, and has, the right to appeal to his Grand Lodge from the action of the Grand Master, which remedy is simple and adequate, and should be pursued, therefore, your committee hold that the case, as presented by the facts, should not come before this Sovereign body by petition."

This case having been reviewed by the highest tribunal of the Order, and a ruling being made that the Grand Lodge has not lost supervisory power over its Subordinate Lodge, and

WHEREAS, The said Mariou Lodge has failed to carry out the mandate of this Grand Lodge, to-wit: to retry the case of Bro. Herdman for benefits; therefore, be it Resolved, That the incoming Grand Master be directed to require the said Marion Lodge to at once take up the case of Bro. W. H. Herdman, Past Grand, "Application for Benefits," and retry the case de novo, as directed by this Grand Lodge.

HENRY PHILLIPS, of No. 16.

ALFRED ORENDORFF, of No. 465.

HENRY A. STONE, of No. 122.

The special order—Consideration of Appeal Cases—was resumed.

Case No. 262—J. Ward Ellis Lodge, No. 447, vs. W. H. Underwood (pages 134–137 Journal of 1900), was considered.

Bro. Henry Phillips, P. G. M., moved that the opinion of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals be affirmed as the judgment of the Grand Lodge.

Bro. James Ewing Davis, of No. 450, moved to substitute for the motion of Bro. Phillips—" (1) that so much of the opinion of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals as finds that W. H. Underwood was a member of J. Ward Ellis Lodge, No. 447, be sustained; (2) and that so much of the opinion of said committee as finds said Underwood not guilty as charged be reversed, and the sentence of expulsion confirmed."

The question was put on the two divisions of the motion to substitute separately, the result in each case being in favor of the motion.

The substitute motion of Bro. Davis was then adopted.

W. H. Underwood, by his attorney, Bro. James Denton, asked leave to appeal to the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, which was granted.

Case 266—Powhan Lodge, No. 29, vs. George Niver (pp. 146-150, and 163)—was considered.

The question being on the motion to sustain the opinion and findings of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, the motion prevailed, and the decision of the committee was affirmed.

The special order was suspended and the regular order of business was resumed.

On motion of Bro. Nason, Past Grand Secretary, the rule requiring that reports lie upon the table for a second reading before final consideration was suspended for the remainder of this session.

Your Committee on Legislation, to whom was referred a part of the Grand Master's Report, on page 49, Section 5, relating to the exemption from dues of Brothers and Sisters, members of the Old Folks' Home, would report that they are now cared for by their respective lodges, and could not be exempted unless by an amendment to the Constitution of Subordinate Lodges. Document No. 90.

Fourteenth report, by Bro. E. Dinkelman, of No. 238.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Legislation, to whom has been referred that part of the Grand Master's Report entitled "By-Laws of Subordinates," would respectfully report as follows: [See page 31.]

Amend Article XI, Section 3, Constitution for Subordinate Lodges, so that it shall read as follows:

"Section 3. This Lodge shall stand fully invested with power to adopt such By-Laws and Rules of Order, from time to time, as may be deemed expedient, provided, they do not in any way contravene any of these articles, the Laws and Constitution of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, or of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, or the principles of the Order.

"Two copies of the By-Laws, or any amendment thereto, certified by the Secretary under the seal of the Lodge, shall, immediately after adoption by the Lodge, be sent by the Secretary to the Grand Secretary for the approval of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, which approval shall be necessary before said By-Laws or Amendments thereto shall become operative.

"After approval or amendment of the same, one copy to be left in the office of the Grand Secretary; the other copy to be returned to the Lodge. The By-Laws shall not be suspended, set aside or altered, except by regular process of amendment, a written proposition for which shall have been before the Lodge for at least one week."

Signed by the Committee.

Document No. 91.

Fifteenth report, by Bro. C. B. Samson, of No. 440.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Legislation, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's Report relating to "Property of Defunct Lodges" (on pages 30 and 31 of his report), have carefully considered the same, together with the preamble and resolution of the Rebekah Assembly, that was approved by this Grand Lodge in 1900, which reads as follows:

"WHEREAS, The Assembly Secretary has recommended that Rebekah Lodges surrendering their charters turn over to the Assembly all their effects and assets, the effects to be converted into cash and placed in the Assembly Treasury; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the Grand Lodge be respectfully petitioned to grant this request."

We have also considered in connection herewith the opinion of the Judiciary and Appeals Committee to be found on page 136 of the Grand Secretary's Report to the present session of this Grand Lodge, as well as Article X of the Grand Lodge Constitution, adopted in 1900, relating to "Aged Odd Fellows Fund and Relief," and are firmly of the opinion that the preamble above given and its approval by this Grand Lodge was, and is, in contravention of the constitutional rights and duties of this Grand Lodge, and that the action of the Grand Lodge in approving the same should be repealed.

The assets and effects of defunct Rebekah Lodges are unquestionably the property of this Grand Lodge, and should be held by it in trust for at least five years, to be used and disposed of in accordance with the requirements of our laws. See Sections 1362, 1363 and 1364, Illinois Code.

We therefore recommend the adoption of the following:

First—That the action of this Grand Lodge in approving the preamble of the Rebekah Assembly above quoted, and shown as Document No. 78, on page 266, Grand Lodge Journal 1900, be, and the same is hereby, repealed, vacated and set aside.

Second—That the Grand Master and Grand Secretary shall convert the effects of defunct Rebekah Lodges into cash, the funds derived therefrom to be held in trust by this Grand Lodge, to be used in such manner as the laws of our Order provide.

Signed by the Committee.

The same committee presented the following report, which was considered and adopted.

Document No. 92.

Sixteenth report, by Bro. W. E. Carlin, of No. 53, P.G.R.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Legislation, to whom was referred that portion of the report of the Grand Master relating to the expense of management of "Our Homes" on page 49, and suggesting a reduction of the number of Trustees for each Home, or the consolidation of the two Boards, beg to report that we have carefully considered the same; and, believing that a considerable reduction of expenses may be made without in any wise reducing the efficiency of the management by providing for a less number of meetings of the Boards than have heretofore been held, we present the following and recommend its adoption:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Grand Lodge that since the establishment of the Orphans' Home, and of the Old Folks' Home, it is not now necessary that the Trustees of said Homes hold monthly meetings, and that, in the opinion of this committee, said Trustees should, at their next ensuing meeting, provide that hereafter their meetings shall be held quarterly; that the Secretary of each Board, or some other member to be designated by said Boards of Trustees, shall visit the Home of whose Board he is a member every month, for the purpose of auditing all accounts for the month preceding, and provide for the prompt payment thereof.

Provided, however, That, in case of emergency, special meetings may be called by the Chairman of either of said Boards of Trustees, or by two members thereof.

Signed by the Committee.

Document No. 93.

Seventeenth report, by Bro. George F. Howard, P.G.M.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Legislation report that they have carefully examined the proposed amendments to the Constitution for the government of Rebekah Lodges, as adopted by the Rebekah Assembly, and referred to this committee, as follows:

Article I—Section 3. Prefix the words "the Noble Grand may call" and after the word "meetings" insert the word "and." so that the section when amended shall read as follows:

Section 3. "The Noble Grand may call special meetings, or she shall call them on the written request of five (5) members or by the order of the Lodge at any regular meeting. Special meetings may not be held at other than the regular meeting-place without a dispensation therefor from the Grand Master. Clause 2. "All Odd Fellows in good standing, their wives, daughters, sisters and mothers; also the daughters, sisters and mothers of deceased Odd Fellows, who at the time of their death were members of our Order."

Clause 3. Omit all after the word "women," so that the section when amended shall read as follows:

Clause 3. "All unmarried white women."

Section 3. After the word "membership" omit the word "or," and after the words "visiting card" insert the following, "or official certificate in date," so that when amended this section shall read as follows:

Section 3. "A candidate for membership by deposit of card shall have a withdrawal card, a dismissal certificate, a certificate of resignation, a Grand Lodge card, or a visiting card or official certificate in date, and shall be a resident of the Jurisdiction of Illinois, as provided in Section 2 of this article."

Section 4. After the words "visiting card" insert the words "or official certificate," so that when amended this section shall read as follows:

Section 4. "Any member of a Rebekah Lodge holding a visiting card or official certificate in force, shall have the privilege of applying for membership in this Lodge without having obtained a withdrawal card from the Lodge in which membership is held, and may be elected to membership in this Lodge. But such candidate shall not be entitled to full membership, or have any of the privileges of a member of this Lodge, until a withdrawal card from the Lodge in which previous membership was held is deposited with this Lodge, nor until the payment of the admission fees required by the By-Laws of this Lodge."

Section 5 repealed, and all following sections renumbered.

Section 7. Renumber and call it Section 6, and insert after the word "present" the following: "Either an official certificate or visiting card in date from his Subordinate Lodge, and," so that when the section is amended it will read as follows:

Section: 6. "An Odd Fellow petitioning for membership in this Rebekah Lodge shall present either an official certificate or visiting card in date from his Subordinate Lodge, and a certificate in the following form:" (Certificate needs no revision).

Section 11. - Renumber as Section 10 and omit all except the last sentence, and the section, when amended, will read as follows:

Section 10. "An application for initiation, if rejected, may not be renewed in this Lodge for six months from date of rejection; an application for membership otherwise than by initiation, if rejected, may be renewed at any time."

Section 11. "A person elected to membership in a Rebekah Lodge must receive the degree in the Lodge in which such person was elected. The right and duty of conferring this degree can not be transferred to another and different Lodge."

Article IV—Section 4. After the word "Constitution," omit the remainder of the sentence, and insert the following: "It shall be the duty of the Secretary of each Rebekah Lodge to furnish to the Secretary of each Subordinate Lodge to which any member of such Rebekah Lodge belongs a list of the members of said Subordinate Lodge who are also members of said Rebekah Lodge; and thereafter to notify the Secretary of the proper Subordinate Lodge when any brother shall become a member of said Rebekah Lodge." This section shall read as follows:

Section 4. "The Secretary shall keep accurate minutes of the proceedings of the Lodge; write all communications; fill up all certificates and cards; issue all summonses or notices required; attest to all moneys ordered paid at regular meetings and none other; and perform such other duties appertaining to the office as may be required by the Lodge, and be exempt from all dues and assessments, and shall receive such further compensation as the Lodge may have fixed prior to election. The Secretary shall make out at the end of the term the semi-annual report as required by Article XII, Section 2, of this Constitution. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of each Rebekah Lodge to furnish to the Secretary of each Subordinate Lodge to which any member of such Rebekah Lodge belongs a list of the members of said Subordinate Lodge who are also members of said Rebekah Lodge; and thereafter to notify the Secretary of the proper Subordinate Lodge when any brother shall become a member of said Rebekah Lodge.

"The Secretary shall also, at the close of the term, make out a report for the Lodge, showing fully its work and condition during the term; shall perform the duties of Financial Secretary, and shall give bond in the same manner as hereinafter prescribed for the Financial Secretary, if none be chosen; and shall also keep a list of all warrants drawn on the Treasurer, recording the date, amount, and the name of the person in whose favor drawn; and if the warrant be payable from any special fund, that fact shall appear both on the warrant and in the list; and shall also keep a register of membership, enrolling the names of the members of the Lodge, with date of proposal, initiation, signing of the Constitution upon admission by card, certificate, or reinstatement after expulsion; also with date of resignation, withdrawal by card, death, suspension, reinstatement or expulsion; and shall also record the attainment of official rank."

Article VI—Section 1. After the word "obtained" in the last sentence, insert the words "from the Lodge Deputy Grand Master," so that the section when amended shall read as follows:

Section 1. "Any member in good standing in this Lodge is eligible to election or appointment to any office in this Lodge, except the offices of Noble Grand and Vice Grand. To be eligible to the office of Vice Grand a member must have served a term in some elective or appointive office in a Rebekah Lodge, other than that of Trustee; and to be eligible to the office of Noble Grand, a member must have served a term in the office of Vice Grand of a Rebekah Lodge. But in case of a vacancy in the office of Noble Grand or Vice Grand in this Lodge, if all qualified members refuse to accept such vacant office, the Lodge may elect any member thereto, provided that a dispensation for the purpose be obtained from the Lodge Deputy Grand Master, before any such officer so elected can be installed, or can act as such officer."

Your committee recommend that the above amendments be approved.

Signed by the Committee.

By invitation of the Grand Master,—

Grand Representative Temple and Department Commander Raney, of Iowa, addressed the Grand Lodge. The chief topic on which they spoke was the session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge in 1902, to be held in the capital of their state, preparations for which are now in progress on a magnificent scale. They referred to the difference in the constitution of the Grand Lodge of their jurisdiction and of that of Illinois—theirs being composed of representatives apportioned on a basis of one representative for every 400 members in the subordinate lodges, thus giving them a Grand Lodge of less than 200 members. They had spent nearly the entire day in the hall, and evidently were much interested in witnessing the ease with which a body of 1,300 men can be managed, and the rapidity with which business can be dispatched, when the machinery is in proper order and a skillful superintendent in charge. They concluded with an invitation to the entire membership in Illinois, of both sexes, to cross the big river next September and partake of the hospitality of their Hawkeye relatives.

Grand Master Kewley resumed the chair.

The Committee on Legislation presented the following report, which was considered and adopted.

Your Committee on Legislation report as follows in regard to the matter of the proposed change to Section 1, Article VIII, of the Assembly Constitution, which would allow the Rebekah Assembly to appoint the members of the "Orphans' Home Board."

Resolved, That Section 1, Article VIII, of the Assembly Constitution, be amended by striking out the words "appointed by the Grand Master," in lines 3 and 4, and placing in lieu thereof "elected by the Assembly," and striking out the words "Grand Master" in the 13th line of Section 1, Article VIII, and inserting in lieu thereof the word "President."

Your committee do not deem it advisable to make the proposed change, and ask to be relieved from the further consideration of the question.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on the State of the Order would respectfully report as follows, in regard to the matter of that paragraph of the Grand Master's report, entitled "Sunday." [See page 33.]

Your committee note with regret that the lodges in question have committed a grave error in thus contravening the laws of the Order.

Participation in excursions or picnics in the name of the Order without dispensation from the Grand Master has frequently been declared illegal. A recent decision of our Grand Master declares that "Pleasure Clubs by whatsoever name, composed of or controlled by members of the Order so as to be identified in public opinion with our Order, or with any particular lodge or lodges of our Order, are required to secure dispensations for picnics, excursions, balls, and entertainments of whatsoever kind, from the Grand Master."

The fact that the excursions and picnics in question were given on Sundays by no means relieves the lodges from blame. On the contrary, the teachings of our Order, without exception, demand a respect for religion, both theoretical and practical. Lodges are expressly forbidden to hold business meetings on Sunday, and that day may well be set apart for such gatherings as are in accord with a proper observance of the day. Lodges of Odd Fellows may safely visit the sick, bury the dead and relieve the distressed upon this day, and thus advance instead of bring reproach upon the fair name of Odd Fellowship.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on the State of the Order would respectfully report as follows, in regard to the matter of Leona Rebekah Lodge, No. 111, instituted at Moweaqua, in Shelby County, on Nov. 11, 1901, by Sister Lola L. Rickard, acting as Special Deputy for that purpose, report of the institution of which was received too late for the printed reports issued by the Grand Master. We find that the law has been complied with in every respect, and we recommend that the action of Grand Master Kewley be approved and that a charter be issued to the said Rebekah Lodge. [See p. 281.]

Thirty-sixth report, by Bro. C. M. Turner, of No. 199.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on State of the Order would respectfully report as follows, in regard to the matter of the question of the jurisdiction of the County Court of Coles County over members of the Old Folks' Home who become insane while living at the Home, but who came to the Home from another county, as presented in the case of Bro. Spencer Pickett, described in the statement of Past Grand Master Mansfield. Chairman of the Trustees of the Old Folks' Home: that we have considered the matter and are of the opinion that some definite practice should be established in such cases, as they are liable at any time to arise, and we know of no better way in which it can be brought to an issue than the one presented and suggested by Bro. Mansfield. We therefore recommend that the incoming Grand Master, Bro. Yantis, be authorized to take such steps as will bring the matter to an issue as agreed to by Bro. Mansfield and the officials of Coles County. [See Doc. 76, page 289.]

We have examined the bonds and recommend that the same be approved and placed in the hands of the incoming Grand Master for safe keeping.

We would further recommend, inasmuch as the funds in the hands of the Grand Treasurer are constantly increasing, that hereafter the amount of the bond of the Grand Treasurer be fixed at Seventy-five Thousand Dollars.

Document No. 125.

Seventh report, by Bro. Henry Phillips, P.G.M.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals would respectfully report as follows in regard to the matter of Grand Master J. R. Kewley vs. Coatsburg Lodge, No. 836, I.O.O.F.:

Bro. D. B. Boren, a member of said lodge, was charged with conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow, by selling liquor without license, and was indicted for same in United States District Court for Southern District of Illinois, and plead guilty to said charge. Bro. Boren was also indicted in the Adams Circuit Court for selling liquor to habitual drunkards, and plead guilty to same; and because of these indictments and his pleas of guilty to same, the charge was brought, defendant plead guilty to such charge, and the lodge voted a reprimand to be given. From this action an appeal was taken to this committee, and the committee held that the offense charged was of so grave a character that a greater penalty than reprimand should be inflicted, and set aside the action of the lodge, and directed the lodge to inflict a greater penalty, and recommended that the brother be expelled. In view of the decision of this committee, the lodge refused to vote a greater penalty, and again voted a reprimand as the highest or greatest penalty the lodge would inflict. Upon this action of the lodge coming to the knowledge of the Grand Master, he directed the lodge to expel the brother. Upon this order being received by the lodge, the lodge again refused to inflict a greater penalty than a reprimand; upon which the Grand Master preferred proper charges against said lodge, charging the same with insubordination and contempt, arrested its charter, and took possession of its property and effects, in accordance with the law. On the 19th day of November, 1901, a trial was duly had of said lodge upon said charges, and upon a full hearing of all the evidence offered, it is found and determined that said charges are fully sustained, and said lodge is guilty of insubordination and contempt, as set forth in said charges.

At the hearing and trial of said lodge, the following-named brothers, members of said lodge, appeared by their agent, Bro. W. E. Gilliland, he being an Odd Fellow: Marvin Shake, Thomas E. Richardson, J. A. Shake, Wm. Shake, Gilbert Sweat, C. M. Wilson, W. H. Michels, John D. Sweat, C. A. Murrah, Fred. Wilkinson, R. Herzog, Jeff Terry, and W. E. Gilliland in his own proper person, and respectively entered their respective pleas of not being guilty of each and every of such charges and specifications; and, upon evidence heard, we find the above-named brothers not guilty, and recommend that proper cards be issued to them, and such other relief be granted as may be deemed proper.

Signed by the Committee.

On motion of Bro. J. P. Ellacott, of No. 416, the judgment of the committee was affirmed; the charter of Coatsburg Lodge, No. 836, was revoked; and it was ordered that Grand Lodge cards be issued to the innocent brothers named in the report.

Bro. Conway, G.R., moved that the 'Grand Secretary-elect, Bro. James R. Miller, be now installed, that he might retire to fill an important engagement; and the motion prevailed.

The Grand Master requested Past Grand Masters Berry and Rankin to present the Grand Secretary-elect.

JAMES R. MILLER, of No. 426, was presented before the chair, assumed the proper obligation, and was regularly installed into the office of Grand Secretary for the ensuing year.

Grand Master Kewley resumed the chair.

The Committee on Judiciary and Appeals presented the following report, which was considered and adopted.

Document No. 126.

Eighth report, by Bro. Orendorff, P.G.M.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals would respectfully report as follows, in regard to the matter of Union Lodge, No. 9, I.O.O.F., vs. Trustees I.O.O.F. Old Folks' Home, found on page 49, Grand Master's Report:

The principal question in this case is whether the Trustees of the Old Folks' Home are authorized to collect from the Lodge a sum of not exceeding one dollar and fifty cents per week, at the discretion of the Trustees, for the maintenance of the wife who accompanies her husband to the Home and becomes a member thereof. The Trustees claim they have that power.

The By-Law of the Home, which was duly approved by the Grand Lodge, and which, in the opinion of your committee, gives the Trustees the power claimed, is as follows:

"ARTICLE IV. Terms of Admission.—The Lodge in which the applicant for admission holds membership, or in which the deceased brother held membership whose widow applies for admission, shall pay all the expenses in transit to the Home of the approved applicant, and of his wife, if she accompanies him, and shall pay to the Trustees of the Home a reasonable fee, at the discretion of the Trustees, not to exceed one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) per week for each member.

"A wife who accompanies her husband to the Home shall, after his decease at the Home, leave the Home, unless she, by reason of age or affliction, shall on her own account be entitled to membership therein; in which case the Lodge to which the brother belonged at date of admission shall, during the life of the widow, for her maintenance pay said Home a reasonable fee, at the discretion of the Trustees, not to exceed one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) per week for each member.

"Any Lodge recommending admission of any person to this Home shall, on the approval of application, see that the person is cleanly and properly clothed, and is supplied with one change of clothing; otherwise the Trustees shall procure the same at the expense of the Lodge.

"All Lodges whose members are admitted to the Home shall keep such members in good standing in said Lodge by payment of dues while members of said Home."

The language of the By-Law appears to be plain, and under the rule that the By-Law should be construed in the manner that its terms obviously imply, we think that no extraneous matters need be considered in determining its meaning.

The discretion lodged in the Trustees, it is to be assumed, will be exercised in the interest of the Order, and not to the injury or oppression of any Subordinate Lodge.

The decision of the Grand Master is therefore reversed.

Respectfully submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

After arguments pro and con, the question was taken on the motion to adopt the report of the committee. The motion did not prevail.

On motion of Bro. Merrills, of No. 650, the decision of the Grand Master in the case was sustained.

On motion of Bro. Mansfield, P.G.M., the Grand Master was instructed to appoint a committee of three to report at next session what should be done with the money already received as fees for wives of members of the Old Folks' Home.

The Grand Master appointed the Committee on Finance to be selected for the ensuing year by the Grand Master-elect to act as such committee.

The following petition was received and read.

Document No. 127.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 21, 1901.

We, the undersigned, members of Coatsburg Lodge, No. 836, I.O.O.F., of Illinois, whose Charter was recently arrested by Grand Master Kewley for insubordination and contempt, beg leave to represent that we are innocent of any such charges, which facts we have made to appear to the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, and by whom we have been exonerated; and believing that we will be able to place the same Coatsburg Lodge on an honorable and prosperous footing, we therefore hereby request and petition that the Charter of said Coatsburg Lodge, No. 836, I.O.O.F., of Illinois, be restored to us.

W. E. GILLILAND.	FRED WILKINSON.

CONSTITUTION

OF THE

Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois

ARTICLE I.—NAME.

This Lodge shall be known by the name and style of the "Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows."

ARTICLE II.—POWERS.

This Grand Lodge, under the limitations imposed upon it by its Charter and the Constitution and Laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, possesses, within the State of Illinois, supreme legislative, executive and judicial authority. It has the right and power (1) to grant dispensations to establish Lodges; (2) to charter Lodges; (3) to suspend or discontinue, for cause, any Lodge subordinate to it; (4) to hear and determine all appeals from the actions and decisions of its Subordinate Lodges and from the decisions of the Grand Master; (5) to redress grievances of members and Lodges under its jurisdiction; and (6) to do whatever is proper according to the usages of Odd Fellowship and not in contravention of this Constitution or of the Constitution and Laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. No Lodge of the Order can exist in this State without its permission.

ARTICLE III.—MEMBERSHIP.

Section 1. This Grand Lodge shall be composed of the following members, viz: One Representative (who must be a Past Grand in good standing) from each of the Lodges of the State, and all other Past Grands in good standing of Lodges of this jurisdiction. A Past Grand from another jurisdiction, becoming a member of a Lodge in this State, may become a member of this Grand Lodge upon presenting a certificate of his official standing from the Grand Lodge of the jurisdiction from which his membership was transferred. Provided, however, that neither a Representative nor other Past Grand shall be a member of this Grand Lodge until he shall have received the Grand Lodge Degree.

Sec. 2. This Grand Lodge shall have power to punish by reprimand, fine or expulsion, any of its members who shall refuse to obey its laws, or who shall be guilty of conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow.

ARTICLE IV.--OFFICERS.

Section 1. The officers of this Grand Lodge shall be as follows, viz: Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Grand Warden, Grand Secretary, Grand Treasurer, and two Grand Representatives to the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows,—all of whom shall be elected by ballot; also, Grand Chaplain, Grand Marshal, Grand Conductor, Grand Guardian, and Grand Herald,—all of whom shall be appointed.

Sec. 2. The Grand Master shall preside at all meetings of the Grand Lodge, and preserve order and enforce the rules. He shall appoint all Grand Officers pro tempore, and all the Grand Officers who are not elective. He shall name the members of all committees, unless it is otherwise ordered by the Grand Lodge. He shall give the casting vote whenever the Grand Lodge is equally divided. He may call Special Sessions of the Grand Lodge whenever, in his judgment, the good of the Order requires him so to do, and he shall call a Special Session whenever requested so to do in writing by the Representatives of fifty Lodges. He shall order the payment by the Grand Treasurer of all moneys voted by the Grand Lodge. In person or by deputy, he shall confer all Official Degrees, and he shall communicate the necessary passwords to be used in this jurisdiction. During the recess of the Grand Lodge he shall have a general superintendence of the interests of the Order in this State; shall hear and decide any grievance or complaint that may be made to him; pass upon all questions of law and usage which shall have been first submitted on appeal under seal of the Subordinate Lodge to the Lodge Deputy Grand Master, and he shall not be compelled to answer questions submitted by individual members of the Order; grant dispensations to open Lodges, and do such other acts as this Grand Lodge might do, excepting that he may not, by virtue of any powers conferred upon him by this section, exercise any of the legislative functions of this Grand Lodge. At each Annual Session the Grand Master shall report the dispensations to open Lodges granted by him, and such other acts as he may have done in accordance with the authority herein upon him conferred; and when an appeal is taken from any of his decisions, he shall report the decision with the appeal therefrom. All decisions made by the Grand Master shall be binding until reversed, upon appeal, by this Grand Lodge.

Sec. 3. The Deputy Grand Master shall support the Grand Master in the Grand Lodge. His powers shall be the same as those of the Grand Master, when, during the absence of that officer from this jurisdiction, or because of his inability to act, or in the event of his death or resignation, the duties of the Grand Master shall devolve upon the Deputy Grand Master; and he shall perform such other duties as are required of him by this Constitution, the laws and usages of this Grand Lodge.

Sec. 4. The Grand Warden shall, under the Grand Master, have special charge of the door, and shall assist the Grand Master in conducting the business of the Grand Lodge.

Sec. 5. In the Order of Business, the reports of these committees shall be called and have precedence in the order in which they are herein named. And within twenty days after the adoption of this amendment, the Grand Master shall appoint a Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, to consist of five members, one of whom shall be appointed for the term of one year, one for the term of two years, one for the term of three years, one for the term of four years, and one for the term of five years; and thereafter at each Annual Session the Grand Master, immediately after the installation of the Grand Officers, shall appoint one member of said committee for the full term of five years; and shall, whenever a vacancy exists in the membership of said committee, occasioned by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, fill such vacancy by appointment, and such appointee shall fill out the unexpired term of his predecessor.

Sec. 2. The Committee on Credentials shall report, without delay, on the credentials of Representatives and Past Grands.

Sec. 3. The Committee on the State of the Order shall report upon the reports of the Grand Master and Grand Secretary, in so far as such reports relate to the State of the Order. At each session of said committee, the member having the shortest term to serve shall act as Chairman, and each of said committee shall be paid mileage at the rate of six cents per mile, by the nearest route from his place of residence to the office of the Grand Secretary, or to the place of holding the session of the committee, as the case may be, for each of such sessions, and a per diem of three dollars for each day actually occupied, to be paid upon the certificate of the Chairman of the committee.

The said committee shall reduce all their judgments and decisions to writing, and file the same with the Grand Secretary.

All processes, whether in the nature of summons, subpoena, or otherwise, shall be under the seal of the Grand Lodge and the signature of the Grand Secretary. All appeals hereafter taken from the final judgment or action of any Subordinate Lodge shall be taken and referred to the said Committee on Judiciary and Appeals. And the decisions and judgments of said committee shall, unless appealed from within thirty days, be final, and stand as the judgment and decision of this Grand Lodge.

An appeal from the decision or judgment of said committee to this Grand Lodge shall be allowed, and such appeal shall be considered and determined at the session next after such appeal is taken, except in case such appeal is taken during a session of the Grand Lodge, in which case such appeal may be considered and determined at such time as the Grand Lodge may direct. A notice in writing directed to the Grand Secretary and signed by the member appealing, or the Noble Grand or Secretary of the Lodge, under the seal of the Lodge in all cases where a Lodge appeals, briefly stating the facts of such appeal and the reasons assigned therefor, shall be the only requirements of such appeal.

Sec. 6. The Committee on Finance shall report upon all accounts and claims against the Grand Lodge, previous to such accounts and claims being allowed. They shall sign all bills for which they may have awarded contracts, as being correct, and forward the same to the Finance Committee for their approval. And no warrant or warrants shall be drawn by the Grand Secretary for the payment of any printing bill until the same has been approved by a majority of the Finance Committee.

Sec. 9. The Committee on Railroads shall, if possible, procure reduced rates of fare over the several railroads of the State for members of the Grand Lodge attending the session thereof; and shall report to the Grand Secretary at least three weeks before any session the names of railroad companies giving reductions of fare, and all the details of the arrangements made therewith.

Sec. 10. The Committee on Mileage and Per Diem shall report the number of miles necessarily traveled by the shortest traveled route by each Grand Officer and Representative and member of the various Grand Lodge committees, the number of days' attendance of same, and the amount due to each. The committee shall make its estimate by allowing five cents mileage one way, and two dollars per diem.

A Special Session shall be held at the time and place designated by the Grand Master in the call.

Sec. 2. At the Annual Sessions the elective Grand Officers shall be elected, and all business requiring the attention of the Grand Lodge transacted. At a Special Session no business shall be transacted excepting that for which the session was called, which business must be distinctly stated in the call.

Sec. 3. The Grand Lodge shall be opened in the Grand Lodge Degree at all times when engaged in transacting business of the Order.

Sec. 4. All questions in the Grand Lodge shall be decided by a majority of the members present and voting, excepting upon a call of Lodges, when Representatives only shall vote, and each shall cast the number of votes to which his Lodge may be entitled. A call of Lodges may be required by any ten Representatives, and whenever the vote is taken this way the yeas and nays shall be recorded.

Sec. 5. Each Lodge shall be entitled, upon a call of Lodges, to one vote for every ten members in good standing at the close of the last preceding semi-annual term: Provided, that any Lodge with less than ten members shall have one vote.

ARTICLE VIII.—SUBORDINATES.

Section 1. Charters may be granted as follows, viz: (1) On the written application of five or more brothers, in good standing, to open a Lodge where there is no Lodge, or where there is no Lodge working in the language of the proposed Lodge; (2) on the written application of ten or more brothers, in good standing, to open a Lodge where not more than nine Lodges are working in the language of the proposed Lodge; (3) on the written application of twenty or more brothers, in good standing, to open a Lodge where ten or more Lodges are working in the language of the proposed Lodge: Provided, the application shall be approved by at least two-thirds of the Lodges working in the language of the proposed Lodge at such place. All applications for charters must be accompanied by the withdrawal cards of the applicants and the charter fee, to-wit, thirty dollars.

Sec. 2. Every Lodge opened in this jurisdiction shall be instituted by the Grand Master, or a Past Grand especially deputed to do the duty, who shall give the Lodge, with the charter or warrant, the necessary instructions and charges. The expenses of the instituting officer shall be paid by the Lodge instituted.

Sec. 3. Subordinate Lodges shall make such annual, semi-annual and other reports as may from time to time be required by law, blank forms for which shall be furnished from the office of the Grand Secretary.

Sec. 4. No Lodge shall receive a proposition for membership from, or initiate, any person not twenty-one years of age.

Sec. 5. Every Subordinate Lodge shall pay to the Grand Lodge such capitation tax as may from year to year, or by the By-Laws of this Grand Lodge, be determined upon. Provided, however, that there shall never be appropriated from such capitation tax for any one fiscal year a sum to exceed sixty (60) cents per capita for the Odd Fellows' Orphans' Home and the Odd Fellows Old Folks' Home, for maintenance and all expenses of such homes.

ARTICLE IX.--CHARGES.

Section 1. In all cases where charges have been preferred against a Subordinate Lodge, which may involve the surrender or revocation of the Charter, Warrant or Dispensation under which such a Lodge exists, it shall become the duty of the Grand Secretary to issue a summons to such Subordinate Lodge, and to the Trustees of such Lodge, commanding them to appear before the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals of this Grand Lodge on a day to be therein named, at the Lodge-room of such Lodge, or such other place as shall be directed by the Grand Master in his order for the issuance of such summons; which summons shall be made returnable not less than twenty days, nor more than ninety days, from and after the date thereof, and shall be served upon the said Lodge by delivering to the Noble Grand, Vice Grand, or Recording Secretary of such Lodge a copy of such summons; and the same shall be served upon the Trustees by delivering to some three or more of them a copy thereof, which service shall be evidenced by the return indorsed thereon by the officer or brother making such service, which service may be made by the Grand Marshal or any Odd-Fellow by him so authorized to do, in writing. Such summons, when so served, shall be returned to the Grand Secretary.

It shall be the duty of the Grand Master, whenever he shall suspend a Lodge, within ten days next thereafter to formulate and file with the Grand Secretary charges and specifications against such Lodge, and in such case, and in all other cases where such charges and specifications shall have been preferred by another, the Grand Master shall fix a time and place for the hearing, by the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, of such charges, and direct the Grand Secretary to notify the members of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals of such time and place, and that he prepare and furnish to the Lodge so charged one copy and to the Trustees of said Lodge one copy, of such charges and specifications. And thereupon, on notice by the Grand Secretary, the Deputy Grand Master shall appoint one competent member of the Order to be a special commissioner to take the testimony of witnesses, and other evidence, all of which, in so far as it may be done, shall be reduced to writing, and all parts of books, papers, or other written matters offered in evidence as exhibits, or otherwise, shall be by copy or copies duly examined and attested by the special commissioner, except in cases where the originals shall be so filed; but no testimony of witnesses, or other evidence, shall be so taken, until notice of the time and place of the taking of such evidence shall have been given to the Noble Grand or Secretary, and at least three of the Trustees of the Lodge, at least three days prior to such taking; nor until the special commissioner shall have subscribed in duplicate a pledge or obligation in substantially the following form:

I....., Special Commissioner appointed by the Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of the I.O.O.F. of the State of Illinois, to take the evidence under charges and specifications against.....Lodge, No....., I.O.O.F., of the State of Illinois, do pledge my honor as an Odd-Fellow that I will discharge the duties of such commissioner fully, fairly, and impartially, to the best of my knowledge and ability.

(Signed)

One copy of which shall be filed with the Grand Secretary as evidence of the acceptance of such appointment, and one copy shall be filed by such commissioner with his report of the evidence by him taken; and such commissioner shall require each witness who is an Odd-Fellow to subscribe to a like pledge or obligation to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, touching the matters in controversy, before such witness shall be examined; and if such witness is not an Odd-Fellow, shall require him or her to be sworn before some officer by law authorized to administer oaths to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, touching the matters in controversy; and all the competent and proper testimony of such witnesses shall be taken by interrogatories and answers; at which taking of testimony all parties interested shall have the right to appear and examine or cross-examine such witnesses, either in person or by agent, or other counsel.

Provided, That no agent or counsel who is not an Odd-Fellow shall be permitted to appear for either or any party, and such commissioner, by the consent of the parties appearing before him, or for good cause shown, or of his own motion, may continue from day to day to take such testimony, or may adjourn the taking thereof to a time and place named by him; which shall be by him publicly announced, and also entered upon his official report of such testimony. When the commissioner shall have completed the taking of the testimony, he shall so certify upon the same and shall immediately transmit the whole of such testimony, evidence and exhibits, properly marked and attested, to the Grand Secretary, who shall immediately notify the Grand Master and each member of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, whose duty it shall be to appear at the time and place named for the trial of said cause, when and where they shall proceed to hear and determine said cause.

Provided, That for good cause shown they may postpone such hearing, or continue the hearing to a time and place to be determined by them, and may make and enforce any order not inconsistent with the principles of the Order nor in violation of any law of this Grand Lodge or the Sovereign Grand Lodge, which they may deem proper and consistent with the principles of justice, and in all their proceedings and rulings they, as nearly as may be, shall be governed by the rules and usages of Courts of Equity Jurisdiction in this state. And when they shall have heard and determined the issues presented by such charges and specifications, they shall publicly (that is to members of the Order) announce their judgment, and shall reduce their opinion and judgment to writing, subscribe the same, and thereupon transmit the same, together with all the papers, evidence, etc., in their possession and relating to such cause, to the Grand Secretary, and the finding and judgment so made shall stand and be held to be the judgment of this Grand Lodge.

Provided, That any member of the Order, or such Lodge, by any three of its officers or Trustees, shall be permitted to prosecute an appeal to the Grand Lodge, or to the Grand Master, if the Grand Lodge is not in session, by giving notice in writing of such appeal within thirty days next after the filing of such judgment, which notice shall be filed with the Grand Secretary.

Provided, That such judgment shall be read to this Grand Lodge at its next session, and shall be subject to review thereby.

Provided, further, That any member of this Lodge so charged may personally or by agent (being an Odd-fellow) appear before said committee at the time of said trial and enter his personal plea of not guilty of all such charges and specifications, and said committee at such time and place (after they shall have determined the issues as to said Lodge) as they shall select, shall hear such evidence as such brother or brothers may present tending to prove his or their innocence of the offense charged; and if said committee shall determine that any such brother is in fact innocent of any such offense, they shall enter final judgment acquitting such brother thereof, and shall make such order as will, in so far as may be under the circumstances, restore the brother or brothers to all rights and privileges in the Order, such as issuing to him from the office of the Grand Secretary a card as in the case of a defunct Lodge, etc., and it shall become the duty of the Grand Master to carry into effect and enforce such judgment.

ARTICLE X.—AGED ODD-FELLOWS' FUND AND RELIEF.

Section 1. This Grand Lodge shall create, maintain and disburse an Aged Odd-Fellows' Fund under the following provisions:

Sec. 2. Hereafter, all assets of all Subordinate Lodges whose charters have been surrendered shall be placed to the credit of a fund to be called and known as "Aged Odd-Fellows' Fund."

Sec. 3. The Grand Secretary shall keep a register to be known as the "Aged Odd Fellows' Register."

Sec. 4. Any Odd-Fellow over 50 years of age, who has been in continuous membership for twenty-five (25) years or over, and whose Subordinate Lodge shall surrender its charter, and who would under the laws of the Grand Lodge be entitled to receive a Grand Lodge Card, may petition the Grand Lodge to place his name on the Aged Odd-Fellows' Register. Said petition shall be accompanied with a certificate from the Grand Secretary, setting forth the actual standing of the applicant at the time his Lodge surrendered its charter. Upon such petition being granted by this Grand Lodge, the Grand Secretary shall place the name of such petitioner upon the Aged Odd-Fellows' Register.

Sec. 5. Any Odd-Fellow enrolled according to the above provisions may apply for admission to any Subordinate Lodge under the conditions hereinafter set forth.

Sec. 6. Any Odd-Fellow enrolled upon the Aged Odd-Fellows' Register may be admitted to membership in a Subordinate Lodge; he shall pay to the Grand Secretary, through the Lodge to which he has been admitted, an admission fee of five dollars ($5.00), and shall pay as dues the sum of five dollars and twenty cents ($5.20) per year. Said admission fee and dues shall be placed to the credit of the Aged Odd-Fellows' Fund.

Sec. 7. Any Odd-Fellow enrolled as above in a Subordinate Lodge as herein provided, who becomes sick or disabled, so as to be incapable of earning a livelihood, shall receive from the Grand Secretary, through the Lodge to which the brother has been admitted, the sum of two dollars ($2.00) weekly benefits so long as the money collected under the provisions of this article shall permit the payment of the same.

Sec. 8. The Secretary of the Lodge shall immediately notify the Grand Secretary, in all cases of sickness or disability referred to in the preceding section, of their commencement and termination; and the Grand Secretary shall notify the Lodges having members on the Aged Odd-Fellows' Register when the said fund shall be depleted.

Sec. 9. A member of a Subordinate Lodge admitted under the above provisions shall not be entitled to vote or speak on any question involving a disposition of the funds or property of the Lodge, but shall be entitled to receive the attentive benefits of the Lodge. Also, he shall be liable to watch with the sick members of said Lodge.

Sec. 10. Upon the death of an Aged Odd-Fellow enrolled as above, and who shall be entitled to the benefits of this fund, there shall be paid as a funeral expense the sum of $35.00 so long as the moneys collected under the provisions of the Aged Odd-Fellows' Fund shall permit the payment.

Sec. 11. No Lodge receiving such members as above provided shall be liable for the payment of any sick benefits or funeral expenses to or on account of such members, nor shall any such member be required to pay any dues or assessments to such subordinate Lodge, except for the benefit of the Aged Odd-Fellows' Fund.

ARTICLE XI.—AMENDMENTS.

Section 1. This Constitution shall be altered or amended only by a proposition therefor in writing submitted at an annual session, which proposition shall set forth the section to be altered or amended as it would read if amended or altered. The proposition shall be entered at length on the Journal, and shall not be acted upon until the next annual session, when it may be considered and adopted. But if, by changes in legislation or otherwise, any part of this Constitution shall be found to be contrary to the laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, such part may, without previous notice, be stricken out or amended to conform to the laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Sec. 2. Two-thirds of all votes cast shall be necessary to adopt an amendment to this Constitution, and the vote shall be taken of the members present by division and count, unless the vote by Lodges be called, in which case the vote shall be according to Article VII, Section 4, of this Constitution.

BY-LAWS

OF THE

Section 1. This Grand Lodge shall, at each Annual Session, determine at what place its next session shall be held. It shall convene at 7 o'clock p. m., and adjourn from time to time until the business of the session is completed, unless otherwise ordered specially by a vote of the Grand Lodge.

Sec. 2. In the absence of the Grand Master and Deputy Grand Master, the chair may be taken, pro tempore, by any member of the Grand Lodge who may be called to it by a majority of the members present.

Sec. 3. The meetings of the Grand Lodge shall be opened with prayer.

ARTICLE II.—SUBORDINATES.

Section 1. Should any Subordinate Lodge fail to hold its meetings for six months, or to make its returns as required by the Constitution for one year, it shall be deemed an extinct Lodge, and its charter forfeited. It shall be the duty of Subordinates to make out their returns previous to installation.

Sec. 2. In all cases where a Lodge shall have been suspended or expelled, or its charter shall have been forfeited, the charter, funds, books, properties, and effects of all kinds, shall revert to the Grand Lodge, and it shall be the duty of the last installed officers of such Lodge to deliver immediately to the Grand Master, or the brother deputed by him to receive them, such funds and other effects as the Lodge may have claim to.

Sec. 3. Members of a defunct Lodge, who were in good standing at the time of its dissolution, as may appear by the records of such Lodge, or who may have paid to the Grand Lodge all arrearages then due by them, shall, upon application to the Grand Secretary, receive a certificate, under the seal of the Grand Lodge, which shall entitle them to the same privileges as a withdrawal card, and for the same time, to enable them to make application for admission to membership in another Lodge: Provided, that no such certificate shall be given to a member of a suspended or expelled Lodge, unless ordered by special vote of the Grand Lodge.

Sec. 4. Any Lodge or brother who shall be concerned in organizing, or who shall countenance or support, or who shall knowingly visit any Lodge in the State of Illinois, purporting to be Odd-Fellows, and not possessing a legal, unreclaimed and valid charter, duly granted and presented or confirmed by this Grand Lodge, shall be deemed unworthy of fellowship; and such brother, upon satisfactory proof, shall be suspended or expelled, at the opinion of the Lodge of which he is a member; and any brother so suspended or expelled shall not be reinstated unless the Grand Lodge assents thereto; nor shall any person who has been in membership in any spurious or illegal Lodge be received into any regular Lodge without the consent of the Grand Lodge.

Sec. 5. Subordinate Lodges shall punish their members who may be guilty of immoral conduct; and after charges have been preferred for immoral conduct, and sustained, they shall award such punishment as is provided therefor in their Constitution and By-Laws, and as the rules and usages of the Order demand; in default of which, the Subordinate neglecting or refusing to award punishment shall be liable to forfeit its charter.

Sec. 6. Every Subordinate Lodge shall have a suitable seal (a proof-impression of which shall be deposited with the Grand Secretary), and all its official communications shall be sealed therewith.

Sec. 7. No Subordinate Lodge shall appear in procession in regalia, except to attend the funeral of a brother, or to celebrate the anniversary-day of the Order, April 26, without first having obtained permission so to do in the manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 8. The following shall be the form of a certificate of a Representative to the Grand Lodge:

..... LODGE, No..... I.O.O.F.
To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois I.O.O.F.;

This is to certify that, Past Grand, has been duly elected Representative of this Lodge in your Grand Body for two years.

In testimony whereof, we hereunto affix our hands and the seal
 L. S. of our Lodge, this.....day of.....19....

Attest:, Secretary. N. G.

Sec. 9. Clause 1. The Representatives to this Grand Lodge shall be elected and hold office for two years, one-half of them being chosen each year. Provided, That said Representatives shall not be entitled to mileage and per diem if the semi-annual reports and tax of their Lodges have not been received by the Grand Secretary prior to the first day of November.

Clause 2. Each Subordinate Lodge shall, on the night of and immediately after the installation of officers in April, biennially, from among the qualified Past Grands in membership in the Lodge, elect by ballot, and in the same manner as prescribed for the election of officers, one Representative to this Grand Lodge; Provided that, when a public installation is had, the election may be at the next regular meeting thereafter.

Clause 3. Immediately after the election of Representative, each Lodge, by its officers, shall execute the proper certificate as set forth in the preceding section, in duplicate; one copy of which shall be forwarded without delay, by mail, directed to the Grand Secretary; the other copy shall be delivered to the Representative-elect.

Clause 4. When a vacancy arises in the representation of a Lodge, from any cause, the Lodge may, in its discretion, fill the same; but the election for filling such vacancy shall not take place until the next regular meeting after the decision to fill the vacancy has been made: Provided, however, that when, on account of such delay of one week, there will not be sufficient or reasonable time allowed to the Representative-elect to prepare to attend the next ensuing session of the Grand Lodge and to travel thereto, the Lodge may fill the vacancy forthwith.

Clause 5. The Representatives shall be divided into two classes—the first class being those who represent odd-numbered Lodges, and the second class those who represent even-numbered Lodges. The first class shall be elected biennially in odd-numbered years, and the second class biennially in even-numbered years.

Sec. 10. No Lodge-room of any Subordinate Lodge under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge shall be established, and no meetings of any Lodge shall be holden, in a tavern or hotel, under penalty of forfeiture of their charter, without express permission by this Grand Lodge or the Grand Master.

Sec. 11. No Subordinate Lodge in this State shall admit to membership, either by initiation or deposit of card, any person residing nearer another Lodge working in the same language, without the consent of such Lodge having been first obtained in writing, and payment to such Lodge of the amount of fees for initiation and degrees charged by the Lodge receiving such member; provided, however, the Lodge giving such consent in writing may, also in writing, if it so desires, waive the payment to it of the above-named fees for initiation and degrees; provided, that in a city or village in which there are two or more Lodges, they shall have concurrent jurisdiction.

ARTICLE III.—AMENDMENTS.

These By-Laws shall not be amended unless the section proposed to be amended shall be submitted to the Grand Lodge in writing as it would read if amended as proposed. The proposed amendment shall be read twice at length, and on the second reading may be put upon its passage; when, if it shall receive a number of votes equal to a majority of all the Representatives elected to the Grand Lodge, it shall be considered adopted. A proposition to repeal a section or other part of the By-Laws shall be made in writing, and shall set forth in full the section or other part proposed to be repealed, which proposition shall be read twice at length, and on its second reading may be put upon its passage. If it shall receive a number of votes equal to a majority of all the Representatives elected to the Grand Lodge, it shall be considered adopted.

Should no member rise to speak, the Grand Master shall rise to take the vote; and after he has risen, no member shall be permitted to speak upon the question. The Grand Master shall pronounce the votes and decisions of the Grand Lodge on all subjects. His decisions on questions of order shall be without debate, unless, entertaining doubts on the point, he invite it; and he shall have the privilege of speaking only on such questions from the chair. ARTICLE V.—OF QUESTIONS AND VOTES.

1. When any communication, petition or memorial is presented, before it is read, or any vote taken on it, a brief statement of its contents shall be made by the introducer or the Chair; and after it has been read, a brief notice of the purport shall be entered on the Journal.
2. A motion shall not be subject to action until stated by the Chair, and at the desire of any member it shall be reduced to writing.

3. When a blank is to be filled, the question shall be taken first upon the highest sum or number, and the longest or latest time proposed.

4. Every report of a committee shall be complete and intelligible in itself. If it refers to portions of the Reports of the Grand Officers, it shall clearly designate such portions; if it refers to any Code, Digest, Constitution or By-Laws, it shall refer by number of Section and Article; if it recommends the adoption of any resolution, it shall recite the resolution in full as recommended for adoption; if it recommends that a resolution be not adopted, it shall name the mover thereof, and give the purport thereof or all of it. The application shall be presented to the lodge at a regular meeting thereof, by a member, and shall be entered in substance on the records, and referred to a special committee of three members for investigation, who may, if they all join therein, report at the first regular meeting thereafter; otherwise, unless further time be granted, they shall report at the second regular meeting thereafter.

Sec. 6. When the report of the investigating committee has been submitted to the lodge, the ballot shall be held as required by law, after which the box shall be passed by the Warden to the Vice Grand, who shall examine the ballot and inform the Noble Grand whether the ballot is favorable or unfavorable; the Warden shall then pass the box to the Noble Grand, who shall inspect the ballot and announce the result, merely stating that the candidate is elected or rejected. If not more than two black balls appear, the candidate shall be elected; but if three or more appear, he shall be rejected. A favorable ballot shall entitle the applicant to receive any degree or degrees of the subordinate lodge not previously attained, without further ballot, unless written objections, signed by at least two members of the lodge, shall be filed with the Noble Grand prior to the conferring of the same; in which case the Noble Grand shall announce the fact to the lodge, when further action shall be deferred to the next regular meeting, at which meeting a ballot shall be had in all respects as hereinbefore provided. Sec. 7. A proposition for membership may be withdrawn, without the consent of the lodge, at any time before the committee shall have reported thereon, but not subsequently. The admission fee shall be returned if the application is refused or withdrawn; but if the candidate shall be elected and fail to appear for admission within six weeks (except for cause adjudged sufficient), the election shall be void, and the deposit forfeited to the lodge.

Sec. 8. When a candidate for membership by initiation has been rejected, notice thereof shall be sent without delay to all lodges in the same place; and he can not be again proposed in any lodge until six months shall have elapsed. A proposition for membership otherwise than by initiation may be renewed at any time.

Sec. 9. Any member of a subordinate lodge holding a visiting card, in force, shall have the privilege of applying for membership in this lodge without having obtained a withdrawal card from the lodge in which membership is held, and may be elected to membership in this lodge; but such candidate shall not be entitled to full membership, nor have any of the privileges of a member of this lodge, until a withdrawal card from the lodge in which previous membership was held is deposited with this lodge, nor until the payment of the admission fees required by the By-laws of this lodge.

ARTICLE III.--OFFICERS.

Section 1. The elective officers of the lodge shall be a Noble Grand, a Vice Grand, a Secretary and a Treasurer, and, when deemed necessary, a Financial Secretary.

He shall inspect and announce the result of all votes by the lodge; have charge of the charter, which he must always have in the lodge while in session; draw upon the Treasurer for all sums that have been voted by the lodge, and none other. He shall convene special meetings at his own discretion, or as directed in Article I, Section 3, of this Constitution, and perform such other duties as appertain to his office. He shall not make or second any motion, neither shall he take part in any debate while in the chair.

Sec. 4. The Vice Grand shall assist the Noble Grand in presiding in the lodge. He shall appoint his own supporters, and the minority of all committees not otherwise provided for. He shall have special charge of the door, under the Noble Grand. In the absence of the Noble Grand he shall preside, and perform all other duties required by the charges and usage of the Order.

Sec. 5. The Secretary shall keep an accurate record of the proceedings of the lodge. He shall write all communications; fill up all certificates and cards granted by the lodge; issue all summonses or notices required; attest to all moneys ordered paid at regular meetings, and none other. He shall make out at the end of his term the Semi-Annual Report required by Article XI of this Constitution, and accurately record the same and the Annual Report in the Register of Reports. He shall also, at the close of his term, make out a report for the lodge showing fully its work and condition during the term. He shall perform the duties of the Financial Secretary if none be chosen, and be exempt from all dues; he may receive such further compensation as the lodge may have fixed prior to his election. He shall also keep a list of all warrants drawn on the Treasurer, recording the date, amount, and name of person in whose favor drawn; and if the warrant be payable from any special fund, that fact shall appear both on the warrant and on the list. He shall also keep a register of membership, enrolling the names of members of the lodge, with date of proposal, election, initiation (or signing of the Constitution upon admission by card or certificate), resignation, withdrawal by card, death, suspension, reinstatement, or expulsion; also recording the conferring of degrees and the attainment of official rank.

Sec. 6. The Financial Secretary (if any be had) shall be chosen annually, at the election in March. He shall keep the accounts between the lodge and its members. He shall pay over to the Treasurer immediately all moneys received by him, and shall inform the Treasurer from time to time, or at the last payment in each term, how much of the money paid to him belongs to any special fund of the lodge. He shall notify all members who are at any time in arrears for eleven months' dues, delivering the notice in person, if practicable, but if not, then mailing it to the member's last known address; and at the expiration of the next succeeding month, if said member's account is not settled in whole or in part, sufficient to reduce his arrears to less than one full year's dues, he shall present the name of such member to the lodge. Prior to the last meeting in March, June, September and December, respectively, he shall notify all members who are in arrears for one quarter's dues. He shall at the close of each term make to the lodge a detailed report of the business of his office, and have his books written up for the Finance Committee, whom he shall meet prior to the first meeting in the next succeeding term to exhibit his books and papers, and to aid them in the examination thereof; and at the first regular meeting of the new term he shall present his report to the lodge, with a statement of the balance of account of each unsuspended member. He shall make out the Annual Report to the Grand Lodge, as required by Article XI, and shall deliver it to the Secretary for record and for forwarding to the Grand Lodge. He shall be exempt from all dues, and receive such further compensation as the lodge may have fixed prior to his election.

Sec. 7. The Treasurer shall be elected annually at the election in March, and prior to his installation in office shall give a joint and several bond to the Trustees of the lodge, with two sureties to be approved by the lodge, with such penalties and conditions as from time to time may be prescribed by the lodge. Provided, that, in lieu of the bond above mentioned, the Treasurer, at the option of the lodge, may furnish a bond signed by some surety or guaranty company, licensed by the State of Illinois, and that is engaged in the business of furnishing indemnity bonds, the expense of such bond to be defrayed by the lodge. Such bond, before being presented to the lodge, must have been submitted to and approved by a majority of the Trustees. He shall keep the funds, notes and securities of the lodge; pay all orders drawn on him by the Noble Grand and attested by the Secretary, and none other; keep a full account of all moneys expended; and give the lodge, at the first meeting in each month, a statement of its funds. He shall keep a separate account of any special fund instituted by the lodge, and report to the Financial Secretary, at or before the last meeting in each term, any money received by him as interest or dividends on any notes, securities or stocks held by him. He shall make for the lodge, at the close of his term, a full report of his receipts and disbursements, and have his books written up for the Finance Committee, whom he shall meet prior to the first meeting in the next succeeding term, to exhibit his books, papers, securities, bonds, funds and other property in his possession; and at the first regular meeting of the next term he shall present his report to the lodge. He shall pay over and deliver up, when legally called upon, all moneys, bonds, books, papers, and other property in his possession or under his control, belonging to the lodge, to his successor in office, or to such person as the lodge may appoint to receive the same.

Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of the Junior Past Grand of this lodge to act in the capacity of Past Grand, and to deliver the charge of that office to candidates. Any Past Grand may act as Noble Grand or Vice Grand, when legally called thereto.

Sec. 9. All other officers shall perform such duties as are prescribed for them by the regulations and charges of their offices and the by-laws of the lodge.

ARTICLE IV.—STANDING COMMITTEES.

Section 1. The Standing Committees of this lodge shall be a Committee of Trustees, a Visiting Committee, a Finance Committee, and such others as may be created by the by-laws.

Sec. 2. Five Trustees shall annually be chosen by ballot at the regular election in March, and a plurality of votes shall elect. The term of office of Trustees shall begin on April first following their election, after having qualified as herein below provided, and they shall hold their office until their successors shall have been elected and qualified by filing certificate of election as herein provided. It shall be the duty of the Recording Secretary, within one week after said election, to file with the County Recorder of the county where such lodge is located, a certificate of the election of said Trustees, such certificate setting forth also that the term of office of said Trustees begins on April the first following. It shall be the duty of the said newly-elected Trustees, when qualified as above, to approve the bonds of the newly-elected officers; also to act as an Executive Committee of the lodge in carrying out all acts not otherwise provided for; to procure lodge-room, fuel, lights, regalia, and all things necessary for the comfort of the lodge, under its direction. They shall have the guardianship of all widows and orphans of the lodge, and carry out all provisions of the lodge in relation to them; and shall from time to time recommend such action as they may deem necessary for the prosperity of the lodge; they shall present to the lodge, at the close of their term of office, a written report of their proceedings.

Sec. 3. The Visiting Committee shall consist of at least three members, one of whom shall be the Noble Grand. They shall keep themselves informed at all times as to the condition of a brother who has been reported sick; they shall report to the lodge what benefits he is entitled to; and they shall provide for his care and watch, as his case may require. If a member of another lodge be sick and apply to this lodge for relief, his case shall be referred to the Visiting Committee as if he were a member of this lodge; and if he be entitled to receive benefits from his own lodge, this lodge shall advance the sum thus due him, and forward an account of the same to his lodge without delay. The lodge may, by by-law, add to the number of this committee and prescribe more specific details of their duty. Provided that, in cities or towns having more than two lodges the Relief Committees of the different lodges may, if they see fit, appoint one of their number to act with a like number from the other lodges in the town or city as a Special Visiting Committee, whose duties shall be the care of traveling or sojourning brothers who may be sick or disabled in the town or city where such lodges exist.

Sec. 4. The Finance Committee shall consist of three members, to be appointed by the Noble Grand on the night of his installation. They shall audit and inspect the accounts, books, securities, bonds, funds and other property in the hands of the Treasurer, and the books and reports of the Secretaries, and of other officers and committees charged with the receipt and expenditure of money. For this purpose they shall fix a time and place to meet the Secretaries and Treasurer, after the last regular meeting in each semi-annual term, and shall report in writing at the first regular meeting in the next term. They shall also examine all other financial matters referred to them, and report thereon to the lodge as soon as practicable. Neither the Treasurer, the Secretary, the Financial Secretary, nor any member of the Board of Trustees, shall be a member of the Finance Committee.

ARTICLE V.—ELECTIONS, ETC.

Section 1. No brother shall be eligible to the chair of the Noble Grand unless he has served a regular term as Vice Grand; nor shall any brother be eligible as Vice Grand unless he has served one term in some inferior office. But if all qualified members refuse to accept the office of Noble Grand or Vice Grand, a Third-Degree member may, under dispensation, be elected to either of said offices without previous service.

Sec. 2. All elective and appointed officers must have the Scarlet Degree before they are installed.

Sec. 3. Nominations for elective officers may be made at the regular meeting next preceding the night of election, and on the night of election immediately previous to the election for each office.

Sec. 4. The elective officers, except the Treasurer and Financial Secretary, shall be chosen at the first regular meetings in March and September, and shall hold their respective offices for six months and until their successors shall have been installed. They shall be installed at the first meetings in April and October. The Treasurer and Financial Secretary, if there be one, shall be elected in March, and shall be installed at the first meeting in April, and both shall serve for one year. If a public installation of officers be had, it may be at another time than that specified above, but not prior to the first meetings in April and October.

Sec. 5. The election of officers shall be by ballot, except in cases where there is but one candidate for an office, when the election may be by acclamation. A majority of all votes cast shall be necessary to an election. Ballots for persons not properly in nomination shall be considered blanks, and blanks shall be counted as votes. When there are several candidates and there is no choice, at each successive balloting the name of the candidate having the smallest number of votes in the preceding ballot shall be dropped from the nomination.

Sec. 6. If any officer shall be absent for three successive meetings, except for sickness, his office may be declared vacant by vote of the lodge, if he is an elective officer, but by the officer who appointed him, if he is an appointed officer. All vacancies shall be filled in the manner of the former selection, to serve the residue of the term; and the officers so serving shall be entitled to the full honors of the office.

ARTICLE VI.—DEGREES.

Section 1. No degree shall be conferred upon a candidate until, by examination in open lodge, he shall have been found proficient in the highest degree he shall have attained—i. e., in possession of the unwritten work thereof so as to give an intelligent explanation of its uses and, as near as may be, in the language of said work; provided, however, that when urgent necessity is shown, and a dispensation therefor shall have been granted, such examination may be dispensed with, and one or more degrees conferred upon an initiate on the night of his initiation, or upon a First-Degree member on the night of his receiving said degree.

Sec. 2. A member desiring to receive any degree or degrees shall pay to the Secretary of the Lodge the fee or fees therefor, who shall, under the proper order of business, make known his desire to the lodge, at a regular meeting thereof, stating which degree or degrees are desired; whereupon (the candidate being in waiting), the lodge shall be opened in the highest degree the candidate has attained, when he shall be admitted and examined by the Noble Grand, or other brother under his direction, as to his proficiency as required in the preceding section; after which (the candidate having retired), the Noble Grand shall put the question as to his proficiency to a vote of the lodge while open in that degree; and if a majority declare him proficient, the degree shall be conferred upon him, but if declared not proficient, it shall not be conferred until, upon further examination, he shall be declared proficient. The conferring of degrees may be done at special meetings called for that purpose.

Sec. 3. A member absent from this lodge who shall have paid the fee or fees for any of the degrees may, upon application, receive a certificate requesting any lodge to which it may be presented to confer upon him the degree or degrees therein specified.

ARTICLE VII.—DROPPING, TRIALS, AND PENALTIES.

Section 1. Any member who shall become in arrears for the dues and assessments accruing against him during the period of one full year, shall, after having been notified in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution, Article III, Section 6, be declared by the Noble Grand dropped from membership, unless the lodge shall otherwise direct.

Sec. 2. If any member of this lodge shall be found guilty of conduct contrary to the laws of the Order, or in violation of its principles as set forth in its lectures, charges and obligations, or shall be found guilty of any dishonest or immoral act or practice, injurious to himself, his family, or to society, or by which the Order may be scandalized, he shall be subjected to such penalty as the laws of this jurisdiction or the discretion of the lodge may prescribe.

Sec. 3. If any member of this lodge shall have reason to believe that any other has been guilty of conduct unbecoming an Odd-Fellow as shown in the preceding section, it shall be his duty immediately to give notice of such violation or offense, in writing, to the Noble Grand. The Noble Grand shall forthwith refer a copy of such written communication, concealing the name of the informant, to a special committee of three members, which committee shall proceed, without delay, to investigate the matter therein stated; and if, in their opinion, there is just ground therefor, they shall, as early as practicable, prefer a charge or charges against the member so accused, specifying therein the particular matter of offense with which he is charged; and the committee shall have charge of the prosecution on the part of the lodge.

Sec. 4. Any other lodge in this jurisdiction, or a member of any other lodge, if his own lodge will forward his complaint attesting his good standing, or a member of this lodge, may prefer an open complaint or information against any member of this lodge; and such complaint shall be treated as complaints or informations mentioned in Section 3 of this article; but the complaint shall be read in open lodge, and the committee thereon there appointed.

Sec. 5. Whenever a charge or charges are preferred against a member, they shall be read in open lodge, at a regular meeting. The Secretary shall immediately furnish a copy thereof, under seal of the lodge, to the member so accused, and at the same time cite said member to appear before the lodge at the second regular meeting thereafter and plead guilty or not guilty to each charge and specification; and if he pleads not guilty, then the Noble Grand shall appoint a competent member of the lodge as a commissioner or committee of one to take the evidence, both for the lodge and the accused, in deposition form, by writing down both questions and answers in full; and the said Commissioner to take evidence shall be first obligated by the Noble Grand to perform such duty, and he shall be authorized to obligate witnesses who may be members of the Order, and cause witnesses who may not be members of the Order to be obligated by a proper officer authorized to administer oaths. Said Commissioner shall have power to pass upon the competency of evidence, and if objections are made to his ruling, he shall note said objections, together with the question and answer, in the depositions. If the accused appears when cited and pleads not guilty, the case shall be continued for two weeks from the night the citation is returnable, to give each side an opportunity to have the Secretary cite their witnesses to appear before the Commissioner. The Commissioner shall have power to continue the taking of said evidence from day to day, and when the evidence is all taken, said Commissioner shall report the same to the Noble Grand over his certificate.

The Noble Grand shall rule as to whether said evidence objected to before the Commissioner shall be read to the lodge, and for the purpose of passing upon the same, he shall, not later than three days before the fourth regular meeting of the lodge, at a time and place selected by him, after notifying the committee of the lodge having the prosecution in charge, and the accused or his attorney, in writing, of such time and place, hear both the prosecution and defense before passing upon the objected evidence. The Noble Grand, after hearing both sides, shall mark upon the depositions at the place where the objected evidence may appear, either the word "overruled" or "sustained," as the case may be, and the evidence read to the lodge shall be only that which the Noble Grand has overruled the objections thereto.

Sec. 6. If the Secretary is unable personally to serve a copy of the charges and citation on an accused member, by reason of his permanent absence, concealment, or incarceration, a copy of the citation and charges left at his usual or last-known place of abode, or deposited in the mail, so directed, shall be deemed a legal notice or citation; and the lodge may proceed with the trial as if the accused were present. The Noble Grand shall appoint counsel to defend him, if none appears for him.

Sec. 7. The lodge, at said fourth regular meeting, or at such other time as may then be fixed, shall open in the highest degree which the accused has attained, if he be not of the Third Degree, and shall listen to the reading of the evidence taken by the Commissioner, both for the lodge and the accused. The accused shall be heard in his own behalf in person or by counsel, and the committee appointed to prosecute on behalf of the lodge shall have the right to also address the lodge. The lodge shall then proceed to vote upon the charge or charges preferred; but no member shall be entitled to vote unless he were present during the whole of the reading of the testimony and of the arguments thereon. If the charges be sustained, in whole or in part, by a vote of two-thirds of the members entitled to vote on the question, the accused shall retire to the ante-room. The Secretary shall then read to the lodge the charge or charges, or part or parts thereof, that have been sustained, when the Noble Grand, without motion, shall proceed to put to vote the highest order of punishment—expulsion; and if that be not agreed to, he shall put the next—suspension; and shall so proceed until some order of punishment is agreed to by a vote of two-thirds of the members present. One penalty only shall be inflicted as the result of one trial.

Sec. 8. Whenever the lodge shall determine upon suspension, a motion may be made to fix the time, and two amendments may be offered thereto, which shall be decided without debate. The Noble Grand shall put them to vote, commencing with the longest period of time therein named; and if all of them be rejected, a second motion may be made, and two amendments permitted thereto, which shall be put to vote in like manner; and the lodge shall so proceed until some period for suspension is agreed to. But suspension of membership shall work no suspension of dues and arrearages, but they shall run on during the time of suspension. If the lodge shall decide to punish by fine, the same course shall be adopted in determining the amount thereof as is above provided in fixing the time of suspension; and in either case, of fixing the time of suspension or amount of fine, the majority of the members present shall decide the period of time or amount. But no suspension may be shorter than eight days, or longer than one year.

Sec. 9. When the misconduct is confessed by the accused brother, the lodge to which such case is referred may proceed to vote upon his punishment without the formula of a trial.

Sec. 10. The only legal penalties for misconduct are fine, reprimand, suspension, and expulsion. Fine is not allowed as penalty for violation of the principles of the Order.

Sec. 11. The penalty for intoxication is reprimand for the first offense, suspension for the second, and expulsion for the third; and no other penalties are legal.

Sec. 12. When a definite penalty is fixed by law for any offense, a brother convicted thereof is sentenced without further vote; if alternatives are fixed, the lodge chooses one of them by vote.

Sec. 13. If any accused member shall evade the receiving of a citation, or, after receiving the same, shall neglect or refuse to attend the lodge at the time therein fixed, and there remain throughout the investigation or trial of his case, the lodge may proceed in his absence to expel him for contempt.

Sec. 14. At all stages of the proceedings the accused shall have all opportunity to vindicate himself; and in case of suspension or expulsion following the constructive citation provided for in Section 6 of this article, or in case of alleged contempt, the accused shall be entitled to a new trial at any time within six months, if he shall show that his absence was produced by unavoidable circumstances, or that injustice was done him.

Sec. 15. The accused or any three members feeling aggrieved by the decision of the lodge in a trial shall be entitled to an appeal to the Grand Lodge, which appeal must be entered according to the laws and regulations of the Grand Lodge on the matter of appeals. On command of the Grand Lodge, the brother may be tried anew for the same offense.

Sec. 16. Any brother having been suspended or expelled, notice thereof shall be sent without delay to the Grand Secretary and to all lodges in the same place; and a brother who has been legally expelled shall not be admitted to membership again without consent of the Grand Lodge.

Sec. 17. If any member of the lodge shall make to the Noble Grand any accusation against a brother, under Section 3 of this article, which shall be proved to be without reasonable grounds, or false and malicious, it shall be the duty of the Noble Grand to deliver up the name of the informant to the lodge, on demand of a majority of the members thereof present, that he may be dealt with accordingly.

Sec. 18. This lodge shall have a black-book, in which shall be entered the names of all persons expelled by this lodge, or any other lodge, of which they may have received due notice, with the date and cause of such expulsion.

Sec. 19. If at any time before passing upon the objected evidence by the Noble Grand, the accused, or three members of a lodge in which charges may be preferred against a member, are of the opinion that the accused will not receive an impartial trial at the hands of the lodge, and present such opinion in writing, such paper, together with such evidence as may be desired bearing upon the question of prejudice in the lodge, shall be forwarded to the Grand Master; and if he order the case changed to another lodge, then, when the record of written evidence is reported by the Commissioner, and the case is ready for the Noble Grand to pass upon the objected testimony, if any, the trial shall be removed to the lodge so designated by the Grand Master; and the Noble Grand of such designated lodge shall pass upon the objected evidence as provided for in Section 5 of this article. A copy of the record of all proceedings up to the time of removal shall be sent to the lodge to which removal is made, with the original papers of the case, and a transcript of all letters relating thereto; and such lodge shall proceed to the hearing, scrutiny and decision as if the accusation had been first therein preferred. The lodge from which the venue is changed shall pay all necessary expenses incurred in such trial by the lodge to which the venue is changed.

Sec. 20. Upon such removal, the prosecuting committee, or some attorney appointed by them, or by the Noble Grand of the removing lodge, may present the case, and the accused may appear by himself or attorney, as if no such removal had taken place.

Sec. 21. If any member of the Order residing near the removing lodge, who can not attend the trial after the removal, be summoned as a witness on either side, his testimony may be taken in the manner above provided respecting the testimony of persons not members of the Order, and may be made a part of the register of evidence; and all oral evidence taken at the trial shall be reduced to writing and added to the register of evidence transferred by the removing lodge.

Sec. 22. When the matter has been determined, a copy of the record of the proceedings had thereon, with the register of the evidence, shall be returned to the removing lodge; and the same shall be filed in its archives, and the judgment entered upon its records. An appeal to the Grand Lodge may be had in case of a removal trial, as in other cases.

Sec. 23. If any member of the Order who shall have been duly notified to appear and give evidence shall fail to appear as notified, or, appearing, shall refuse to answer questions as a witness, he shall be deemed guilty of contempt, and the lodge may proceed to expel said member for contempt.

Sec. 24. All votes taken under the provisions of this article shall be by ballot with balls.

ARTICLE VIII.—REINSTATEMENTS.

Section 1. A brother dropped for non-payment of dues from membership in this lodge may, within one year after being dropped, be reinstated upon application made in open lodge by a member thereof, which shall be held over until the second meeting thereafter, the Secretary reading the same at each meeting, and be determined affirmatively on a ballot by a majority of the votes cast, and upon payment of such amount as the by-laws of the lodge may prescribe.

Sec. 2. If a brother dropped for non-payment of dues from membership in this lodge shall, after one year from being dropped, make application for reinstatement, his application shall be treated like a proposition for membership by initiation, except that the vote of a majority on ballot shall reinstate him.

Sec. 3. A brother dropped from membership in this lodge who may have been in membership in the Order for five consecutive years, and who may be over fifty years of age, may be reinstated as a non-beneficial member, by a majority on ballot. His application must state age, occupation and residence, and be disposed of as required in the preceding section.

Sec. 4. A brother dropped from membership in this lodge who shall, at any time within five years from being dropped, make written application for reinstatement and a withdrawal card for the purpose of joining another lodge in Illinois, may be reinstated and granted a withdrawal card by a majority vote upon ballot; and the reinstating vote shall grant the card also, without further ballot. But such application may, at the option of the lodge, be referred to a committee for investigation, and shall be reported upon and acted on as soon thereafter as practicable.

Sec. 5. A member expelled by this lodge may apply in writing for reinstatement. The application shall be referred to a committee of three, who shall ascertain whether the applicant has made such reformation, reparation or apology as is appropriate, and shall report to the lodge. After reception of the report, the lodge shall ballot on the application. If two-thirds of the members present shall vote in favor of reinstatement, the Secretary shall write to the Grand Lodge for permission to reinstate him; and if it be granted, he shall be thereby reinstated. No expelled member shall be reinstated without the payment of the same fee that is required from an initiate of the same age. But members expelled for non-payment before such action was forbidden shall be reinstated as dropped members.

Sec. 6. When a suspended or expelled member shall have been reinstated, either by expiration of sentence or action of the Grand Lodge, notice thereof shall be sent, without delay, to the Grand Secretary and to all lodges in the same place.

ARTICLE IX.—CARDS, DISMISSAL CERTIFICATES, AND RESIGNATION.

Section 1. A member of this lodge may end his membership therein by taking a withdrawal card or a dismissal certificate; and he may end his membership in this lodge and in the Order also by presenting a written resignation of membership. No resignation of membership or application for withdrawal card shall be entertained from any one who is not clear on the books.

Sec. 2. A withdrawal card may be granted to any member by vote of a majority upon ballot at a regular meeting. Application therefor must be made by the member in person or in writing, and shall lie over one week for final action, except that when the applicant has left the vicinity of the lodge, or it is his known purpose to leave before the next meeting, or to join in a petition for a new lodge, the card may be granted without delay.

Sec. 3. If the lodge refuses to grant a withdrawal card applied for, the applicant may tender a written resignation of membership; he shall then be entitled to receive from the Secretary a certificate, under the seal of the lodge, that he has resigned membership, as evidence of his good standing at that time.

Sec. 4. A visiting card may be granted to any member by vote of the lodge at a regular or special meeting, or by the Noble Grand and Recording Secretary at any other time, when application is made to them in writing; but it shall not be made out until he shall have paid all charges on the books against him, his dues to the expiration of the card, and the price of the card: provided, that a lodge may provide by by-law that when a member pays one year's dues in advance, the card may be granted without fee for same.

Sec. 5. Dismissal certificates shall be granted by this lodge, and issued by the Noble Grand and Secretary without vote of the lodge, upon proper written application therefor, and the payment of one dollar, to any member dropped for non-payment of dues, unless charges are preferred.

ARTICLE X.—FEES, DUES, BENEFITS, AND FUNDS.

Section 1. No person shall be admitted to membership or reinstated in this lodge, or receive any degree, or a card, until he shall have paid the amount required therefor by this Constitution or the By-laws. When dues and special assessments or fines stand charged upon account, the payments made shall apply to these in the order of their accruing.

Sec. 2. No person shall be admitted to membership in this lodge for a less sum than is herein provided, viz.: By initiation, five dollars; by deposit of card, two dollars; as an Ancient Odd-Fellow, five dollars; and as a non-beneficial member, five dollars.

Sec. 3. The fee for each degree shall be not less than three dollars.

Sec. 4. No member shall be reinstated after having been dropped for non-payment of dues for less sums than are herem provided, viz.: Under Article VIII, Section 1, of this Constitution, the amount of one year's dues, neither more nor less; under Article VIII, Sec. 2, the same fee as is charged for an initiate of the same age, or such lesser sum (not less than one year's dues) as the by-laws may prescribe; under Article VIII, Sec. 3, a sum not less than one year's dues; under Article VIII, Sec. 4, the amount of one year's dues and the price of the card.

Sec. 5. The regular contributions to the lodge fund shall not be at a less rate than seven cents a week, to be determined by the by-laws; but the lodge shall by its by-laws prescribe some less rate, not exceeding five cents a week, for the dues of non-beneficial members.

Sec. 6. The lodge may by its by-laws require such further contributions, for a Widows' and Orphans' Fund, an Education Fund, a Funeral Assessment or Fund, or for any other fund suitable to the purposes of the Order, for either or all of them, as the lodge shall determine.

Sec. 7. The lodge may, by its by-laws, set aside any amount not exceeding five per cent of the receipts for dues, as a contingent fund, to be used for entertainments and in the payment of necessary and proper obligations which the lodge must meet, and for which purpose the lodge can not expend its general funds.

Sec. 8. A beneficiary member shall be any one who has been for six months a member by initiation of this lodge (or of the Order, if admitted to membership in this lodge upon an unexpired withdrawal card), as an Ancient Odd-Fellow, or by reinstatement after dropping or expulsion, who is under no complaint or charges of misconduct, and who is not more than thirteen weeks in arrears for dues. A member reinstated after suspension shall be beneficiary immediately upon reinstatement, subject to the provisions herein in relation to dues: provided, however, that this lodge, by proper by-law, may enact that, if a member shall become non-beneficiary by reason of being more than thirteen weeks in arrears for dues, he shall, before he can become beneficiary, pay all arrears for dues, assessments, and fines; and such by-law may further provide that, as a penalty, such non-beneficiary member shall not become beneficiary for a period subsequent to such payment not exceeding thirteen weeks.

Sec. 9. Every beneficiary member of this lodge, in case of sickness or disability not caused by vice or immorality on his part, shall be entitled to and receive from the funds of the lodge such weekly benefits as may be fixed by the by-laws, not less than two dollars a week if of the Scarlet Degree; but no sick-benefit shall be allowed for less than a week's sickness, or for the fractional part of a week; Provided, that this lodge may provide in its by-laws for a sick-benefit of not less than one dollar to be paid to brothers who may have been sick, and received sick-benefits continuously for the period of one year; Provided further, that this lodge may provide by by-law that no benefit shall be paid for the first one week or two weeks of such sickness or disability; Provided further, that a brother who is ill outside of the jurisdiction of this lodge, in order to receive benefits, shall furnish to this lodge a certificate of a regular practicing physician, in the following form:

Sec. 10. In case of the death of a beneficiary member of this lodge, there shall be allowed not less than twenty dollars as a funeral benefit, and such further sum as may be necessary to pay funeral expenses: provided, however, that in case the lodge shall have expended money for funeral expenses with the consent of the family, then it may apply the funeral benefit toward the funeral expenses; and provided, further, that no lodge shall be held liable for a larger amount than sixty dollars for the funeral expenses of a deceased brother; and provided further, that the persons who are beneficiaries of the funeral benefit are the widow, orphans (under the age of twenty-one years), or the dependent relatives of the deceased, or relatives upon whom the deceased was dependent at the time of death. In the event of the death of a member in good standing not possessing any of the above-named beneficiaries of a funeral benefit, and leaving no estate, or insufficient assets to pay the expenses of funeral, the lodge shall pay the bill of the undertaker, or an amount not exceeding the funeral benefits.

Sec. 11. Every person admitted or reinstated as a non-beneficial member shall be entitled to all the rights, privileges and advantages of membership, except benefits, and shall be subject to all penalties and disabilities as other members. And no benefits shall be allowed to any non-beneficial member, nor shall any pecuniary relief be extended to such member from the funds of the lodge, except upon recommendation of some committee; provided, no non-beneficial member shall be assessed for the purpose of raising a fund for the payment of sick or disability benefits.

Sec. 12. The special funds of this lodge shall be sacredly devoted to the purposes for which they may be raised; and the general fund shall be considered sacredly pledged to the relief of distressed brothers, the payment of benefits, the furnishing of the lodge-room, and such other necessary expenses as are and may be recognized and authorized by the laws of the Order.

Sec. 13. The stocks, securities, investments and funds of this lodge shall not be transferred, in whole or in part, but by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at a regular meeting. The resolution therefor shall have been presented at least one week before final action.

ARTICLE XI.—TERMS AND REPORTS.

Section 1. Semi-annual terms shall commence on the first regular meetings in April and October; the annual term, on the first regular meeting in April.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the retiring officers, at the close of each semi-annual term, to prepare and forward to the Grand Lodge, immediately, a full report of the work of the term, upon the blank forms furnished from the office of the Grand Secretary and in conformity with the instructions of that officer, accompanied by whatever amount may be due to the Grand Lodge; and at the close of each annual term, in like manner, the Annual Report of Membership.

Sec. 3. This lodge shall forfeit its charter if it fails to comply with the requisitions and laws of the Grand Lodge; and in such case it shall be the duty of the last-installed officers to comply with the provisions of the first and second sections of Article II of the By-laws of the Grand Lodge.

ARTICLE XII.—CONSTRUCTION, AMENDMENTS, ETC.

Section 1. When doubts arise of the true meaning of any of these articles, it shall be determined by the Noble Grand, his determination being subject to an appeal to the lodge, and its determination being subject to an appeal to the Grand Master during recess, thence to the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, thence to the Grand Lodge.

Sec. 2. These articles, or any part thereof, shall not be altered, amended, suspended or annulled, except on motion made in the Grand Lodge, at a regular session, in writing; and such motion shall not be finally acted upon on the day of its presentation.

Sec. 3. This lodge shall stand fully invested with power to adopt such by-laws and rules of order, from time to time, as may be deemed expedient, provided they do not in anywise contravene any of these articles, the laws and Constitution of the Grand Lodge of Illinois or of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, or the principles of the Order. Two copies of the By-laws, or any amendment thereto, certified by the Secretary under the seal of the lodge, shall, immediately after adoption by the lodge, be sent by the Secretary to the Grand Secretary for the approval of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, which approval shall be necessary before said by-laws or amendments thereto shall become operative. After approval or amendment of the same, one copy to be left in the office of the Grand Secretary; the other copy to be returned to the lodge. The by-laws shall not be suspended, set aside or altered, except by regular process of amendment, a written proposition for which shall have been before the lodge for at least one week.

He may speak on points of order in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose. He shall decide all points of order without debate, unless he entertain doubts on the point, subject to an appeal to the lodge by any two members, on which appeal no member shall speak more than once.

4. Previously to taking the vote on any subject, the Chairman shall in an audible voice ask, "Is the Lodge ready for the question?" after which, if no member rise to speak, he shall rise and put the question.

5. No member shall speak to another, or otherwise interrupt the business of the Lodge, while the minutes are being read, or while any member is addressing the Chair.

6. No member shall disturb another while addressing the Chair, unless to call him to order. No member shall rise from his seat while another member is speaking, nor on any pretense shall one pass between the speaking member and the presiding officer.

7. No member shall speak on any question before the Lodge unless he rise from his seat and respectfully address the Chair. A member speaking shall confine himself to the subject under debate, and shall use no personal, indecorous or sarcastic language, to reflect on the Lodge or its members; and when his speech shall have been concluded, he shall resume his seat.

8. If two members, or more than two, rise at the same time to speak, the Chair shall decide which is entitled to the floor.

9. No member shall speak more than once on the same subject unless all the members present wishing to speak shall have had an opportunity to do so, nor more than twice without permission from the Chair; and no member while speaking shall name another except by the appropriate title designating his rank in the Order.

10. Whenever a member while speaking shall be called to order, he shall resume his seat until the question is settled and leave is given him to proceed.

11. No motion shall be debated until the same is seconded and stated to the Lodge by the Chair; and any motion shall be reduced to writing on the request of any member.

12. When a question is before the Lodge, no motion shall be in order but these: (1) to adjourn, or its equivalent, to proceed to close; (2) to lay on the table; (3) the previous question; (4) to postpone indefinitely; (5) to postpone to a certain time; (6) to commit; (7) to amend; and these motions shall be privileged, and have precedence in the order in which they are made to succeed one another by this rule; and motions to adjourn, to proceed to close, to lay on the table, and for the previous question, shall be decided without debate.

13. When the previous question is moved and seconded, it shall be put at once in these words: "Shall the main question be now put?" If decided in the affirmative, the debate ceases, and the Chair puts to vote all pending amendments, in their proper order, and the main question: if the previous question be decided in the negative, the question shall remain before the Lodge as before.

14. When a blank is to be filled, and different sums, numbers or times shall be proposed, the question shall be first put on the highest sum or number, and on the longest or latest time.

15. Any member may call for a division of the question when it can be divided; but a motion to strike out and insert shall be indivisible, except at the option of the mover.

16. If the reading of any paper be called for and it be objected to by any member, the question shall be determined by a vote of the lodge without debate.

21. Before any communication, petition, or memorial, shall be received and read by the Secretary, a brief statement of its contents shall be made verbally to the lodge, either by the member presenting the same or by the presiding officer.

22. On application to the Chair, any member may be excused from serving on a second committee, at the time of his appointment thereon, if the duties of the first committee remain unperformed and the applicant be not discharged therefrom.

23. The person first named on a committee shall act as chairman thereof, unless the committee select a different member for that office. The mover and seconder of a resolution referred to a special committee are usually the first named thereon.

24. No committee can be finally discharged until all debts contracted by it shall have been paid.

25. The consequences of any measure may be reprobated in strong terms; but to arraign the motives of those who propose or advocate it is a personality and against order.

26. When a member shall be called to order for words spoken, the objectionable words shall (if required) be taken down in writing by the Secretary.

27. No motion can be made by one member while another is speaking, and no motion shall be received unless the member making it shall rise and address the Chair.

28. The affirmative of a question is first put, then the negative; but in matters of form, or of course, such as reading reports, petitions, memorials, or other papers, withdrawing motions, etc., to save time, the Chairman usually assumes the assent of the lodge when, on inquiry, no objection is expressed.

29. The Chairman, or any member, doubting the decision of the lodge, may call a count or a division of the votes.

30. All questions not herein provided for shall be decided upon the principles laid down in Robert's Rules of Order.

31. These rules of order may be temporarily suspended by general consent or by special vote of two-thirds of the members present; and they may be permanently amended in the same manner as the by-laws.

If a public installation of officers be had, it may be at any other time than that specified above, but not prior to the first meetings in January and July.

Sec. 4. The election of officers shall be by ballot, except in cases where there is but one candidate for an office, when the election may be by acclamation. A majority of all votes cast shall be necessary to election. Ballots for persons not properly in nomination shall be considered blanks, and blanks shall be counted as votes. When there are several candidates and there is no choice, at each successive balloting, the name of the candidate having the smallest number of votes in the preceding ballot shall be dropped from the nomination.

Sec. 5. If any officer shall be absent for three successive meetings, except for sickness or unavoidable absence, the office shall be declared vacant by a vote of the Lodge, if an elective officer; but by the officer who appointed, if an appointive officer. Sec. 7. This Lodge shall, at its first meeting in December, or at the first meeting thereafter, by election duly had, recommend a Past Noble Grand, who shall be a member of this Lodge, or in case there is no Past Noble Grand, a Past Grand of a Subordinate Lodge, who is also a member of this Lodge, to be appointed by the Grand Master to be his deputy for this Lodge.

ARTICLE VIII—DROPPINGS, TRIALS, PENALTIES.

Section 1. Any member who shall become in arrears for dues accrued during the period of one full year shall, after having been notified in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution, Article IV, Section 5, be declared by the Noble Grand dropped from membership, unless the Lodge shall otherwise direct.

Sec. 2. Any member who shall become in arrears for more than thirteen weeks' dues shall not be entitled to vote.

Sec. 3. If any member of this Lodge shall be found guilty of conduct contrary to the laws of the Order, or in violation of its principles, as set forth in its lectures, charges and obligations, or shall be found guilty of any dishonest or immoral act or practice, injurious to himself or herself, his or her family, or to society, or by which the Order may be scandalized, said member shall be subjected to such penalty as the laws of the jurisdiction or the discretion of the Lodge may prescribe.

Sec. 4. If any member of this Lodge shall have reason to believe that any other has been guilty of conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow, as shown in the preceding section, it shall be such member's duty to immediately give notice of such violation or offense, in writing, to the Noble Grand. The Noble Grand shall forthwith refer a copy of such written communication (concealing the name of the informant) to a special committee of three members, which committee shall proceed, without delay, to investigate the matter therein stated; and if, in their opinion, there is just ground therefor, as early as practicable, prefer a charge or charges against the member so accused, specifying therein the particular matter of offense which is charged; and the committee shall have charge of the prosecution on the part of the Lodge.

Sec. 5. Any member of this Lodge, or any Rebekah Lodge in this jurisdiction, or any member thereof whose good standing is certified to at the time, may prefer an open complaint or information in writing in this Lodge against any of its members, and such complaint shall be treated, in all respects, as provided in Section 4 of this article; except that the complaint shall be read in open Lodge and the committee thereon openly appointed.

Sec. 6. Whenever a charge or charges are preferred against a member, they shall be read in open Lodge, at a regular meeting. The Secretary shall immediately furnish a copy thereof, under seal of the Lodge, to the member so accused, and at the same time cite said member to appear before the Lodge at the next regular meeting thereafter, plead guilty or not guilty to each charge and specification; and if the plea is not guilty, then the Noble Grand shall appoint a competent member of the Lodge as a commissioner or committee of one to take evidence, both for the Lodge and the accused, in deposition form, by writing down both the questions and answers in full; and the said commissioner to take evidence shall be first obligated by the Noble Grand to perform such duty, and shall be authorized to obligate witnesses who may be members of the Order and cause such witnesses who may not be members of the Order to be obligated by a proper officer authorized to administer oaths. Said commissioner shall have power to pass upon the competency of evidence, and if objections are made to the ruling of the commissioner, said objections shall be noted, together with the question and answer, in deposition. If the accused appears when cited and pleads not guilty, the case shall be continued two weeks from the night the citation is returnable, to give each side an opportunity to have the Secretary cite their witnesses to appear before the commissioner. The commissioner shall have power to continue the taking of said evidence from day to day, and when the evidence is all taken, said commissioner shall make a certified report of the same to the Noble Grand. After the receipt of the commissioner's report, the Noble Grand shall notify, in writing, the committee having the prosecution in charge and the accused, or attorney for the accused, of the time (not more than seven days from the receipt of said report) and place where the Noble Grand will hear both the prosecution and defense upon the evidence to which objections were made before the commissioner; and after hearing the parties in interest, it shall be the duty of the Noble Grand to rule as to whether the evidence to which objections were made before the commissioner shall be read before the Lodge, and such ruling shall be final, and, for that purpose, the Noble Grand shall mark upon the deposition at the place where the objected evidence may appear, either the words "Don't Read," or "Read," as the case may be; and all the evidence shall be read to the Lodge, except that marked by the Noble Grand "Don't Read."

Sec. 7. If the Secretary is unable personally to serve a copy of the charges and citation on an accused member, by reason of permanent absence, concealment, or incarceration, a copy of the charges and charges left at the accused's usual or last known place of abode, or deposited in the mail so directed, shall be deemed a legal notice or citation; and the Lodge may proceed with the trial as if the accused were present. The Noble Grand shall appoint counsel to defend accused if none appear.

Sec. 8. The Lodge at said second regular meeting after charges first preferred, or as soon thereafter as the register of evidence shall be reported by the Noble Grand, shall listen to the reading of the evidence as taken by the commissioner, both for the Lodge and the accused. The accused shall be heard in his or her own behalf in person or by counsel, and the committee appointed to prosecute on behalf of the Lodge shall have the right also to address the Lodge. The Lodge shall then proceed to vote upon the charge or charges preferred; but no member shall be entitled to vote unless present during the reading of the whole testimony and of the arguments thereon. If the charges be sustained, in whole or in part, by a vote of two-thirds of the members present entitled to vote on the question, the accused shall retire to the ante-room. The Secretary shall then read to the Lodge the charge or charges, or parts thereof, that have been sustained, when the Noble Grand, without motion, shall proceed to put to vote the highest order of punishment, expulsion; and if that be not agreed upon, shall put the next, suspension; and shall so proceed until some order of punishment is agreed upon by a vote of two-thirds of the members present. One penalty only shall be inflicted as the result of one trial.

Sec. 9. Whenever the Lodge shall determine upon suspension, a motion may be made to fix the time, and two amendments may be offered thereto, which shall be decided without debate. The Noble Grand shall put them to vote, commencing with the longest period of time therein named, and if all of them be rejected, a second motion may be made and two amendments permitted thereto, which shall be put to vote in a like manner, and the Lodge shall so proceed until some period of suspension is agreed upon. But suspension of membership shall work no suspension of dues and arrearages, but they shall run on during suspension. If the Lodge shall decide to punish by fine, the same course shall be adopted in determining the amount thereof as is above provided in fixing the time of suspension; and in either case of fixing the time of suspension or amount of fine, the majority of members present shall decide the period of time or amount. But no suspension shall be for a shorter time than to cover the date of the next regular meeting of the Lodge, nor longer than one year.

Sec. 10. When the misconduct is confessed by the accused brother or sister, the Lodge to which such case is referred may proceed to vote upon the punishment without the formula of a trial.

Sec. 11. The only legal penalties for misconduct are: fine, reprimand, suspension, or expulsion. Fine is not allowed as a penalty for violation of the principles of the Order.

Sec. 12. The penalty for intoxication is reprimand for the first offense, suspension for the second, and expulsion for the third; and no other penalties are legal.

Sec. 13. When a definite penalty is fixed by law for any offense, a brother or sister convicted thereof is sentenced without further vote; if alternatives are fixed, the Lodge chooses one of them by vote.

Sec. 14. If any accused member shall evade the receiving of a citation, or, having received the same, shall neglect or refuse to attend the Lodge at the time therein fixed, and there remain throughout the investigation or trial of the case, the Lodge may proceed in such absence to expel such accused member for contempt.

Sec. 15. At all stages of the proceedings the accused shall have all opportunity of vindication; and in case of suspension or expulsion following the constructive citation provided for in Section 7 of this article, or in case of alleged contempt, the accused shall be entitled to a new trial at any time within six months, if it be shown that the absence was produced by unavoidable circumstances, or that injustice was done.

Sec. 16. Any three members, or the accused, feeling aggrieved by the decision of the Lodge in a trial, shall be entitled to an appeal to the Grand Lodge, which appeal must be entered according to the laws and regulations of the Grand Lodge on the matter of appeals; and on command of the Grand Lodge the brother or sister may be tried anew for the same offense.

Sec. 17. Any brother or sister having been suspended or expelled, notice thereof shall be sent without delay to the Grand Secretary and to all the Rebekah Lodges in the same place, and nearest neighboring Rebekah Lodges; and a brother or sister who has been legally expelled shall not be admitted to membership again without consent of the Grand Lodge.

Sec. 18. If any member of the Lodge shall make to the Noble Grand any accusation against a brother or sister under Section 3 of this article which shall be proved to be without reasonable grounds, or false and malicious, it shall be the duty of the Noble Grand to deliver up the name of the informant to the Lodge on demand of a majority of the members thereof present.

Sec. 19. This Lodge shall have a black-book, in which shall be entered the names of all persons rejected, suspended or expelled by this Lodge, or any other Lodge of which they may have received due notice, with the date and cause of such suspension or expulsion.

Sec. 20. If, at any time before the Noble Grand shall have passed upon the objected evidence, the accused or three members of the Lodge in which charges may be preferred against a member are of the opinion that the accused will not receive an impartial trial at the hands of the Lodge, and present such opinion in writing, such paper, together with such evidence as may be desired bearing upon the question of prejudice in the Lodge, shall be forwarded to the Grand Master; and if he orders the case changed to another Lodge, then, when the register of written evidence is reported by the commissioner, the case shall be removed to the named Lodge. A copy of the record of all proceedings up to the time of removal shall be sent to the Lodge to which removal is made, with the original papers of the case, and a transcript of all letters relating thereto; the Noble Grand and such Lodge shall proceed to the hearing, scrutiny and decision as if the accusation had been first therein preferred. The Lodge from which the venue is changed shall pay all necessary expenses incurred in such trial by the Lodge to which the venue is changed.

Sec. 21. Change of venue may be made on behalf of the prosecution, as well as on behalf of the accused, or by any three members. It may be asked in case of charges of official misconduct.

Sec. 22. Upon such removal the prosecuting committee, or some advocate appointed by the Noble Grand of the removing Lodge, may present the case, and the accused may appear personally or by attorney, as if no such removal had taken place.

Sec. 23. If any member of the Order or other person can not attend the taking of testimony before the commissioner as a witness on either side, such testimony may be taken in the manner herein provided, to-wit: The party desiring the testimony of such witness shall file with the commissioner written interrogatories, to be propounded to the witness; the opposite party shall then be privileged to prepare and file with the commissioner counter-interrogatories, to be propounded to said witness; a copy of said interrogatories and counter-interrogatories shall be forwarded by the Noble Grand and Secretary under seal of the Lodge to the Noble Grand of the Rebekah Lodge nearest to said witness, which Noble Grand shall, after first obligating said witness, cause said witness to answer each of said interrogatories and counter-interrogatories, and said witness shall subscribe her (or his) name to said deposition, and the Noble Grand taking the same shall certify that the answers have been correctly written and that the witness was first duly obligated. The Noble Grand shall then return said deposition to the Secretary of this Lodge, who shall deliver the same to the commissioner. This deposition shall be subject to all objections as though the witness had personally appeared before the commissioner.

Sec. 24. When the matter has been determined, a copy of the record of the proceedings had thereon, with the register of the evidence, shall be returned to the removing lodge; and the same shall be filed in its archives, and the judgment entered upon its records. An appeal to the Grand Lodge may be had in case of a removed trial as in other cases.

Sec. 25. If any member of the Order who shall have been duly notified to appear and give evidence shall fail to appear as notified, or, appearing, shall refuse to answer questions as a witness, such member shall be deemed guilty of contempt, and the lodge may proceed to expel said member for contempt.

Sec. 26. A sister in this Lodge shall not lose her membership by the operation of any rule not alike applicable to brothers.

ARTICLE IX—REINSTATEMENT.

Section 1. A member dropped for non-payment of dues from membership in this Lodge may, upon the payment of such fees as the By-Laws shall provide, not less than one year's dues, be reinstated upon application made in writing in the regular form, which shall be treated in all respects like a proposition for membership as hereinbefore provided, except that a majority vote shall be necessary to elect. Such dropped member, if free from charges, may, upon payment of fees, take a dismissal certificate in the first instance, or after being denied reinstatement.

Sec. 2. A member expelled by this Lodge may apply in writing for reinstatement. The application shall be referred to a committee of three, who shall ascertain whether the applicant has made such reformation or apology as is appropriate, and shall report to the Lodge. After reception of the report, the Lodge shall ballot on the application. If two-thirds of the members present shall vote in favor of reinstatement, the Secretary shall write to the Grand Master for permission to reinstate such member, and if it be granted, reinstatement shall thereby be accomplished. No expelled member shall be reinstated without the payment of the same fee that is required to initiate.

Sec. 3. When a suspended or expelled member shall be reinstated, either by expiration of sentence or action of the Grand Lodge, notice thereof shall be sent without delay to the Grand Secretary and all Rebekah Lodges in the same place and nearest neighboring Rebekah Lodges.

ARTICLE X—CARDS AND RESIGNATIONS.

Section 1. A member of this Lodge may end membership therein by taking a withdrawal card or a dismissal certificate, and a sister may end her membership in this Lodge, and in the Order also, by presenting a written resignation of membership. No resignation of membership or application for withdrawal card or dismissal certificate shall be entertained from any one who is not clear on the books.

Sec. 2. A withdrawal card may be granted to any member by vote of a majority upon ballot at a regular meeting. Application therefor must be made by the member in person or in writing, and shall lie over until the next regular meeting for final action; except that when the applicant has left the vicinity of the Lodge, or it is his or her known purpose to leave before the next regular meeting, or to join in a petition for a new Lodge, the card may be granted without delay.

Sec. 3. Dismissal certificates shall be issued on the payment of one dollar. Visiting cards shall be granted upon request, upon payment of the price of the card, and the dues to the expiration thereof. No vote is necessary to grant a visiting card or dismissal certificate. Should objections in either case be made for cause, the ground thereof shall be stated, and it shall suspend the issuing until after the investigation of said objections. The Lodge shall promptly investigate such objections, and if found to be sufficient by a majority vote of the members present, the card or certificate shall not be issued until the grounds of objections be removed. If the objection is removed, or is found not to be sufficient, the card shall be issued immediately. A suspended member can not take a card or dismissal certificate. Should the Lodge refuse to grant a withdrawal card, the member, if clear on the books, upon payment of fee, may take a dismissal certificate.

ARTICLE XI—FEES AND DUES.

Section 1. No person shall be admitted to membership or reinstated in this Lodge, or receive a card, until payment is made of the amount required therefor by this Constitution or the By-Laws. When dues and assessments or fines stand charged upon account, the payments made shall apply to these in the order of their accruing.

Sec. 2. No person shall be admitted to membership in this Lodge for a less sum than is herein provided, viz: By initiation, one dollar; by deposit of card or dismissal certificate, one dollar.

Sec. 3. No member shall be reinstated after having been dropped for non-payment of dues for less sums than are herein provided.

Sec. 4. The regular contributions to the Lodge fund shall not be at a less rate than two cents a week, to be determined by the By-Laws.

Sec. 5. This Lodge may, by its By-Laws, require such further contributions, for a Widows' and Orphans' Fund, an Educational Fund, or any other fund suitable to the purposes of the Order, for either or all of them, as the Lodge shall determine.

Sec. 6. The special funds of this Lodge shall be sacredly devoted to the purposes for which they may be raised, and the general funds shall be considered sacredly pledged to the relief of distressed members of the Order, the furnishing of the Lodge room, and such other necessary expenses as are and may be recognized and authorized by the laws of the Order. But this Lodge shall not pay stipulated weekly benefits.

Sec. 7. This Lodge may pay and disburse from its funds, from time to time, as a majority of the members present at any stated meeting shall, by vote, determine, for any of the declared purposes of this degree.

Sec. 8. The stocks, securities, investments and funds of this Lodge shall not be transferred, in whole or in part, except by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at a regular meeting. The resolution therefor shall have been presented at least one meeting before final action.

ARTICLE XII—TERMS AND RETURNS.

Sec. 1. Semi-annual terms shall commence on the first regular meetings in January and July; the annual term on the first regular meeting in January.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the retiring officers, at the close of each semi-annual term, to prepare and forward to the Grand Lodge immediately a full report of the work of the term, upon the blank forms furnished from the office of the Grand Secretary, and in conformity with instructions from that officer, accompanied by whatever amount may be due to the Rebekah Assembly, and at the close of each annual term, on December 31st, in like manner to make the annual report of membership.

Sec. 3. This Lodge shall pay the Rebekah Assembly a per capita tax of such an amount as the Annual Assembly may direct. This Lodge, failing to pay its per capita tax and make its report, as provided by Section 2 of this article, shall not be entitled to representation at the State Assembly.

Sec. 4. All votes shall be viva voce (yes or no) unless otherwise provided.

ARTICLE XIII—LAWS, DECISIONS, ETC.

Section 1. The laws controlling this Lodge shall be the laws, rules and usages and general regulations of the Order, the Constitution of this Lodge and other laws for their government enacted by the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, and the By-Laws of this Lodge not inconsistent therewith. The laws of the Subordinate Lodge, and the decisions thereon by the Grand and the Sovereign Grand Lodge, shall, so far as applicable, control in the government of this Rebekah Lodge in all cases not specially provided by the laws of the Rebekah branch of the Order.

Sec. 2. This Lodge shall forfeit its charter if it fails to comply with the requisitions and laws of the Grand Lodge; and in such cases it shall be the duty of the last installed officers to comply with the provisions of the first and second Sections of Article II of the By-Laws of the Grand Lodge.

Sec. 3. This Lodge can not voluntarily surrender its charter nor dissolve as long as five members, in good standing, desire to retain such charter and work under it: Provided, that when a vote upon the surrendering of said charter is to be taken, notice shall be sent to all members in this Lodge in good standing.

Sec. 4. This Lodge shall stand fully invested with power to adopt such By-Laws and Rules of Order, from time to time, as may be deemed expedient, provided they do not in any way contravene any of these Articles, the Laws and Constitution of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, or the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, or the principles of the Order. A copy of the By-Laws, or any amendments thereto, shall, immediately after adoption by the Lodge, be sent by the Secretary to the Grand Secretary for the approval of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, which approval shall be necessary before such By-Laws or amendments thereto shall become operative. The By-Laws shall not be suspended, set aside or altered, except by regular process of amendment, a written proposition for which shall have been before the Lodge at least one week.

Sec. 5. When doubts arise as to the true meaning of any of these Articles, it shall be determined by the Noble Grand, such determination being subject to an appeal to the Lodge, and its determination being subject to the Grand Lodge, whose decision shall be final in all cases.

Sec. 6. These Articles, or any part thereof, shall not be altered, amended or annulled, except on motion made in the Grand Lodge at a regular session in writing; and such motion shall not be finally acted upon on the day of its presentation.

Presented and adopted, 310.

- Twenty-fourth report, by Bro. Roland—On the filling of Committee Vacancies (p. 38), finding action of Grand Master wise and judicious, and recommending approval. Presented and adopted, 311.
- Twenty-fifth report, by Bro. Turner—On Sanitarium at Gainesville, Florida, (p. 37). The committee deem the sanitarium a worthy object of bounty and approve action heretofore taken, but recommend that nothing further be done in that direction at this time. Presented and adopted, 311-12.
- Twenty-sixth report, by Bro. T. J. Gregory—On the subject of Reinstatement of Expelled Members (pp. 26-7, 232), finding that the law has been complied with in cases listed, and recommending approval of action of Grand Master. Presented and adopted, 312.

- Twenty-eighth report, by Bro. Coats—On Galveston Sufferers, Grand Master's Report, p. 38, the committee approve action of Grand Master in placing money returned in Special Relief Fund, and are proud of the liberality and abundant charity of the brothers of the State of Illinois. Presented and adopted, 314.
- Twenty-ninth report, by Bro. Stocking—On Official Visitations, G. Master's Report, p. 38. The committee heartily concur in action of Grand Master in visiting so many lodges, and recommend that the incoming Grand Master make official record of all visitations. Presented and adopted, 314.
- Thirtieth report, by Bro. Brainard—On Personating Officers and Members (p. 39). The committee approve of bill gotten up by the special committee of this Grand Lodge and passed by the legislature, and recommend that the G. Secretary notify lodges of said law and urge the prosecution of persons known to violate its provisions. Presented and adopted, 314-15.
- Thirty-first report, by Bro. Wiener—On our Fraternal Press (p. 46), recommending the Odd Fellows' Herald and the Illinois Odd Fellow as worthy papers, and that lodges should establish clubs to obtain them. Presented and adopted, 315.
- Thirty-second report, by Bro. John Leverett—On "Sunday" as treated in G. Master's Report, p. 33. The committee call attention to the law, frequently violated, requiring that special dispensations from the Grand Master must be obtained for excursions, picnics, balls and the like; also, to the law expressly forbidding that gatherings of this nature be held on Sunday. Presented and adopted, 315.
- Thirty-third report, by Bro. Taylor—Commending the efficient work of the Grand Master and those under him in the matter of Official Instruction (p. 33) in both Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, and recommending continuance of the work by future Grand Masters. Presented and adopted, 316.
- Thirty-fourth report, by Bro. Gregory—On Endowment Funds (p. 42). The special committee deserves the greatest praise for their noble work, and merit the highest commendation of the Grand Lodge. Presented and adopted, 316.
- Thirty-fifth report, by Bro. Turner—Recommending that charter be issued to newly-instituted (p. 281) Leona Rebekah Lodge, No. 111, at Moweaqua, Shelby county. Presented and adopted, 317.
- Thirty-sixth report, by Bro. Turner—On the question of payment for insane sent to an asylum from Old Folks' Home (p. 289). The committee recommend that the incoming Grand Master be authorized to take such steps as will bring the matter to an issue as agreed to by Bro. Mansfield and the officials of Coles county. Presented and adopted, 317.

ON LEGISLATION.

- First report, by Bro. C. B. Samson—On the subject of Membership Fees in Grand Master's Report (p. 31). The committee say the Grand Master was right in refusing to grant dispensations as requested. He is without authority to suspend or annul any part of the Constitution for Subordinates for the slightest period of time. They therefore recommend that his action be approved. Presented, 259; adopted, 288.
- Second report, by Bro. J. S. Cruttenden—On Doc. 14, p. 214, being a proposition to amend Sec. 6, Art. X, Const. Subs. The committee find the proposed change unnecessary, the case being already well provided for, and recommended that it be not adopted. Presented, 260; adopted, 288.

Third report, by Bro. W. H. Bean—On the subject of Lodge Deputy Grand Masters, in Grand Master's Report, page 35. The committee are of the opinion that the laws give the Grand Master full power and authority in the appointment of Deputies; if the present custom is not satisfactory to the incoming Grand Master, he has power to pursue such other method as may seem most expedient. They therefore ask to be relieved from further consideration of the subject. Presented, 260; adopted, 288.

Fourth report, by Bro. E. Dinkelman—On the subject of Dedication of Halls (G.Master's Report, p. 32). The committee express the opinion that the law requires a dispensation from the Grand Master where a public procession is held, and that no further legislation is needed. They therefore ask to be relieved of further consideration of the matter. Presented, 260; adopted, 288.

Fifth report, by Bro. Samson—On that portion of the Grand Master's Report (pp.6-7) relating to the right of the Rebekah Assembly to levy a capitation tax. The committee say that the Assembly lost such right by amendment to its constitution in 1896, and can regain it only by a new amendment hereafter to be adopted by the Assembly and approved by the Grand Lodge. They therefore ask to be relieved from further consideration of the subject. Presented, 261; adopted, 288.

[The compiler of this index suggests that the right to levy a tax was restored or clearly recognized at a later period in the session of 1896, by the adoption and approval of a new Section 2 of Article II, which is identical with Section 464 of the Code. See pp 327, 332 J1, 1896. He is unable to find any later enactment on this subject in the printed Journals.—N. C. N.]

Sixth report, by Bro. A. B. Garrett—On proposed amendments to Constitution for Subordinate Lodges found in Doc. 13, p. 243. The committee are of the opinion that many lodges have little or no need of the proposed committee, and those that do need it have ample authority under the present law to provide by by-law for the appointment of such a committee. They recommend, however, that the Grand Master, each year, in his Annual Circular, call the attention of subordinate lodges to the law authorizing the appointment of such committee, and that he recommend that such lodges as may need the services of such committee make provision in their by-laws for the appointment and regulation of the same. Presented, 261; adopted, 288.

Seventh report, by Bro. Bean—On the subject of Surety Bonds (G. Master's Report, pp. 31-2). The committee report and recommend the adoption of an amendment to Sec. 7, Art. III, Constitution for Subordinate Lodges providing for such bonds. Presented, 262; amended and adopted, 288.

Eighth report, by Bro. W. E. Carlin, P.G.R.—On Passwords for Rebekah Lodges, stating the law on the subject, and recommending the adoption of a resolution as follows: That authority be, and the same is hereby, granted to the President of the Rebekah Assembly under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge to make the S.A.P.W. for Rebekah Lodges, and when so made, that the Secretary of the Rebekah Assembly shall alone be, and is hereby, authorized to send it to the Rebekah Lodges in this jurisdiction. Presented, 264; adopted, 288.

Ninth report, by Bro. Willis Melville—On that portion of the Grand Master's Report (p. 36) relating to Art. XVI, Const. S.G.L., fully concurring in the Grand Master's sentiments and recommendation, but expressing the belief that the powers now vested in the Grand Master and the Subordinate Lodge by the Constitution give them full and ample authority to enforce the laws of admission. The committee therefore ask to be relieved from further consideration of the subject. Presented, 270; adopted, 294.

Tenth report, by Bro. Howard, P.G.M.—On that part of the Grand Master's Report (p. 39) relating to Grand Lodge Committees. The committee are of the opinion that the views advanced by the Grand Master are correct, and worthy of the calm and unbiased consideration of the members of this Grand Lodge; but they do not believe that any proposed change in the laws upon this subject, so soon after adopting the same, which would require an amendment to the Grand Lodge Constitution, and lie over for one year for action, would be adopted by the Grand Lodge, and ask to be relieved from further consideration of the subject. Presented, 271; adopted, 294.

Eleventh report, by Bro. Geo. J. Brackett—On proposed amendment to Sec. 1, Art. I, Constitution for Rebekah Lodges (See Doc. 82, p. 134), adverse to its adoption. Presented, 271; adopted, 294.

Twelfth report, by Bro. Cruttenden—On that portion of the Grand Master's Report (p. 49, fifth section) relating to lodge dues of members of the Old Folks' Home. The committee say that they could not be exempted from payment unless by an amendment of the Constitution for Subordinate Lodges, and that they consider the suggestion to remit dues inexpedient. They therefore ask to be relieved from further consideration of the subject. Presented and adopted, 299.

Thirteenth report, by Bro. Frank Huls—On recommendation of Grand Secretary (pp. 114-115) in relation to Abstract of Reports of Rebekah Lodges. The committee are of the opinion that the publication of such abstract in the Grand Lodge Journal is a needless expense, and can be discontinued without injury to the Rebekah branch of the Order. They therefore recommend the adoption of a resolution as follows: That the Grand Secretary be, and he is hereby, instructed to omit from the printed proceedings of this Grand Lodge any Abstract of Rebekah Lodge Reports. Presented and adopted, 299-300.

Fourteenth report, by Bro. Dinkelman—On that part of the Grand Master's Report (page 31) relating to By-Laws of Subordinates. They report Section 3 of Article XI of the Constitution for Subordinate Lodges in amended form. Presented and adopted, 300.

Fifteenth report, by Bro. Samson—On that part of the Grand Master's Report (pp. 30-31) relating to Property of Defunct Lodges. The committee review the action of the Grand Lodge at session of 1900 authorizing the Rebekah Assembly to take possession of the effects and assets of Defunct Rebekah Lodges and cover the proceeds into the treasury of the Assembly, which they hold to be contrary to law. They therefore recommend (1) that such action be repealed, vacated, and set aside, and (2) that the Grand Master and Grand Secretary shall convert the effects of defunct Rebekah Lodges into cash, the funds derived therefrom to be held in trust by this Grand Lodge, to be used in such manner as the laws of our Order provide. Presented and adopted, 301.

Sixteenth report, by Bro. Carlin, P.G.R.—On that portion of the Grand Master's Report (page 49) relating to the management of "Our Homes." The committee, believing that a considerable reduction of expense may be made without in any wise reducing the efficiency of the management by providing for a less number of meetings of the Boards than have heretofore been held, present and recommend for adoption a resolution expressing the opinion that the Boards should, at their next ensuing meeting, provide that hereafter their meetings shall be held quarterly; that the Secretary of each Board, or some other member to be designated by the Board of Trustees, shall visit the Home of whose Board he is a member every month, for the purpose of auditing all accounts for the month preceding, and provide for the prompt payment thereof. Provided, however, That, in case of emergency, special meetings may be called by the Chairman of either of said Boards of Trustees, or by two members thereof. Presented and adopted, 302.

Seventeenth report, by Bro. Howard, P.G.M.—A long list of amendments to the Constitution for Rebekah Lodges, recommended for adoption. Presented and adopted, 302.

Eighteenth report, by Bro. Howard, P.G.M.—On amendments to Constitution of the Rebekah Assembly (see page 286), under which the members of the Advisory Board of the Orphans' Home would be elected by the Assembly, and vacancies in the board occurring during the recess would be filled temporarily by the President of the Assembly. The committee deem it inadvisable to make the proposed change, and ask to be relieved from further consideration of the question. Presented and adopted, 306.

ON FINANCE.

Special report to the Grand Master on the Orphans' Home and the Old Folks' Home, 48.

First report, by Bro. Jacob Krohn (since deceased)—On Financial transactions of Grand Secretary's office for six months ending April 30, 1901, including Inventories of Supplies and Furniture and fixtures May 1. The committee find all in accordance with the Grand Secretary's statements of that date. They report a list of lodges delinquent in payment of capitation tax; also a list of those previously delinquent which had paid since the report of November, 1900. Presented, 237; adopted, 279.

Second report, by Bro. Fred B. Merrills—On transactions of Grand Secretary's office for six months ending Oct. 31, 1901, with statement of condition at its close. The committee have verified the statements given in the Grand Secretary's Report, and find them correct. A list of Lodges delinquent in reports and capitation tax Nov. 1st is given. Presented, 238; adopted, 279.

Third report, by Bro. James Ewing Davis—On Grand Treasurer's Report and Accounts. The committee say they have examined the (Grand Treasurer's Annual Report (pp. 165-170), checked the same up, item by item, and performed all the additions, and find the same correct in every particular. The Grand Treasurer has exhibited to them cash items and securities, of which they give detailed list, aggregating $50,897.90—the best condition of the finances shown in many years. They find that the books of the Grand Treasurer have been kept in an excellent condition, and that he has performed his duty in a faithful and efficient manner, and recommend that the canceled vouchers be filed in the Grand Secretary's office for future reference. Presented, 250; adopted, 288.

Fourth report, by Bro. W. V. Weise—On resolution (Doc. 23, p. 250), proposing to change the rate of per diem. As this would require an amendment of the Constitution, which could not be acted on at this session, the committee ask to be excused from further consideration of the matter. Presented and adopted, 258.

Fifth report, by Bro. Merrills—On so much of the Grand Master's Report as was referred to them. The committee recommend approval of the investments reported on page 45, and concur in the opinion of the Grand Master that all investments should be paid for by regular warrant on the Grand Treasurer; as to the details of making investments, they are of opinion that they are sufficiently defined in former action cited, and recommend that these details be strictly adhered to in future. They further recommend that the first, third and fourth recommendations found on page 49 be concurred in and adopted, and that the second and fifth be referred to Committee on Legislation. Presented, and, under suspension of the rule, the closing recommendation adopted, 267-268; remainder of the report considered and adopted, 289.

Presented, considered, and adopted, 318.

Presented, 279; adopted, 295.

ON JUDICIARY AND APPEALS.

For Proceedings of this committee see as follows:

Session of February 1901, pages 134-138.

REPORTS AT SESSION.

First report, by Bro. Alfred Orendorff, P.G.M.—On third report of Committee on Credentials (Doc. 11, p. 242). The committee find that there is no provision in the laws of the Order for the election of an alternate representative. Presented and adopted, 252.

Second report, by Bro. Henry Phillips, P.G.M.—A statement of the Herdman case, concluding with a resolution that the incoming Grand Master be directed to require Marion Lodge at once to take up the case of Bro. W. H. Third report, by Bro. Orendorff, P.G.M.—On report of Bro. Mansfield, P.G.M., relating to employment of Andrews & Vause as attorneys in Drainage District case (pp. 52-53). The committee recommend that the action of the Grand Master and of Bro. Mansfield, in employing Andrews and Vause, be approved, and that the Trustees of the Old Folks' Home be empowered and instructed to take all necessary steps to defend the interests of the Grand Lodge in said matter. Presented and adopted, 318.

Fourth report, by Bro. Henry A. Stone, P.G.M.—On Subordinate Lodge Decisions of Grand Master found on pages 8-13. The committee recommend approval of all the decisions without change except that numbered 27, to which they recommend that the words "unless consent of the lodge having jurisdiction be obtained." They also recommend approval of those portions of the Grand Master's Report entitled "Change of Venue," page 28; "Petitions," page 30; "Other Grand Jurisdictions," page 40; "Bequests," page 46. Presented and adopted, 319.

recommend that it be referred to them for consideration at the next meeting of the committee, at which time both parties to the case can be heard. Presented and adopted, 321.

Sixth report, by Bro. Orendorff, P.G.M.—On cases numbered 1 and 2 in Grand Master's Supplemental Report, page 233. The committee report that they have considered the same, and, inasmuch as they involve questions of facts that are under investigation in one case, and the execution of the law in the other, recommend that said complaints be referred to the incoming Grand Master, as the proper authority to deal with such cases. -Presented and adopted, 322.

Seventh report, by Bro. Phillips, P.G.M.—In the matter of J. R. Kewley, Grand Master, vs. Coatsburg Lodge, No. 836—Suspension of the lodge (pages 26 and 235). The committee review the case, and conclude thus: "On the 19th day of November, 1901, a trial was duly had of said lodge upon said charges, and upon a full hearing of all the evidence offered, it is found and determined that said charges are fully sustained, and said lodge is guilty of insubordination and contempt, as set forth in said charges." They further report that at the hearing and trial of said lodge thirteen named members of the lodge appeared by agent or in person and respectively entered their respective pleas of not being guilty of each and every of such charges and specifications; and, upon evidence heard, they find the named brothers not guilty, and recommend that proper cards be issued to them, and such other relief be granted as may be deemed proper. Presented and adopted, 322.

§ Until 1845 inclusive, proxy representation in the Grand Lodge of the United States was permitted. In 1839, Past Grand Master Samuel Pryor, of Pennsylvania, was elected proxy Representative by the Grand Lodge of Illinois, but did not serve. At the adjourned session in April, 1840, Past Grand Master Augustus Mathiot, of Maryland, presented credentials as proxy Representative of Illinois, which were accepted, and he was also recognized in that capacity at the annual session in October following; but there is no record of his election or appointment. In 1842 and 1843, James Earnest, of New York, was elected and served as proxy Representative of Illinois. In 1844 Past Grand Master William S. Stewart, of Missouri, D.D.G.S., was requested to appoint a proxy Representative for the Grand Lodge of Illinois; but no such proxy was present at the session of that year. In 1845 no election for Representative was held.

GRAND MASTER'S REPORT.

To the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. of Illinois:

BRETHREN: In conformity with the law it becomes my pleasant duty to present to you the report of my official acts as Grand Master of this jurisdiction. Another milestone has been placed in the pathway of time to mark the progress of Odd Fellowship.

I am happy to be able to report that a true fraternal spirit exists throughout the jurisdiction. During the year, wherever visits have been made, we have been received with the utmost good feeling, and have been shown every courtesy.

Looking over the work of the year, it is really wonderful that in a body of nearly sixty-two thousand members, which is contained in eight hundred and ninety-five lodges, there has been so little friction or discord. This, I think, proves that the spirit of Friendship, Love and Truth, which we profess and should always practice, is thoroughly understood by the members of our great fraternity. Few Grand Masters have been more fortunate than I in regard to their official family. My associate officers, both elective and appointive, have given me loyal and hearty support, sacrificing time, comfort and personal pleasure in order to be with me at various meetings called throughout the State, and whatever success has been achieved during the past year, is due largely to their prompt and hearty co-operation.

I have also been extremely fortunate in the selection of District Deputy Grand Masters. These Brothers and Sisters who are the personal representatives of the Grand Master in the various districts throughout the State, and who are in close touch with the members of the district, have much to do with the success or failure of lodges under their charge, and I desire to extend to them my heartfelt thanks for the efforts which they have put forth during the past year.

I congratulate the Brotherhood upon the rapid and substantial growth of the Order during the past year. The report of the Grand Secretary will show the largest increase in membership in many years and that we now enroll about sixty-two thousand members in the Subordinate Lodges in this jurisdiction; unusual life and activity have also pervaded all the other branches of the Order; the Patriarchs Militant, the Encampment and especially that of the Rebekahs, and all honor is due the membership individually and collectively for these splendid results.

PROCLAMATIONS.

The following proclamations were issued:

Shelbyville, Illinois, Dec. 7, 1901.

To Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges—Greeting:

In this, my first official letter to you, as Grand Master, it is proper that I should express my gratitude for the great honor conferred upon me by the Odd Fellows of Illinois, through their Representatives in Grand Lodge assembled, November 20, 1901. To represent 85,000 of the best citizens of Illinois in any worthy enterprise is a great honor, but when our field of labor is considered, that of "visiting the sick, relieving the distressed, burying the dead and the education of the orphan," is a distinction worthy of our best efforts, and among the noblest exponents of these efforts are our Orphans' Home and our Old Folks' Home.

The responsibilities of the office of Grand Master would impose a hopeless task, were it not that I can confidently look to my associate Grand Officers, the officers of Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges and the membership at large to assist me in the discharge of my duties, and thus each member filling his niche in the machinery of the Order, illustrates that in union there is strength, and the results accomplished will be proportioned as harmony and fraternity of purpose actuate us.

LODGE DEPUTY.

One of the important positions in every Lodge is that of Lodge Deputy. The honors which have been conferred upon me I desire to share with my representatives, Lodge Deputies, and it is my wish that the position may be dignified by the selection of the most worthy and capable member in each Lodge. The Deputies can do much toward the peace and harmony of our Lodges, and I shall expect their conduct and decisions to be such that I can willingly accept the responsibility for their appointment, and their work being well done, it will be my pleasure as well as my duty to reinforce them in any position which they may assume in the discharge of their duties.

I enclose a blank certificate for the recommendation of a Past Grand or Past Noble Grand of your Lodge for the office of Deputy Grand Master for the year 1902. We suggest that you make your selection by ballot, in the same manner in which your regular officers are elected, at the first meeting following the receipt of this letter. The blank you will please return to the Grand Secretary, upon receipt of which I will issue a Commission inclosing the Term Pass Word and the Annual Pass Word for the year 1902.

LODGE WORK.

It is with pride that I contemplate the proficiency of our membership in the secret and ritualistic work of the Order, and while this is the rule there are exceptions. Let no officer accept the honors of an office without earning them by learning and giving their charges in a creditable manner, when called upon to do so.

The Code should be in every Lodge room for the general use of the members, a liberal reference to which, together with a just application of the law, will solve practically all questions arising in a Lodge room, to the satisfaction of those most interested and the ultimate peace and harmony of the Lodge.

The Order is in a most prosperous condition and with every indication that the year 1902 will be no exception. Let us resolve that it shall be the best year of all.

With fraternal greetings, and a hope that the approaching holiday season may be one of happiness to you and those whom you love, I am,

Yours in Friendship, Love and Truth,

J. W. YANTIS, Grand Master.

1819.

ANNIVERSARY PROCLAMATION.

1902.

Shelbyville, Ill., March 10, 1902.

To all Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges under the Jurisdiction of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.—Greeting:

Whereas, A. C. Cable, Grand Sire of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, has, in compliance with the time honored custom, issued his proclamation to the officers and members of the Grand and Subordinate Lodges of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and enjoined upon them the duty of celebrating and commemorating the 26th day of April, 1902, as the day set aside for public thanksgiving to Almighty God for His manifold mercies to us as individuals and as an Order. And, whereas, the Order in our Grand Jurisdiction has especial and abundant reasons for thanksgiving for the blessings received and prosperity enjoyed;—

Now, therefore, I, J. W. Yantis, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F., do most earnestly request that each Subordinate and Rebekah Lodge of this jurisdiction observe April 26th, 1902, as the birthday of our Order by proper exercises either during the day or evening, or some day approximate thereto, and I do hereby grant permission to all Lodges to wear the regalia of the Order upon such occasion, subject to the lawful restriction of our laws. On that day our Order will be eighty-three years old. Odd Fellowship has proven a great blessing to humanity. Its growth and development has been marvelous, and suffering humanity needed it. Our Old Folks' Home at Mattoon and our Orphans' Home at Lincoln are both objects of pride, and stand as living monuments to the teachings and practice of this great benevolent organization, and a day or evening spent in studying the history of our Order and the good it has done in the world will inspire within us new zeal for the work, make us better Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, therefore, better men and women. I urge upon all Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges to celebrate this event in some manner, and let us not forget to ask God's blessings and guidance for the future of our Order.

Done at Shelbyville, Illinois, this 10th day of March, 1902, and of our Order the 83d year.

Fraternally yours,

J. W. YANTIS, Grand Master.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Shelbyville, Ill., April 24, 1902.

To the Officers and Members of Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, I. O. O. F. of Illinois:

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS: It is with profound regret that I officially announce the death of Bro. Jas. R. Miller, Grand Secretary I. O. O. F. of Illinois, who has filled with great ability this important office for the past ten years.

In his death this jurisdiction has suffered a great loss and the members of the Order a sad bereavement.

In pursuance of the authority vested in me as Grand Master, I have this day appointed and installed into the office of Grand Secretary, Bro. John H. Sikes, of Springfield Lodge No. 465, I. O. O. F., and he has entered upon the discharge of his official duties. For the past fourteen years Bro. Sikes has been connected with the office of Grand Secretary and is thoroughly familiar with the duties of the office.

A number of the members of our Order and some of our Lodges have forwarded to me contributions, looking to the erection of a suitable monument to the memory of Bro. Jas. R. Miller.

I hereby direct that the Grand Secretary shall receive, receipt for, and turn over to the Grand Treasurer all sums of money that may be contributed for this commendable purpose by the various organizations and members of our Order, and report the same to the next Grand Lodge for its action.

Fraternally yours,

J. W. YANTIS, Grand Master.

There is no exception to this requirement, and the form of certificate prepared by the Central Passenger Association, and to be furnished by the Grand Secretary, will be accepted by the agents of all the lines mentioned herein.

WORLD'S FAIR FRATERNAL BUILDING ASSO.

The following letter from the President and Secretary of the World's Fair Fraternal Building Association, explains itself, and I ask for it the careful consideration of the Grand Lodge:

To the Most Worthy Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F. of Illinois:

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER: We desire to officially and formally present to you the plan, scope and present status of the World's Fair Fraternal Building Association.

INCORPORATION.

As soon as it became known that the great International Exposition in St. Louis, in celebration of the centennial of the Louisiana Purchase, would include an exhibit of man in his twentieth century development, the Missouri Fraternal Congress, composed of fraternal and fraternal beneficiary societies doing business in Missouri, conceived the idea that no such exposition would be complete without an adequate expression of the fraternal development, now so prominent a feature of American life. To the end that such an expression should be had, the Congress adopted the idea of a Temple of Fraternity, to be erected by the various Orders and Societies, and authorized its Executive Committee to incorporate as the World's Fair Fraternal Building Association.

ENDORSEMENTS.

The Association having been incorporated, at once entered upon the task of bringing the subject to the attention of fraternal and fraternal beneficial societies. With its work in this respect incomplete, it has secured the endorsement of the leading officers, Executive Boards, or Supreme Bodies of about a hundred different Orders. In addition to this, the National Fraternal Congress at its session in Denver in August reiterated its unanimous endorsement of a year ago, and strongly urged the various societies of which it was composed to participate in the movement, if they had not already done so. During September the Associated Fraternities of America went a step farther than this, as they not only again endorsed the movement unanimously, but pledged themselves to contribute $40,000 to the building fund. In addition to this, it has secured the endorsement of purely fraternal societies like the following:

MASONS.

We call special attention to the enthusiastic endorsement our movement has received from the Masons of Missouri. The Grand Lodge of Missouri, A. F. and A. M., the Grand Chapter, R. A. M., and the Grand Commandery, K. T., have each individually, by unanimous resolutions, endorsed the Temple of Fraternity, and made appropriations out of their general funds that in the aggregate amount to $5,000. Many other Grand Lodges are expected to co-operate in this movement, following the lead made by the Grand Lodge of Missouri, the Grand Lodge of Illinois having already taken action appropriating $1,000; and it is to be hoped that they will all take interest in the Temple of Fraternity.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

The Knights of Pythias, at their Missouri Grand Lodge meeting, on October 23d, passed a strong resolution of endorsement, and made provisions for an appropriation of $4,000, which will be supplemented by contributions from other Grand Jurisdictions and individuals.

ODD FELLOWS.

As to the Odd Fellows, we have had the most encouraging endorsements, commencing with the action of the Grand Lodge of Missouri early last year, which appropriated $2,000, and appointed a strong committee, which will present the matter to the individuals of this Jurisdiction. Hon. A. C. Cable, Grand Sire of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, at its recent session in Des Moines, cordially endorsed the movement, and his recommendations were referred to the Committee on State of the Order of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, which Committee returned the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

"Believing that this, the largest fraternal society in America, should have an interest in this building equaling that of any other society, we recommend that this Sovereign Grand Lodge grant permission to the Building Association to solicit subscriptions from the members under its immediate jurisdiction, and recommend that the various Grand Lodges grant a like permission with the proviso that the Building Association make a complete report to our Grand Secretary of the amounts so received from each jurisdiction, to be reported by the Grand Secretary to this Grand Body."

PARTICIPATION BY ILLINOIS GRAND LODGE.

What we would desire, therefore, is an endorsement from the Grand Lodges with the permission to solicit contributions from the members, as contemplated in the resolution of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and to give this more effect an appropriation to be made by your Grand Lodge of an amount that would be proportionate to the appropriation made by the Grand Lodge of Missouri, which was $2,000.

GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC.

The National Encampment of the G. A. R. passed a resolution most cordially endorsing the proposition, such endorsement carrying with it the participation of the G. A. R., Woman's Relief Corps, Ladies of the G. A. R., and other associate organizations.

TEMPLE OF FRATERNITY—STYLE AND CONVENIENCES.

The Temple of Fraternity to be erected is an adaptation of the Parthenon of Athens, the standard of Greek architecture. It will be 200 by 300 feet, surrounding a court, which will be ornamented as a tropical garden. It will be two stories high, with porticos sixteen feet in depth on the exterior and interior, ornamented with doric columns. Rooms will be set aside in this beautiful structure for all contributing societies, where they will make their headquarters during the World's Fair, and maintain a place of rendezvous and refreshment for the members from all parts of the country. The immense porticos will be set aside for the free use of all. Rooms will also be set aside for reading, writing, smoking, toilet purposes, ladies' parlors, lounging, etc. Telephones, telegraph and postal service will be supplied, and a check room for parcels, as well as a free dispensary, attended by a board of competent physicians. The site selected for the Temple of Fraternity is one of the most commanding on the World's Fair grounds.

BENEFITS.

The benefit which the Temple of Fraternity is to confer upon all members of the different societies is a headquarters on the grounds of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, where they can meet their members from all parts of the country, and where they may feel at home; easy access to telephone, telegraph and postal service, and place where they may be cared for in case of sickness or accident.

PART OF WORLD'S FAIR MOVEMENT.

To illustrate the esteem in which the enterprise is held by the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Company, it is only necessary to mention the fact that five of their leading officers have accepted membership on our Finance Committee, and their Treasurer, Mr. William H. Thompson, who is President of the National Bank of Commerce of St. Louis, has accepted the Treasurership of the World's Fair Fraternal Building Association, and twenty-eight of their decorators are active members. Our headquarters are now in the Exposition Company's down town offices, so that you can plainly see that we are in very close touch with the World's Fair management.

TRUSTEES TO HOLD FUNDS.

Respecting the funds to be raised, which may be done either by direct appropriation or voluntary subscriptions from the members, we will state that the money need not be remitted until the latter part of the year. All that we desire is to know, as near as possible, by the end of the year the amount that we can expect, to govern us in intelligently letting the contracts for the building. Provisions have been made for the handling of funds contributed by the various Orders, so that no use can be made of it except for the erection and maintenance of the Temple. Each Order designates one of its own members to receive and hold all contributions of the members until the money is needed by the Association for the erection of the building, when it will be forwarded to the Treasurer and duly accounted for in detail as expended. The Board of Directors and officers of the Association receive no salary or other compensation for their services, and cannot do so under the articles of incorporation, hence the money for the erection of the Temple cannot be misapplied or diverted to any other use.

AUXILIARY BOARD OF LADY MANAGERS.

Inasmuch as the Odd Fellows have an Auxiliary Ladies' Society, it may be well to state that an Auxiliary Board of Lady Managers has been created, who will have charge of interesting the organizations composed of and managed exclusively by ladies, and they have been making very fine progress, having enlisted the hearty support of nearly all of the principal Ladies' Societies, particularly the Rebekahs and the Eastern Star, as well as the auxiliaries of the great fraternal beneficial societies. In fact, the ladies have already reached a point where they can practically assure us of raising $50,000 among the lady organizations alone.

Chas. S. Harris,
Grand Master.

GOVERNMENT OF BUILDING.

After the building is erected, a Government Committee will be appointed, each society co-operating to have equal representation, said representative to be selected by the society itself, so that they shall, under the general laws laid down by the Association, have the direct management of the building during the life of the Fair.

PLEDGED UP TO DATE.

Some of the societies have already made appropriations or calls upon their members for contributions, and about $100,000 has already been pledged. Others are doing likewise as fast as their Supreme Bodies or Executive Officers can take action.

With fraternal greetings from our Board of Directors, we are,

Fraternally yours,

NOAH M. GIVAN, President.

Attest: I. K. HATFIELD, Secretary.

NEW BUILDINGS.

The substantial condition of many of our Subordinate Lodges has been evidenced by the many buildings and halls that have been constructed and dedicated to the principles and purposes of Odd Fellowship. They are in nearly every instance of a substantial architecture, and reflect credit on the Order in their localities.

OFFICIAL INSTRUCTORS.

During the year a large number of Brothers have been appointed as official Examiners and Instructors in Subordinate Lodges, and a large number of ladies have been appointed to these positions for Rebekah Lodges. Each of them were first duly recommended by the Chief Instructor, and their good work is to be commended, for in the great majority of Lodges there is now from one to five or more of the members that can give the instructions in the unwritten work creditably or perfectly. I herewith submit the report of Bros. W. E. Carlin and Henry A. Stone, Chief Instructors of Subordinate Lodges, and of Sisters Nellie L. Harris and Olive J. Blackman, Chief Instructors of Rebekah Lodges.

Office of Chief of Examiners and Instructors,
Jerseyville, Ill., Oct. 13, 1902.

Hon. John W. Yantis, Grand Master I. O. O. F.:

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER: In compliance with the requirements of my Commission as Chief of Examiners and Instructors, to which position you did me the honor to appoint me, I beg to report: That on the Monday preceding the last Session of the Grand Lodge, in conjunction with Bro. Henry A. Stone, Assistant Chief of Instructors, I held schools of Instruction at Springfield, intended more particularly for those Brothers who desired to qualify themselves as Official Instructors throughout the State, but which were open to all Brothers who desired to be present. The attendance was large, and a great degree of interest was manifested by a majority of those present. A good number were found proficient, not only of those who had previously been appointed Instructors, but including several new applicants, as well.

All of those found perfect in the work were authorized to instruct and examine all applicants during the Grand Lodge week. And upon due recommendation to you, they were commissioned as Official Instructors, as have been those by them found proficient during the year; and from time to time, upon my own examinations, and by reports from those commissioned as Examiners and Instructors, I have forwarded you many other names, and the Brothers so recommended have likewise been duly commissioned by you; so that the list of Examiners and Instructors appointed during the year seems ample to readily reach all the Lodges in the State that may have required the services of a qualified Brother to instruct them.

I feel that Illinois still maintains its high standard of efficiency in this branch of the work of the Order.

Early in the year I directed each official Instructor to ascertain if any Lodge in his locality had no member qualified to impart the work reasonably well to candidates in the several Degrees, and in that event, that he suggest to the Lodge the advisability of securing the presence of an Instructor. In some instances, Lodges acted upon the suggestion, and made good progress in the work.

Instructors generally are ready and willing to visit lodges and hold schools for two or three days for actual expenses incurred, and such compensation as the Lodge, of its own volition, is disposed to pay; and as qualified Brothers may be found in almost every portion of the State, the expense need not be great. In this connection I desire to say that I feel it would be well for the in-coming Grand Master to remind Lodges of the importance of maintaining the high standard of the Order in Illinois, in this behalf, by sending to each a circular letter, and by publication in the fraternal journals of our Order in the State. It seems timely to suggest for the benefit of all who have heretofore been appointed as Official Examiners and Official Instructors, as well as for those who may in the future be so appointed, that they should pass an examination annually, if they desire to continue in such positions. Opportunity is given for this at the schools held at the place of meeting of the Grand Lodge on Monday evening, and during the time the Grand Lodge is in session. They should remember, too, that they are expected to report, on or before October 15th, to the Grand Master and to the Chief of Instructors, the work done during the year.

I need not remind them that the reason for this requirement is that the Chief of Instructors, as well as the Grand Master, may have full information as to the services rendered, and to know if Lodges are progressive, and interested in all matters pertaining to the work.

Thus far, I have received but a limited number of reports from Instructors, but so far as I am advised, considerable work has been done throughout the State, and a fair increase of those who are proficient in the unwritten work has been made.

My sincere thanks are due, and are hereby extended, to Bro. Henry A. Stone, Assistant Chief, and to the Examiners, and Instructors generally for their cordial co-operation.

Thanking you for the honor conferred upon me, for the courtesies you have extended me during your term as Grand Master, and congratulating you upon the large increase in membership during the year, I am,

Sincerely and fraternally,

WALTER E. CARLIN,
Chief of Examiners and Instructors.

Vandalia, Illinois, October 15, 1902.

Hon. John W. Yantis, Grand Master Illinois I. O. O. F., Shelbyville, Ill.:

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER: I beg to report to you herewith my official acts as Assistant Chief Instructor and Examiner in the "Unwritten Work" of Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, I. O. O. F., of Illinois, under your commission dated December 1, 1901.

This has been a very busy year with me in my business relations, and for this reason my time has been so fully occupied that I could not give to the Order very much of my services, and which I regret.

I have been called upon by several Lodges to conduct schools of instruction, but for reasons stated above have been compelled to decline, but in each case recommended to them capable official instructors, whose services I hope they secured, and from whom you will probably receive detailed reports. I therefore have nothing officially to report in addition to the several reports submitted to you through the year, recommending to you for appointment as official instructors the several Brothers and Sisters who had passed successful examinations in the "Unwritten Work" by personal examinations, or through the reports to me from official examiners under your appointment. Those several reports you have in your files.

I send a duplicate copy of this report to my Chief, Brother W. E. Carlin, from whom you will receive a report in full. Thanking you for the honor conferred, allow me to remain,

Yours fraternally,

HENRY A. STONE, P. G. M.,
Assistant Instructor in Chief.

APPEALS.

I am much gratified to report that while there was a large number of cases presented to me, I have tried to give each of them a careful and impartial consideration and my rulings on all of the cases submitted to me have been graciously accepted by all the parties in interest, with the exception of one case, namely, Williamson Lodge No. 392, vs. Lodge Deputy, Geo. W. Young.

STATEMENT.

It appears that Williamson Lodge had decided to organize a degree staff and purchase new paraphernalia for the better conferring of the work. The Lodge appointed a purchasing committee, and this committee placed an order for the paraphernalia, subject to inspection and approval by the Lodge.

On these conditions the goods were shipped and were inspected by the committee and Lodge, and were accepted by the Lodge, and on motion an order for the amount of the bill, $315.00, was drawn on the treasurer in payment of the same. Bro. Young, as Deputy of the Lodge, set the action of the Lodge aside and directed the Treasurer to withhold payment of the order. From this action the Lodge appealed. Considering the financial condition of the Lodge and its membership and believing it would encourage the Lodge in their work and thus best serve the interests of our Order, I sustained the Lodge. From this decision Bro. Geo. W. Young has prayed an appeal to the Grand Lodge.

DISPENSATIONS.

I believe the Lodges of this jurisdiction more clearly understand that it is their duty to secure dispensations for all public gatherings than they have in the past. In fact, an entertainment of any character given by a Lodge without first asking for and securing a dispensation is a very rare exception. This not only serves to prevent improper entertainments, but is a great source of information to the Grand Master of the activity of the Lodges.

OTHER GRAND JURISDICTIONS.

Questions of difference that have arisen between Lodges of the jurisdiction of Illinois and those of other jurisdictions have been promptly and amicably settled. I have always taken these matters up direct with the Grand Masters of their respective jurisdictions and have received from them the most courteous and fraternal treatment and am happy to report that there are no unsettled contentions between this and other jurisdictions that have been presented to me.

The claim of Kewanee Lodge No. 128, against Bluff City Lodge No. 35, of Pine Bluff, Ark., which was referred to me from last Grand Lodge session, has not been paid; but the Grand Lodge of Arkansas, at its session last month instructed the Grand Master of that jurisdiction that unless an appeal was taken to the Sovereign Grand Lodge by said Bluff City Lodge, or the amount claimed by Kewanee Lodge be paid by said Bluff City Lodge within six months, that the charter of Bluff City Lodge No. 35 should be revoked.

RESIGNATIONS.

Bro. M. P. Berry of Carthage tendered his resignation as member of the Orphans' Home Board, and I appointed in his stead Bro. J. E. Jennings of Sullivan.

I also appointed on the Committee of Rebekah Degree, Bro. George Hayward, to fill the vacancy caused on that committee by the appointment of Bro. Jennings on the Orphans' Home Board.

It also became my duty, after the death of our Grand Secretary to appoint his successor, and to that position I appointed Bro. John H. Sikes. He has devoted all his time and energies to the discharge of the duties of this important office, and has proven himself to be efficient and conversant with all its details. He has been of valuable assistance to me as Grand Master.

I feel that special mention is due the Rebekah branch of our Order. Under the supervision of State President Sister L. Maud Hayward, it has had a marvelous growth, and from her wise counsel many of the Lodges have taken on new life, and the entire membership seem imbued more strongly with the true meaning of our Fraternal teachings—Friendship, Love and Truth.

OUR HOMES.

The Odd Fellows' Orphans' Home at Lincoln and the Old Folks' Home at Mattoon seem to draw us nearer and nearer to each other, as we see more of the good and benevolence that is being accomplished by our Order through this instrumentality. Full reports of these Homes are herewith submitted.

KOENIG BEQUEST.

This was reported by my predecessor, as found in Grand Lodge Journal of 1901, Page 46, stated as follows: "Bro. Carl A. Koenig, a member of Koerner Lodge No. 756 of Chicago, who died over two years ago, made under his will our Old Folks' Home his residuary legatee.

"He left property, both real and personal. The personal property was insufficient to meet the indebtedness of the estate and the legacies provided by the will, so the executor petitioned the Probate Court for permission to sell the real estate."

The matter has been looked after by Bros. Charles S. Thornton and W. R. Humphrey, and the property was set down for sale Nov. 15th, 1902, but a continuance of 30 days has been asked for, and it is believed will be granted.

The property remaining is appraised by the Commissioners appointed by the Court at Eighteen Hundred Dollars ($1,800.00), and the amount of claims and mortgage against the estate is approximately Eighteen Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($1,850.00). This would indicate that there would be little or no equity in the property to be realized by the Old Folks' Home.

Bro. W. R. Humphrey, however, who has had extensive experience in determining values of real estate in Cook County, advises me that the property is fairly worth from $2,300.00 to $2,500.00, but that there is not ready sale for such property. I respectfully refer the matter to the Grand Lodge for its recommendation.

NECROLOGY.

Since the last session of the Grand Lodge this jurisdiction has been called upon to give up in death two of its most valiant and distinguished members in the persons of Jas. R. Miller, P.G.M., P.G.R., and P.G. Secretary of this jurisdiction, and Andrew Donaldson Sanders, P.G.M., than whom few, if any of our members, have spent a greater part of their lives in the service of Odd Fellowship.

JAS. R. MILLER.

Bro. P. G. M. James R. Miller, Grand Secretary, died April 17, 1902. The grim reaper has garnered in a faithful servant. Bro. Miller has closed his earthly pilgrimage, and is at rest. His whole being was infused with Friendship, Love and Truth. He loved the Order with all his soul, mind and strength, and fell at his post of duty. Truly, he was a good Samaritan, a man of lofty purpose in life, possessed with a large and loving heart, a kind and endearing spirit, and a character that shone with the radiance of pure good. While we shall greatly miss his presence, we shall cherish as a sweet legacy the perfume of his very useful life, and the remembrance of this kind, gentle, good and true exponent of our great Brotherhood will ever live enshrined in our hearts and bright in our memories.

Jas. R. Miller was one of the strong pillars of our Order, not only in the Jurisdiction of Illinois, but in our national councils. His life is an object lesson to the world of benevolence and charity, a worthy standard bearer of the teachings and principles of Odd Fellowship, through the deeds of which the world is being made better.

He was a manly man, courageous and brave, a "foeman worthy of any man's steel," and his inexhaustible energies were expended in the cause of humanity.

BIOGRAPHY.

Jas. R. Miller was born October 31, 1831, in Warren County, Ohio. He was thrown upon his own resources at a tender age.

For three winters he attended Farmers' College, at Cincinnati. Of these days Bro. Miller in after life always spoke in the highest terms, as he had for fellow students young men who afterward became great men of the nation, one of them being Benjamin Harrison. Leaving this institution in 1850, he became a school teacher in Cynthiana, Ky.

It was in 1851, a year after, that he became impressed with the opportunities of the West. Arriving at Sacramento, Cal., he engaged immediately in farming. Bent on trying new fields, he left California five years later, bound for Illinois. Here he settled on a farm near Collinsville, Madison County, and soon after was initiated into Madison Lodge No. 43, I. O. O. F., and was a member of that Lodge from 1857 to 1870. He then, with the assistance of ten others, organized Crescent Lodge No. 426, I. O. O. F., at Caseyville, in which Lodge he held membership at the time of his death.

Bro. Miller's political career began in 1868, when he became a member of the General Assembly, being re-elected two years later. At the first session he was chairman of the Committee on Federal Relations, and during his next term was chairman of the Committee on Education. When a special session was called to afford relief to the City of Chicago, which had been devastated by fire, Bro. Miller was appointed a member of the committee that was sent to Chicago to ascertain what measures were required to bring order out of chaos.

As an advocate of temperance, he had few equals. He was always a willing assistant of those who have declared war against the evil of intemperance. He was a prominent member of the Presbyterian Church.

FORTY-FIVE YEARS AN ODD FELLOW.

As an Odd Fellow, Bro. Miller had an experience that extended over forty-five years, during which time he had held almost every office from the smallest to the highest in the jurisdiction. In 1865 he entered the Grand Lodge of Illinois, and since then has been regular in his attendance. He was elected Deputy Grand Master in 1880, and in 1883 was made Grand Master. Two years later he was elected Grand Representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge, holding that office for seven years. His ability as an executive officer soon made itself felt, and while a member of the Sovereign Grand Lodge he was appointed successively to the Finance, Legislative, and Appeal Committees.

On May 1, 1892, he was chosen Grand Secretary of Illinois. His appointment was to fill a vacancy, and was made by Bro. M. W. Schaefer, who at that time was Grand Master. The same year he was elected, and had held the office until his death, which occurred in Springfield, Ill., April 17, 1902.

His funeral was held in the City of Springfield, Ill., on Sunday, April 20th, and was attended by Grand and Past Grand Officers of the jurisdiction, together with a large representation from Lodges all over the State, also the city officials of Springfield and a very large number of citizens were in line. The funeral rites of the Order were conducted by Grand Master J. W. Yantis and Grand Chaplain Wm. M. Groves. On Monday his remains were conveyed to Collinsville, Ill., accompanied by the Grand Officers, where a second service was held, which was largely attended by the Order and friends in the locality in which he had spent most of his life.

His remains now lie in the old family cemetery, at Collinsville, Ill., to await the resurrection morn.

ANDREW DONALDSON SANDERS.

The life of Andrew Donaldson Sanders is an appeal to the human heart, an inspiration, an example worthy to be emulated.

His influence silently but eloquently speaks of his worth; it comforts the sorrowing and lightens the burdens of the weary. Few men have made more of their opportunities in life than Bro. Sanders, who leaves behind a grateful fraternity and an heritage of good works. His life was full of activity, in close contact with the world, from which he kept his character unsullied, and exerted a great influence for all that was good, honorable and true.

Our Order owes to him a great debt of gratitude, for it was for the advancement of this organization that he spent almost his entire life. Soon after serving the Jurisdiction as Grand Master, ill health fastened upon him, and for the last fifteen years of his life he never knew what it was to be without pain, and yet it was the crucial test of the invalid which brought out his nobility of character as nothing else could have done. A smile, a kind word, a cheerful countenance was always the greeting, regardless of his own suffering.

His funeral was largely attended, the Grand Lodge being represented by Grand Secretary John H. Sikes and Past Grand Masters Judge J. Otis Humphrey and Alfred Orendorff.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH.

Andrew Donaldson Sanders was born in Triune, Tenn., Oct. 14th, 1846, having reached his fifty-sixth year at the time of his death, which occurred in the City of Pittsfield, Ill., on Monday morning, Nov. 5th. At the age of thirteen he removed to Illinois, and on the breaking out of the Civil War offered his services, which were refused on account of his age, but having volunteered a second time, in the year 1865, was accepted and assigned to Company K, 124th Regiment, Illinois Infantry, and afterwards transferred to Company I, 33rd Infantry, where he did valiant service until peace was declared. When a young man he united with the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and was one of its most faithful workers and advocates during the remainder of his life, and at the time of his death was an honored member of Springfield Lodge No. 465 of Springfield, Ill.

Twenty-six years ago he established the Odd Fellows' Herald, into which he put his ability and great energy for many years, making it one of the leading Fraternal publications in the United States. In the year 1885 he was elected Grand Master of the Jurisdiction of Illinois, and served the Order with great ability.

To all who knew him his life is an indestructible golden memory.

GRAND LODGE FINANCE COMMITTEE.

I herewith submit two reports by the Grand Lodge Finance Committee. The first report is a detailed statement of the books and accounts of the Grand Secretary's office at the death of Grand Secretary James R. Miller, the second one covering matters pertaining to our Orphans' and Old Folks' Homes, referred to them by me.

First report, by Bro. Fred. B. Merrills, of No. 650.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows, in regard to the matter of Grand Secretary's office.

That upon the direction and order of the Grand Master we met in the office of the Grand Secretary on the 23rd day of April, 1902, to check up said office, and turn same over to the duly appointed successor of our lamented Bro. James R. Miller.

After consulting with representatives of the family of the deceased, with representatives of his bondsmen, and with postoffice authorities, the express agents and the bank, we began a thorough and systematic examination of the condition of said office.

Our first attention was to consider the accumulated mail, addressed to the office, which we opened in the presence of the Grand Master, Past Grand Master Orendorff, and Bros. Merrills and Anderson, of this Committee. In it we found in cash, postoffice money orders, express money orders, bank drafts, and other exchange, the sum of Four Thousand Four Hundred Forty-nine and 75-100 Dollars ($4,449.75), most of which was for capitation tax, some being for supplies, some for the Homes, and a very small part being for the Odd Fellows' Herald. This sum was turned over to Bro. Sikes, and he receipted therefor.

Bro. Sikes made out and furnished us statements and balances from the books of the office for all business transacted by the office after the first day of last November, and prior to the death of Bro. Miller, which we attach hereto, file herewith, and make a part of this report. We compared them with the books and records and with the stock of supplies on hand and find them to be correct.

The following numbered Lodges, reported delinquent November 1, 1901, are still delinquent for Capitation Tax then due:

168, 187, 189, 278, 425, 515, 705, 762, 802.

The following numbered Lodges had not sent in reports and Capitation Tax prior to April 17, 1902:

2, 6, 13, 20, 31, 32, 33, 38, 41, 42, 54, 55, 56, 57, 62, 63, 68, 72, 73, 78, 79, 82, 83, 84, 86, 87, 92, 98, 101, 105, 112, 113, 115, 117, 119, 122, 125, 129, 130, 132, 134, 135, 137, 138, 142, 143, 144, 145, 148, 149, 150, 152, 153, 155, 168, 171, 173, 177, 181, 183, 185, 186, 187, 188, 189, 191, 193, 194, 200, 202, 205, 209, 210, 213, 217, 223, 226, 228, 229, 232, 238, 239, 248, 252, 253, 254, 261, 263, 264, 267, 268, 269, 270, 272, 273, 275, 278, 279, 280, 284, 286, 293, 295, 302, 303, 307, 313, 316, 317, 319, 322, 325, 327, 333, 335, 338, 339, 342, 343, 348, 349, 350, 355, 359, 363, 367, 373, 375, 380, 381, 386, 388, 389, 395, 397, 405, 415, 417, 418, 419, 422, 424, 425, 427, 428, 430, 435, 441, 445, 448, 450, 451, 453, 455, 456, 458, 461, 462, 464, 466, 468, 470, 474, 476, 481, 484, 487, 488, 489, 491, 494, 495, 496, 497, 498, 500, 501, 503, 506, 507, 515, 519, 520, 522, 524, 527, 531, 532, 534, 535, 536, 538, 543, 548, 551, 553, 554, 556, 558, 562, 565, 566,

After completing our labors we turned over the office to Bro. John H. Sikes, who had been duly appointed by the Grand Master, had qualified by giving a good and sufficient bond, and had been installed into office, together with the stock of supplies on hand as shown by the inventory attached hereto, furniture and fixtures of the office, and balance of cash on hand, for which he executed and delivered his receipt, which we attach hereto, and herewith transmit as a part of this report.

The records and books of the office had been faithfully kept. The funds and other property of the Grand Lodge were satisfactorily accounted for. The long and useful life of our departed Brother is ended, and it is with joy that we can believe that the Grand Master above looks with approval upon his life and work.

Second report of Committee on Finance, by Bro. W. E. P. Anderson, of No. 107.

To the Hon. John W. Yantis, Grand Master I. O. O. F. of the Grand Lodge of Illinois:

Your Committee on Finance, in compliance with your request, would respectfully report that we visited the Old Folks' Home on the second of January and again on the tenth of March, 1902, for the purpose of advising and conferring with the Trustees of said Home with reference to perfecting plans, etc., in the construction of a Hospital at said Home, as per appropriation of $4,500, made by the Grand Lodge for that purpose, contained in Document No. 92, Page 280, Journal, 1900, which said Document, on Page 281, also includes the following language: "That in the future, the Orphans' Home Board and the Old Folks' Home Board be instructed to make no contract pledging the credit of the Grand Lodge, except for maintenance and ordinary repairs, until directed to do so by this Grand Body."

That at the meeting of January 2nd, after considerable discussion, it was decided that the Board should have plans and specifications drawn estimating the probable cost of said Hospital to be submitted at a future meeting.

That at the meeting of March 10th plans and specifications were submitted drawn by two architects which demonstrated that the construction of a Hospital such as the Board had in mind, attached or detached from the main building, would largely exceed the appropriation, and after considerable discussion of the matter, in which your conservative views were expressed, it was decided, upon the recommendation of this Committee, that the whole matter pertaining to the construction of a Hospital be referred back to the Grand Lodge at its next session, with a request that it pass upon and decide the three following propositions, viz:

1st. Shall a Hospital be constructed?

• 2nd. If so, how much shall it cost?

3rd. Shall it be an attached or a detached building?

That at said meeting of March 10th the propriety of purchasing an electric light plant in order to supply the necessary light and power at said Home at an approximate cost of $900 was also discussed, but no definite action taken.

We would further respectfully report that, also in compliance with your request, and with you accompanying us, we visited the Old-Folks' Home and the Orphans' Home on October 15th and 16th, 1902, and made an inspection of the management and affairs of both Homes.

We find that they both appear to be in good condition, well managed, and that the accounts of receipts and disbursements are kept in detail, and in a plain and comprehensive manner, by the Secretaries of each of said Boards. And that the expenditures of the Grand Lodge in behalf of these Homes continue to produce good results toward the relief of our aged and afflicted Brothers, and their wives and orphans..

We also desire to report that the Old Folks' Home Board desire an appropriation for the maintenance of the Home and the incidental expenses connected therewith, with reference to repairs, etc., of $8,000.

We also desire to report that the Orphans' Home Board desire the usual appropriation for maintenance and ordinary repairs.

Dated at Springfield, this first day of November, A. D. 1902.

FRATERNAL JOURNALS.

This jurisdiction is perhaps more fortunate than it realizes or appreciates in having two as excellent fraternal papers as the Odd Fellows' Herald, at Springfield, and the Illinois Odd Fellow, at Chicago.

They are both ably edited and are a power for good. I trust every Odd Fellow in the State may be able to read one or both of these journals.

CONCLUSION.

In conclusion, let me again express my appreciation of the kindness, courtesy and fraternal love which have been shown to me throughout the year. If I have failed in the expectation of any of my Brothers, it has been my misfortune, not fault, and while the duties of office have been heavy at times, the knowledge of a work honestly performed in so grand a cause as our Order represents, has more than compensated me for such effort as it was in my power to put forth.

Let us hope that the work of the coming session will be well done, and that it will not be marked by any strife or discord. We are all human and liable to err. If we differ in opinion, remember that each one has a right to his own, and accord to each the same honesty of purpose you claim for yourself.

Fraternally submitted,

It is a source of much pleasure to us to be enabled to report the continued prosperity with which our Home has been blessed, and which, as an object lesson, goes far towards the fulfilling of the great command of our Order, in its protection and education of the orphan, affording the best evidence to the world of the value of Odd Fellowship.

HOW TO GAIN ADMITTANCE.

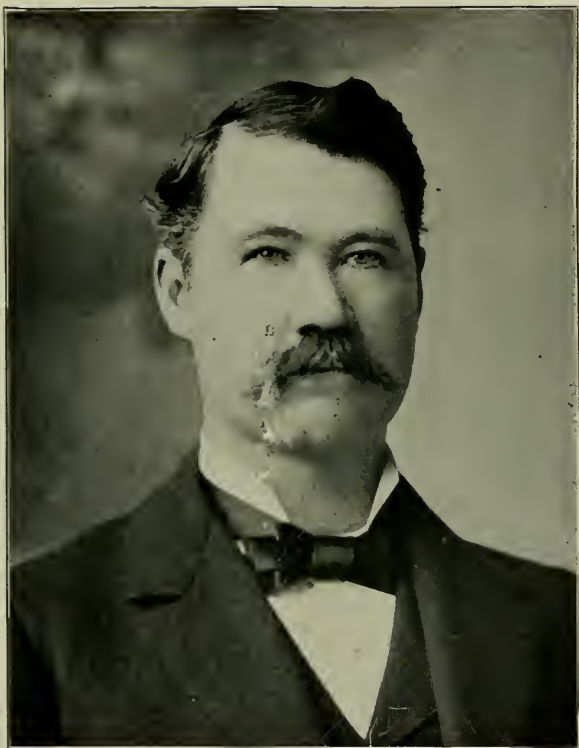

Lodges or guardians wishing to place in the Home children who are eligible to its benefits, should apply to the Superintendent at Lincoln for a blank form of application, this to be filled and signed by the guardian and Lodge (under seal) of which the father was a member at the time of his death. The application should then be returned to the Superintendent, who will present it to the Board of Directors for consideration at their first meeting thereafter. Parties presenting applications will be notified as soon as practicable of the result.

All applications coming before the Board are carefully considered as their individual merits demand.

Each child received is expected to come with at least one change of clothing.

CASH DONATIONS, ETC.

The following, given in detail, are the cash receipts by donations and otherwise, during the year. There have been the usual number of valuable articles donated as in former years, but the persons and lodges sending them have all received an acknowledgment of them, and the list has been published, from time to time, in The Odd Fellows' Herald and Illinois Odd Fellow, and as the articles are so numerous we do not deem it necessary to again enumerate them.

John J. Brown

Deputy Grand Master.

HEALTH.

While we have not been called to part by death with any of our children during the past year, there has seemed to be more illness than in years gone by. Much of it, we think, has been due to the very wet season we have had, and the malaria that has seemed to infest this part of our State to a considerable degree. Our orphan girl, Cora Blake, who is afflicted with tuberculosis, is being tenderly cared for at the Deaconess Hospital, in Lincoln. When the weather permits and she is able to ride, she enjoys coming out to her home of so many years. Would that we could see her restored to health.

FARM, ORCHARD AND GARDEN.

Our farm of 77 acres is now all paid for, the last payment on the 37 1-2 acres having been met since our last report, and we now have a clear title to the same. We appreciate more and more the value to us of this addition to our farm. Another year, we trust, will give us better crops than we have yet had, the result of the work and fertilizing we have given it since coming into our possession.

Our fruit crop for the past year was a great decrease from recent years, for causes hard to explain. We are missing most sadly the store we have heretofore had laid by for winter use. Our only hope in this direction is that our good Rebekah Sisters will remember us as of old, and lay by a can of their fruit to be sent to the Home. The comparatively small amount we had was enjoyed in its fresh state, with the only exception of some jelly made from the currants.

RECEIPTS FROM FARM, ORCHARD AND GARDEN.

625 bushels potatoes	40 bushels pop-corn
75 bushels onions	985 dozen onion sets
110 bushels tomatoes	335 bunches pieplant
50 bushels beans	3,000 head cabbage
80 bushels beets	425 musk melons
250 bushels turnips	600 pumpkins
20 bushels carrots	200 quarts strawberries
60 bushels lettuce	50 quarts raspberries
46 bushels radishes	300 quarts currants
450 bushels oats	70 quarts gooseberries
250 bushels corn	5 bushels grapes
50 bushels sweet corn	112 loads timothy hay
80 bushels cucumbers	4 loads clover hay
44 bushels spinach	6 loads oats
5 bushels pears	157 shocks fodder

We have put in our cellar six barrels of cucumber pickles, and have sauer kraut yet to make.

MORAL AND RELIGIOUS TRAINING.

The same strict adherence to the moral training of our children continues, as in all the former years of the Home life. Our children are instructed in the broadest religious life, duty to God and love to our fellow man. All children when old enough are expected to attend church services on the Sabbath day, and as far as practicable, children are encouraged to attend the same denominational church to which their parents belonged, if any. On Sunday afternoon there is no child too young to be found present at Sunday school, where we meet in our beautiful Assembly Hall at 2:30 o'clock. A very happy method has been adopted whereby our older boys and girls have classes and become teachers of the younger. On Friday evenings, in the reception room at the Main Building, occurs the teachers' meeting, where these older boys and girls study the Sunday school lesson under the supervision of the Superintendent, Miss Shriver, and it is indeed surprising to see the excellent results of this new method. We have five teachers who come out from the city churches, whom we do not fail to remember and thank for their interest in our welfare.

OUR SCHOOL WORK.

The report of school work must of necessity be on the same line of former years. To say that we have a good school does not seem to be enough; to say that our school is not excelled by any public school in the State we feel is not too much.

The greatest good must come to the child through education, and with the energies of the Board of Directors, the Superintendent, and best of all, the teachers, looking conscientiously to this end, nothing is left undone, and the results must be satisfactory. Some change has been made in the corps of teachers since last year. Miss Mary Shriver, who had charge of the intermediate department, is now principal of the school in place of Miss Fannie Barr, resigned. Miss Elizabeth Hackman was promoted from primary to intermediate, and one of our own Home girls, whose education has all been acquired since she came to us, Miss Chlora Braden, is now teacher of the primary department. Chlora finished the High School in Lincoln with high honors, procured a certificate from the County Superintendent, and so far has proved as successful as any of our teachers.

In June last there graduated from our school five pupils, three girls and two boys. By a decision of the Board of Directors, girls whose ability justifies, and who are anxious to earn a livelihood by teaching, or some other educational resource, are permitted to remain at the Home, and are admitted into the Lincoln High School after having passed the necessary examinations. We have in the High School at this time five pupils, two of whom are in their third year. The following are High School pupils:

Minnie Echle, Beulah Haines, Arena Fitzpatrick, Ethel Bradley and Elnora Simpson.

We are pleased to have been informed that our boy graduates of last year, John Gilbert and James Anderson, are so fortunate as to have entered High School in the town where they now find a home. With five pupils in the High School and 122 in our own, there are now enrolled in school 127 pupils. In this connection, we wish to note the advantages still given to many of our girls, as pupils of piano music under the care of Miss Huldah Peters, whose work still continues most satisfactory, and whose pupils are everywhere noticeable for their excellent training.

OUR BAND.

Our Band is still doing most excellent work, under their capable instructor, Prof. Eaton, as all who hear their music will bear testimony. Their many excursions over the State, we feel, have been a great benefit to the interests of not only our Home, but the Order as well.

Their last trip was to Des Moines, to take part in the grand parade of the Sovereign Grand Lodge. The boys, together with voluntary collections, are earning all the money paid out for their expenses. All money earned by the Band is kept in a separate fund, the boys having their own bank account. Several new instruments have been bought during the past year, uniforms renewed, music bought, besides many other expenses, all of which have been met. There is now in the bank to the credit of the boys, $189.92.

INDUSTRIAL.

We are using all means in our power to implant into the lives of our boys and girls habits of industry. If any one should visit our Home in the interim of school work, they could not but notice that every child has its manual work to do, and if there is anything we try to guard against, it is the habit of listless idleness. Our facilities for teaching manual labor are limited, but we feel satisfied that our boys and girls do acquire no small amount of education in this direction, and the success of the boys and girls who have gone out from us attests this belief.

OUR BUILDINGS.

There has been no addition to the number of our buildings since our last report, and our needs in this direction are no doubt supplied for the present. Our great trouble now is the constant repairing that has become necessary, especially in the Administration Building, which has now stood the wear and tear of ten years' use.

Another expense of the coming year is a city tax that has been placed upon our property for the laying of a sewer in the street along our frontage. This tax amounts to $256.00. Considerable new fencing will also have to be done on our new addition to the farm.

PER CAPITA.

The average number of children in the Home during the past year has been about 141, and our expenditure for the support of the Home has been $19,517.03, making the cost per capita $138.17. In computing this cost we have not included the last payment on our new land, or the permanent improvements, or repairs on our buildings.

IN MEMORIAM.

Before closing our annual report, we feel that we would not be doing justice to our own feelings, or to the feelings of the entire family of the Orphans' Home, if we were not to join with the thousands of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs over this Jurisdiction in a tribute of brotherly love and respect to the memory of Grand Secretary James R.

Miller. Brother Miller's zeal and love for the Orphans' Home was very marked. Not only here, but to all who needed, his heart and hand were ever open to extend sympathy and aid, and thus he made operative the sublime truths and precepts he expounded for so many years. The children of the Home mourn Brother Miller as a near and dear counselor and friend, whose words of encouragement and advice they will never forget.

Word comes to us at this writing that our beloved Sister, Sophia Niemeyer, who is a most worthy member of our auxiliary Board, is lying very ill at her home in Chicago. We trust a divine Providence may stay the hand of Death, and that Sister Niemeyer may be longer permitted to live and do good, where her long life has been so beautiful to others, and such a credit to herself.

OUR THANKS.

Our unstinted thanks are again due to the many friends who have so nobly come to our assistance with their generous donations, and last but not least, their kinds words and deeds of encouragement. We wish it were possible to name you all, but it is not. We trust you have all learned the beautiful lesson, that "It is more blessed to give than to receive." We must especially thank The Odd Fellows' Herald and The Illinois Odd Fellow for their continued favors, without their aid we could not distribute among our membership a knowledge of our work. To the Advisory Board we return thanks for their advice, presence and influence. To Superintendent and teachers in charge of the educational and industrial work of our Home, we return most sincere thanks for their unremitting zeal and faithful labor.

Hoping that the knowledge conveyed in this report will fill the heart of every Odd Fellow and Rebekah who shall read it with a deeper love for the principles of Odd Fellowship, it is

To the Hon. John W. Yantis, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Dear Sir and Brother:—In compliance with the mandate of the Grand Lodge, we submit herewith a complete report of the trust confided to our charge, for the year ending October 31st, 1902.

To have the care and responsibility of providing for and protecting the interests and the needs of those upon whom old age has made its inroad, with its attendant afflictions of heart, mind and body, is the only way in which a person can realize and appreciate the full responsibility of the trust, and likewise the great blessing that an institution such as ours is to those with whom health and fortune have dealt unkindly.

Thousands of visitors during the year have examined the Home in all its details, and your Trustees feel encouraged and gratified at the kindly words of commendation coming from all who have had a chance to observe the character and efficiency of the institution.

We take this opportunity to commend the faithfulness, the fidelity and the efficiency of the Superintendent, the gardener, and of all of the assistants and employes in the Home. They have all, in their respective spheres, performed their labors faithfully, and in a spirit of kind consideration, and affectionate regard for old age, and a sympathy for its infirmities.

The Home never was in a more excellent and prosperous condition. Of its needs for the coming year, we will speak later on.

At the beginning of the year, the resignation of D. E. Baldwin, the former Superintendent, was accepted, and Sister Lola L. Rickard, Secretary of the Rebekah State Assembly of Illinois, was appointed and employed as Superintendent at a salary of fifty dollars per month. Her duties as Superintendent pertain to all matters relating to the management of the Home building, and the members of the Home and its business affairs.

The duties, and employment of the Gardner, Henry DeBuhr, include the work of caring for the farm, garden, the lawn, and stock, and all matters outside of the main building. Each is held responsible for the faithful performance of his or her duties and labors, and must see that all employes do their work faithfully.

Sister Rickard, with her assistants and the help of some of the members of the Home, has rendered aid to the Gardener, and has, in fact, for the greater part, cared for the flowers and the lawn around the main building. The gardener, however, is responsible for and must see that all outside of the main building is in proper condition. Each is to aid the other when practicable.

The attention of the Brotherhood is called to the financial statement of the affairs of the Home, particularly to the sub-divisions of expenses and receipts. Your Trustees and Advisory Board have profited by experience. When the Home was built, we were so very much limited in finances that all the work could not be done that ought to have been done, and from year to year, we have had to continue the making of permanent improvements, and this year improvements have been made in the finishing and furnishing of the third story. A small portion of the main building will have to be replastered, or the plaster repaired, for the reason that when the building was erected we did not have the money to pay for the best plastering. The contractors and architect figured on plastering for fifteen cents per yard, which all men of experience know is not the best. In the kitchen and dining room, the plastering will have to be repaired and the walls decorated.

We have now several members in the Home who are confined to the house or beds, because of chronic ailments and afflictions.

We have no place for the detention of a person who may be temporarily mentally distracted. During this year we have had two persons who were demented to such an extent as to require constant attention. They were not violent, but required constant watching, to prevent accident. In the case of one of these the certificate of the physician accompanying the application did not disclose her mental condition. This unfortunate woman was very weak and frail. She died on the twenty-eighth day of June, 1902. She required constant watching, otherwise she would get up and wander about in her night dress, and was unable to know where she was or what she was doing. We speak of this that Lodges may be more careful in the future, and know for themselves that the report as to the physical condition is correct, full and complete. The Trustees, shortly after opening the Home, after the first death, realized the necessity for having a permanent arrangement for the proper preparation and burial of our deceased brothers and sisters, to avoid confusion at the time of the death. Your trustees contracted with Schlicher Brothers, undertakers in Mattoon, to perform these services. The casket used is a very neat, cloth covered casket, nicely trimmed, one that would ordinarily in a small town cost about sixty dollars. Schlicher Brothers are Odd Fellows, and deeply interested in the Home. In case of death, they take charge of and prepare the body for burial, embalming it, dressing the body, furnishing the shroud and casket, conducting the funeral, furnishing the hearse, all for the sum of thirty-five dollars. This is a very low price for the excellent services we receive, and these brothers attend to and procure all of the proper certificates from the health authorities, and secure the proper burial permits, etc. In case of death, a telephone message to the undertaker, informing him of the fact, is all that is necessary. There is no confusion, and every Odd Fellow or Sister, who dies in the Home, has all the respectful attention and care that one of you could give to your own father, mother, sister or wife. Lodges notified of the death of a brother in the Home should not send an undertaker or send a casket. There have been one or two instances, when the friends have desired a more elaborate and expensive casket, and they have paid Schlicher Brothers the extra cost. Funeral services are always held in the Home, conducted by our Chaplain, and our members receive not only the burial of an Odd Fellow, but also a Christian burial, and every respect is shown to their memory.

Experience teaches us that the majority of those coming to the Home are single, and you can not give the same comforts and make them all happy by putting uncongenial natures in the same room. We can not change the nature and the character or disposition of those who come to us. We must deal with them as we find them, and it is extremely difficult to have two or more room together happily. We must remember that each of these persons who are in the Home has been master or mistress of his or her own home, many of them for forty or fifty, and some for three score years. Their habits in life are formed, and we must make them as happy as we can, and they have to learn to have consideration for others and to yield obedience to the moderate rules of discipline adopted. Originally your Trustees believed that a dormitory, where five or six could room together, would not only be economy, but productive of cheerfulness and sociability. We find that the contrary is true, and have divided the dormitory into rooms. If we were to construct the building anew, we would have a few rooms to be occupied by two persons for the married people, but each of the other rooms to be for a single individual. We believe that kindness and consideration for the little whims and notions, and regard for personal preference go far toward prolonging their days, that they may with peace and happiness look forward to that day when they shall all enter the Grand Lodge above. If the membership could only hear the words of our dying brothers and sisters before their souls depart for the great hereafter, hear them express their thanks for such a Home, and hear them ask the blessings of God Almighty upon it, you then would feel and appreciate what the institution has done and is doing for those who are enjoying its blessings.

ANNEX.

There is an urgent need for more room. Heretofore, we have spoken of this as an hospital. This is not the proper name, because it conveys the wrong impression, for most persons think of a hospital as a place for surgical operations. We need single rooms, each provided with proper ventilation to carry away the impure odors of disease and unsanitary conditions of the body. We have several persons paralyzed or otherwise so afflicted that, despite the utmost efforts on the part of the employes by the use of disinfectants, etc., the odors from their rooms permeate the house and make it disagreeable and unhealthy for the other members. Old people require more heat than young people, and the house, to make them comfortable, must be kept very warm, and ventilation by flues is a most important consideration. When our addition is built, this is to be the prime feature, namely, the ventilation in each room, then all these persons who are the most afflicted can be taken care of in the very best way possible for their good and the health of others.

Experience has taught us that by care, peaceful rest, quiet, healthful living and regular habits, our members in the Home have had their lives prolonged.

The Finance Committee of the Grand Lodge, with the Grand Lodge Officers, met at the Home in January to consider the matter of additional building. Architects were present to get the data and information necessary to make preliminary sketches. On reassembling in March, the architects submitted sketches with estimates, and at the suggestion of the Finance Committee and the Grand Lodge Officers, all agreed that it was best not to begin the building this year, for the reason that the appropriation of $4,500 heretofore made was not sufficient, and a building that could be erected with that sum of money would be inadequate, and a waste of money. It was therefore decided that all action be deferred, and the Grand Lodge be requested to make a sufficient appropriation with what is now on hand to build a suitable addition, and therefore the matter will be again before the Grand Lodge.

It is the opinion of the architects that $12,000.00 would be needed for such addition. There should be appropriated, therefore, for that purpose, in addition to what is now in the hands of the Grand Treasurer, the sum of $8,000.00. With these sums a proper building can be erected. The subject resolves itself into these questions, viz:

1st. Do we need additional room?

The answer is, we do.

It seems to be the consensus of opinion that a portion of the new building can be fitted up with a view of caring for our most afflicted members and the remainder used for ordinary living rooms.

2nd. Should this be a detached, or an attached building?

As to the first, it is argued that isolation will give better sanitation and less hazard in case of fire. That a detached building will, if of sufficient size and ornamental in character, add to the general appearance of our premises. On the other hand, it is urged that a detached building will be more costly in construction, in installing the heating and sewerage. In other words, one-fourth more room can be had for the same money in an attached building; also that it will cost much more to maintain the members in a detached building, which will be a continuing expense; that the afflicted and invalids will be lonely for lack of association and sociability, and will feel isolated.

Those opposed to an attached building say that sanitation will not be so good, that unhealthy and unpleasant odors will, in a greater or less degree, permeate the building. In case of fire it would all be burned.

On the contrary, the advocates of an attached building say that by flue ventilation all impurities can be carried away, and that by doors in the hallway these objections can be overcome; that fire doors can be installed to prevent fire from the annex reaching the main building, and vice versa.

The present heating plant will accommodate both buildings.

Our most unfortunate persons will feel they are not being put off by themselves, and will not be so lonely.

It will be much easier to care for all who are in the annex, and but little more help will be required.

An elevator can accommodate the annex and main building. The cost of maintenance will be less, and the persons in charge can, without exposure to the weather, at all hours of the day or night, visit any and all parts of the building. The sick can be moved to the sick rooms without endangering their health by exposure to the weather.

One-fourth more room can be had for the same cost in an attached building.

These questions are for the consideration and decision of the Grand Lodge.

The donations that have been received are an evidence of the lively interest of the membership in the Home, and we suggest that the Secretaries of the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges read this report aloud at two or three meetings, so that you may observe whether or not your donation and remittance have been received. If any donation or remittance sent before October 9th, 1902, the day on which we closed our business, do not appear, you will kindly notify the Secretary of the Board, giving the date of your remittance, whether by check, postoffice order or draft, with full particulars concerning the same. All remittances made after the 9th of October, 1902, will appear in the report to be made in November, 1903. Our year closed on October 9th, so that vouchers could be cashed by the Grand Treasurer, and that our accounts would balance with the accounts of the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer. Heretofore a part of the vouchers have been outstanding, which made a difference in the footings.

We take this opportunity of calling your attention to the fact that the health of all those who come to the Home improves, unless they are beyond all medical aid and nursing.

Our physicians and attendants have all rendered very efficient services. Dr. T. O. Freeman, the house physician, has been very attentive, and has given very close attention at all hours of the day or night to our people. We take this opportunity of conveying to him our appreciation and our thanks.

Dr. Fry is one of the most eminent physicians and surgeons in Central Illinois, and he has kindly, since the beginning of the Home, rendered for us great services, and always without charge. The Doctor has ever been ready with his advice and his counsel, and his presence, to help our members in the Old Folks' Home. We appreciate his generous and kindly spirit, and may he live long and prosper.

Dr. Coultas, the house oculist, has also treated our old people free of charge. His standing as a specialist is most excellent. He appreciates the Home, and knows of the generosity of the membership that prompted its building and maintenance, and we take this opportunity in behalf of the membership to thank Dr. Coultas.

Dr. A. E. Prince of Springfield is the consulting oculist for the Orphans' Home, as well as the Old Folks' Home, and while we have not had occasion to call on Dr. Prince, yet he has kindly offered his services, and said that he would come to Mattoon at any time free of charge, if we should need his services.

Dr. A. A. Bennett, veterinary surgeon, of Mattoon, has been employed to render such services as are required in the line of his profession. The Doctor has been very kind, and has always responded promptly, and his services have been quite satisfactory.

The Trustees employed Kirchgraber & Son to set out an orchard, and to care for it for two years, guaranteeing the trees. It is the purpose of the Trustees, if the same meets with your approval, to set out more orchard. Kirchgraber & Son are near neighbors to us, and in addition to their nursery stock have very beautiful green houses, and they have very kindly, from time to time, given flowers and plants to the Home. Through the long winter months they send cut flowers to the Home, and the sick rooms are made more cheerful by these generous gentlemen. Our old people appreciate these flowers, and the generous impulses that prompt these gentlemen.

THE FARM, GARDEN AND LAWN.

Upon consultation with the Finance Committee at the last Grand Lodge session, it was deemed advisable to cultivate the land ourselves instead of renting it out, as we had ample pasture for the necessary stock, and the same help, with the addition of an extra man during the cropping season, could manage and cultivate the land, as well as the garden. Three horses were purchased, and we now have three heavy work horses, and the black, all-purpose team, and all of them are used on the farm and for the delivery of garden products, and for the convenience of the Superintendent and members of the Home in making trips back and forth to town.

Farm machinery, such as we needed, was purchased.

We think that upon an examination of the financial statement, and the statement of the crops on hand, you will approve of our farming.

The financial statement of the sale of vegetables, and the vegetables furnished the Home for use will show you that the gardener has been very faithful, and that the Home farm and garden under the present management is more successful than in former years. The garden and farm and Home call forth the admiration of all who see them.

Our lawn and grove are very beautiful. The flowers and the shrubbery brighten the landscape, and the exclamations of appreciation of the thousands of visitors, who drive in and around our premises, give proof of their ornamentation, and the lives of our old people are certainly more cheerful and happy under these bright, cheerful conditions.

The gardener, his family, and his help occupy the cottage, and Mrs. DeBuhr does the housekeeping in the cottage, and cooks for the men.

She also assists her husband in the garden, and in the handling of vegetables, performing all the labors and duties faithfully. By this arrangement, the gardener and his men are together, and can have their meals at the hours that suit their work, which is earlier and later than the hour at which the members of the Home have their meals.

Your Trustees concluded that it would be a good investment to build a greenhouse. Consent was not had to do this until late last fall, and the delay in getting the heating plant for it, and other material, and cold weather prevented its completion for use before the first of March. So that we had the use of it for only a short time. However, during the months of March and April there were grown in the green house, for transplanting, the following plants: Two thousand five hundred lettuce, value, $6.00; five thousand on hundred seventy-five beets, value, $15.35; one thousand cauliflower, value, $5.00; three thousand cabbages, value, $9.00; one thousand tomatoes, value, $7.50; vegetables used from the greenhouse in the kitchen of the Home, value, $17.00; and sold for cash plants of various and different kinds, $36.00, making a revenue of $95.85 in two months. So it can be seen what can be done with the greenhouse throughout the entire winter. This greenhouse is for the purpose of growing vegetables, for transplanting and sale. The greenhouse paid a very handsome interest on the investment this year, and will pay better next year.

From January 1st to October 1st, we received three thousand one hundred sixteen gallons of milk, from five cows. We did not make butter, for the reason that our old people enjoy cream in their coffee, as well as milk to drink.

From the 1st of January to the 1st of September, we received and used in the Home some two hundred and forty dozen of eggs. We now have on hand one hundred seventy-five chickens. Our facilities for raising chickens can and will be improved.

In addition to the vegetables that were sold, we have used and still have on hands a part of three hundred bushels of potatoes, two hundred bushels of turnips, five hundred pumpkins, two tons of cow beets, seventy-five bushels of sweet potatoes, twenty bushels of pop corn, seven hundred bunches of oyster plants, twenty-five bushels of parsnips, and ten bushels of carrots. We have growing fifteen hundred asparagus plants; two hundred rhubarb plants; eighty-five grape vines; three hundred gooseberry bushes; three hundred currant bushes; five hundred raspberries; five hundred blackberries; two thousand five hundred strawberry plants; three hundred horse radish plants; ten bushels of beets; eight hundred bunches of radishes; two hundred head of lettuce; twenty bushels of onions, and ten bushels of onion sets. We have in the field about twenty-five hundred bushels of corn. We have in the granary five hundred fifty-five bushels of oats. We put up five tons of clover hay, and two tons of mixed hay; eight tons of cow peas, and three hundred shocks of corn, and seven tons of baled oats straw. We have not barn room enough to take care of the products of the farm, and can not save all that we have grown.

INVENTORY OF STOCK.

Five horses, one mule colt, seven milk cows, five heifers, three calves, five brood sows, two boars, nine hogs, and ten shoats.

WAGONS AND IMPLEMENTS.

One wagonet, one spring wagon, two farm wagons, one three-horse riding plow, one two-horse breaking plow, one one-horse plow, one three-horse hinge harrow, one riding cultivator, one double shovel cultivator, one corn planter and check rower, one mowing machine, one lawn mower, and three sets of harness, pitchforks, shovels, hoes, and other small implements and conveniences.

FRUITS PUT UP FOR USE IN THE HOME.

Eighteen quarts of strawberries, 96 quarts of rhubarb, 175 quarts of gooseberries, 18 quarts of currants, 74 quarts of raspberries, 159 quarts of apples, 301 quarts of tomatoes, 14 quarts of watermelon preserves, 26 quarts of jelly, one barrel of cauliflower pickle, one barrel of cucumber pickle, one barrel of chow chow pickle, one barrel of pickle beans, one half-barrel of sliced green tomato pickle, 10 gallons of pickled onions, 49 quarts of catsup, 56 quarts of chili sauce, and two barrels of sauer kraut.

FIRE INSURANCE.

Fire insurance and tornado policies have all been rewritten, and are now in the most approved form, covering all the property.

INSURANCE—MAIN BUILDING.

The Phoenix Assurance Company of Brooklyn, N. Y., $10,000.00, expires February 4, 1903. Continental Insurance Company of the City of New York, $2,500.00, expires July 18, 1903.

Insurance Company of North America, main building, $2,500.00, expires July 18, 1903. The American Fire Insurance Company of Philadelphia, main building, $2,500.00, expires July 18, 1903. Etna Insurance Company, Hartford, $2,500.00, expires July 18, 1903.

On cottage, household goods therein, frame barn, green house, double corn crib, out buildings, corn, hay, straw in barns or buildings, farming implements, wagons, buggies, harness, sleighs, robes, gardening tools, Phoenix Assurance Company of Brooklyn, $3,400.00, expires February 4, 1907.

Household furniture and personal property of the Grand Lodge in the main building, Phoenix Assurance Company of Brooklyn, $3,000.00, expires February 4, 1907. Scottish Union and National Assurance Company, $1,500.00 on the household personal property of the Grand Lodge in the main building, and it expires about August 14, 1904.

North British & Mercantile Assurance Company of London and Edinburgh, household and personal property of the Grand Lodge in main building, $1,500.00, expires August 15, 1904.

Phoenix Assurance Company of Brooklyn, N. Y., on wearing apparel and personal effects of the employes and members resident in the Home, stipulating the policies shall cover property of guests and servants, whether of age or not, except where they hold insurance on their own account, loss, if any, to be adjusted with and to be payable to the Trustees of said Home, they to make such distribution, and payment of such amounts paid to them under this policy to the servants, employes, members, and guests, as in their judgment shall seem right and proper; $2,000.00, expires February 4, 1907. This last policy was taken for the double purpose of reimbursing those who might lose, and the further fact that if the employes knew their small personal effects were insured they would devote their first attention to getting out the old people and invalids, and their property last. We have prepared a contract of employment, which we will ask the privilege to read at the Grand Lodge session, submitting it for your approval, covering in part this question.

The German Assurance Company of Freeport, cyclone policy, main building, $5,000.00, expires April 25, 1907. German Assurance Company of Freeport, cyclone policy, $2,200.00 on cottage, barn, crib, chicken house, hog house, carpenter shop, green house, April 25, 1907. It will be observed that the total running expenses of the farm is $1,195.13. The produce from the farm and garden so far sold amount to $1,378.64, and we have on hands feed, hay, straw, cow peas, three hundred and eight shocks of corn, two thousand five hundred bushels of corn in the field, five hundred fifty-five bushels of oats in the barn, and enough of old corn to feed us, until the new crop is ready for feed, and it will be seen that the farming of the land and the garden has been more profitable than the former management. The produce yet to be sold is estimated at $1,000.00, which will make the farm pay us a very handsome income. . During this year old accounts to the amount of $406.73 were paid that were not reported to us by the former Superintendent.

The maintenance charges proper.....	$ 8,460.25
Permanent improvements and expenditures not for use this year (only).....	3,448.16

Which makes a total$11,908.41

The average membership in the Home for the year was forty-three, at present it is forty-eight. The cost of maintaining the forty three members, and the employes, in all a family of fifty-eight, which includes the maintenance of the gardener, and the gardener's household, is $146.73 for each person. For the maintenance of the forty-three members alone, charging to them the maintenance of the employes, it amounts to $196.75 each. This includes their living, clothing, laundry, medicine, medical services, and nursing and salaries.

We submit these results to you, believing that you will agree with us that, for the excellent living, it is remarkably cheap.

SPECIAL REPORT.

The Trustees would further report that Lewis Masker made application to the Home, and in consideration of his maintenance during life he conveyed to the Grand Lodge his house and lot in Virginia, Cass County, Illinois. The title to which is held in trust, and will be sold as soon as same can be done advantageously. The property is now rented, and the rents are in the hands of the agent.

Bro. John T. Grimm of Kankakee was admitted to the Home at the rate of $400 per year, which was paid by his conservator. He has since withdrawn from the Home, and there is no need of further report.

Bro. Kent and his wife were admitted to the Home under special contract, giving to the Home $600, their maintenance to be at the rate of $1.25 per week each, and we to maintain them during their lives. Should they conclude to withdraw before the entire amount is used they should have refunded to them the unearned amount. If either dies the fund remains for the support of the other, and the survivor may withdraw and take the remainder of the unearned money.

DRAINAGE LITIGATION.

In compliance with the direction of the Grand Lodge, Brother C. F. Mansfield employed Andrews & Vause to conduct the litigation in the matter of the drainage district on the part of the Home. Brother Mansfield gave his time and attention to this litigation, and was present and in consultation before and during the trial. A favorable judgment and verdict was had, ousting the Commissioners of the Drainage District. The Commissioners have taken an appeal to the Supreme Court, and the cause has been submitted upon briefs and arguments. (Since preparing this report we are informed that the Supreme Court has affirmed the judgment of the lower court.)

There has been no disposition made of the case concerning the expenses of the maintenance of Brother Pickett in the insane asylum in Coles County, owing to the fact that a convenient day could not be fixed for the trial of the case to suit all parties. This case will be disposed of in the near future.

Your Trustees have given consent for the establishment and building of an electric railway in the highway in front and along side of the Home farm. We are in hopes that this will be completed within the next year or so. This is to be a part of a system extending over a great territory.

One of the pleasant features during the year has been the fact that thousands of people have visited the Home. There is scarcely a half day when visitors are not shown through the premises, and it would be an excellent plan if more of the Odd Fellows of the State would visit both Homes. The membership ought to see and know the institution that they own, and in concluding this report, we desire to extend our thanks and appreciation for the many kind courtesies of Grand Secretary Sikes, and we deplore the untimely death of our late lamented James R. Miller, former Grand Secretary.

To Grand Master Yantis, and the Finance Committee, we wish to express our appreciation of their lively interest taken in the welfare and management of the Home, and thank them for the encouragement and advice that they have given us.

The President of the Rebekah Assembly and her subordinate officers have given us every encouragement, and much of the success of the Home depends upon them. They have always been faithful and loyal.

We feel that the Odd Fellows of the State of Illinois, and the Daughters of the Rebekah, by their generous donations and support of the Home have done more than they know in lengthening the days, cheering the hearts, and smoothing the road traveled by our old brothers and sisters. They, each night in their evening devotions, express their appreciation of all you have done for them, and we want to bespeak for them your future kindness and protection.

If our efforts have pleased you in any degree, we are well repaid for our labors.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF GRAND SECRETARY.

To the Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

DEAR BROTHERS: On April 24th last, I was appointed by Grand Master J. W. Yantis, and installed as Grand Secretary, I. O. O. F. of the Grand Jurisdiction of Illinois to succeed our beloved Past Grand Secretary Jas. R. Miller, who was called from his labors on April 17th, 1902.

Inasmuch as a more detailed tribute to his memory will appear in the Grand Master's report I will not take time or space to do more than place on record a short estimate of him and his services to the Order.

JAS. R. MILLER.

For almost half a century he labored in the cause of Odd Fellowship with an all consuming desire to better the world and assist his fellow man. In this the great heart age of the world he was a leader. His impulses noble and generous, he dispensed charity beyond his ability preferring to err in so doing rather than withhold when deserved.

He had positive convictions and the courage to maintain them, his heart was always right, the soul of honor, an orator of unusual ability, untiring in the cause of humanity, he builded his monuments in the hearts and lives of men.

Odd Fellowship has sustained a great loss in his death, his power as a talker and writer were not confined to Illinois for he belonged to the entire Order his influence having been felt at every session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge and his writings take first place in fraternal journalism.

Few men have been more generally known and loved than he, and while he is no longer with us in person, his influence for good will never die. As a further testimonial to his great worth I here quote a poem dedicated to his memory by a friend.

IN MEMORIAM.

James R. Miller.

When the world awoke at the dawning, and the work was declared well done,
And Time's death-bell chronometer, throbbing, commenced to run,
And the plains, the seas, and the mountains, smiled back at the first glad sun,

A voice pealed in thundrous accents through nature's teeming span:
"Let us, in our own image, create, for this fabric, man,"
Man, to be king of the world. First, in creation's plan,
Over the birds, beasts, reptiles, and fishes, be despot grand,
And yet, in rugged perfection, God-like as clay can stand,
An image of one that's perfect 'though formed by the sculptor's hand.

Out from the clay of creation, from primeval mold, came a form
Glorious in all its details, in each grace that could strength adorn.
And it rose, with halo surrounded, 'neath the rays of the sixth great morn,
"Rejoice!" cried the rocks and mountains, and "Rejoice!" cried the teaming seas,
"Rejoice!" cried the woods and forests, "Receive your king on your knees!"

And the wind, from space's recesses, added her song to these.
"Glory! Glory! Glory! God has come down to show
"The majesty of His presence to all He has made below,
"That the meanest reptile crawling might the wondrous features know."

Down through the echoing eons passed this image of God divine,
Sadly declining often from the great first model of his line,
Rising and falling, as billows on old ocean's bosom of brine,
Yet never being quite so fallen as to all of God's image miss,
And at times, like the light refulgent that swept through time's vast abyss

When all that is now existing first felt of creation's kiss,
A great grand spirit has risen to show that man yet can be Even with all infirmities, close to divinity,
A light to lighten the ages throughout eternity.

God, give us the understanding Thy wisdom profound to see Who snatched from our fond heart's presence an image of God like he,
We loved his presence among us, and cherish his memory.
Look o'er Zion's battlements, brother! we weep not without strong hope,
We will bear your bones before us as with selfishness we cope.
And as rallying call of our Order, your name shall have mighty scope,
Pillar of cloud be to us as we march through the desert bare!
Pillar of fire, Oh guide us at night with thy radiance fair!
In the battle for Truth and Friendship help us to strive and dare.

Humble, gentle, and honest, upright, true and sincere,
Cheerful, buoyant, inspiring, devoid of deceit or fear,
What is there more that's God like? What does man hold more dear?
On thy bier do we place the laurel wreath made for the victor's crown,
With the passion flower of our sorrow, whose petals with tears we drown.

But our eyes, beside thy sepulchre, look upwards and never down,
Up where The Scroll of Glory bears "Miller" in letters of gold,
Up where the pearly portals thy benign blessed spirit hold,
While the tale of thy lifelong labors will be here throughout ages told.

VERE V. HUNT, M. D.

CONDITION OF THE ORDER.

During the past year our great Jurisdiction has enjoyed its full share of prosperity and with many others we can say it is the best year of all. Our achievements in numbers, finances, and the amount of benevolent work done has reached the highest mark ever attained by the Order in this state. No apologies need be made for our organization today for we are known throughout the United States as a practical benevolent organization, doing the largest work along practical lines, in visiting the sick, relieving the distressed, burying the dead and educating of the orphan of any society in existence. The one distinguishing feature of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows is its practical operation as applied to the needs of humanity. No clouds obscure the horizon of our Order and it would be speculation indeed to predict our numbers and influence a century hence.

The great heart of the world seems to be aroused in the interest of the weak and helpless, the unfortunate and unsuccessful in life's battles and in the van of this awakening Odd Fellowship stands out in bold relief as the Good Samaritan of the 20th century. Superstition and ignorance, the enmity of the church and state have given way, having been overwhelmed by object lessons in fraternity and practical benevolence, and today Odd Fellowship is welcomed in every community, its name a synonym for good deeds, the three links a badge of honor and a beacon to distress.

CONCLUSION.

Since the last session of the Grand Lodge, November 19, 1901, dispensations have been issued for 16 Subordinate and 37 Rebekah Lodges.

The net gain in membership for the past year has been 3,269 in the Subordinate and 467 in the Rebekah Lodges.

The past year has been one of marked activity and the net gain in Subordinate Lodge members is the largest since the year 1893.

The Independent Order of Odd Fellows is commanding the attention of the world as never before, and with harmony in our ranks and the fundamental principles of the Order taking deeper root in the hearts and lives of our members as the years go by, our permanency is assured.

SICK BENEFITS

In order to view the work of the Order intelligently and prepare for the future it frequently becomes necessary to resort to the law of averages and for this purpose I have compiled a table below showing the membership of the Order, the number of weeks' benefits paid, and the average number of days' sickness per member for twenty years.

It is most gratifying to note that the per cent has varied little, and from this table we draw the conclusion that the average age of the organization has not materially increased, having been kept down by a strong healthy growth. It requires no figures to prove an increase in the average age, average amount of sickness and the average amount of sick benefits to be paid were our growth to cease, but in this a most prosperous period of the Order it is difficult to anticipate any serious decrease in annual growth.

JAS. R. MILLER MONUMENT FUND.

Under date of April 24, 1902, in a letter to Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, the Grand Master issued the following statement:

"A number of the members of our Order and some of our lodges have forwarded to me contributions, looking to the erection of a suitable monument to the memory of Bro. Jas. R. Miller.

I hereby direct that the Grand Secretary shall receive, receipt for, and turn over to the Grand Treasurer all sums of money that may be contributed for this commendable purpose by the various organizations and members of our Order; and report the same to the next Grand Lodge for its action."

In compliance with the above I report that the sum of three hundred and seventy dollars and sixty cents ($370.60) has been received from all sources for this fund a detailed statement of which appears on another page of my report.

VETERAN JEWELS.

Illinois is one of the first jurisdictions in the number of Veteran and Honorable Veteran Jewels sold annually. During the past year 166 Veteran and three Honorable Veteran Jewels have been sold, proving that the value and worth of Odd Fellowship was early recognized in this State as well as indicating the pride and loyalty of our membership.

The brothers receiving the Honorable Veteran Jewels for fifty years of consecutive membership were Samuel Willard, Leopold Mayer and Bro. Geo. Schaffer.

TRUSTEES OF THE ORPHANS' AND OLD FOLKS' HOMES.

All bills allowed by the two Boards of Trustees are forwarded to me with an attached certificate signed by the President and Secretary of the Board and countersigned by the Grand Master. These bills and vouchers are kept on file in my office for future reference, and orders on the Grand Treasurer are drawn for the several amounts. Upon these vouchers the Grand Master and myself have drawn orders on the Grand Treasurer for the sum of $11,845.91 to pay bills contracted by the Trustees of the Old Folks' Home, and the sum of $23,947.18 to pay bills contracted by the Trustees of the Orphans' Home, making a total disbursement for these two charities of the sum of $35,793.09.

JUDICIARY AND APPEALS COMMITTEE.

As Secretary of the Judiciary and Appeals Committee, I report that four sessions of this committee were held, as provided by law, on the third Tuesdays of November, 1901, February, May and August of the present year. At the November session eight opinions were rendered and the by-laws from forty-two Subordinate and eight Rebekah Lodges were acted upon. At the February session eight opinions were rendered and the by-laws from thirty-eight Subordinates and eight Rebekah Lodges were acted upon. At the May session eight opinions were rendered and the by-laws from thirty-six Subordinate and eighteen Rebekah Lodges were acted upon. At the August session two opinions were rendered and the by-laws from thirty-six Subordinate and fifteen Rebekah Lodges acted upon—making a total of twenty-six opinions rendered and 201 codes of by-laws acted upon.

GRAND LODGE JOURNAL OF 1901.

The Grand Lodge Journal for the session of 1901 consisted of 551 pages, being 114 pages larger than the Journal of the previous year.

To arrange copy, read proof and index the Grand Lodge Journal requires the entire time of a thoroughly competent person, whom we have for several years secured in the person of Bro. Past Grand Secretary N. C. Nason. As has been the rule of this office for many years, the Journal was delivered to all Subordinate Lodges and Representatives in a little more than thirty days after adjournment.

SOVEREIGN GRAND JOURNALS.

I received barely enough journals of the Sovereign Grand Lodge to supply our Subordinate Lodges. Formerly a large number of extra journals were received to supply the individual demand for these journals which supply has been discontinued and hence it has been necessary to deny many requests. It would seem that each Grand Jurisdiction should be allowed a reasonable number in excess of the number required to supply our Lodges.

GRAND SECRETARY'S OFFICE.

Under instructions from the Grand Lodge the present quarters occupied by the Grand Secretary were leased on December 26, 1896, for a term of five years beginning on the first day of March, 1897, and ending on the last day of February, 1902, at a rental of $600.00 per year.

Attention was called to the fact that this lease would expire on the date above named at the last session of the Grand Lodge, but no instructions were given. Grand Secretary Jas. R. Miller was informed that the Odd Fellows' Building Co. was not willing to renew this lease on the same terms having made a very low rate in the first instance to fill the building quickly, it having just been completed. An agreement was reached whereby the offices remained at the same rental until the present session of the Grand Lodge, when a rental of $720.00 per year or ten dollars per month in advance of the original terms would be asked. The argument of the Building Co. is that the rate was too low in the first instance, that this part of the building is not paying its proportion, and that the building is not paying dividends on the investment.

The present quarters are the most commodious, convenient and pleasant ever occupied by the Grand Secretary. I recommend that the matter of securing quarters for the Grand Secretary be referred to the incoming Grand Master, Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary.

MEMORIALS.

Pursuant to instructions by the Grand Lodge found on pages 283-284 of the Journal of 1901, I had engrossed the resolutions passed upon the death of Bros. David D. Hatfield, P. G. R., A. T. Sherman, P. D. G. M., Jacob Krohn, P. G. P. and P. G. R., and President William McKinley, and forwarded them as directed; in each case receiving an acknowledgment together with an expression of appreciation. I also had one engrossed copy of the resolutions upon the death of President McKinley suitably framed and hung in Memorial Hall in the State House.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The following amendments to the Grand Lodge Constitution were laid over under the rules for consideration and action at the present session.

Document No. 84.

Resolved, That Section 14, Article IV, Constitution of the Grand Lodge, be stricken out entirely, and the following new section inserted in place thereof:

"The Grand Secretary and the Grand Treasurer shall each, before entering upon the duties of his office, give bond with a surety company in such sum as the Grand Lodge may determine, to be approved by the Grand Lodge, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties and for the delivery of all moneys, papers, books, records and other property appertaining to his office, whole, safe and undefaced, to his successor in office."

Document No. 45.

Resolved, That Section 8 of Article VI of the Grand Lodge Constitution be amended by substituting the word "the" for the word "both," and by striking out the words "and German," all in the seventh line of said section, as found in the Book of Constitutions for Illinois, 1896, so that the same, when so amended, shall read as follows:

"The Committee on Printing shall superintend all printing, and shall purchase all stationery and blanks not supplied by the Sovereign Grand Lodge. They shall advertise for bids for printing the Reports of the Grand Officers, the Proceedings of the Annual Sessions of this Grand Lodge in the English language, and such other printing as may be required by the Grand Officers, awarding the contract for such work to the lowest responsible bidder, and reporting the original list of said bidders, with the prices that they had offered to perform the work for, to the next session of the Grand Lodge. They shall sign all bills for which they may have awarded contracts, as being correct, and forward the same to the Committee on Finance for their approval; and no warrant or warrants shall be drawn by the Grand Secretary for the payment of any printing bill until the same has been approved by a majority of the Committee on Finance."

Document No. 54.

Resolved, That Section 10 of Article VI of the Constitution of this Grand Lodge be and is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"The Committee on Mileage and Per Diem shall report the number of miles necessarily traveled, by the shortest-traveled route, by each Grand Officer and Representative, the number of days attendance of same, and the amount due to each. The committee shall make its estimate by allowing five cents mileage one way and $3.00 per diem."

APPEAL TO SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE.

At the Session of the Grand Lodge of Illinois 1901 permission was asked and granted to appeal to the Sovereign Grand Lodge from the action of the Grand Lodge of this jurisdiction in two cases, one of which only was perfected. Below is the action of the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

OFFICE OF THE GRAND SECRETARY,
BALTIMORE, MD., Oct. 22, 1902.

To the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. of Illinois:

At the session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, held in Des Moines, Iowa, Sept. 15th to 20th, 1902, the following report from the Committee on Appeals was considered and adopted.

Yours fraternally,

J. FRANK GRANT, Grand Secretary.

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on Appeals to whom was referred the appeal of John Blakeley and James Combe from the action of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, would respectfully submit for your consideration the conclusions reached by us as shown by the following report, to-wit:

That the members of this Grand Body may be fully advised we make the following STATEMENT OF FACTS.

It appears from the records that prior to August, 1898, Bro. John Blakeley, a member of the above named defendant Lodge, had some difficulty with Bro. M. Madison, also a member of said defendant Lodge.

The origin of the difficulty grew out of trouble in regard to the daughter of Bro. Blakeley, who was a pupil in the school in which Bro. Madison was a teacher, or of which he was superintendent.

That in August Bro. Blakeley made complaint to the Lodge against Bro. M. Madison, which resulted in charges against him, accusing him of encouraging his son, Will, in killing a dog belonging to Bro. Blakeley, and of appropriating the collar of the dog, which was the property of Bro. Blakeley, and for using base insinuations against the honesty of Bro. Blakeley.

As provided by the laws of the Order of Illinois, Bro. H. D. Gladding was appointed as commissioner to take the evidence in the above mentioned case. Bros. John Blakeley, J. K. Thompson and James Combe were summoned to appear before said commissioner as witnesses and testify in said case. Bros. Thompson and Combe failed to appear and testify before said commissioner in obedience to said summons. That Bro. Blakeley appeared in obedience to said summons, and testified in chief and the cross-examination was commenced, but before the completion of said cross-examination Bro. Blakeley refused to answer further and left the room.

On September 1, 1898, Bro. H. D. Gladding, the above named commissioner, filed a complaint against Bros. John Blakeley, James Combe and J. K. Thompson, which resulted in charges, accusing each of the above named brothers of contempt, in that they were summoned to testify in the case of J. B. Turner Lodge vs. Bro. M. Madison; that Bro. John Blakeley appeared, but refused to finish his testimony, and Bros. Combe and Thompson did not appear.

On September 15, Bros. Blakeley, James Combe and J. K. Thompson, each separately, plead guilty to the foregoing charges. Thereupon the Noble Grand ordered the ballot prepared for expulsion. Bro. Thompson was declared expelled by the Noble Grand. Then the Noble Grand ordered another ballot. "Motion made and seconded that the brothers present consider the ballot on said brother out of order and said balloting be postponed for one week. Motion carried."

There was before us the amended minutes of the above meeting the only effect of which was to show that the Noble Grand was intoxicated; that the business was conducted in the midst of great confusion.

At the meeting of the Lodge on September 22, 1898, "A motion was made and carried that the Noble Grand be instructed to pronounce expulsion on Bros. Thompson, Blakeley and Combe."

The corrected minutes of the above meeting are much fuller than the original, and that the motion above set out was voted on by the voting sign of the Order.

Bros. John Blakeley and James Combe appeal and assign seventeen grounds therefor, but from the view we take of the case it will be necessary to consider only three or four of said grounds.

Said appeal was considered by the Judiciary and Appeals Committee of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, at its February session, 1900, when said committee rendered their opinion recommending that the appeal be sustained and the action of the Lodge be set aside and the brothers be reinstated to full membership in the Order. From which decision J. B. Turner Lodge duly prosecuted an appeal to the Grand Lodge of Illinois at its November session, 1900, which Grand Body granted the request of said Judiciary and Appeals Committee, and of said J. B. Turner Lodge to withdraw the foregoing decision of said committee and said cause was again considered by said Judiciary and Appeals Committee at its August session, 1900, when said committee rendered its decision which, after reciting the facts of its former consideration of the case and the decision arrived at, and the withdrawal of the same, is as follows:

"Your committee has carefully considered the evidence and arguments and sees no reason to change the opinion at first declared.

"A somewhat heated and acrimonious contest seems to have been waged between members of the Lodge resulting from the death of a dog, and also from the division of sentiment at a school election, which ended in the presentation of charges of contempt against the defendants in that they refused to answer questions upon a matter being tried by the Lodge. It appears that Bro. Blakeley attended the hearing and submitted to examination for the period of fourteen hours, when, after repeated protests, that questions relating to the school election and to some other matters had nothing to do with the controversy, a decision in which your committee quite agrees, he together with Bro. Combe, withdrew and refused to be interrogated or to answer further.

"Your committee is of the opinion that they were entirely justified in their action so far as the records show, and that Bro. Blakeley would have been justified in refusing to answer long before he so decided.

"It is possible, of course, that cases may arise in which a prosecution might legally require attendance for a longer period of time, but this record shows no such necessity, and the law does not contemplate that a witness shall be subjected hour after hour to the in-fiction of asking useless and immaterial questions, apparently with no other purpose than that of testing the patience, disposition for amiability and physical endurance of the witness.

"The only other question presented is that the defendants entered a plea of guilty, which it is claimed precludes them from making defense or of testing the decision of the Lodge. The plea, however, was entered literally to the fact as charged, that after fourteen long hours of patient submission the defendants refused to remain longer.

"Following the precedent established in the case of E. J. Dunlap vs. Bushnell Lodge, No. 322, reported in the Journal of the Grand Lodge session of October 10, 1876, your committee sets aside the pleas of guilty and the action of the Lodge in expelling them, and directs the Lodge to reinstate both of the brothers.

"The differences between the members of the Lodge seem to have resulted from political affiliation and actions, and the sooner they abandon so untenable opposition the better it will be for the Order.

"Your committee, therefore, affirms its prior action and sustains the appeals of the brothers; sets aside the action of the Lodge and reinstates the brothers to full membership in the Order."

Signed by the Committee.

From the foregoing decision of the Judiciary and Appeals Committee J. B. Turner Lodge duly prosecuted its appeal to the Grand Lodge of Illinois at its November session, 1901. Upon the hearing before said Grand Lodge, after arguments on both sides, a vote was taken with the result that the Judiciary and Appeals Committee was not sustained and on motion the decision of said committee reversed, and the appeal of J. B. Turner Lodge was sustained.

Said Grand Lodge of Illinois granted leave to John Blakeley and James Combe to appeal to the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

We have set forth the facts thus fully that the Representatives of this Grand Body may see why we and the Grand Lodge of Illinois arrive at a different conclusion than that reached by the Judiciary and Appeal Committee of said Grand Lodge.

It might be well to state in this connection that the records show that the evidence of John Blakeley was not all taken in one day before the commissioner, but there were adjournments from day to day, occupying a part of four days. Ordinarily the evidence before us should have been taken in two or three hours. We can account for so much time being occupied only upon the grounds that the party reducing the same to writing was far from being an expert, or that there was not diligence in taking the evidence.

Section 23 of Article VII of the Constitution for Subordinate Lodges in Illinois is as follows:

"Sec. 23. If any member of the Order who shall have been duly notified to appear and give evidence shall fail to appear as notified, or, appearing, shall refuse to answer questions as a witness, he shall be deemed guilty of contempt, and the Lodge may proceed to expel said member for contempt."

It will be observed that the penalty for the violation of the above section is definitely fixed by law.

Section 12 of said article is as follows:

"Sec. 12. When a definite penalty is fixed by law for any offense a brother convicted thereof is sentenced without further vote; if alternatives are fixed, the Lodge chooses one of them by vote."

The above quoted section is authorized by section 1690 of White's Digest of 1895.

It is our judgment that, under the foregoing quoted sections, when the brothers entered their pleas of guilty it became the duty of the Noble Grand, without further action of the Lodge, to pronounce the sentence of expulsion against said brothers. It, therefore, follows that the subsequent actions of the Lodge were of no force or effect and were without prejudice to appellants.

If appellants thought they were justified in their actions they should have plead justification as a matter of defense under a plea of "not guilty."

Where the penalty, as in this case, is definitely fixed by law, it is a waste of time to show mitigating circumstances.

This difficulty should, in our judgment, have been settled amicably by the interested parties without drawing their brother Odd Fellows into their personal differences, but after a careful consideration of the matters involved in this appeal, your committee does hereby recommend that the appeals of John Blakeley and James Combe be dismissed, and that the action of the Grand Lodge of Illinois and of J. B. Turner Lodge be sustained.

Signed by the Committee.

COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY AND APPEALS, I. O. O. F.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE FIRST SESSION.

February 18, 1902.

Case No. 282.

S. F. Schecter et al.

vs.

Danville Lodge No. 69, I.O.O.F..

{ Before Committee on Judiciary and
Appeals, February Session, 1902.

Opinion by Bro. Alfred Orendorff, of No. 465.

This is an appeal by Bros. S. F. Schecter, C. Beckwith and R. E.

Lloyd, from the action of Danville Lodge No. 69, in refusing to pay the claim of Bro. James S. Skinner for sick benefits.

The only material question involved is whether the brother was at the time of his injury a beneficiary member.

The By-Laws of this Lodge passed in pursuance of power conferred by the Constitution for Subordinate Lodges provide that "Any Brother suffering himself to become in arrears for dues accruing during a period of more than thirteen weeks, shall cease to be a beneficiary member, and shall not again become beneficiary until the expiration of thirteen weeks from the date of his payment in full of all arrears for dues, fines and assessments charged to his account."

Brother Skinner at the time of his injury held an unexpired Traveling Card, showing that his dues had been paid to January 1, 1901, but at the time of the injury and subsequent to the issuing of the Traveling Card, assessments for funeral benefits and for a nurse fund, both of which were authorized by the By-Laws, and were charged against him, had accrued, and for which he was in arrears for more than thirteen weeks.

He was therefore at the time of the injury non-beneficiary.

The same question as is presented was decided in the case of Coperwait vs. Lake City Lodge No. 450, found in the Proceedings of Grand Lodge of Illinois, 1896, page 121, in which a funeral assessment was treated as dues, and notwithstanding he had no notice of the funeral assessments, the brother was held to be non-beneficiary.

The case quoted is much stronger than the one before us, for Bro. Skinner was a resident of Danville, and the presumption is that he knew the provisions of the By-Laws of his Lodge and took notice of the death of its members.

The Lodge seems to have acted in good faith. It generously donated Brother Skinner the sum of thirty dollars, and he while being the one most interested, does not join in the appeal.

In our view of the case the appeal is without merits, and is therefore dismissed and the action of the Lodge is sustained.

Case No. 285.

Jas. K. Chalmers et al.	}	Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, February Session, 1902.
vs.
Adelphi Lodge No. 8, I.O.O.F.

Opinion by Bro. Henry A. Stone, of No. 122.

This case is sent to this committee in the form of an appeal, from Jas. K. Chalmers et al. vs. the Legality of a By-Law of Adelphi Lodge

No. 8, when it can be in fact only the asking of this committee the legality of such By-Law, which is as follows:

"Article 4, Sec. 3—Upon the death of a member of this Lodge, an assessment of $1.00 shall be levied by the Financial Secretary upon all members of the Lodge, payable immediately.

"Members attending the funeral shall be credited with $1.00 on their account."

The alleged appeal or query applies to the last clause.

"Members attending the funeral shall be credited with $1.00 on their account," and assigns the following grounds of such appeal or query:

"1. That members attending a funeral cannot be legally credited with one dollar, or any amount, on their account, for attending a funeral.

"2d. That the laws and principles of our Order do not contemplate the payment of a premium for attending the funeral of a brother.

"3d. That the last part of Section 3, Article 4, of the By-Laws of Adelphi Lodge No. 8, I.O.O.F., is unconstitutional, and cannot and should not be enforced."

This committee receives this communication, not as an appeal, but as a query propounded, asking a decision as to the constitutionality of the last clause of said By-Law. In answering this query, we unhesitatingly approve the three grounds assigned in the query and say that the last clause of Section 3, Article 4, is unconstitutional and void.

Case No. 289.

W. E. LeSourd

vs.

Mason City Lodge No 337.

} Before Committee on Judiciary and
Appeals, February Session, 1902.

Opinion by Bro. Henry Phillips, of No. 16.

This is a case in which we fail to find from the records of the Lodge before us, any evidence of any steps having been taken previous to the report of the Investigating Committee being made to the lodge; and we find no evidence from the records that any of the preliminary steps necessary to be taken previous to the actual trial, were taken, and had the question been raised in a manner to have brought the same to our notice, we would have been compelled to have said that we remanded the case. But upon examination of the records of the trial, we find that Brother LeSourd was present, and it seems that whatever imperfections or omissions might have been made previous to the time of the trial, were waived by him, and he, without any protest or objections, placed himself within the jurisdiction of the lodge and entered upon his trial. Because of this, we consider whatever rights he might have had up to this time were waived by him.

The specifications are very clear, and cannot be misunderstood, but on account of the foulness of the language which Brother LeSourd is charged with having used, we will not here repeat it. It is clearly evident that he knew what the charges were, and we feel satisfied that they were true, because he entered his plea of guilty, practically to all of them, and asked forgiveness for same.

Upon a vote being taken, the Lodge expelled him, and we are asked to reverse such findings, for the reason first, that it is claimed, that a member of the Lodge after the plea of guilty was entered, was permitted to wrongfully arouse enmity against the defendant, for the purpose of influencing votes, and that another member of the Lodge in attempting to speak in behalf of the defendant was not permitted to do so by the Noble Grand. Second, for the reason that certain members when they attempted to vote, did not see or were not permitted to have balls or ballots to vote with. Upon a careful examination of all the records and papers before us, we do not find any ground upon which such objections can be fairly said to stand.

The language charged is of such a character that we feel the Lodge could not do otherwise and have respect for itself, than to expel from the Order, any person who permitted himself to use such language toward a member of the Lodge or against the Lodge, or in the presence of any other person.

It is our judgment, therefore, that the action of the Lodge be sustained and the appeal be and is hereby dismissed.

Case No. 290.

R. G. Laycock,
vs.

Hopedale Lodge No. 865, I.O.O.F.

} Before Committee on Judiciary and
Appeals, February Session, 1902.

Opinion by Bro. Henry Phillips, of No. 16.

Complaint was presented against Bro. R. G. Laycock in his Lodge. A committee was appointed to investigate, and the committee presented charges in proper form at a regular meeting of the Lodge, Sept. 30, 1901.

Accused was furnished with a copy Oct. 1, 1901, and on the same day he was duly cited to appear before his Lodge at its regular meeting, Oct. 14, 1901, to plead to said charges.

It appears from the record that the accused did not appear in obedience to said citation Oct. 12, 1901.

A motion was made to continue the case until the next regular meeting, Oct. 21, 1901, but before the vote was taken this motion was withdrawn.

Accused having been called to plead to said charges and failing to answer, and no one appearing in his behalf, a motion was made that he be expelled for contempt, "unless reasonable excuse be brought forward," and there being no excuse offered, the ballot was spread, and the motion being thereby sustained, the Noble Grand declared the accused expelled from the Order for contempt.

The accused appealed from this action of the Lodge, and assigned the following grounds:

"1. The action of expulsion by the Lodge of Appellant was unjust, hasty and uncalled for, since the Secretary was assured by me that I would obey the summons on my return, he promising me that no action would be taken in my absence, and moreover the charges preferred against me, and pending investigation were untrue.

"2. The action of the Lodge lacks evidence of that impartiality which should characterize the action of a Lodge of Odd Fellows. Since the Lodge, which in my case, acted with such unbecoming haste had permitted unlimited latitude to other members as to time and inclination, when summoned by the Lodge or its committees to appear before them, to such a degree in two instances, that witnesses refused to comply and in another case, the witness appeared when he saw fit after delaying the investigation for many weeks."

Upon the filing of this notice of appeal the Recording Secretary filed with the Lodge, under seal of the Lodge, a certificate regarding said notice of appeal to the effect that the statement which he made to the accused was not that the Lodge would take no action in his absence, but that in case the accused could not be present the Digest made provision for the continuance of his case.

We are not prepared to hold that this certificate is competent evidence of what the Recording Secretary stated to the accused, nor are we prepared to hold that the Lodge was bound by any statement which the Recording Secretary made. However, in the view we take of the case, it is not material what took place between the Recording Secretary and the accused regarding this matter.

Thornton's Code, Section 2161, provides "If any accused member shall evade the receiving of a citation, or having received the same, shall neglect or refuse to attend the Lodge at the time therein fixed and there remain throughout the investigation or trial of the case, the Lodge may proceed in such absence, to expel such accused member for contempt."

It is clear, by this provision of the Code, that the Lodge had the right to expel the accused for contempt, because of his failure to appear in obedience to the citation to plead to the charges.

Thornton's Code further provides, Sec. 2162: "At all stages of the proceedings the accused shall have all opportunity of vindication, and in case of suspension or expulsion, following the constructive citation provided for in Section 2152, supra of this Article, or in case of alleged contempt, the accused shall be entitled to a new trial at any time within six months, if it be shown that the absence was produced by unavoidable circumstances, or that injustice was done."

The accused intending to rely upon a sufficient excuse for his failure to appear in obedience to the citation and plead to the charges, should have applied to the Lodge for a new trial, under the provisions of the section of the Code last above cited, and upon that application evidence could have been taken, showing the reason for the failure of the accused to appear in obedience to the citation.

Instead of pursuing this course, the accused saw fit to appeal in the first instance, from the action of the Lodge to this committee, and the result is that there is before this committee absolutely no evidence whatever showing that the accused had a sufficient reason for failing to appear before the Lodge in obedience to the citation.

It will not do to establish a rule, which will permit accused brothers to appear or not appear in obedience to citation, as may suit their convenience.

In case of the brother failing to appear in obedience to the citation, the burden is upon him to show that he had sufficient reason for such failure, and such showing should be made in connection with an application made in the first instance to the Lodge for a new trial.

Upon the authority of the case of Powhan Lodge No. 29 vs. Bro. George Niver, decided by this committee at its August Session, 1901, and upon appeal sustained by the Grand Lodge at its session of 1901, the appeal in this case must be dismissed and the sentence of expulsion for contempt sustained.

Case No. 292.

J. O. Hawker et al.
vs.
Purity Lodge No. 81.

} Before Committee on Judiciary and
} Appeals. February Session, 1902.

Opinion by Bro. Henry A. Stone, of No. 122.

This is an appeal from the action of Purity Rebekah Lodge No. 81, of Pana, Ill., in granting a resignation of membership certificate to Sister Maud Secrest, a member of said Lodge on Oct. 24, 1901. The alleged grounds for appeal being that there were charges preferred against Sister Maud Secrest on Oct. 12; that on the 24th day of October, 1901, the charges were withdrawn on vote of Lodge for correction of specifications according to Sec. 1876 and 1877 of the Code. That immediately after the charges were withdrawn, Sister Maud Secrest tendered to the Lodge her resignation of membership, which on vote of Lodge was accepted and a certificate of resignation was granted by the Lodge before amended charges could be preferred, and that the granting of the Dismissal Certificate was illegal.

Your committee find from the evidence before us that there were charges preferred against Sister Maud Secrest, but no evidence of a complaint was ever made in legal form from which charges should be made, but even though such charges had been made according to law. Whenever the Lodge withdrew the charges for any purpose, the Sister was in exactly the same position as she was prior to such filing of charges. Therefore her resignation of membership was legal and the Lodge could not refuse to grant a dismissal certificate. The Lodge did grant a resignation of membership certificate, stating the Sister was in good standing at the time and free from all charges. This certificate was presented to another Rebekah Lodge for membership. The Sister was elected and is now a member of such Lodge.

There is no evidence before this committee showing any illegal act in the granting of this resignation of membership certificate.

Your committee, therefore, is of the opinion that Purity Rebekah Lodge was justified in its action of granting the certificate.

Appeal dismissed and action of Lodge sustained.

Geo. M. Brubaker

vs.

Oblong Lodge No. 850, I.O.O.F.

{ Before Committee on Judiciary and
Appeals, February Session, 1902.

Opinion by Bro. Alfred Orendorff, of No. 465.

This is a claim for sick benefits.

Brother Brubaker was injured by falling from a mow in a barn.

The Lodge paid him four weeks benefits. He asked for seven weeks additional benefits, which the Lodge, after investigation, refused to pay, and from this action of the Lodge, the brother appeals.

The evidence shows that for about one week after the time for which the benefits had been paid, the brother could not follow his usual avocation of a carpenter, but at the end of that time he was able to work, and did do considerable work and superintended the work of others.

Under all the circumstances this committee believes justice will be done by sustaining the appeal, to the extent of one week's benefits, and it therefore orders that Oblong Lodge pay Bro. Brubaker one week's benefits.

Geo. Cochen et al.
vs.
Fidelity Lodge No. 576.

{ Before Committee on Judiciary and
Appeals, February Session, 1902.

Opinion by Bro. Henry A. Stone, of No. 122.

This is an appeal from the action of Fidelity Lodge No. 576 in expelling F. M. Horn, a member of said Lodge.

The charges are "for defrauding brothers and conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow."

Specification—"That on Oct. 1, 1900, at the City of Windsor, Ill., he bought stock and refused to pay for same.

"Parties from whom the stock was bought are (here naming seven parties). The total sum of $175.00, for which he has refused to pay."

On the above Charge and Specification the Lodge proceeded with the trial in due form, and on the 18th day of December, 1901, the Charge and Specification were sustained by the Lodge on a vote of 23 to 4. Then on vote of Lodge the accused was expelled from the Order on a vote of 23 to 4.

From this decision appeal is taken.

The law of our Order is so plain on the question of the collection of debts, that it seems a waste of words to comment upon it.

In this case no Specification of fraud is alleged, it was as far as shown by the Specification and proofs, simply a case of getting into debt and failing to meet his obligations.

The Lodge has no jurisdiction, and our laws absolutely forbid it.

There can be no other decision on this case than an order sustaining the appeal, and reversing the action of the Lodge. Directing the Lodge to restore Brother F. M. Horn to membership without prejudice.

} Before Committee on Judiciary and
 Appeals, February Session, 1902.

Opinion by Bro. Henry Phillips, of No. 16.

This is an appeal taken by Bro. Smith from the action of his Lodge in expelling him from the Order.

Charges were brought against Bro. Smith for dishonesty and for defrauding the Lodge.

We have read the evidence and find nothing in the same to sustain a charge of defrauding his Lodge.

The remaining part of the evidence clearly shows an attempt to use the Order as a collecting agency. Under our laws this cannot be done.

No fraud is charged and none shown by the evidence to have been attempted in contracting the indebtedness. The whole case falls to the ground so far as the facts appear in this record.

The appeal is sustained, the action of the Lodge is reversed, the order of expulsion set aside and for nothing held, and the Lodge ordered to reinstate Bro. Smith as a member of the Lodge.

Case No. 284.

James T. Hightower
vs.
Hancock Lodge No. 71, I.O.O.F. } Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, May Session, 1902.

Opinion by Bro. Duncan McDougall, No. 41.

The accused was initiated into Hancock Lodge No. 71, Jan. 23, 1893. Charges and specifications based upon alleged "misrepresentation and deception as to the state of his health and physical condition at time of his admission, January 23, 1893," were presented to and received by the Lodge, February 25, 1901. Charges were read in open Lodge March 11, 1901, and in compliance with request from accused, counsel was appointed for him, he being then and for several years prior thereto resident at St. Joseph, Missouri. A plea of not guilty was entered, and a commissioner was appointed and regularly obligated. April 1, 1901, the case having been continued on motion of counsel for accused, the case came on for trial. The accused was found guilty and expelled. From the sentence of conviction and expulsion this appeal was taken by the accused. The charges and specifications were based not upon an ordinary complaint or information, but upon a report by a committee to whom had been referred the claim of the accused for sick benefits. This fact does not appear from the certified copy of the record, which is evidently incomplete, but from the correspondence between Grand Master J. R. Kewley, the Lodge, and George E. Acklin, Secretary General Relief Committee of six Lodges, located at St. Joseph, Missouri, the said correspondence being filed with the case.

OPINION.

There is some doubt about the regularity of these charges. The record certified is at least incomplete in failing to show the "complaint filed in open Lodge," February 18, 1901, but for the purpose of this appeal, we assume the charges to have been regularly preferred and the record to be complete. It is not necessary to a proper understanding of this case that we should give in detail the specifications. They all relate to the alleged fact that the accused wronged the Lodge and its members in acquiring membership by misrepresentation and deception as to the state of his health and physical condition at the time of his admission, January 23, 1893. All of the evidence offered on behalf of the accused was rejected by the Commissioner, and the ruling of the Commissioner in this regard was sustained by the Noble Grand. This ruling of the Commissioner and the Noble Grand we think was correct, for the reason that it nowhere appears from the record that the Lodge had notice of the taking of the testimony offered on behalf of the accused. In support of the charges the testimony of quite a number of witnesses was taken and read upon the trial. The record fails to show that either the accused or his counsel had notice of the time or place of taking any of the testimony against the accused, nor does the record show that either the accused or his counsel were present at the taking of the testimony against him. Notice of the time and place of the taking of the testimony against the accused should have been given, so that the accused, either in person or by counsel, might have appeared and objected and cross-examined. In all modern systems of jurisprudence, cross-examination is regarded as one of the greatest tests of truth.

Bro. W. M. P. Baich, a witness called for the prosecution, testified:

Q. Did you ever know him to neglect his family? A. I knew him at several times to neglect his family.

Q. Are you a member of other secret organizations? A. Yes, Knights of Pythias.

Q. Would you consider Bro. Hightower's physical condition in 1893 such as to admit him to the order of Knights of Pythias? A. I do not.

Q. Do you think that his conduct since he has become an Odd Fellow has been such that this Lodge should show him mercy or leniency in this trial? A. No, I do not.

The foregoing testimony was held competent by the Commissioner and the ruling of the Commissioner in this regard was sustained by the Noble Grand.

P. G. Riley, a witness for the prosecution, was asked:

Q. Was he a good provider for his family? A. No.

Q. You, as a member of secret societies, would you consider Mr. James Hightower as a desirable member? A. I would not.

The Commissioner held this testimony competent, and his ruling was sustained over the specific objection of the defendant as to the last question and answer.

Charles Perce, also a witness for the prosecution, testified:

Q. Was he a good provider for his family? A. Not good to my knowledge; his wife frequently complained.

Q. You, as a member of other secret societies, would you consider Mr. Hightower as a desirable member? A. No, I would not.

This testimony was sustained by the Commissioner and his ruling was sustained by the Noble Grand, notwithstanding the specific objection of the accused to the last question and answer.

Bro. John W. Grant also testified for the prosecution:

Q. Do you think that Bro. Hightower's conduct since admission to this Lodge has been creditable to the Order or this Lodge? A. I do not.

Frank Harold testified that there had been a previous movement to investigate the matter of the accused's admission to the Lodge, and that it had been dropped by reason of the accused's removal.

Bro. Joseph Huston testified:

Q. If, at that time (referring to the time of the accused's initiation), you had been a member of this Lodge, would your vote have been favorable to his admission? A. No, it would not at that time, as I believed Odd Fellowship was made up of better material.

Q. Is he (referring to the accused) a member of the Court of Honor?

A. No, and never could be.

Q. Would his moral character have admitted him to the Court of Honor?

A. No, it would not.

Q. Would his physical condition have permitted him to enter the Court of Honor? A. I am satisfied that it would not.

Q. Subsequent to his admission, was his moral and physical condition such as to make him admissible to Odd Fellowship? A. No, it was not.

Q. Do you think his conduct since admission to Odd Fellowship has been such that he ought to receive our mercy and benefits, as also our favorable consideration of these charges? A. No, I think his conduct has not been such as to deserve such proceedings, as very recently, about two years ago, his wife had to leave him to make a living.

All of this testimony was sustained by the Commissioner and his ruling was sustained by the Noble Grand, notwithstanding the specific objection of the defendant to so much thereof as related to whether the witness, if he had been a member of the Lodge at the time the accused was initiated, would have voted to admit him. None of the testimony quoted was competent. Specific objection was made to most, although not all of it. Much other incompetent testimony appears in the record, but it was not specifically objected to. There is much more competent evidence supporting the charges and specifications.

For the reason that the record fails to show notice, to either the accused or his counsel, of the taking of the testimony, and for the reason that there is much incompetent evidence in the record, admitted over objection, the appeal will have to be sustained and the finding of guilty, and sentence of expulsion set aside, and the only question to be considered is whether the case ought to be ordered dismissed, or sent back for re-trial.

The accused was initiated January 23, 1893. Charges were reported to the Lodge February 25, 1901, a little more than eight years after initiation. The only charge presented is based upon alleged misrepresentation and deception as to the state of the health of the accused at the time of his admission. The evidence if true, discloses that the matter complained of was known by many members of the Lodge at the time of the initiation, and by many others very soon after. The Lodge several times paid the accused sick benefits, after most of the members, if the evidence offered for the prosecution is true, had knowledge of the matter in controversy.

Sick benefits had been paid just preceding the preferring of charges, and the charge followed an application for the payment of further sick benefits. Under our Code, we have no specific statute of limitations, but great weight has often been given to the fact that the charges were presented after the lapse of the usual statutory period of limitations, and in some cases charges have been held to have been stale and therefore barred because a longer period of time had elapsed between the commission of the alleged offense, and the presentation of charges, than would be allowed for prosecution in the courts for the offenses charged. See Case of S. B. Fryer vs. Mt. Pulaski Lodge No. 454, I.O.O.F., decided at the August session of this Committee, 1901, Grand Lodge Journal, 1901, page 150.

After very careful consideration, we have decided to hold the charges in this case stale, and therefore barred. The appeal is therefore sustained, the finding of guilty, and sentence of expulsion set aside, and the Lodge directed to dismiss the charge.

Case No. 297.

Odin Rebekah Lodge No. 546, I.O.O.F.,	} Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, May Session, 1902
vs. Sadie Curtis.

Opinion by Bro. Henry Phillips, of No. 16.

The evidence in this case is presented in the record in a very faulty and careless manner. We have taken this case, as the same is before us, and carefully read all the evidence, and we find that charge 1, and the specifications under the same, are sustained. That Charge 2 and specifications under the same are not sustained, and the action of the Lodge is therefore reversed. The action of the Lodge in expelling the defendant is warranted by the evidence introduced, to sustain Charge 1 and the specifications under the same.

The action of the Lodge in expelling the defendant is sustained, and the appeal is dismissed.

Case No. 298.

Springerton Lodge No. 178, I.O.O.F., }
vs. } Before Committee on Judiciary
M. B. Wallace. } and Appeals, May Session, 1902

Opinion by Bro. Alfred Orendorff, of No. 465.

In this case Bro. M. B. Wallace appeals from the action of Springerton Lodge No. 178, I.O.O.F., in expelling him from the Order.

The record shows that he was tried and acquitted on the charges in the case, and that, at the following Lodge meeting, his acquittal was reconsidered, and he was expelled. This could not be legally done. Having been declared not guilty, no reconsideration could be had at a subsequent meeting. See Illinois Code, Sec. 1941.

For this reason the appeal of Bro. M. B. Wallace is sustained, and Springerton Lodge No. 178 is ordered to restore the brother to membership in the said Lodge.

Case No. 299.

Martin McGrath }
vs. } Before Committee on Judi-
Abou Ben Adhem Lodge No. 148, I.O.O.F. } ciary and Appeals, May Session, 1902.

Opinion by Bro. Duncan McDougall, of No. 41.

Abou Ben Adhem Lodge No. 148 is a very small Lodge, having but thirty-six members in good standing, and its finances are well depleted. At the time of the happenings of which complaint is made, there had not been an initiation or degree conferred in this Lodge for more than six months.

On Oct. 12, 1901, the petition of W. Lee Blodgett, a young man of considerable local prominence, was presented and he was duly elected. The Lodge believing it would promote the interests of the Order, arranged to have the degree team of Grove Lodge No. 257, of Morrison, Ill., located twelve miles distant, exemplify the work. It was also arranged that the local Rebekah Lodge should serve a supper to the visiting brothers. The candidate, having been called away from home, did not present himself for initiation. A controversy arose in the Lodge as to how the supper prepared by the Rebekah Lodge should be paid for. The Lodge Deputy advised the Lodge, that, there being no special entertainment fund, the bill could not be paid from the Lodge treasury, citing Thornton's Code 1896, Sec. 1395. Notwithstanding the unofficial advice of the Lodge Deputy, the Lodge ordered the bill, not exceeding $14.00, paid from the general fund, and the Lodge Deputy immediately set aside the action of the Lodge. Thereupon the Lodge appealed from the action of the Lodge Deputy to the Grand Master, assigning the following grounds:

1. The Deputy exceeded his authority in setting aside the action of the Lodge.

2. The Deputy erred in such action, because the matter had not been brought officially to his attention in writing under the seal of the Lodge.

3. The action taken by the Lodge was in the interest of the growth of the Order, and hence not in violation of Sec. 1395 of the Code.

4. That not being in violation of the Laws of the Order, no cause for setting aside the action of the Lodge existed.

The Lodge Deputy was also the Secretary of the Lodge.

Upon receipt of this appeal by the Grand Master, J. W. Yantis, Dec. 13, 1901, he returned it to the Deputy with directions to forward it to the Judiciary and Appeals Committee, and, under date of Jan. 31, 1902, the appeal was sent to this Committee.

We have examined the matter carefully, and while we are fully satisfied that the action taken by the Lodge was taken in the best of faith, and for the sole purpose of promoting the welfare of the Lodge, we are of the opinion that the Lodge was prohibited by the section of the Code, cited, from paying the bill out of the general Lodge funds, and that the Lodge Deputy was justified in setting aside the action of the Lodge. Under the circumstances of this particular case, we regret that the Lodge was without authority to pay the bill from its general funds, but it is not within our province to construe away the Code, or make exceptions to its specific provisions.

The appeal is therefore dismissed and the action of the Lodge Deputy sustained.

Case No. 300.

Monticello Lodge No. 847, I.O.O.F., }
vs. } Before Committee on Judiciary and George Kirchner. } Appeals, May Session, 1902.

Opinion by Bro. Duncan McDougall, of No. 41.

The record in this case does not show that any complaint was filed. An information or complaint should precede charges and specifications. Thornton's Code 1896, Sec. 1850-1853.

The record does not show that the accused was cited to appear before the Lodge at the second meeting after charges and specifications, or at any time, and plead guilty or not guilty to such charges and specifications. The record certified, relates only to matters having taken place on the night of the trial, and it does not appear that that meeting was either a regular, or special meeting of the Lodge. We find among the papers, what purports to be the original charge and specifications, but they are in no way identified as a part of the record of the Lodge, the charge and specifications not having been spread upon and certified as a part of the record of the Lodge. Full records of the entire proceedings relating to the trial should be kept and certified. Thornton's Code 1896, Sec. 1878.

The accused should have been "cited to appear at the second regular meeting after charges and specifications preferred, and then and there plead guilty or not guilty to each charge and specification." Thornton's Code 1896, Sec. 1879. In the trial the record of the Lodge must show that all the proceedings have been conducted in due form, and there is no presumption of fair dealing on the part of the Lodge, when the record does not show it. Thornton's Code, 1896, Sec. 1907. In this case the record only shows that on the night of the trial, the charges were read, and "the Commissioner then read inclosed testimony taken by J. H. S. Johnson." It is clear this was not copied from Lodge records. The Lodge records would not say anything about "inclosed testimony." The testimony is in no way identified as part of the Lodge records. The record then further recites, "reading of testimony," the case argued, ballot spread, accused found not guilty, and the declaration of the Noble Grand to that effect. The records do not show the appointment or obligation of the Commissioner but there appears among the papers what purports to be a written obligation signed by the Commissioner. The appointment and obligation should appear from the Lodge records.

The records do not show that any appeal was taken, but we find among the papers what purports to be a copy of the original notice of appeal. Notice of appeal should have been spread upon the records of the Lodge, and certified as a part thereof.

It appears from what purports to be the original evidence in the case, that the accused appeared before the Commissioner, and "waived citation, and copy of charges, and further time to prepare his defense," and plead "not guilty." However, waiving, for the purpose of this appeal all of these informalities, and assuming all proceedings relating to the trial, except as to rulings on competency of evidence, we will dispose of the case on its merits, instead of merely dismissing the appeal or ordering more complete record.

The accused is charged with embezzlement, and the specifications recite that the accused, while acting as Treasurer of the Lodge, drew the money on certain "sick benefit" orders, drawn in favor of Bro. John Latas, and reported the same as paid, when in fact the money had not been paid to Bro. Latas, but was retained by the accused.

The evidence shows that the complaining witness and the accused had been intimate friends for quite a number of years. The complaining witness spent much of his time at the house of the accused both as a boarder and visitor. Quite a number of business transactions had taken place between them, the complaining witness having loaned the accused at one time fifty dollars, at another time one hundred dollars. The complaining witness had conveyed to the accused a certain lot, which subsequently, on request, the accused reconveyed. The accused had paid the taxes on the lot, also Lodge dues for the complaining witness.

The evidence further shows that the complaining witness was taken ill at his boarding house, and we think the great weight of evidence shows that he sent for the accused and requested him to take him to his home, though on this point the evidence is conflicting, but the undisputed fact is, that the accused, learning of the illness of the complaining witness, obtained a carriage and took him, at his own expense, to his own home and there, for a period of from eight to twelve weeks, boarded, nursed and cared for him as a member of his own family. From five to seven weeks of this time the complaining witness was confined to his bed and he was nursed, and his meals served to him in his room by the wife of the accused. During this time "Sick Benefit Orders" were drawn in favor of the complaining witness, to the amount of twenty-three dollars, and the accused reported these orders to the Lodge, as paid, although the money was not actually turned over to the complaining witness, in whose favor they had been drawn.

We think the evidence leaves no reasonable doubt that the accused reported to the complaining witness the drawing of these orders, as each was drawn, and was directed by him to retain the money until he was well, and they would have a settlement. The total sum was only a small fraction of what it must have cost the accused to board, and care for the complaining witness during his illness, not taking into account any services rendered.

Incompetent evidence was admitted in favor of the Prosecuting Committee as well as in favor of the accused. The testimony of Caroline Luhn, with whom the complaining witness boarded, was largely mere hearsay, and was admitted over objection. The testimony of the wife of the accused, admitted over objection, was not competent. Thornton's Code, Sec. 1930. Eliminating all incompetent evidence, a finding of guilty could not be sustained in this case. According to the clear weight of the competent evidence, the case is wanting in all the essential elements of embezzlement.

There is no ground upon which the charge of embezzlement can stand. It would therefore serve no good purpose to reverse the action of the Lodge, on account of incompetent evidence admitted on behalf of the accused. In the absence even of the incompetent evidence, no other finding could well have been reached.

Indeed, the question of the competency of evidence is not raised by the appeal. The question of the weight of the evidence is presented, and we have no doubt the findings were in accordance with the weight of the evidence.

The appeal of Bros. F. W. Klemow, Ch. F. Schroeder and J. Larsen is therefore dismissed, and the action of the Lodge sustained.

Case No. 301.

Salem Lodge No. 123, I.O.O.F.,	} Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, May Session, 1902.
vs.
J. E. Davis.

Opinion by Bro. Henry Phillips, of No. 16.

Bro. J. E. Davis was charged with "distributing and causing to be distributed by members of his family, a printed circular" "supposed to be signed by him," and the contents of which is claimed to be a scandal upon certain families or persons in the neighborhood in which the respective parties reside. We do not present the matter of the circular, for unless the brother is responsible for their circulation, it is immaterial as to what the contents were, or the inferences to be drawn from it, so far as this case is concerned. The only evidence connecting the defendant with the distribution and circulation of these circulars, which appears in the record before us, is the testimony of one witness who says that he saw the defendant give a bunch of them to defendant's son, and this witness obtained one from the son, and that two other persons each got one from the son at the same time. This is denied by the defendant and his son. Another witness says he got one of the circulars from the defendant himself, yet upon further examination, it appears that this witness was on the hunt for one of the circulars, and asked the defendant for them. The defendant had but one copy, and it was only after this witness had promised to return it, that the defendant would let him have it, and that defendant told him he did not know who was distributing them, and that he (defendant) had nothing to do with it. That this witness had heard the circulars were in circulation and had not seen one, and wanted to see one. This does not seem to be an attempt on the part of the defendant to put these circulars into circulation. The evidence fails to show any attempt on the part of the defendant to influence any member of his family in regard to the distribution or circulation of these circulars, except to object to such distribution and circulation. We have no doubt that there is much in this matter which does not appear in this record. We must decide upon what is properly before the committee, and not upon what might have been before us.

Because the evidence fails to sustain the verdict and finding of the Lodge, this appeal is sustained, the action of the Lodge in expelling Bro. Davis from the Order is set aside, and the Lodge directed to restore Bro. Davis to membership in the Lodge.

vs. } Before Committee on Judiciary and

Opinion by Bro. Alfred Orendorff, of No. 465.

This is an appeal by Bros. Hamberg, Cohn and Soloman from the action of South Park Lodge No. 488, in acquitting Bro. R. Feinberg, who was charged with conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow. The specifications alleged a violation of the criminal law, and a conviction and sentence to the state penitentiary. The record does not show that any Commissioner was appointed, or any evidence introduced, although a copy of a penitentiary commitment is found in the papers certified subsequently to the trial.

In view of the above facts, the appeal is sustained and the case remanded with directions that a new trial be had on the charges herein in accordance with the provisions of the Illinois Code, and that due notice of time and place of said trial be given the accused.

Oakland Lodge No. 545, I.O.O.F., }
vs. } Before Committee on Judiciary and Henry Brandt. } Appeals, May Session, 1902.

Opinion by Bro. Alfred Orendorff, of No. 465.

In this case the Lodge charges the brother with fraudulently obtaining money from sister Lodges. No specifications are filed.

There is no evidence of fraud in securing a small sum of money from these Lodges, amounting to two dollars and seventy-five cents ($2.75) in the aggregate.

The brother was out of work and hunting employment and the Lodges relieved his temporary necessities.

On account of sickness and other misfortunes he has not, up to the trial, been able to replace the amounts donated him.

Under these facts, we think no censure can rightfully be placed on the brother, and he cannot be placed on the category of dead beats who sometimes defraud the Order, and cannot be too strenuously dealt with.

In view of the above, the appeal is sustained, the action of the Lodge set aside, and the brother ordered to be restored to membership.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE THIRD SESSION.

August 19, 1902.

Case No. 304.

John C. Farrington	}	Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, August Session, 1902.
vs. Remembrance Lodge No. 77.

Opinion by Bro. Duncan McDougall, of No. 41.

STATEMENT.

This case involves the question of the liability of Remembrance Lodge No. 77, to Bro. John C. Farrington, for sick benefits at the rate of three dollars per week, from April 12, 1901, to July 1, 1901, in addition to sick benefits paid from May 8, 1900, to April 12, 1901.

May 8, 1900, Bro. John C. Farrington, a member of Remembrance Lodge No. 77, residing, however, within the jurisdiction of Puritan Lodge No. 678, of Indianapolis, Indiana, was by the latter Lodge reported sick, and No. 77 was asked for instructions. The Secretary of Remembrance Lodge No. 77 informed Puritan Lodge No. 678 that Bro. Farrington was "in good standing and entitled to sick benefits at the rate of $5.00 per week, when confined to his room," and "but $3.00 per week when disabled from attending to business and not confined to his room." Remembrance Lodge No. 77 paid the bill of Puritan Lodge No. 678 for sick benefits paid to Bro. Farrington, August 18, 1900, $52.00, for two weeks' maximum and fourteen weeks' minimum sick benefits. Additional payments were made as follows: Bill dated Nov. 20, 1900, $30.00; bill dated Dec. 11, 1900, $12.00; bill dated Feb. 12, 1901, $27.00, to Feb. 8, 1901; bill dated April 16, 1901, to April 12, 1901, $27.00. Upon making this payment, Remembrance Lodge No. 77 notified Puritan Lodge No. 678 "not to pay Bro. Farrington any more benefits until they made due investigation and reported to No. 77." Report is dated April 28, 1901. To this report Remembrance Lodge No. 77 did not reply until June 8, 1901. The answer is not in the record, but from the answer thereto, dated June 16, 1901, it is apparent that Puritan Lodge No. 678 felt somewhat aggrieved.

Under date of December 8, 1900, accompanying the bill which the record shows was presented December 11, 1900, the Secretary of Puritan Lodge No. 678 wrote, under the seal of the Lodge, the Secretary of Remembrance Lodge No. 77, as follows: "Since answering your last letter in regard to case of Bro. Farrington, the case has come before us again, and I will say it is a puzzle for us. He sent up to our Lodge on Friday night, the letter he had received from you, and we had a certificate from Dr. Hoag, whom he says he is doctoring with. Now, he also told one of the relief committee that he had been to see the D. D. Grand Master, and claims that he showed him those papers, and that the Grand Master told him to present the papers to our Lodge and demand his benefits, and if we did not pay him to let him know and he would see that he got them. Now then, this was brought up before the Lodge, and after quite a discussion, the relief committee was instructed to write you again and also to pay him his benefits, which we have done. We have this day paid him $12.00, the amount which he claims is due him, dating from the 9th day of November up to the 7th day of December. Now, the relief committee still thinks that according to your instructions and according to the Laws of the Order, he is not entitled to benefits, but in the face of the evidence that he has produced and the decision of our Lodge, we have paid him the $12.00, which paid him up to December the 7th.
* * * * We would like for some of your members to come and see us and investigate the matter yourselves, because it is a hard nut to crack."

Thereupon, Remembrance Lodge No. 77 notified Puritan Lodge No. 678 "not to pay Bro. Farrington any more benefits, unless upon due investigation they found him to be lawfully entitled to them." As above shown, payments were afterwards made, to include April 12, 1901.

The occupation of the claimant was that of "blacksmith helper," an occupation requiring the exercise of great physical exertion and often exposures to a high degree of heat. Special reports of Puritan Lodge No. 678 were made under date of April 28, 1901, and June 16, 1901, in addition to the general reports. A somewhat voluminous correspondence and quite a number of medical certificates accompany the record. Under date of July 16, 1901, Bro. Jno. C. Farrington notified Remembrance Lodge No. 77 that he had a situation as foreman over a gang of men working on the streets, and reported himself "off sick-list since July 1, 1901." The record discloses that on several occasions during the time Bro. Farrington was drawing sick benefits, he was occupied in various ways not requiring any great physical exertion. Under date of June 24, 1901, Frank H. Wynn, M. D., of Indianapolis, Ind., examined Bro. Farrington, and certified that he was suffering from neurasthenia, or, what is known among the people more familiarly as nervous prostration, resulting from heat exhaustion. Upon having him perform slight physical movements, his skin became clammy and his heart action rapid to an abnormal degree, indicative of weakness. There is no doubt in my mind but that it is out of the question for him to pursue, at the present time, his vocation, that of a blacksmith helper, owing to his weakness, which is characteristic of such cases. If he avoids extreme heat and taxing physical exertion for the summer, accompanied by proper medical treatment, I think by fall he ought to be able to resume his usual pursuits." This certificate was joined in by W. I. Hoag, the usual physician of Bro. Farrington. It was also endorsed by the outgoing Noble Grand of Puritan Lodge No. 678. The record does not show that either of these certificates was presented to Remembrance Lodge No. 77. They appear to have been furnished to the Grand Master in connection with the appeal. Remembrance Lodge No. 77 notified Puritan Lodge No. 678 not to pay Bro. Farrington any more benefits, and of this action Bro. Farrington had notice. The date of this action does not clearly appear from the record, but it was prior to June 25, 1901. The only evidence of Bro. Farrington's disability is in the form of ex parte certificates, letters and sworn statements. No issue was joined between Bro. Farrington and Remembrance Lodge No. 77 concerning the disability upon which evidence in the form of deposition was taken. Remembrance Lodge No. 77 finally declined to pay sick benefits for any of the time after April 12, 1901, assigning, on the record, as a reason for such refusal, that "they did not think he was lawfully entitled to them, from the reports from Puritan Lodge and other members that investigated into the case." From the action of Remembrance Lodge No. 77, in refusing to pay sick benefits from April 12 to July 1, 1901, Bro. John C. Farrington appealed to the Grand Master. The Grand Master, in a carefully considered opinion (G. L. J., 1901, p. 29), sustained the action of the Lodge and dismissed the appeal.

From this decision of the Grand Master an appeal was taken to the Grand Lodge (G. L. J., 1901, p. 163). The appeal was referred to this committee (G. L. J., p. 321), for consideration at its next meeting, "at which time both parties to the case can be heard." At the next meeting of the committee, neither party to the controversy appeared, and the case has been passed, from time to time, until the present meeting of the committee.

OPINION.

In view of the conflicting reports, certificates and statements in this case, it is unfortunate that evidence in the form of depositions had not been taken for and against the claim. (Thornton's Code, 1896, 1499.) The certificate of Dr. Wynn, endorsed by Dr. Hoag and the retiring Noble Grand of Puritan Lodge No. 678 does not appear to have been presented to Remembrance Lodge No. 77, but direct to the Grand Master, with other correspondence relating to the appeal. We think all evidence for and against the claim should have been presented to the Lodge before the appeal was taken. It is quite certain that from May 8, 1900, to June 24, 1901, Bro. Farrington suffered from neurasthenia to such an extent as to disqualify him from working as a "blacksmith helper," which occupation requires great physical exertion and exposure to high degrees of heat. A careful examination of the entire record makes it equally clear that during much of the time for which sick benefits were paid, and during all the time for which sick benefits were claimed, Bro. Farrington was in such health as made it practicable for him to secure employment and perform service in many occupations not requiring such severe physical exertion or exposure as did his ordinary avocation.

It will be seen by reference to Thornton's Code, 1896, 1548, that while the "term" sickness, implies that state of health which prevents one from attending to his ordinary vocation. * * * "a brother, who, by infirmity, has been disqualified from following his usual occupation, but is not thereby incapacitated from applying himself to other pursuits and thus enabled to provide for his support, is not entitled to the benefits of the Lodge. * * * "; also (1549): "A brother who is suffering from a chronic complaint, but is yet able to go to his place of business, superintendent it, and participate in it to a degree, is prima facie not entitled to benefits as a sick brother, although this presumption may be rebutted by positive evidence, * * * * ."

We have given this case the most careful consideration, and find no sufficient reasons for interfering with the action of the Lodge or the decision of the Grand Master, J. R. Kewley.

We therefore affirm the action of the Lodge and dismiss the appeal.

Case No. 305.

Salem Lodge No. 123, I. O. O. F. } Before Committee on Judiciary vs. } and Appeals, Aug. Session 1902.
Bro. J. E. Davis.

Opinion by Bro. Henry Phillips, of No. 16.

In this case Bro. J. E. Davis is charged with conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow. As set out in the specifications, the substance of this charge consists in the defendant having made a statement, which, if true, would certainly disqualify him from being a member of our Order, and if false most certainly demands his expulsion. The evidence clearly sustains the charge and specification.

It will be of no benefit to the Order or to the membership of Salem Lodge, for us to publish the language charged to have been used by the defendant, and we refrain from publishing the same.

The action of the Lodge in expelling the defendant is sustained, and this appeal is dismissed.

Case No. 306.

Kenney Lodge No. 557, I.O.O.F., }
vs. } Before Committee on Judiciary and
L. W. Green. } Appeals, November Session, 1902.

Opinion by Bro. Chas. S. Thornton, of No. 858.

Your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals would respectfully report as follows in regard to the matter of the appeals of two brothers of Kenney Lodge, No. 557, in the case of Kenney Lodge, No. 557, vs. Bro. L. W. Green:

The record shows that Bro. L. W. Green of Kenney Lodge was charged with conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow, and upon trial of the issues involved that the charge was not sustained. An appeal to this committee was prayed by two brothers of the Lodge. Section 336 of Thornton's Code provides that "the accused or any three members feeling aggrieved by the decision of the Lodge shall be entitled to an appeal to the Grand Lodge." There is no provision of the Code, and there has been no legislation of the Grand Body since the date of the adoption of the Code, providing for appeal on behalf of the accused by less than three members of the Lodge. Inasmuch as but two of the brothers join in the appeal, the same must be dismissed for non-compliance with the law, and the appeal is therefore hereby dismissed.

Amity Lodge, No. 132, I.O.O.F.	}

Opinion by Chas. S. Thornton, of No. 858.

Your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals would respectfully report as follows in regard to the matter of the appeal of Carterville Lodge, No. 703, from the action of Amity Lodge, No. 132, in refusing to pay funeral expenses incurred by reason of the death of the late Bro. F. C. Zimmerman, a member of the lodge last named:

From the evidence before your committee, it does not appear that Carterville Lodge ever paid the funeral expenses of Bro. Zimmerman or any part thereof, or that said Lodge ever became obligated therefor. Further, the record fails to disclose any reason why Amity Lodge should pay the amount of funeral expenses to Carterville Lodge, and your committee is of the opinion that the appeal of Carterville Lodge, No. 703, should be, and the same is hereby, dismissed.

Opinion by Chas. S. Thornton, of No. 858.

Your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals would respectfully report as follows in regard to the matter of an appeal of Bro. J. P. Ewing from the decision of Opal Lodge, No. 99, in the case of Opal Lodge, No. 99, vs. Bro. Chas. Schmidt:

Bro. Chas. Schmidt of Opal Lodge was charged with conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow. The charge was not sustained by the Lodge upon trial. Bro. J. P. Ewing, a member of the lodge, prays an appeal from this decision to your committee, but no other brother joins in the appeal. Sec. 1999 of Thornton's Code provides that in all cases "in which three members of a lodge shall regard any proceedings of their lodge in a matter of discipline on grievance as illegal or unjust, they may in like manner appeal, whether they are parties to the proceedings or not." Bro. Ewing, who is incidentally interested in the controversy, but is not a party to this case, has not brought himself within the law in praying his appeal. It is ordered, therefore, that the appeal be, and the same is hereby, dismissed.

APPEALS TO THE GRAND LODGE.

Case 221, J. B. Turner Lodge No. 420 I. O. O. F. vs. J. K. Thompson.
Case 284, Jas. T. Hightower vs. Hancock Lodge No. 71, I. O. O. F.

CONCLUSION.

The office of Grand Secretary is no sinecure, and this is as it should be. Our great organization is composed largely of wage earners, who are compelled to practice the strictest economy, and officers drawing salaries at such hands have no right to expect or receive compensation except as measured by the amount of actual service rendered.

The Grand Secretary is not only called upon to perform the clerical duties of his office as required by the Grand Lodge Constitution, but he is daily called upon to dispense legal advice, to act as arbiter in the settlement of Lodge troubles, to entertain visitors who call at his office, to respond to the frequent invitations to attend gatherings of the Order in all parts of the State, all of which together with his clerical duties occupy his entire time. The office of Grand Secretary would be a great burden to any officer whose heart was not in the work, but to me it has been a pleasure to watch the progress of Odd Fellowship in numbers and benevolence, having grown from a membership of 30,000 to over 60,000, the receipts of this office five times as large as when I first entered as Assistant. Illinois has forged to the front until today our hearts may well swell with pride as we contemplate its growth, our Homes for the Orphan and the Aged, our visitations to the sick room, innumerable words of cheer and comfort expressed, making a volume of good deeds annually.

In the discharge of duty it is a great pleasure to be associated with those who have the good of the Order at heart and whose ability and energy are expended in the same cause.

The relationship between this office and the Grand Master has been most cordial and his untiring efforts to give to the fraternity his best service, and to his wise counsel, his genial nature, and the faithful discharge of his official duties much of the growth and prosperity of the past year is due. To Grand Master Jno. W. Yantis, I desire to express my appreciation of his co-operation in the discharge of the duties of this office.

I would be remiss in courtesy were I to omit mention of the kindly assistance rendered and the good will expressed to me by the officers of the several departments of Odd Fellowship. To Gen. C. M. Seckner Department Commander Patriarchs Militant: Grand Patriarch H. W. Pemberton, Grand Scribe Henry C. Feltman, Sisters L. Maud Hayward, President; and Lola L. Rickard, Secretary of the Rebekah Assembly, not forgetting the rank and file from whom I have received the most courteous consideration, nor failing to remember that the real work of Odd Fellowship, "To visit the sick, relieve the distressed to bury the dead and to educate the orphan" is done by our membership at large who exemplify the teachings of the Order in daily life.

GRAND REPRESENTATIVES' REPORT.

To the Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

BRETHREN:

With a full knowledge of the responsibility and a high appreciation of the confidence reposed in us by our brethren when we were selected to represent the Grand Lodge of Illinois in the Sovereign Body—the Senate of Odd Fellowship, we come again to give to you an account of our stewardship. What we have done well was performed in the interests of our Order and the “upbuilding of the fraternal spirit.” If anything was done amiss it was from a lack of judgment and not from the heart.

We beg leave to submit our report as Grand Representatives. We hope we have succeeded in meriting the confidence reposed. If we have not please remember that Charity is one of our fraternal virtues.

The seventy-eighth session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge was held in the city of Des Moines, Iowa, September 15th, 1902. The fraternity of Iowa extended to the members of the Grand Body a sincere and hearty welcome, and pleasant and profitable was the stay in Des Moines.

The state of Iowa is great in many things of a material nature and is also great in Odd Fellowship where there are 70,000 members of the various branches of the order. In Iowa our order has stood for its original purposes, to-wit: Helpful and neighborly fraternity. We aid the sick and distressed; we bury the dead and in our meetings we do much and say much toward the upbuilding of the great principle of the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man.

It is said Des Moines would never have attained its great prominence were it not for the fact that it is the commercial as well as the educational, political and geographical center of the state. The power behind the throne may be greater than the throne itself. In the case of Des Moines that power is business. It and it alone is a city builder.

Her railroads (seventeen, counting all branches in and out) have made Des Moines a great distributing point. The fact that in 1901 her roads handled 132,000 car loads of in and out freight, including coal brought in for their own use, proves this statement. In the storage, transfer and shipping of agricultural implements, Des Moines is the third city in the United States.

Geo. L. Lively
Grand Representative.

An enormous jobbing business is done. Her factories, not the largest in the country, but varied, numerous and thrifty, contribute their full share. Her coal, brick, clay and tile industries are of great importance. She has sixty miles of paved streets and all modern improvements.

The following Grand Officers were present:

We submit herewith extracts of the address and report of the Grand Sire, A. C. Cable, with a full report of the decisions of the Grand Sire as amended and approved by the Sovereign Lodge, to-wit:

REPORT OF THE GRAND SIRE AND COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.

To the Officers and Representatives of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

BROTHERS:—Into the shadowy depths of the dreamless past, has rolled another year—a year that rounded up and completed a century.

The valleys and the hilltops are now being painted with autumn's sunset tints of twilight glory, and we are most forcibly reminded by the rustle of the leaf, the whispering perfumed breezes, that we are one year nearer our eternal Home.

As Odd Fellows, we find as much pleasure in "looking backward," as we feel in "looking forward."

The past comes before us, in which we see the blanched cheeks of men and women struggling against adversity's tide and then the picture of stalwart hearts and willing hands making fields of hope from the fallows of despair, and where once there was misery and tears, is found contentment and joy.

Man's fraternity to man, has given countless thousands relief against distress, and for the shadows that cast their gloom over the fireside, there has come the bright rays of brotherly love, banishing want and care with the magic sunlight of our help.

The past century has been called the century of achievements.

The nineteenth century, however, has produced nothing so great as its men, its women, and its institutions of organized benevolence.

Great personalities have appeared in art and literature, in invention and commerce, in philanthropy and religion, in science and in politics.

The past century will be forever memorable as having given to the world: CAVOUR, the reconstructor of Italy; LINCOLN, the liberator, and one of the great constructive statesmen of America; BISMARCK, the unifier of Germany; VICTORIA, England's lovely Queen, who served the British Empire longest, and was the most beloved of all the British rulers; WILDEY, the founder, and RIDGLEY, the great constructor of Odd Fellowship, whom Odd Fellows the world over, regard as the most practical benefactor in the world's history.

When history spreads before you the bloody page of war, and Alexander, in the breadth of his campaigns, Marlborough, in the number and certainty of his victories, Hannibal, in the difficulties which he encountered, Napoleon, in his genius, resources and results, Martel, in his persistent hammering, Wellington, in his cold calculating methods and astounding victories,

Grant—"The man on horseback"—"The silent man," whose tribute of love and loyalty to all the people, was embodied in the enduring words of "Let us have peace,"

Lee, the world renowned soldier and educator, whose sword was a trophy that Alexander, Cæsar and Napoleon would have envied as the brightest diadem for victory's jeweled crown,

Dewey and Schley, whose great battles at Manila Bay and off the coast from Santiago, respectively, made them the great heroes of modern times of the navies of the world, march across the canvass of your vision, your heart grows faint and sick within you; it is then you turn away your face to look upon the real heroes of the world, and upon the men who have stepped from earth to Heaven on noble deeds, nobly done, for others.

It is then your eyes are dimmed with tears of gratitude to God that He made man so noble in feeling and glorious in destiny.

All the philosophers of mediaeval times, all the men who wrote the chronicles of those years, unite in telling us how great were the good influences of the Knight errants, who went up and down the world, redressing human wrongs, championing the cause of the weak, wearing the colors of their lady love, living above their age, in virtuous morality and dying as heroes on the battlefield.

But my brothers, would you see the real heroes of the world, the men who laid broad and deep the foundation of our age and all succeeding ages, then turn your eyes to that procession where march no Knights in glittering mail, where rustle no implements of war and savagery, but where pass in review the sons of God—the sons of peace, wearing the jeweled helmet of immortal hope for all men and the breastplate of Friendship, Love and Truth for all who toil and struggle under the burdens of this life.

In a world such as ours, it ought not to seem strange that our Common Father, God, has kept the best wine of civilization until the last of the feast.

Everything in nature and history, tells us this is the law of the Universe, the solemn, strange march of creation, "Moving to unheard music with unseen banners to some great enterprise."

When this march of creation shall have ended and the sons of men hang out their banners on the battlements of Heaven, and the rolls of honor are read, those who have truly loved their fellowmen will enter upon their reward.

In the earthly life of the human race, God pitches His tent close beside the tents of His children, and inspires His sons to speak His words, and opens the eyes of each new-born babe to behold the beatific vision, and deluges each day with the greatness of His own divinity.

God is ever as of old.

So long as the flowers bloom and the dew is on the grass and the light is in the sky, the rustle of His garments is heard, and His hand stretches out, and His ear bends to hear our human voices and to fill our souls with His own thought and speech.

"What God was, He is,
What He did, He does,
What He said, He says."

Shall we who stand before all the world as the representatives of His will, say by our indifference to His expressed command, "Thou hast been, but Thou art not now concerned with the welfare of men," forgetful that through service we reveal the life of God—the life of sovereign worth and everlastingness.

Your works of Friendship, Love and Truth, denote eternal verities; duties, patriotism, goodness lead out to the infinite.

Your ideals bring you to the heart of God.

So, follow your aspirations to their highest reach; rise to the supreme significance of your ideals, and you will discover that your happiness and the happiness of your fellowmen is "Bound up in the bundle of life with the Lord our King."

"Sell all thou hast and give to the poor;" hold all that you have and are for the race to which you belong; for eternal life is the life of duty, and rests upon the character of God and the capacity of man.

Whatever may become of individual forms, the aim and end of all achievement, is the higher life of men.

We conquer the world for each other; and the more real and ideal our lives, the sooner will the world be won to that exalted truth of universal fatherhood and brotherhood, of which the Lord was the most illustrious and shining example.

As Odd Fellows, we teach the parable of the Good Samaritan, as the concrete teaching of the kingdom of Heaven among men.

NECROLOGY.

Once more we are together and while our hearts are saddened, yea, bowed in grief to know that from the roll there is dropped the names of illustrious Brothers, whose wisdom has guided our counsels and ennobled our natures by association with them, yet it is a consolation to feel that their lives were of such useful duty that when that "Other roll is called," they can answer from an ark of the covenant built by them when teaching the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. The Golden Rule was to them in life a charm, and in death a comfort. They brought Odd Fellowship through all of its tempestuous nights and now with spirit vision see with you the bright hope of our fellowship that betokens the dawn of a yet brighter day, and feel with you the reflected happiness hovering around such harbingers of joy and rest.

We are grateful to an All-Wise Providence that He still spares to us a few of the Old Landmarks—Brothers who were linked with Wildey, Ridgely, Nicholson, Leech, and score upon score of our venerated dead, now upon the other shore, and it is our prayer that they will remain as mighty oaks of shelter in the forest of our benefaction, as it is our faith that when death "Kisses their eyelids down," they will from the battlements of Heaven, join the chorus in honor of our Friend ship, Love and Truth.

During the year just past, twenty-eight, who had at one time or another, rendered valued and faithful service to the Order—the constituency which it was their privilege to represent in the Great Senate of the Order, have been called "to the land where our fathers have gone before us."

JOHN HULL WHITE, PAST GRAND SIRE.

The one most generally known and whose name and fame is firmly fixed in the history of the Order, that passed away during the year, was John Hull White, the twenty-ninth Grand Sire, 1886-1888.

On the first day of the session Bro. Durham, Past Grand Sire, of Kentucky, at the request of the Grand Sire, submitted the following memorial on the death of Past Grand Sire White.

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Since the last meeting of this Grand body, John H. White, Past Grand Sire, has departed this life. On this occasion, it is fit that we remember and speak of the life and character of our departed Brother. It is the duty of the living to perpetuate the memory of the great and good; those with whom they have been associated in the struggles incident to human life, as well as those who have filled high positions with credit to themselves, and who by their talent, genius and labor rendered valuable service to mankind. What is a country without a biography of its distinguished men, and its public benefactors? What a blank would be the history of ancient empires and kingdoms if there had been no especial mention of their philosophers, poets, heroes, orators and statesmen; it would be a shadow without substance, a skeleton divested of its vital essential parts—life and beauty. The character of a nation and the criterion of its civilization may be judged by the intelligence, honesty and purity of those who have been appointed its rulers. It is our boast to rejoice in the eminent qualities of the founders of our Republic, and those who gave it form and direction in its infancy. While the spirit of freedom pervades the minds of the American people, they cannot cease to venerate the champions of our independence. The names of Washington, Adams, Franklin, Jefferson, Hamilton and Marshall will be handed down from generation to generation and mentioned with praise as long as free institutions exist on the earth. These names will be transmitted to posterity as synonyms of great ideas—liberty and self-government. As in nations, so it is with those institutions which have been organized for intellectual culture and to ameliorate the condition of mankind. They, too, are judged of, to a great degree, by those who laid deep and broad their foundations and are prominent in their upbuilding and management, and when these die, their names, their good deeds and works should be handed down to those who come after them in letters of living light. Whenever the living cease to remember their dead, a death greater than mere decay of the human body will sooner or later erase such a people from the face of the earth. History, with its great iron pen will in a few words detail their rise, decay and fall. No one dies all forgotten, and no one wholly perishes from the face of the earth. The influences of a life in this world are eternal. The tomb cannot enclose them; they escape from its portals and continue to pervade the walks of men like unseen spirits guarding and controlling human thought and action. May I not ask, who is free from their touch? Whose life and destiny has not been colored, formed and fashioned by the influence of those who have passed away. The greatest orators on the stage of human affairs have pointed back from the loftiest points of their elevation to the mother with her prayers, to the father with his toil and devotion, to kindred and self-sacrificing friends and bowed with reverence before the living power associated forever with their names and memories. Every good mind and heart reproduces some of its achievements and many of its qualities in the minds and hearts of others after it has gone to far-off climes and realms.

Brother White was born February 27th, 1820, in Stamford, Dutchess County, New York, and died March 20th, 1902, at his home in Albion New York. He was of Quaker parentage and was raised on a farm. Being thrown upon his own resources for a living, when quite young, he continued at farming. His compensation being small, he could give but a limited time to attending school, yet he availed himself of every opportunity possible and did acquire the rudiments of a common education. Being ambitious to better his condition in life, full of energy and hope for the future, he commenced the study of law in 1845. Having fully prepared himself, he was admitted to the bar in 1848, and commenced the practice of the law. By close application to business he soon secured a large practice and became prominent, especially as a jury lawyer. He was known as a wise, safe counsellor, an able advocate and stood high in his profession. After his death, at a meeting of the members of the bar of the county where he had long practiced, they said of him, among other things, "We hereby express our respect and veneration for one who for many years was the leader and who by his honesty and fair dealing with his clients, elevated his profession and left an example worthy of emulation."

He was initiated into Teoronto Lodge, I. O. O. F., in Rochester in 1848. Removing from Rochester to Albion he took his card and deposited it in the Lodge at Albion in December, 1851. He passed the chairs in that Lodge in 1853 and became a member of the Grand Lodge of Northern New York in 1854. He was an active, influential member of that body, serving on some of the most important committees. He was elected Grand Warden in 1859, Deputy Grand Master in 1860 and Grand Master in 1861. In 1853 he became a member of Orleans Encampment and passed its chairs in 1855, and became a member of the Grand Encampment in 1856. In all these positions he performed the duties thereof with promptness and ability and to the entire satisfaction of his brethren. In 1863 he began to urge the Union of the two Grand Lodges of New York, and continued to work to that end until it was accomplished in 1866. In 1865 the Grand Lodge of Northern New York, recognizing his eminent qualification and thorough knowledge of the laws and usages of the Order, elected him to the Grand Lodge of the U. S. After the union of the two Grand bodies in New York, he was again elected to that Grand body and held that position until he was elected Deputy Grand Sire in 1884. In 1886 he was elected Grand Sire and presided at the sessions in Denver and Los Angeles with dignity and ability. Few men advanced so rapidly in the honors of the Order or exerted a greater influence in its general counsels. Knowing his industry and capacity for the work, he was in 1870 selected to prepare a digest of all the laws of the Order from its organization to that date. That digest reported by him was approved by the Grand Lodge and was taken everywhere as authority in the Order; he also prepared another digest by direction of the S. G. Lodge. Brother White was a steadfast friend of the Degree of Rebekah. It may be remembered that for some years that degree was in a very crude, unsatisfactory condition and in 1864 an effort was made to abolish it. A committee of five of the most prominent members of the Grand Lodge was appointed to look into the whole question of said degree. It made a full report recommending that the degree be abolished. Three of that committee were afterwards elected Grand Sires and the report had the approval of many of the old influential members of that body. Brother White, though a young member of the Grand Lodge, championed the cause of the degree and after a delay of three or four years the proposition to abolish it was defeated. He did much to take it out of its imperfect condition, securing for it greater rights and privileges, thus adding to the Order the Rebekah branch with all of its untold blessing. By reason of his high standing in the S. G. Lodge, and being the author of the digest, he was perhaps better known than any other man in the order; for every Noble Grand, every District Deputy and every Grand Master must study and consult White's Digest as his legal guide on all matters pertaining to the order. He was not as eloquent, as polished a speaker as some of his associates in the Grand Lodge, but had few equals in general discussions, always presenting his views with great force and clearness. To those who were not well acquainted with him he seemed blunt in his manner. In his Inaugural address as Grand Sire he said of himself, "I am at times extremely rough and blunt in my manners; this is entirely constitutional, unless it may be attributed to a faulty early education, the result of being thrown entirely upon my own resources; those of you who have known me most intimately receive this mannerism at its exact value and know it is from no fault or intention but that it proceeds from natural impulse in moments of precipitation or excitement." Although seemingly blunt, he had a warm and affectionate heart, and never offended those approaching him for counsel and advice. He loved this Order, with an ardor akin to filial affection; delighted to assist in its growth, expansion and influence. Duty was his guiding star; no abuse, no passion, prejudice, flattery or praise could swerve him from its pathway. Loyalty to principle was the keynote to his whole character, for he was loyal and true to his conscientious convictions in every walk of life. Through a long distinguished career he has been true to every interest confided to his care. As a citizen he was honored and respected, looking to the general welfare of the community where he lived, giving his time, energies and influence to its development. As a husband he was tender, loving and affectionate. As a father, kind and indulgent. In every walk of life he was a man in the fullest sense of that word. He was true to himself and true to all. Twenty-six Past Grand Sires have preceded Brother White to the grave, and he and they are now joint heirs with the countless myriads of eternity. May I not say they were pure men; spotless and pure they have been laid away to rest. Some of them four score years in this rough world; we lift up the characters today and say, behold them. Grand is it not, consoling is it not, that God builds up men among us of whom we can say, look upon them, walk round about them, you will find no ugly scars, no moral deformity in them. Grand is it not, consoling is it not that ever and anon in this world of smirched reputations and diseased lives God gives some whole men whom we without a blush, can lift up to the Grand Master saying, take them again, they are unharmed, they are worthy of Thee. These brothers in one sense are dead. Their bodies after the labors of life have ended, have lain down to rest and to sleep until the Great Master shall awaken them again. But even in this world, the influence of their lives has just begun. As their pure spirits enter upon their new careers in the regions of immortality so does the influence which they have left behind them here move forward each day to new developments of glory and power in our midst. Sometimes we think, when great leaders and workers in their various spheres die, the cause or institution with which they have been connected will be retarded or blotted out of existence; not so, if founded in truth and right. Presidents and the leading spirits of our government may die, yet under the guidance of others it lives and moves on its sure progress to greatness. Bishops, prelates and clergymen may die, others take their places, and the church will live to be the light and hope of the world. These brothers have passed from our midst, yet others are found to fill well their places, but the influence of their good work on earth will never die. May I not ask, should we not imitate their noble example—cherish and guard well this institution which they have through their long years aided to perpetuate? My brothers, we are today performing this part of these services as a duty, because these brothers live in their good works and because their undying example exerts an influence on our lives and conduct. 'Tis true, these services cannot reach them; they are beyond the sound of praise or the fragrance of its incense. No, we on this occasion only perform a duty by recognizing the good they have wrought out in our midst attesting their immortality here on earth. Embowered in the peaceful shades of their last resting places, through whose stricken boughs the fierce wintry winds chant their requiems, our brothers sleep that sleep which knows no earthly waking.

Wreaths have faded and withered on their tombs; perennial flowers will still blossom and decay thereon; time will level the well rounded mounds where they sleep; monuments will rust and granite crumble, but their deeds are undying and their names are imperishable. My brothers, these brilliant lights who have adorned and shone about the pathway of this Order are not put out; they are but hid for the moment behind the gloomy shadow we call death, only to reappear in immortal beauty, purity and brilliancy to shine forever. Well has the poet said:

“There is no death, the stars go down,
To rise upon some fairer shore
And bright in heaven's jewelled crown,
They shine forever more.

There are some rocks, God planted on the shore,
To fix the boundary twixt land and sea,
There are some men who, 'mid the strife and roar,
Are moral lighthouses where'er they be.

They also serve who only stand and wait,
Yet folded hands would ill become us all,
The world has need of those who conquer fate
And there are men victorious as they fall."

STATE OF THE ORDER.

Coming to the practical work of our Order, let us see what, under the providence of God, we have, this year, been able to accomplish.

The report for last year was indeed flattering, the best for years.

The report for this year, however, as you will note from statistics given hereafter (and for which statistics I acknowledge my indebtedness to our Worthy Grand Secretary and his able assistants), is the greatest both from a financial and numerical standpoint, of any year in the whole history of the Order. Upon this very, very flattering showing the Order is able to make, I congratulate you most heartily.

DECISIONS.

One hundred and twenty-four decisions are herewith submitted, the same being, in a large degree, classified.

SUBORDINATE LODGE DECISIONS.

Membership.

No. 1. Statement—Brother A., a member of Lodge C., presents his official receipt (certificate) to Lodge D. with application and is accepted as a member. Brother A. nor anyone for him, applies to Lodge C. for a withdrawal card and Lodge C. is not notified that Brother A. has been accepted as a member of Lodge D. for about one year.

Question—(a). Can Brother A. lawfully sign the Constitution of Lodge D. until he or some one for him has procured a withdrawal card from Lodge C. and presents it to Lodge D.?

Answer—No, unless otherwise provided by local law.

No. 2. Question—(b). Is he a full member until after he signs the Constitution?

Answer—No, unless otherwise provided for by local law.

No. 3. Question—(c). To what Lodge should he pay his dues until he procures a withdrawal card?

Answer—To Lodge C.

No. 4. Question—(d). Which Lodge is liable for sick benefits?

Answer—Lodge C. It was the duty of the secretary of Lodge D. to immediately notify Lodge C. that Brother A. had been elected a member of Lodge D. on visiting card or official certificate, and procure a transfer of membership in the manner and form as required by law.

No. 5. Statement—A Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Missouri lives at N. Missouri, and desires to transfer his membership from his old Lodge, No. 139, to Lodge No. 194 at N. He makes application to Lodge No. 194 on a visiting card or official certificate, as per Section 8 of the Constitution of the Grand Lodge of Missouri, for the government of Subordinate Lodges, which reads—"Section 8. Any member of the Order shall have the privilege of applying for membership in any Lodge by first obtaining a visiting card and depositing the same in the Lodge in which he seeks membership. Upon the election of such brother, said Lodge shall notify the Lodge of which he is a member, of such election, when, being free from all charges and the payment of all dues and fees, upon proper application, the Lodge of which he was until then a member, shall grant to him a withdrawal card upon the deposit of which, with said Lodge in which he has been elected, he shall be entitled to sign the Constitution and By-Laws, and be received in full membership from that time," and was elected on January 7, 1901. His old Lodge No. 139 grants a withdrawal card on May 29, 1901, and on June 6th, 1901, the brother dies before he deposits the withdrawal card with the Lodge No. 194.

Question—(a). Was he a member of either Lodge at the time of his death, if so, which one?

Answer—In as much as the local law (Section 8, as quoted) required the brother to sign the Constitution as a condition precedent to membership, it is held that the brother was not a member of either Lodge. See White's Digest, Sections 681 and 719.

No. 6. Question—(a). Have his heirs any legal claim against either Lodge for benefits?

Answer—No.

No. 7. Statement—On October 12th, 1900, Brother Will N. Calhoun and others instituted Southwestern Lodge No. 69 at Coralea. The night the Lodge was instituted, Brother Calhoun at this time, Grand Marshal, vouched for two brothers and accepted them as members. One of the brothers gave him $1.00 to send to the Grand Lodge of Tennessee for his certificate. The other brother did about the same thing and on that night the one of the second part was elected and installed as Noble Grand, and served a term before he obtained his certificate. The one of the first part and the one in question now, as I have stated before, gave Brother Calhoun $1.00 in money to secure his certificate, paying his fee $5.00 as an Ancient Odd Fellow. Since then Calhoun has conducted himself very badly, was suspended by our Lodge and left the Territory a short time after. He stated to a member of the Lodge that he had secured the brother's certificate, but lost it. He also stated that he would secure a duplicate. About three months ago, the brother was confined to his bed by a sickness, when the question came up in the Lodge in regard to the brother's sick benefits. The books were examined and it was found that he had paid his dues, etc., and was in good standing, but the Lodge had never received his card. I was instructed to write to the Grand Secretary of Tennessee in regard to the brother's card. He replied that if the brother would remit $1.00 he would send him his certificate. The $1.00 was sent and we received the certificate showing that the brother was in good standing when his Lodge went defunct. The Grand Secretary also stated that no one ever received a card before for the brother, and that the brother who claimed he had was $1.00 ahead. Now on this day the certificate was read and accepted by the Lodge.

Question—Does Brother Long's membership date back to October 12, 1900, and is he entitled to sick benefits from that date when he was vouched for by Calhoun, paid the fees, elected a member of the Lodge by ballot, and has been in good standing ever since, or does his membership commence November 23, 1901, when his card was presented and accepted by the Lodge?

Answer—The brother's membership dates from November 23, 1901, when his certificate was deposited in the Lodge, and could not date back to October 12, 1900. (See White's Digest, Sections 1420, 1421 and 1426.)

There is no such thing in Odd Fellowship as vouching for a brother's standing. If the brother intrusted his $1.00 to Brother Calhoun to procure his certificate, Brother Calhoun became his agent, and for any failure on his part the Lodge is not to be held responsible, nor can it be held that the Lodge is bound by having received the brother on Brother Calhoun's vouching for him. It is a fundamental principle of the Order to require the card or certificate of a brother on the institution of a new Lodge, which cannot be waived.

No. 9. Question—Is a person who is uneducated and cannot write his name, eligible to admission into the Order?

Answer—Yes. The Sovereign Grand Lodge alone has power to determine as to the qualifications of membership into the Order. See Section 2 of Article XVI of the Sovereign Grand Lodge Constitution.

NAME, CHANGE OF.

No. 10. Statement—We have a case in Ridgely Lodge, Mexico City, where a brother, James Anderson, requests his name to be changed to Carney, his right and legal name; giving as his reason for desiring such change, that twenty years ago he deserted the English army and was compelled to change his name. Now since that time has elapsed, he wishes, for his family's sake, to again assume his legal name.

Question—Can the Lodge permit him to do so, without first bringing charges against him for joining the Lodge under an assumed name?

Answer—This is a matter wholly for local legislation. If the Lodge of which the brother is a member, desires to retain him, it can have him sign the Constitution under his right name, changing his name on the Lodge records, and continuing his membership. See S. G. L. Journal, 1874, pages 6187 and 6283, also S. G. L. Journal, 1876, pages 7031 and 7079.

DUES, BENEFITS—SICK AND FUNERAL.

No. 11. Statement—At the close of a regular meeting of a Lodge, a brother who was in arrears for dues, tendered his dues to the Secretary and was asked by the Secretary to let the matter rest until some future time. For the next four or five weeks, the brother was absent in the country at work and unable to attend Lodge, and while absent became disabled and sick. He returned to the town where his Lodge was located, and after being sick a week made application for one week's sick benefits. The application was rejected. The same night he made application for sick benefits, he paid up his dues.

Question—Was the Lodge right in rejecting his application?

Answer—Yes. The Lodge would not be bound for benefits if the By-Laws of the Lodge required dues to be paid in advance.

No. 12. Question—Where a Lodge has a By-Law which provides that on the death of a member of the Lodge, the sum of $50.00 shall be paid as funeral benefits, and each member shall be assessed his prorata share to reimburse the treasury, can such assessment be charged as dues, so as to place the brother in bad standing at the end of the quarter?

Answer—Yes. See Section 300, White's Digest.

No. 13. Statement—There are many Subordinate Lodges in this Jurisdiction, Arkansas, that have a By-Law which reads as follows: "Section. At the death of the wife of a brother in good standing, there shall be paid $15.00 as a funeral benefit." The Constitution of the Grand Jurisdiction of Arkansas is silent upon the question.

Question—Can a Subordinate Lodge have a By-Law that will authorize the payment of funeral benefits to a brother at the death of his wife, the Constitution of the Grand Lodge being silent upon the subject?

Answer—Yes. See Conclusion preceding the resolution in Report No. 5 from the Committee on Appeals, as found on page 277 S. G. L. Journal, 1901.

No. 14. Question—Can funeral assessments be charged as dues, or must a brother be in debt to the Lodge for three months' dues only, to be non-beneficial?

Answer—Yes. Assessments must be charged as any other indebtedness, and to be in good standing, the brother must be free from all indebtedness to the Lodge, he must not be in arrears for dues for more than three months, which under your local law (Alabama) provides that a brother is in good standing who is not in arrears for more than three months, for a sum not greater than the amount of dues charged quarterly. This indebtedness comprises dues, fines and assessments, as your local laws may permit.

No. 15. Question—Has the Subordinate Lodge a right to assess its members for the purpose of purchasing regalia?

Answer—No. (The proper way would be to raise the dues by an amendment to the By-Laws.)

No. 16. Statement—A brother in good standing is unable, physically, to care for himself. He has been offered a place at the I. O. O. F. Home. He refuses to go.

Question—Under the circumstances, is his Lodge under obligation to take care of him, and is his Lodge also holden for weekly benefits?

Answer—The Lodge is bound to give him attention and sick benefits in accordance with the By-Laws of his Lodge and those of the Grand Lodge of the Jurisdiction of Vermont.

ATTENTIVE BENEFITS.

No. 17. Question—Can a Lodge legally decline or refuse to care for sick members who reside at a greater distance from the Lodge room than that to which the Visiting Committee thereof is required to go to visit the sick?

Answer—No.

No. 18. Question—Can a member of a Lodge legally claim exemption from service as a watcher when assigned, in a Lodge that cares for its sick by assignments, because the sick brother resides beyond the distance the Visiting Committee is required to go to visit the sick?

Answer—No.

No. 19. Statement—(a). A Lodge cares for its sick brothers by assignment of brothers in alphabetical order as watchers. Section 2 of Article XIII of the Constitution for Subordinate Lodges of Colorado, reads:

"Section 2. It shall be the duty of the Visiting Committee to visit such brothers as may be reported sick to them, or to the Lodge, and such sick brethren shall be visited once a day during their sickness, by at least one member of their Visiting Committee, provided the brethren reported sick are within a reasonable distance from the town in which the Lodge is located."*

Section 8 of Article IV of the By-Laws approved by the Grand Lodge reads:

"Section 8. Three miles shall be considered a reasonable distance under the Constitutional provision to visit the sick."

A brother assigned to watch with a sick brother who resides eight miles from the Lodge, but still within the actual jurisdiction of the Lodge, declines to go, claiming that a brother cannot be required to go to watch beyond the distance fixed as a reasonable distance for the Visiting Committee to go to visit the sick. The Noble Grand decided that there was not, and under general law and customs of the Order, could not be, any limit to the distance to which brothers should be required to go to watch with sick brothers, members of the Lodge and within the jurisdiction of the Lodge.

Question—Was the decision of the Noble Grand correct?

Answer—Yes.

No. 20. Statement—(b). Sections 6 and 7 of the By-Laws referred to in (a), provide that a brother assigned to watch with a sick brother, may pay to the Visiting Committee the sum of $1.50, to employ a substitute, and failing to either watch or pay the $1.50, shall be fined $1.50. The Noble Grand decided that members of the Lodge who were beyond the jurisdiction of the Lodge, must be assigned to watch in their regular order, and must conform to the above law, unless they send to the Lodge a statement or certificate made or signed by the officers of the Lodge, that they had registered in the Lodge in whose jurisdiction they then were, for nurse or watch duty, as required by fundamental law, as adopted by the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Question—Was the decision of the Noble Grand correct?

Answer—No. If a transient brother has his residence within the jurisdiction of a Lodge other than his own, and neglects to report himself to such Lodge, he is deprived of attentive benefits. The law upon the subject, as found in Report No. 102, page 344, S. G. L. Journal, 1899, being a penal law, must be strictly construed, and neither directly nor by implication, can any other Lodge than the one within whose jurisdiction the brother resides, inflict penalty.

VISIT, RIGHT TO.

No. 21. Statement—A brother presented himself to visit our Lodge with an official certificate, showing his dues paid to a date later than when he presented himself, and in regular legal form with seal and signatures. The usual Examining Committee was appointed and the brother passed a perfectly satisfactory examination, but was not in possession of the A. T. P. W. (he was from another jurisdiction). A member of the committee informed the Noble Grand and asked for instructions. The Noble Grand directed him to communicate the A. T. P. W. to the brother, who was then introduced to the Lodge. At a subsequent meeting of the Lodge, the visit of the brother was referred to, and the action of the Noble Grand called in question; the claim being made that under the law above referred to, the committee and Lodge should have required the brother to identify himself as the person named in the official certificate, in addition to the usual examination, and if an entire stranger to all present and unable to secure a personal identification, the pass words could not be communicated, unless he had an order for them in addition to a card or official certificate. The Noble Grand decided that the usual examination was all that was required.

Question—Which interpretation of the law was right?

Answer—The interpretation of the law as given by the Noble Grand. The law explicitly states, that the Noble Grand upon proper identification, is authorized to communicate the A. T. P. W. If therefore, the Noble Grand is satisfied, the law is complied with. The Noble Grand, however, in directing a member of the Examining Committee to communicate the A. T. P. W. to the brother, exceeded his authority, as this should be done by the Noble Grand personally.

No. 22. Statement—A brother presented himself to visit a Lodge in possession of an official certificate, showing his dues paid to within forty-two days of the date on which he desired to visit. The Noble Grand ruled that under the law, he was not entitled to visit. A Grand Representative present, retired and after a careful examination of the brother's credentials, and the work of the Order including the A. T. P. W., the brother being a member of another jurisdiction than of the Lodge he desired to visit, and to which the Grand Representative belonged, decided that the brother was a member in good standing in the Order and notified the Noble Grand that he would introduce the brother by virtue of his authority as an Elective Grand Officer and a Grand Representative. The Grand Representative was notified that the Lodge refused to permit the brother to be so introduced, unless the Grand Representative could convince them of his legal authority to do so. He then entered the Lodge room and read the law as found in the By-Laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, when the objection was withdrawn and the brother introduced. Subsequently the statement was made that the Grand Representative transgressed the laws of the Order in introducing the brother, basing the claim upon Decision No. 21, S. G. L. Journal, 1901. Another brother made the assertion that a Grand Officer could not introduce a visitor unless "He had sat in his Lodge with him."

"A." A Grand Representative informed the Lodge that neither of the statements were good law, and that the Lodge had no right to require a Grand Officer to show him the law, or to require him to inform the Lodge, how he had convinced himself that the brother was in good standing, and that their only right was to be convinced that the brother introducing, was an elective Grand Officer or Grand Representative of the same Jurisdiction as the Lodge.

Question—(a). Did the Grand Representative exceed his rights in the above case in introducing the brother?

Answer—No. See White's Digest, Section 1796.

Question 23—(b). Was his statement of the law correct in the last paragraph commencing with "A"?

Answer—Yes.

HONORS OF OFFICE.

No. 24. Statement—On the last meeting night in June the office of N. G. of Virginia Lodge, No. 1, was declared vacant. Every P. G. and P. Vice Grand was placed in nomination for N. G., all of whom declined. The Lodge then asked the D. D. G. M. for a dispensation to elect a member from the floor, the dispensation was granted. On the following meeting, being the first meeting in July, nominations were again had and all P. G.'s and P. V. G.'s declined to serve. An election was then held and the brother from the floor was elected and regularly installed by the D. D. G. M. as N. G. The N. G. served in the office the remainder of that meeting and until the second meeting night in July, when the regular officers were installed for the ensuing term.

The Constitution of Subordinate Lodges of this jurisdiction requires vacancies to be filled by election the second night of nomination, instead of on the night the vacancy occurs.

Question—Is not the brother elected and installed as above, a P. G. and entitled to the P. G.'s Degree, as soon as his successor is regularly installed?

Answer—Yes. It is assumed, however, that the Constitution of the Grand Jurisdiction of Nevada gives to the Grand Master and his District Deputies, power to grant dispensations governing such questions. See White's digest, Sections 1009, 1010, 1011 and 1021. Also Decision No. 18, S. G. L. Journal, 1900.

ELECTIONS.

No. 25. Statement—Upon the regular meeting night for the election of a Representative to the next session of our Grand Lodge (South Dakota) Brother A. was elected and his certificate issued to him. At the next meeting night one of the brothers who voted in the affirmative, moved a reconsideration of the vote of the previous night. The motion to reconsider, carried. Nominations were then made and Brother B. elected as Representative in the place of Brother A. and a certificate issued accordingly.

Question—Who is the legally elected Representative of such Lodge?

Answer—Brother A.

SALOONS.

No. 26. Statement—A member of the Order at the time of the adoption of Section 5, Article XVI, of the Constitution of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, was employed as superintendent of a club and as such had charge of the bar belonging to the club. He has continued in that business until the present time, and still continues therein. He now has an opportunity to become a stockholder in a hotel corporation and to be superintendent of the hotel. In that position he will have charge of the bar owned and run by the hotel, and will, when occasion requires, tend the bar.

Question—Does his ownership of shares of the capital stock of the hotel corporation constitute him a saloon keeper?

Answer—Yes. The license for a saloon being taken out in the name of the hotel corporation, of which he is a shareowner, he is therefore owner either in part or in whole, and as such he is held to be a saloon keeper. See the answer, as amended, to the third question contained in the Majority Report from the Judiciary Committee, No. 83, found on pages 362, 363, 372 and 373 of the S. G. L. Journal, 1901.

No. 27. Statement—In 1893 a Lodge surrendered its Charter. Among its members in good standing at that time, was one who then was, and ever since has been and now is, a saloon keeper.

Question—In view of Report No. 45, Session 1899, pages 319 and 320, adopted page 353, can he obtain from the Grand Lodge a withdrawal card, such as is mentioned in that Report and join a Lodge at the present time.

Answer—No.

No. 28. Question—Can an Ancient Odd Fellow, who has been a saloon keeper continuously from a period prior to the adoption of Article XVI, Section 5, of the Sovereign Grand Lodge Constitution, to the present time, be legally admitted to membership in a Subordinate Lodge? (See Grand Sires' Decisions, No. 28, 1897; No 158, 1899, and No. 30, 1901.)

Answer—No. You will note that Decisions Nos. 754, 756, 758 and 759

White's Digest, edition 1895, seem to favor the proposition of the brother's semi-connection with the Order, although an "Ancient Odd Fellow," while Decisions Nos. 755, 757, 760 and 761 White's Digest, seem to favor the proposition that an "Ancient Odd Fellow" has severed all connection with the Order. The last clause in Decision No. 754 White's Digest distinguishes between an "Ancient Odd Fellow" and the holder of a dismissal certificate. You will also note by examining the several decisions to which you have made reference, that Decision No. 28 rendered in 1897 related to a withdrawal card, Decision No. 158 in 1899 related to a suspended member, and Decision No. 30 of 1901 referred to the dismissal certificate, while your question relates to an Ancient Odd Fellow.

No. 29. Statement—A suspended member, who was in the saloon business at the time of the passage of the law by the Sovereign Grand Lodge prohibiting the admission of saloon keepers to membership, in his application for re-instatement, gave his occupation as a "farmer," when in fact he was actively engaged in the saloon business on the street and at the number given, and had been for several years. It is said that the Brother owns a farm near this city, where he is in business.

Question—Has the brother violated a law of the Sovereign Grand Lodge in giving his occupation as a "farmer" in stead of a "saloon keeper?"

Answer—If the applicant made a false statement in his application, he has committed an offense against the laws of the Order.

JEWELS, VETERAN, ETC.

No 30. It is held that a brother entitled thereto, may procure and wear, either the old or large size Veteran Jewel, or the small one recently authorized to be made and worn as a watch charm, or both, as he may elect. The same to be procured from the Grand Secretary of the Sovereign Grand Lodge through the Grand Secretary of the Grand Jurisdiction to which the brother belongs. A brother belonging to a Subordinate Lodge under the immediate Jurisdiction of the Sovereign Grand Lodge can procure one or both by making formal application therefor, direct to the Grand Secretary of the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

No 31. Statement—Some months ago one of our members, who is entitled to wear a Veteran Jewel, found Veteran Jewel No. 12 of Kansas in a pawnshop; thinking that a poor place for it, and perhaps it might be stolen, he bought it.

I wrote the Grand Secretary of Kansas, to ascertain whether or not it had been stolen, and he advised me that he had no way of learning to whom it belonged, as they kept no record of Veteran Jewels.

Question—(a) The brother who has the Jewel is desirous of knowing whether he can wear it?

Answer—No. Not lawfully, as no member of the Order is permitted to wear a Veteran Jewel, except he be entitled thereto, as certified, in accordance with the laws governing Veteran Jewels.

No. 32. Question—(b) If so, should I enter his record, which is complete, in my Veteran's Register.

Answer—No.

No. 33. Question—(c) Can I give him a number, and have the word "Kansas No. 12" erased and the words Washington No — put on?

Answer—No.

No. 34. Question—(d) Can I give him a half number.

Answer—No.

No. 33. Question—(e) Will he have to buy a new Jewel and take the number given by your Office.

Answer—Yes. (Number is given by the Grand Secretary.)

No. 34. Statement—A brother was initiated into Salt Lake Lodge No. 2, May 19, 1876, and continued in membership in same Lodge until July 1, 1885, when he was suspended for non-payment of dues, but was reinstated on October 20, 1885, and has continued his membership ever since, and is now in good standing.

Question—The brother makes application for a Veteran Jewel, is he, under the law, entitled to the same?

Answer—Yes. See Decision No. 14, found on pages 16,030 and 16,050 S. G. L. Journal, 1898, also Section 1230 White's Digest.

MIXED INDIAN AND WHITE BLOOD.

No. 35. Question.—Will it not be necessary for the Sovereign Grand Lodge to issue separate blank cards and official certificates to Grand Jurisdictions that take advantage of the new Law pertaining to the qualifying of Aborigines to become members, limiting their use strictly to such Grand Jurisdictions as have a mixed membership, in order to preserve the pristine power manifested in the Sovereign Grand Lodge's Credentials?

Answer—No.

No. 36. Question—Can the Supreme Law consistently allow a Grand Jurisdiction to exclude from its own membership a certain class of people, and because another Grand Jurisdiction has admitted that class of people into its membership, force through its credentials the Jurisdiction to which that class is objectionable, to welcome them into their Assemblies, to treat them as brothers and sisters, to hold their families as sacred objects of fraternal care, to give them tender attention and honorable reception in Lodge rooms and homes, not good Samaritan-like, as all good humanity should, relieving dire necessities, but David and Jonathan like with souls knit together?

Answer—We are governed by the laws of the Order. It matters not whether the legislators were consistent or not in so legislating.

No. 37. The Sovereign Grand Lodge reserves to itself the right to determine as to the qualifications necessary for an applicant to gain admission into the Order. The amendment to Section 2, of Article XVI, adopted in 1900 (See pp. 330 and 331 S. G. L. Journal), which provides, "That in Jurisdictions where there is a population composed of a mixture of Indian and white blood," that the Grand Bodies, "May, by legislation, provide for the admission of male persons of mixed Indian and white blood who have arrived at the age of twenty-one."

No. 38. It is held, therefore, that a person of mixed Indian and white blood, who has been duly admitted to membership in a Jurisdiction which has provided for the admission of such person, is an Odd Fellow in another Jurisdiction which does not provide for his admission; and if in possession of legal credentials, and being otherwise duly qualified is entitled to visit, and is also entitled to all the attaching rights and privileges which inure to him as such visitor. Section 1, Article XVI, declares that a member of any State, District or Territory "Is entitled to admission as a visitor, into the Lodges or Encampments, of every other State, District or Territory upon proving themselves, etc," and in possession of proper legal credentials in date, etc.

No. 39. No Jurisdiction can question the valid membership of an Odd Fellow residing in another Jurisdiction, who holds a legal visiting card with an order for the A. T. P. W. or an Official Certificate in date, and can prove himself to be a member, "According to the established work of the Order."

No. 40. It is further held that a person of mixed Indian and white blood who has become an Odd Fellow in a Jurisdiction that has provided for his admission, is not entitled or eligible to, legally, acquire membership by deposit of card or Official Certificate in a Jurisdiction which has not affirmatively provided for his admission upon original petition, even though he should become a citizen of the Jurisdiction which has not provided for the admission of such persons, and so far as the legal right of the Lodge to admit such persons to membership, is concerned, there is no difference between a petition upon deposit of Card, etc., and an ordinary petition.

No. 41. Statement—At the last communication of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, Section 2 of Article XVI, of its Constitution, was amended so as to provide, "That in Jurisdictions where there is a population composed of a mixture of Indian and white blood, a State Grand Lodge or Encampment may, by legislation, provide for the admission of male persons of mixed Indian and white blood who have arrived at the age of 21." Article XX provides that the Constitution of the Sovereign Grand Lodge shall be "Binding upon the State, District and Territorial Grand Lodges and Grand Encampments."

Question—Under the amendment above cited, can the Grand Lodge of Indian Territory now provide by legislation for the admission to the Order, of male persons of mixed Indian and white blood who have arrived at the age of twenty-one?

Answer—Yes.

No. 42. Question—Would it be a wise, judicious and patriotic act, for the Grand Sire to hold the law of amalgamation in abeyance until the Sovereign Grand Lodge could provide for its proper execution, without forcing an adjoining Jurisdiction like Texas to either disrespect itself or ignore the mandates of the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Answer—No. It is not within the province of the Grand Sire to nullify or "hold up" a law of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, because he may believe that its enactment was neither wise, judicious nor patriotic. It is his duty to construe it, without reference to any such considerations, and as construed by him, to enforce it. If he considers it constitutional, as enacted, he must enforce it without adjudicating upon its wisdom, judiciousness or patriotism; these are questions which concern only the legislative judgment of the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

REGALIA OF HIGHEST RANK TO BE WORN.

No. 43. Question—Must a Past Grand be clothed in a Past Grand's Regalia when visiting his own or any other Lodge?

Answer—He is entitled to, and should wear the Regalia designating the highest rank to which he has attained. See Article 24 of the By-Laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, also the instructions under the head of Regalia in the Ritual, in which, upon close examination, you will find there is no conflict.

ELECTIONS, SOLICITING IN LODGE ROOMS.

No. 44. Question—In the election of Officers for a Subordinate Lodge, is it permissible for one brother to ask another to vote for a certain nominee while in the Lodge room?

Answer—Yes. Unless prohibited by local law.

TRUSTEE.

No. 45. Question—Can a member hold the Office of Vice Grand and Trustee at the same time?

Answer—Yes. Trustee is not an Office provided by general law, but permitted by local law.

SUBORDINATE ENCAMPMENT DECISIONS.

Funds, Dues, Etc.

No. 46. Statement—The Encampment votes to hold a "Clam Bake" the cost of which, to each person taking part, will be $1.25. A committee on arrangements being appointed, sends out return postal cards, and upon the results, orders 50 "Bakes." At the next Encampment meeting after the event, a deficiency of $8.00 is reported, which, upon motion, is ordered paid from the funds of the Encampment.

Question—Had the Encampment the right to pay for this deficiency out of the funds of its Treasury?

Answer—No.

No. 47. Statement—The dues of an Encampment are $6.00 per year, and on the death of a Patriarch the other members are assessed one dollar for funeral benefits, and at the expiration of three months from the date of assessment, if not paid, it is charged as dues. Now a member becomes in arrears for one year's dues, actually charged, and there are six deaths for which there is charged to him six dollars. The dues and assessments make twelve dollars.

Question—Does he have to owe the twelve dollars, as stated, to be dropped, or the six dollars for dues?

Answer—It is held that the Patriarch can be dropped when he is in arrears more than six dollars for dues, as provided by local law. See Section 300, White's Digest, edition 1895.

REBEKAH DECISIONS.

Membership.

No. 48. Statement—The Rebekah Lodge at Bridgeport, Mono County, California, working under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of California, initiated Brother Nelson Poli and his wife, also Miss Minolo Green, all of whom were residents of Esmeralda County, Nevada, and under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Nevada when they were initiated by the Rebekah Lodge at Bridgeport, and have ever since remained residents of Esmeralda County, Nevada. That said Lodge knew at the time they initiated said candidates, that they were residents of Esmeralda County, Nevada, and under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Nevada. That said parties were initiated by said Lodge at Bridgeport, without the consent of the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Nevada.

Question—Was not this action a clear violation of the law as contained in Section 3, Article XVI of the Constitution of the Sovereign Grand Lodge?

Answer—Yes.

No. 49. Statement—A married woman, whose husband is an Odd Fellow, desires to join a Rebekah Lodge. She does not live with her husband, nor is she divorced from him. She has a brother who is a member in good standing in a Subordinate Lodge. She desires to have her brother's certificate appear on her application, instead of her husband's.

Question—Can she make application as the sister of an Odd Fellow, or must she make application as the wife of an Odd Fellow?

Answer—Not having been legally divorced from her husband, although she does not live with him, she is his wife, and should make application for membership as the wife of an Odd Fellow. See S. G. L. Journal 1896, pages 14,676, 14,948, 15,609 and also pages 33 of the Rebekah Code and Digest of Laws.

No. 50. Question—Is there any legal way that a member in good standing in one Rebekah Lodge can obtain membership in another without taking a withdrawal or dismissal card?

Answer—Yes. See Decision No. 60, found on page 29 of the S. G. L. Journal 1899.

No. 51. Question—Is the wife of an Odd Fellow holding an unexpired withdrawal card, eligible to membership in a Rebekah Lodge?

Answer—No. See Section 6, subdivision 2, of the Rebekah Code which provides for membership in Rebekah Lodges, "2. All Odd Fellows in good standing, their wives, daughters, mothers, etc.," which makes good standing of an Odd Fellow a condition precedent to eligibility to membership. See White's Digest, Sections 765 and 766.

No. 52. Question—Would the fact that the Brother, after taking a withdrawal card, goes into the saloon business, affect her eligibility to membership in a Rebekah Lodge, so long as his Subordinate Lodge fails to expel him?

Answer—Yes. He is not a contributing member in good standing.

No. 53. Question—Is the wife of an Odd Fellow holding an expired withdrawal card, eligible to membership in a Rebekah Lodge?

Answer—No.

No. 54. Statement—A Rebekah Lodge was instituted in this State, Nevada, on the 22d of Feb. by the President of the Rebekah Assembly under a dispensation from the Grand Master. Among the petitioners was a lady whose husband is not an Odd Fellow, and neither does her father, brother, or son belong to the Order.

The D. D. G. M. of that District advised this lady that she had a perfect right to join in the petition for a Charter and under his advice, she signed the petition and received the Rebekah Degree with twenty-five other petitioners.

After she had received the Degree, a member of Ruth Lodge No. 10 called the attention of the President of the Assembly to the foregoing facts, which was the first knowledge she had that the lady in question was ineligible to membership.

The foregoing mistake was occasioned by the ignorance of the D. D. G. M., he firmly believing that the law had been changed, so as to admit married ladies whose husbands are not Odd Fellows.

Question—Should not this lady be required to resign her membership in the Order, and if she refuses, should she not be expelled?

Answer—It is held to be neither right nor legal to expel this lady. She would be absolved from secrecy when her membership was severed. See S. G. L. Journals, as follows: 1848, page 1280; 1849, pages 1475 and 1511; 1851, pages 1722, 1723 and 1797; 1853, pages 2146 and 2177; 1878, pages 7802 and 7842; 1887, pages 10,715, 10,952 and 11,005; also Decision 67, pages 30, 364 and 365, Journal 1899.

ASSESSMENTS.

No. 55. Question—Is it permissible for a Rebekah Lodge to levy assessments to be charged and collected as dues, which assessment is for funeral purposes and is provided for as funeral dues?

Answer—No. The Lodge may raise its annual dues to such sum as it may deem proper, and can then make donations when needed, but not by specific levy. See Decision No. 44, pages 33, 361 and 372, S. G. L. Journal 1901.

No. 56. Statement—At the last session of the Grand Lodge held at Marion, Ohio, in the month of May, Section 177 of the Rebekah Code was amended, so that all Rebekah By-Laws should be submitted to me for my approval. A Rebekah Lodge has submitted to me the following: "Art. XXIV. The sisters of this Lodge shall pay the sum of forty cents per year, to be set apart as a Nurse Fund, for the purpose of nursing sick or disabled sisters; said sum to be paid as part of the annual dues, over and above the one dollar provided for in Article XII."

Question—Can a Rebekah Lodge make provision for a nurse fund for sisters only?

Answer—Yes.

INSTALLATION, WHO ELIGIBLE TO ACT.

No. 57. Question—Where there are Past Noble Grands (Sisters) in good standing in a Rebekah Lodge, who are willing to assist at Installation of Officers, can a Lady D. D. G. M. appoint for Grand Officers, those who are not Past Noble Grands? See White's Digest, Section 1176, also Digest and Code for Rebekah Lodges, edition of 1900, Section 50 under Installation of Officers.

Answer—Only in cases of emergency can other than Past Grands or Past Noble Grands be permitted to act at the Installation of Officers.

OFFICER ILLEGALLY INSTALLED, EFFECT OF.

No. 58. Question—What is the standing of an Officer who is installed by other than Past Noble Grands, a Lodge protesting, and by vote, refusing to assume any responsibility of the legality of the action?

Answer—The Officer installed does not suffer the penalty, but the penalty must fall on the Special Deputy Grand Master who violates the law, so that the standing of the Officer so installed cannot be questioned. Installation is not a judicial, but merely an auxiliary proceeding and cannot affect the standing of a regularly elected officer. If the election of any Officer is regular, installation cannot affect his or her standing any more than illegally elected Officers can be cured by a regular installation.

REBEKAH A. T. P. W. AND A. P. W.

No. 59. Question—Can a Grand Representative give to a President of a Rebekah State Assembly, the A. T. P. W. for Rebekah Lodges?

Answer—No. The A. T. P. W. is communicated to the Grand Master or Grand Patriarch by a Grand Representative, and by them in turn through their Deputies to the Subordinate Bodies. The A. P. W. is communicated to the Grand Master, who through his Deputies communicates the same to the Rebekah Lodges, unless otherwise authorized by local law.

CIPHER OR KEY.

No. 60. Question—Can the "Cipher or Key" of the Rebekah Branch be placed in the care and custody of the Secretary of the Rebekah Assembly, that Officer having been authorized to purchase and sell all Rebekah supplies?

Answer—The "Cipher or Key" can be sold only to the Grand Secretaries and Grand Scribes of the several Jurisdictions.

DELEGATES, MEMBERS, RIGHT OF.

No. 61. Statement—The answer to question No. 48, page 34, of the Journal of Proceedings of the Sovereign Grand Lodge for the year 1901, is as follows: "Answer—All Past Noble Grands, all Past Grands of Subordinate Lodges in good standing in a Rebekah Lodge, and all who have heretofore received the Assembly Degree, are members, whether delegates or not, and on presenting themselves with satisfactory proof of qualification, must be admitted to the Assembly."

Question—In the light of the above, are we to understand that such "Members" whether delegates or not, possess a legislative and judiciary function in the Assembly, and have a right to the floor on all questions ("Assembly Officers included") and have the further right to act on any Committee?

Answer—No. Only such members have a right to legislate or serve on a Committee, or vote for Assembly Officers, as have been duly authorized by the Rebekah Assembly, provided that the action of the Assembly giving such authority has been approved by the Grand Lodge to which the Assembly is subordinate. The Code provides the general qualifications for membership in Rebekah Assemblies, but relegates all matters of construction to the Subordinate Grand Lodges, who are privileged to confer as much thereof as they deem best upon their respective Assemblies. See Decisions Nos. 47, 57, 58 and 59, S. G. L. Journal 1901.

No. 62. Question—Can Past Grands of Subordinate Lodges, who are members in good standing in their Rebekah Lodges, vote for Assembly Officers at the annual elections held in their Rebekah Lodges?

Answer—Only such members of the Rebekah Degree, as have been duly authorized by the State Assembly, concurred in by the Grand Lodge, can vote for Assembly Officers at the annual election held in the Rebekah Lodge. See citations to previous decision. See also Sec. 513, W. D. 1895.

PATRIARCHS MILITANT DECISIONS.

Nominations, Elections, Etc.

No. 63. Statement—A Chevalier is nominated for Major and another is nominated for Lieutenant Colonel. Nominations are closed. The election is being held. Votes are being cast for the Chevalier nominated for Major, for the position of Lieutenant Colonel, although not nominated for that Office, and he is receiving about two votes to one cast for the regular nominee.

Question—(a) In the event that the Chevalier who was not nominated for Lieutenant Colonel should receive more votes than the one who was regularly nominated, would he be entitled to the commission?

Answer—No. The commission should be issued to the Chevalier who had been regularly nominated.

No. 64. Question—(b) Should the election be declared null and void?

Answer—No. The nomination and election of one candidate was regular. The votes cast for the one not regularly nominated, as provided by law, should not be counted.

SHOULDER STRAPS.

No. 65. Question—What Shoulder Straps, Insignia, etc., shall be worn by an Aid-de-Camp on the Staff of the Commander-in-Chief?

Answer—The acorns and the leaf.

RANK, ETC.

No. 66. Question—Has an Officer who has attained the rank of Captain, whether in active command or retired, the right to wear the Insignia designating the rank?

Answer—Yes.

MUSTERING IN OF CANTONS, ETC.

No. 67. Statement—It is apparent that there has been a desire among the Patriarchs of the State of South Dakota to organize a Canton of the Patriarchs Militant. We have several members from that State, who belong here in Minneapolis, and they have about made up their minds to start a Canton at Gary, which is across the line in South Dakota. They would like very much to be attached to the Department of Minnesota, until they can start another Canton, or enough to have a battalion.

Question—Will the laws of the Order permit such an undertaking, and can this Department issue them a warrant, authorizing them to organize such a Canton and have them in turn report to this Department?

Answer—The laws of the P. M. Code will permit the Patriarchs to organize a Canton to be located in South Dakota, but the Department of Minnesota is without authority to issue such Patriarchs a warrant. When a Canton is once organized in South Dakota, it would be illegal to attach it to the Department of Minnesota. Sections 4, 16 and 30 of the P. M. Code will fully answer the questions as submitted by the Department Commander of Minnesota.

GRAND LODGE DECISIONS.

Homes, Etc.

No. 68. Statement—Under the general incorporation laws of Alabama, the Grand Lodge may create a benevolent corporation for the purpose of erecting and conducting an Odd Fellows Home for aged Odd Fellows, and the widows and children of Odd Fellows, exclusively, retaining the control of the management of same through Trustees elected by the Grand Lodge.

Question—(a) Would the creation of such a corporation by the Grand Lodge of Alabama, be in violation of any law of Odd Fellowship?

Answer—It is held that there is no law of the Order forbidding the Grand Lodge of Alabama creating a benevolent corporation, for the purposes set forth in the statement. It is further held, that the Trustees mentioned in the statement, are members, as well as Trustees, of the Grand Lodge, that the Grand Lodge of Alabama being incorporated under the laws of Alabama, could delegate all the necessary powers to its Trustees to establish, manage, etc., a home.

No. 69. Question—(b) Are Decisions No. 97, 98 and 99, S. G. L. Journal 1901, to be so construed as to hold that a Subordinate Grand Lodge has no right to create a benevolent corporation, for the purpose of erecting and managing a home, exclusively for aged Odd Fellows, and widows and orphans of Odd Fellows, or do they hold only that under the resolution adopted by the Grand Lodge of Alabama that the Trustees were not authorized to create such a benevolent corporation?

Answer—Decisions Nos. 97, 98 and 99, S. G. L. Journal 1901, are not to be construed as to hold that a Subordinate Grand Lodge has no right to create a benevolent corporation, provided that said benevolent corporation has for its object, the purposes as set forth in the statement, and the same is to be under the control of the Trustees elected by the Grand Lodge, who in turn are both members and Trustees of the Grand Lodge.

No. 70. Statement—For some years past there has been in existence an "Odd Fellows Home Association" in our State, a regularly incorporated organization and independent of our Grand Body, not being responsible to it for its actions. This corporation is made up of voluntary membership of the Lodges which may join, those Lodges being subject to certain "Dues." There has been a determined effort for some years past to place this Home under the control of our State Grand Body and last year the question was submitted to the Lodge for an individual vote, said vote to be expressive of opinion only and not binding in any way; this was for a majority against acceptance, and the Grand Lodge at its last session by a representative vote decided not to accept it. After this action the Grand Lodge by an almost unanimous representative vote, considered and adopted the following:

"Brother Frank W. Tussey, G. R., of No. 76, offered the following resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Finance:

DONATION OF TEN CENTS PER MEMBER FOR THIS YEAR TO ODD FELLOWS' HOME ASSOCIATION.

Resolved, That the Grand Lodge donate to the Odd Fellows' Home Association the sum equal to ten cents per member for this year and that the Finance Committee make proper provision for the same. This to be paid to the Odd Fellows' Home Association as received by proper draft.

The Finance Committee offered the following report:

TAX OF TEN CENTS PER MEMBER FOR HOME.

"To the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. of New Jersey:

Your Finance Committee, to whom the resolution of a donation to the Odd Fellows' Home Association was referred, which reads as follows: 'Resolved, That the Grand Lodge donate to the Odd Fellows' Home Association a sum equal to ten cents per member for this year and that the Finance Committee make proper provision for the same. This amount to be paid to the Home Association as received by proper drafts,' would report that they see no objection to making the proposed donation, providing the per capita tax is increased ten cents to the present rate, making the new rate 35 cents. That power rests with this Grand Lodge.

Faternally submitted

John T. Hilton,

John J. Bechtold,

Thomas B. Fitzgerald,

Finance Committee."

The result showed ayes, 181; nays, 19.

The Grand Master declared that a large majority of the Representatives having voted in favor of the increased per capita tax of ten cents per member, to be appropriated to the Home Association, the report of the Finance Committee was adopted and the increased amount ordered to be added to the per capita tax for the coming year.

Question—(a) Has a Grand Lodge power to assess its Subordinates to help support a home, not under the complete control of said Grand Lodge?

Answer—No. The Grand Lodge can only assess its Subordinates for necessary and lawful purposes, and Subordinate Lodges assessed cannot lawfully refuse to pay, without placing themselves in insubordination to the Grand Lodge. A Subordinate Lodge, feeling that an illegal tax has been placed upon it, can pay the same under protest and afterwards exercise its right of appeal from the action of the Grand Lodge.

No. 71. Question—(b) Has the Grand Lodge of New Jersey power, under its present Constitution, to assess its Subordinates for any purpose other than to raise such amounts as may be necessary for its own support? (That part of the Constitution to which reference is made viz.: Section 1, of Article VII, and Section 4, of Article X, reads as follows:

"Section 1, of Article VII. The Revenue of this Lodge shall be raised solely for defraying the necessary expenses thereof, and shall not be appropriated to any purpose foreign to the objects of the Order."

"Section 4, of Article X. Each Lodge Subordinate to this Grand Lodge, shall pay such annual capitation tax upon each member reported in good standing as may be fixed by a two-thirds majority vote of the Grand Lodge at each regular annual session, such tax to be payable to the Grand Secretary within ten days after the close of the term.")

Answer—No.

GRAND MASTER, POWER OF.

No. 72. Question—(c) Has the Grand Master, by duty or right, the power to interpret the Constitution of the Grand Lodge as it applies to an act already committed by said Grand Lodge, and to be consummated during his term of Office immediately following said action, or is he bound to carry out said action without proper warrant of Constitutional provision? (This question is predicated on Statement No. 83.)

Answer—Yes, subject to the revision of the Grand Lodge at its ensuing session.

GRAND REPRESENTATIVE, ELECTION AND QUALIFICATION OF.

No. 73. Statement—It has been the custom in the Grand Jurisdiction of Colorado when a Grand Representative was declared elected at the session of the Grand Lodge, held in October of each year, to put his name on the roll of Grand Officers published in the Journal of Proceedings and in the list of Grand Officers published in the Colorado Odd Fellow, although his credentials were not presented to the Sovereign Grand Lodge until the September following, nearly one year later. At the session held last October, we changed the time of meeting to August in each year, and our next meeting will be the third Tuesday of August, 1903. The usual custom of publishing the new names was adhered to, and the question has arisen who is the actual Grand Representative, the one who attended the session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge at Indianapolis last September, or the one who has never been to a Sovereign Grand Lodge session?

Question—At what time does a brother elected, actually become a Grand Representative, and entitled to perform the duties and receive the honors of that office, when he is declared elected by a Grand Lodge or Encampment, or not until his credentials are accepted by the Sovereign Grand Lodge?

Answer—Not until his credentials have been presented to, and approved by, the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and he given a seat in that Body. See Sections 562 and 563. White's Digest, edition 1895.

No. 74. Statement—A Grand Representative-elect from the Grand Encampment, was not a member of the Rebekah Lodge, and, of course, he was not eligible.

Question—Can he now take the Rebekah Degree and fill the office of Grand Representative at the next meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge?

Answer—He must possess all the qualifications, as required by law, at the time of his election. See Decisions No. 106, page 49, S. G. L. Journal 1901; also Section 553 White's Digest.

No. 75. Question—If a brother elected to the position of Grand Representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge, was not at the time he was elected, qualified, as required by the laws of the Order, should the Grand Patriarch refuse to sign his credentials and declare the office vacant?

Answer—The Grand Patriarch cannot lawfully refuse to sign his credentials, nor can he lawfully declare the office vacant, the Board of Canvassers having certified that the Patriarch had received the votes necessary to elect. The Sovereign Grand Lodge has reserved unto itself the right to determine as to who is, and who is not, entitled to a seat in that Body.

No. 76. Statement—Brother H. L. McKee, a member of Central Lodge No. 18 of Selma, Ala., was nominated for Grand Representative at the last session of our Grand Lodge; while he still holds his membership in Central Lodge No. 18 of this jurisdiction, he has been in business in the State of Mississippi, for a number of years, and has resided in Meridian, Mississippi, with his family for about two or three years.

Question—(a) If Brother McKee is elected Grand Representative and at the time of his election he resided in Meridian, Miss., with his family, would he be eligible to represent the Grand Lodge of Alabama in the Sovereign Grand Lodge?

Answer—The question of eligibility to a seat in the Sovereign Grand Lodge is determined by that Body alone.

No. 77. Question—(b) If elected Grand Representative and after such election or before the meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge he removes with his family to Alabama, would he by such removal become eligible to represent the Grand Lodge in the Sovereign Grand Lodge?

Answer—The Sovereign Grand Lodge reserves to itself the right to determine as to who is and who is not eligible to a seat in that Body. He must meet the requirements of the laws of our Order.

No. 78. Question—(c) Do the words of Section 3, Article IX, of the Sovereign Grand Lodge Constitution "and he must reside in the State," mean to apply that a Grand Representative must be a citizen of the State? or do they mean that he must actually live in the State?

Answer—He must be a bona fide citizen, a legal voter in the State in which the Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment, he seeks to represent, is located, to entitle him to a seat in the Sovereign Grand Lodge. See Section 3, Article IX, White's Digest; also Decision No. 106, 1901.

No. 79. Question—(d) Is a Grand Representative eligible to represent his Grand Lodge in the Sovereign Grand Lodge, if at the time of his election he stood suspended in his Rebekah Lodge for non-payment of dues?

Answer—No.

No. 80. Question—(e) Is a Grand Representative eligible to represent his Grand Lodge in the Sovereign Grand Lodge if at the time of his election he stood suspended in his Rebekah Lodge for non-payment of dues, but if after his election he was reinstated?

Answer—No. He must possess all the necessary qualifications, as required by law, at the time of his election. With this as well as with the preceding questions, it is held that the Sovereign Grand Lodge is alone the judge of the qualifications of its members to a seat in that Body.

SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTION.

No. 81. Question—(a) Can a Grand Representative hold a school of instruction in the Subordinate Lodges for the purpose of instructing the members of the Order in good standing, in the Unwritten or Secret Work of the Order?

Answer—No; except that the laws of the Grand Jurisdiction of Alabama give the Grand Representative such authority, or the Grand Master has specially deputed the Grand Representative to do so.

No. 82. Question—(b) Can a Grand Representative at such School of Instruction, communicate to Past Grands, who are in possession of the proper credentials, the "Past Official" and the "Grand Lodge Degree?"

Answer—No. The Grand Lodge Degree can only be conferred at a regular session of a Grand Lodge, or at a special session of a Grand Lodge, called for that purpose, and then only by the officer legally authorized by the laws of the Order to do so, and upon such members as present themselves with proper credentials, as provided by law. The Past Grand's Degree is conferred only during the session of a Grand Lodge, except as otherwise provided by law. See Sections 246 and 247, White's Digest, edition 1895.

No. 83. Statement—A Grand Representative who is a printer, and who is acquainted with the depleted condition of the treasury of the Sovereign Grand Lodge at the time, is permitted to bid on the work of printing the Journal of Proceedings of the S. G. L. After receiving blank forms for bids from the Grand Secretary, he enters into a conspiracy with a large printing establishment that had also received blank forms for bids, with the understanding that after bidding together the company was to do the work and the Grand Representative was to get a stated percentage out of the job. The percentage would amount to between $150.00 and $200.00, which the Grand Representative was to receive without doing any of the work. In order that the two bid together, the company had to raise its bid above that of the previous year, when it did the same work, to the amount of the Grand Representative's percentage.

Question—Did this act render the Grand Representative guilty of conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow?

Answer—Yes.

No. 84. Statement—A Grand Representative of the Sovereign Grand Lodge secured the contract for printing the Journal of Proceedings of the Sovereign Grand Lodge in 1897-98. He seems to have known at the time he made his bid that there were printers in his own city, the one where the office of the Sovereign Grand Lodge is located, who could have done the work at a much less rate than that stated in his bid. After securing the contract he sublet it, paid $2,341.75 to have the work done, then he presented his bill to the Sovereign Grand Lodge and collected $3,142.25, thereby clearing $800.50, besides enabling the other printer to make his profit on the work. In comparing the bills, it is found that a good deal of this profit is made up by enormous overcharges for items not in the contract; for instance, the Grand Representative charges the S. G. L. $108.00 for an item not in the contract for which he paid $54.00; he represents that he paid $6.00 for freight when in fact only $4.50 was paid, and that he paid $18.35 for cartage, when in fact only $13.25 was paid.

Question—Did this make the Grand Representative guilty of conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow?

Answer—Yes; if any undue advantage was taken of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, or its committee.

GRAND LODGE, OFFICE OF, AND POWERS.

No. 85. Statement—The Constitution of the Grand Lodge of this Jurisdiction (North Carolina) is silent and fixes no place as a location of itself, or of the Grand Secretary's office. A resolution adopted by the Grand Lodge locates the office of the Grand Secretary permanently in Raleigh, upon certain conditions (not necessary to state in this connection), but the Grand Lodge meets at such places as the majority of the members decide from time to time.

Question—If the Grand Lodge is in session at any other point than at Raleigh, the Grand Secretary being present, as the Constitution requires, is the office still in Raleigh, or does he carry the office with him for the time being?

Answer—The Grand Lodge when it adopted the resolution declaring that the office of Grand Secretary should be permanently located in the city of Raleigh, only fixed the location of that office. The absence of the Grand Secretary, temporarily, from the office, does not remove the office. The Grand Lodge being a movable body, can meet at such place as it may determine from time to time, but whenever and wherever it meets, the Grand Secretary should be present with the Charter and such records, laws, rituals, Cipher or Key to the Unwritten Work, etc., as may be necessary for the transaction of such business as may be presented to the Grand Lodge.

No. 86. Statement—Our "Constitution for the Government of Subordinate Lodges," adopted by the Grand Lodge of Virginia, I. O. O. F., Article III, Section 1, reads thus:—

ARTICLE III.

"Membership and Degrees

"Section 1. Candidates for membership must be white males of the full age of twenty-one years, of good moral character, and shall believe in a Supreme Being, the Creator and Preserver of the Universe; and who is not a saloon-keeper, bartender, or professional gambler, and be recommended by two members of the Lodge. The petition shall state the age of the applicant, his occupation and residence, and bear his signature.

The fee for admission must accompany the petition; the fee under this section shall be regulated by each Lodge, but shall not be less than $2.00 for the initiatory Degree, and not less than $2.00 for each of the other Degrees. It shall not be lawful to lessen the fees for initiatory, or any other Degrees, by donation or any other device." This is the only reference we have to the minimum fees in our Constitution of the Grand Lodge, General Laws, or Constitution for Subordinates.

Question—(a) As long as the above quoted law remains in force, have we the right to confer initiatory and three Degrees on persons in order that they may become Charter members of a new Lodge, for any sum less than $8.00?

Answer—No. It being understood that when you say "Have we a right," etc., that you refer to the Subordinate Lodges.

No. 87. Question—(b) Can our Grand Lodge by a simple resolution, and while the above law remains in force, permit four Degrees to be conferred on persons to enable them to become Charter members of a new Lodge for $5.00 or any sum less than $8.00?

Answer—Yes. The Sovereign Grand Lodge and Grand Lodges have no other way than by resolution, to enact laws for the government of Subordinate Lodges under their immediate jurisdiction, respectively.

CONSTITUTION, AMENDMENTS OF.

No. 88. Statement—Article VI, Section 2, of the By-Laws of the Grand Lodge is as follows, to-wit:—

"All amendments to the Constitution provided by this Grand Lodge for its Subordinates shall be proposed in writing, and shall lie over for one day before being acted upon."

The Grand Master having recommended that legislation of a certain character be had, not presenting any form, and the matter having been referred to the Legislative Committee, the following proceedings were had on the last day of the session of 1901, to-wit:—

"The Committee on Legislation submitted the following report which was considered and laid over for one year:—

"Your Committee on Legislation having under consideration the recommendation of the Grand Master relative to Section 9, of Article XII, of the Constitution of Subordinate Lodges, would recommend in lieu of said section, the following:—

"In case of the death of a member of this Lodge, who shall be legally entitled to benefits at the date of such death under the provisions of Section 7 of this Article, there shall be appropriated toward defraying the expenses of his funeral, an amount not to exceed $100.00. This appropriation shall be expended by the Noble Grand, or such other party as the charge of the funeral may have been entrusted to. But if the deceased shall have been lost at sea, or have been buried in such a way that neither the Lodge to which the deceased belonged, nor any other branch of the Order of Odd Fellows, shall have been subjected to any expense thereby, then no funds shall be drawn from the treasury of the Lodge under this section, provided that Subordinate Lodges shall have power to create in addition to the funeral expenses above provided for, a funeral benefit fund by assessment, such an assessment not to exceed the sum of $1.00 at any one time, and the same to be paid to the family or dependent relatives, and shall not exceed the sum of $100.00 or be less than $25.00.

The Journal of 1901 does not show just how this matter was again referred to the committee, but, on the last day of the session, the following proceedings appear, to-wit:

"The Committee on Legislation presented the following report, which was considered and adopted:—

"Your Committee on Legislation, to whom was referred the recommendation of the Grand Master relative to Section 9, of Article XII, of the Constitution of Subordinate Lodges, laid over from last term, would recommend in lieu of said section the following:—

"In case of the death of a member of this Lodge, who shall be legally entitled to benefits at the date of such death, under the provisions of Section 7 of this Article, there shall be appropriated toward defraying the expenses of his funeral, an amount not to exceed $100.00. This appropriation shall be expended by the Noble Grand or such other party as the Noble Grand may designate to have charge of the funeral. But if the deceased shall have been lost at sea, or have been buried in such a way that neither the Lodge to which the deceased belonged, nor any other branch of the Order of Odd Fellows, shall have been subjected to any expense thereby, then no funds shall be drawn from the treasury of the Lodge under this section; provided that Subordinate Lodges shall have power to create, in addition to the funeral expenses above provided for, a funeral benefit, the same to be paid to the family or dependent relatives, not to exceed the sum of $100.00 or less than $25.00."

The report of 1901 being that its recommended section be adopted "in lieu" of the section laid over, all changes having been made in committee and not moved as amendments to the proposed amendment of 1900 while the same was under consideration by the Grand Lodge.

Question—Was, or was not, this proposition of 1901 a new proposition in writing, requiring to be laid over, at least one day before adoption?

Answer—Yes. It was a new proposition.

No. 89. Statement—Conceding that the laying over for more than one day was sufficient, and that the laying over for one year is satisfied by action had at the next regular session, though a day short of one year; but calling attention to the differences between the proposition laid over and the one adopted (though admitting for the purpose of this question, that the changes were true amendments and did not make an entirely new proposition), and further calling attention to the rulings of the Sovereign Grand Lodge in regard to amendments by pending propositions which are required by the law to lie over:—See Journals of 1846, p. 863 (as to Const. S. G. L.); 1876, pp. 7,024, 7,078 (appeal from Illinois), and 1884, pp. 9,736, inq. 8, 9,802 (Judiciary Committee Reversed).

Question—Was the above amendment lawfully adopted, so that the same is now a part of the Constitution for Subordinates?

Answer—No.

GRAND ENCAMPMENT DECISIONS.

Amendments to Constitution Go Into Effect, When.

No. 90. Statment—An amendment to the Consitution of the Grand Encampment of Missouri adopted at its session held November 20th, 1900, at Clinton, Missouri, which reads as follows:—

"Constitution of the Grand Encampment, I. O. O. F., Missouri, Art. VI, Section 4. At the last stated meeting of each Subordinate Encampment in August, the Past Chief Patriarchs (and Past High Priests who are members of the Grand Encampment) in good standing in each Encampment, shall vote for Grand Officers, a poll being opened especially for that purpose in open Encampment, under the direction of the Chief Patriarch. As soon as the poll is closed the votes shall be counted by the Chief Patriarch and Scribe and a record of the same be made, and the result, together with the names of the Past Chief Patriarchs voting, shall be certified by the Past Chief Patriarch and Scribe, under seal of the Encampment and forwarded to the Committee on Election of Grand Officers, enclosed in an envelope for that purpose marked, "Election returns from _____ Encampment No. _____." No returns shall be valid until made out in accordance with the provisions of this section. Said returns so made, shall be forwarded to the Committee on Elections of Grand Officers on or before the first day of September.

"No Patriarch can vote by proxy; he must be present in the Encampment on the night of Election and personally cast his vote for Grand Officers.

"Whenever any Encampment has failed to send to the Committee on Election for Grand Officers, its election returns by the 15th day of September, the Chairman of said Committee shall immediately address and send a communication to such Encampment, and request that the returns of the election be at once transmitted to him."

Question—(a) Has the above amendment been approved by either you or the Sovereign Grand Lodge?

Answer—No.

No. 91 Question—(b) Can the above amendment, as set forth, go into effect and become a law, until approved by the Grand Sire or the Sovereign Grand Lodge?

Answer—No. All amendments to the Constitution of the Grand Bodies must be approved by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, or the Grand Sire during a recess, subject to the approval or reversal by the Sovereign Grand Lodge. See Section 424 White's Digest.

CANVASS OF VOTES, WHICH MUST BE COUNTED.

No 92. Statement—The Committee on Elections for Grand Encampment Officers, meets in the city of St. Louis, Mo., on the first Monday in November, 1901, to count and canvass the votes as cast by the Past Chief Patriarchs and Past High Priests for Grand Encampment Officers. They will have before them returns from some Encampments that held their election in September of 1901 and from other Encampments that held their election in August.

Question—Which votes shall they reject as not being legally cast, those cast in August, or those cast in September?

Answer—The votes cast in August.

SESSIONS OF THE GRAND ENCAMPMENT, CAN VACANCIES BE FILLED, ETC.

No. 93. Statement—The Grand Encampment of Missouri, I. O. O. F., is composed of thirty Representatives from Districts, therefore has a District system of representation. Nominations for Grand Encampment Officers are made in open session of the Grand Encampment or by any Past Chief Patriarch transmitting to the Grand Patriarch the name of any member who is eligible according to law. Nominations are closed at a time fixed by constitutional law. Elections are held in each Subordinate Encampment at a specified time, when each Past Chief Patriarch and Past High Priest are accorded the inherent right of voting for Grand Officers.

At the session of the Grand Encampment of Missouri, November, 1900, Brother G. was nominated for Grand Patriarch and no other nomination for this Office was made. After the time had passed for the closing of the nominations and previous to the time of voting in Subordinate Encampments, Brother G. died. The list of nominees as sent out by the Grand Scribe, contained no name for Grand Patriarch.

Question—(a) Can the Grand Encampment of Missouri, when it meets in its annual session in November, 1901, proceed to hold an election for a Grand Patriarch?

Answer—Elections to fill vacancies should be held in accordance with the requirements of the Constitution of the Grand Encampment, I. O. O. F., of Missouri.

No. 94. Question—(a) Should not the Grand Encampment order a Special Election to be held in the Subordinate Encampments to select or at least give the Past Chief Patriarchs and Past High Priests a chance to exert (exercise) the inherent right of first voting for the Grand Patriarch?

Answer—Same as to the preceding question.

MISCELLANEOUS DECISIONS.

Property, Joint Ownership.

No. 95. Statement—King Lodge No. 184, of Grundy, Va., desires to build a Hall in connection with the Missionary Baptist Church of that place, jointly, and to have the deed made jointly to them. The Odd Fellows to occupy part of the building, and the Church part.

Question—Is there any objections or law against the same?

Answer—No. See White's Digest, Sections 355 and 357. In order that the rights and interests of the parties thereto be clearly set forth and protected, it is further held that the deed or conveyance should be made to each of them for the aliquot part held by each. If in equal parts, then the deed or conveyance should be made for the undivided one-half to each by name.

FUNDS, CONTINGENT.

No. 96. Question—Can the "Contingent Fund" under the decision of Grand Sire Pinkerton No. 147, page 3687, Sovereign Grand Lodge Journal, 1899, be used for suppers where none but members of the Order are present, the object being to promote the interests of the Order?

Answer—Yes.

No. 97. Question—A dispensation having been asked, can a Lodge use the "Contingent Fund" for a public entertainment or dance, followed by a supper, the object being to arouse interest in the Order?

Answer—No.

No. 98. Question—A dispensation having been asked, can the "Contingent Fund" be used for the public celebration of the anniversary of the Order, with an entertainment and banquet following?

Answer—Yes.

CIPHER OR KEY.

No. 99. Statement—The Cipher or Key is only to be seen by those who require the use of such works in giving instruction, etc.

Question—Does this mean only the Official Instructors appointed by the Grand Lodge, or does it mean any Noble Grand or Past Grand who has authority from his Lodge to instruct?

Answer—It is held that only such members of the Order are eligible to see or study the Cipher or Key to the Unwritten Work as are duly authorized to give instruction therein by the Laws of the Grand Jurisdiction, and such as are designated in the Ritual.

No. 100. Question—Who are authorized to examine the Cipher and Cipher Key of the Unwritten Work of the Order?

Answer—Only such as are authorized by the laws of your Grand Jurisdiction to give instruction in the Unwritten Work of the Order and such Officers as are named in the Rituals.

No. 101. Question—Under the Law enacted by the Sovereign Grand Lodge at its session held in 1901 in the City of Indianapolis, making the Grand Secretaries or Grand Scribes of the several Jurisdictions, custodians of the "Cipher or Key," which was also authorized to be published, can the Grand Secretary maintain an Office or secret room in which to keep the "Cipher or Key" at the place of meeting of his Grand Lodge (the same being a city different from that in which his regular Office is located) during the session of said Grand Lodge, the same to be under the personal supervision and control of himself, or his regular appointed assistant, for the accommodation of the Representatives to the Grand Lodge?

Answer—Yes, provided the Charter of the Grand Lodge is also present at the place where the meeting of the Grand Lodge is to be held.

No. 102. Question—Can a Grand Lodge purchase more than one set of the "Cipher or Key"?

Answer—Yes, through the Grand Secretary or Grand Scribe, who are the only Officers to whom they can lawfully be sold. The law fixes no limit as to the number.

No. 103. Question—Have I the right, as Grand Secretary, to carry the Cipher or Key to the Unwritten Work to the session of the Grand Lodge?

Answer—Yes, conditioned that the Charter of the Grand Lodge is present at the place where the meeting of that Body is held.

No. 104. Question—Have all the members of the Grand Lodge the right of access to the Key or Cipher of the Unwritten Work?

Answer—The Grand Secretary, "Shall only permit the examination of such Cipher or Key * * * by such members of the Order who require the use of such Work in conferring instruction in the Unwritten Work," in that Branch of the Order to which the Brother who makes application to study the Cipher or Key may belong.

MAJORITY AND PLURALITY VOTE.

No. 105. Statement—The law of the Jurisdiction of Utah prior to the last session of our Grand Lodge, relating to elections, was to the effect that a candidate must receive a majority of all votes cast in order to be elected. At our last session this section was amended by striking out the word "Majority" wherever it appeared in this connection and inserting in lieu thereof the word "Plurality," so that the Section now reads: "A candidate must receive a plurality of all votes cast, etc."

The point has been raised that the wording of this section, as I have stated it, or in other words, the failure of the Grand Lodge to strike out the word "All" and insert in its place the word "The" so that the Section would read: "A candidate must receive a plurality of the votes cast"—has really not changed the law, but through the failure of the Grand Lodge to make the other changes the meaning of the law remains the same as it was before being amended.

Question—Will you kindly give your interpretation of the same?

Answer—It is held that "Plurality" is the same whether of "All" the votes cast or of "The" votes cast. A "Plurality" means that where three or more candidates are being voted for, that the candidate receiving the highest number of the votes cast or the highest number of all the votes cast, is entitled to the election, while a "Majority" means that the candidate must receive a majority of all the votes cast, or a majority of the votes cast, before he can be declared elected.

TRIALS, ETC.

No. 106. Statement—A member of Lodge A. in one county has his residence in another county in the Jurisdiction of Lodge B. The member commits an offense against the Order. Charges are preferred against him in Lodge B. Lodge B. proceeds to try him and expels him from the Order, sending a certified copy of the action to the Lodge A.

We have a law in the Jurisdiction of Indiana, as follows: "Provided, That a grievance arises or has heretofore arisen between members of Lodges in different counties, the aggrieved member may file his complaint with the Noble Grand of any Lodge in the County of the residence of the accused, or in a county adjoining the County in which the Brother against whom such complaint is made, resides, other than the County in which the Lodge of the aggrieved Brother is situated, or in which he resides; and the Lodge in which such charges are filed shall proceed with the investigation and trial thereof and render judgment thereon on all things as set out in this Chapter.

"Provided, further, that when a Lodge has tried a member of another Lodge upon charges preferred by a member of some other Lodge, it shall certify a full copy of the Proceedings had in such matter to the Lodge to which the member belongs, against whom the charges have been made."

Question—Is such a law constitutional?

Answer—No. See Section 1624 W. D. and Decision No. 46, 1898.

No. 107. Question—Is a member of the Order in duty bound to act as Counsel, if requested by any member of a Subordinate Lodge, who has charges preferred against him?

Answer—No. A Brother is not bound to accept employment as Counsel, but if he does so, he is bound to use all honorable means in his defense.

No. 108. Question—Is the Counsel for a Brother on trial in the Order, relieved from a worthy member's fealty to the Order and its membership, by virtue of being counsel in a case on trial pending in a Subordinate Lodge of Odd Fellows or being appealed from its decision?

Answer—If this question is understood by me, my answer is No. A Brother's fealty to the Order is greater than to any individual member.

No. 109. Question—Has a Counsel the right, fraternally, to require an apology of a member of a Subordinate Lodge, who has associated him, the Counsel, with an expelled Brother whose case the Counsel had appealed from the decision of the Lodge to the Grand Master, by calling him a close friend, equal associate and ardent admirer of the expelled Brother at the time when such an appeal was pending?

Answer—No. Unless the Brother has violated some law in the use of his language. The language used might be construed to mean a little pique or sarcasm, which would possibly authorize the Noble Grand to call the Brother to order.

INSURANCE.

No. 110. Question—Is it permissible in the face of the revocation of all Insurance Licenses by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, for the agent of any Insurance Company to canvass in our Lodge rooms for members of such Insurance Company?

Answer—No. See Decisions Nos. 132 and 137 on pages 37 and 38 S. G. L. Journal, 1899, also Section 325 White's Digest, edition 1895.

No. 111. Question—Since the Sovereign Grand Lodge has repealed all its Insurance legislation prior to 1898, is it proper for a member of the Order to act as agent for a Company or Insurance Society that uses the Emblems (the three links) of the Order?

Answer—No. See same citations given to preceding question.

No. 112. Statement—The Sovereign Grand Lodge at its session held in the City of Boston, Massachusetts, 1898, adopted the following resolutions:—
"Resolved, That all legislation heretofore enacted by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, in any manner recognizing or authorizing life or accident insurance in the name of Odd Fellowship be, and the same is, hereby repealed, and further,

"Resolved, That all certificates heretofore issued to such Life or Accident Insurance Companies are hereby revoked." See pages 16,125, 16,128, 16,154 and 16,155 S. G. L. Journal, 1898."

(a) It is held, by the adoption of the foregoing resolution, that the Sovereign Grand Lodge cut loose and freed itself from all responsibility or liability for the action of all such Companies or Associations, doing business in the name of the Order.

No. 113. (b) That all Companies or Associations of whatsoever name or character that are carrying on a fraternal, beneficiary insurance, either life, or accident, or both, in the Order or under the name of the Order, or confining their business to the Order as a classified membership, do so without authority of any kind or character from the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

No. 114. (c) That all members of the Order accepting Insurance from any such Associations or Companies, do so at their own risk, as the Sovereign Grand Lodge is in no way responsible for the action of such Associations or Companies, or their Agents.

No. 115. Statement—In view of the legislation of the Sovereign Grand Lodge relative to life and accident insurance (See Report No. 181 S. G. L. Journal, 1898, pages 16,125 and 16,126) and the concession granted to the Odd Fellows' Relief Association of Canada, allowing said Association to retain the name "Odd Fellow"; (See Report No. 178 S. G. L. Journal, 1899, pages 403 and 404), and further in view of Decision No. 86, S. G. L. Journal, 1900, pages 516, 827 and 828.

Question—(a) Is it competent for Canadian Grand Lodges to pass resolutions permitting said Association to do business in their respective Jurisdictions?

Answer—No. The Sovereign Grand Lodge at its session held in Boston, Massachusetts, 1898, clearly demonstrated that it was its intention to wholly dis-associate Odd Fellowship from Life and Accident Insurance, and thereby relieve itself from all responsibility which might be attributed to it on account of endorsements or permission to such Insurance Companies when it adopted the following resolution: "Resolved, That all legislation heretofore enacted by the Sovereign Grand Lodge in any way recognizing or authorizing Life or Accident Insurance in the name of Odd Fellowship be, and the same is, hereby repealed; and further,

"Resolved, That all certificates heretofore issued to such Life and Accident Insurance Companies are hereby revoked." Quoted in next answer. See Dec. No. 86, 1899.

No. 116. (b) It is held that the law enacted by the Sovereign Grand Lodge in 1899, contained in Report No. 178, as found on pages 403 and 404 set forth in the first resolution thereof, relating to the Odd Fellows' Relief Association of Canada did not grant to said Relief Association of Canada any new or additional privileges and powers, not enjoyed by it prior to the act of 1898 (quoted above) which repealed all laws, etc., relating to Insurance. Decision No. 86, reported by Grand Sire Pinkerton in 1900, so clearly and fully defines the powers, privileges and limitations of the Odd Fellows' Relief Association of Canada, that it is here quoted in full:

"Decision No. 86. The legislation had last year at Detroit, relative to the Odd Fellows' Relief Association of Canada, simply authorized said Association to retain the word "Odd Fellow" in its corporate name, and did not in any way make the Sovereign Grand Lodge, or the Order, responsible for the solvency or the acts of said Association and expressly prohibited said Association from doing business or soliciting Insurance in the name of the Order by the authority of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and any Lodge can enact such legislation as it sees fit, relative to the invasion of the Lodge Rooms of its Subordinate Bodies by the solicitors of such Associations, nor did such legislation authorize or empower any Grand Lodge to issue licenses to such Association. The entire and only purpose of the resolution of 1899 was, as I understand it, to prevent the dissolution, which, under the provisions of Canadian Law, would be necessary if its name was changed, and the only relief granted or intended by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, was such as to enable it to avoid the appointment of a receiver in accordance with the provisions of the law under which it was incorporated.

No. 117. (c) It is held that the Sovereign Grand Lodge in approving Decision No. 86, "Expressly prohibited said Association from doing business or soliciting insurance in the name of the Order by the authority of the Sovereign Grand Lodge," and authorizing any Grand Lodge to so legislate as to prohibit such Association from invading the Lodge rooms of its Subordinates, etc., and on the other hand, the Sovereign Grand Lodge refused to "authorize or empower any Grand Lodge to issue licenses to such associations."

No. 118. Question—(d) Is it competent for a Canadian Grand Lodge to pass resolutions embodying expressions of recognition, approval, commendation or good will?

Answer—No. The same answer as to question (c). See Sections 325, 328, 329 and 330, White's Digest.

REGALIA FOR D. D. G. S.

No. 119. The Sovereign Grand Lodge adopted a report from the Committee on Legislation, found on pages 6207 and 6208 of the S. G. L. Journal, 1874, to the effect that District Deputy Grand Sires were "Only the executive agents of the Grand Sire with a general supervisory power in the absence of their principals." This committee further stated, "It would seem to us when performing the duties of the office, such an officer has the right to wear the regalia and jewel of the officer whom he represents." As to the jewel, you will note in report from the Committee on Legislation by Rep. Carleton, of Texas, as found on pages 9756 and 9757 and adopted, page 9810, S. G. L. Journal, 1884, in the last resolution of the committee's report is this clear and concise statement: "Resolved, That a D. D. G. S. shall be entitled to wear a jewel, which jewel shall be in all respects similar to the jewel of the Grand Sire, except that it be two inches in diameter."

No. 120. It is held that an Insurance Company or Association of whatsoever name, conducting an Insurance business, either life or accident, or both, in the Order, whose Officers, Managers and Agents are Odd Fellows, and which classifies and conducts its business with Odd Fellows only, does so without authority from the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

In addition to previous citation, see Decisions Nos. 87 and 88, reported in 1901.

No. 121. It is held that each Officer, Manager or Agent of an Insurance Association or Company, which conducts a life or accident Insurance, or both, with the Order, and classifies its membership to Odd Fellows, who is an Odd Fellow, and shall, "Either directly or indirectly, use or permit the use of his name, as such member or officer in any private business or enterprise shall" upon conviction, "Be considered guilty of a fraud upon the Order and shall be suspended or expelled from membership." (See Sec. 325, W. D.)

No. 122. Question—Do our laws recognize any insurance company advertising to conduct its business with Odd Fellows only?

Answer—Odd Fellowship is founded upon grander principles than a mere business enterprise, hence our laws do not recognize any private company or association of any kind that advertises to conduct its business with Odd Fellows only.

No. 123. Question—What authority exists under our laws for insurance companies to advertise that they conduct business with Odd Fellows only?

Answer—None whatever. By its legislation the Sovereign Grand Lodge has absolutely withdrawn all recognition of such companies.

No. 124. Question—What is the effect of the decisions of the Grand Sire, Nos. 133 and 136, at the 1899 session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge?

Answer—The effect of those decisions is that the company itself is not amenable under any law of the Order, but they do not change or supersede Section No. 325, Sovereign Grand Lodge Digest, which would apply to individual members of the company violating the laws of the Order.

ADDITIONAL DECISIONS.

(Too Late for Classification.)

No. 125. Question—Has the Ridgely Protective Association of Worcester, Massachusetts, the legal right to solicit members from the I. O. O. F. Lodges?

Answer—It has no legal right, whatever, to solicit the members of the Order to become members of, or policy holders therein, under the pretense that it is an Odd Fellows' Insurance Company duly authorized by the Sovereign Grand Lodge to do an insurance business with the members of, or in the name of the Order. The Sovereign Grand Lodge has divorced itself entirely from all such insurance companies. See second and third resolutions, found in Report No. 181, S. G. L. Journal, 1898.

No. 126. Question—Can individual members of a Lodge act as agents for said association (The Ridgely Protective Association of Worcester, Massachusetts,) such association bearing on its badge the "Triple Links" of the Order?

Answer—No. See paragraphs one, two, three and four of Section 325, White's Digest, edition 1895.

No. 127. Statement—A member of an Encampment paid his arrearage and dues to the Scribe of the Encampment to June 1st, although his Encampment had not held a meeting for over a year, and had made no returns to the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and had not paid their Sovereign Grand Lodge taxes.

Question—Was such member qualified to be elected Grand Representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge?

Answer—The Sovereign Grand Lodge reserves to itself the right to determine as to the eligibility of the Representatives of a seat in that Body. In other words, no Lodge, or Encampment, Grand or Subordinate, has the right to determine as to the eligibility of the Grand Representatives. The Sovereign Grand Lodge alone determines that question.

No. 128. Question—To entitle one to be eligible to deliver the Past Grand's charge in a Rebekah Lodge, must the sister be a Past Noble Grand?

Answer—Yes; except upon the institution of a Rebekah Lodge having no Past Noble Grand, then any qualified member may, during the first term, deliver the Past Noble Grand's charge. See S. G. L. Journal, 1895, pages 14,239, 14,539, 14,570; S. G. L. Journal 1896, pages 14,675, 14,948 and 15,019; also Decision No. 30, S. G. L. Journal 1900.

No. 129. Question—Referring to your decision No. 59 of last year (1901) do you mean by this, that each Assembly, no matter what their local law says, must allow all Past Grands of Subordinate Lodges, who are members in good standing in a Rebekah Lodge, and when present at the Assembly, to vote for Assembly officers?

Answer—Yes.

No. 130. Statement—Five years ago, a Patriarch joined Canton Alexandria, No. 46, and his name was on the roster, but he never showed himself afterwards at the meeting. Now he has presented himself as a charter member in another Canton, without being discharged from Canton Alexandria. He has applied for a discharge, but refuses to pay any back dues.

Question—What course should I pursue?

Answer—Decline to admit him to membership until he complies with the law. See Section 21 of the Code for the government of the Patriarchs Militant, I. O. O. F.

No. 131. Statement—A Chevalier from Wisconsin, now living in Chicago, sent to his Canton for a discharge. He received one, but the signature of Past Grand Sire Stebbins is on the discharge, it being one that was gotten by the Canton during his administration.

Question—Is the discharge legal?

Answer—The Sovereign Grand Lodge has held that a certificate of honorable discharge should be signed by the Commander-in-Chief in office when the certificate of discharge is issued. See Decision No. 112, S. G. L. Journal 1899.

No. 132. Statement—A Chevalier is very troublesome in every way and seems to want to break up the Canton if he cannot have his own way.

Question—Can a Captain of a Canton refuse to allow a Chevalier admission for Canton drill, there being a difference between the Chevalier and Commandant?

Answer—The Captain, in view of the facts set forth in the statement, is in a position to discipline the Chevalier.

FOREIGN JURISDICTIONS.

Reports received from Foreign Jurisdictions, all indicate a healthy condition existing therein.

OFFICIAL KEY TO THE UNWRITTEN WORK.

There can be no doubt but what the whole Order is in favor of an Official Key to the Unwritten Work.

It is with pleasure that I renew my recommendation of last year, viz.:

"Official Key to the Unwritten Work.

"The demand for an Official Key to the Unwritten Work comes from almost every Jurisdiction. The fear, if there ever really was any entertained, that the secret work of the Order would not be safe in the vaults of the various Grand Bodies as in those of this Grand Body, certainly is groundless now. I believe in uniformity and correctness in the Unwritten Work. I am firmly of the opinion that an official key to the Unwritten Work published by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, gotten up in first-class style as to paper and binding, insuring durability, and sold to the various Grand Bodies at a price that would well repay the cost, allowing the various Grand Bodies, under such restrictions as you might suggest, to in turn supply Subordinate Bodies each a copy thereof at a fair price, which they would willingly pay, knowing that the demand for such a work would necessarily be limited to the present Subordinate Bodies, plus what will be a fair estimate of the increase in Subordinate Bodies for the next few years to come. I am further of the opinion that the Officers of the Subordinate Bodies can each be trusted with a copy of a Key, as they are now, without questioning, trusted with the Rituals."

The present Cipher or Key has been criticised pretty sharply by some of our fraternal papers and correspondents thereto. I feel that the Committee worked hard and were honest in their efforts to give to the Order a Cipher that would prove satisfactory. If the Committee failed to meet the expectations of all, who is there among our number that might not have done worse? This and similar subjects are not often understood as well when first introduced as a little later on, when discussion has brought out the merits and demerits of the proposition.

It was my belief last year, when writing the recommendation, and is yet, that an Official Key, not very large, one that could be carried in a coat or vest pocket, should be prepared and sold by the Sovereign Grand Lodge to Grand Bodies, and they in turn to each Subordinate thereunder, respectively. Same to be well gotten up, both as to quality of materials used, and the manner of its mechanism.

In addition to the Official Key, it occurs to me that fac-similes of our present Secret Journals should be made up by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, sold to and kept by the several Grand Bodies.

Without intentionally reflecting upon our Grand Secretary and the facilities of his Office for the safe keeping of the Secret Journals, the Grand Secretaries and Grand Scribes, etc., of the various Grand Bodies are equally as competent and trustworthy, with just as good and safe vaults in which to place the Secret Journals and Keys.

The Key, being in Cipher, unintelligible to the uninitiated, would be just as safe in the care of a Subordinate Body as are at present the Rituals.

By having a Secret Journal in the Office of the Grand Secretary or Grand Scribe, etc., it would afford a splendid opportunity for Lodges to send some one or more of its members to prove themselves in the Unwritten Work.

It is not only impracticable, but impossible in many of the larger Jurisdictions, for the Grand Officer to visit all the Subordinates in his or her Jurisdiction, and that Officer alone can instruct or cause the instructions to be given to Subordinate Bodies.

My Brethren, let us move forward a little and meet the demands of the hour in this particular.

The Order will be greatly pleased, and our Treasury receive from the sales thereof, a fair share of revenue that will gladly be paid by both Grand and Subordinate Bodies.

FRATERNITY—THE FOUNDATION PRINCIPLES OF ODD FELLOWSHIP.

The real, practical and effective basis of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, is embodied in the social requirements of its grand fraternity; as the outgrowth of a universal belief in the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. Such a faith allied with the Order's trio of principles—Friendship, Love and Truth, comprises in one or another form, the Order's complete decalogue of human excellence!

This was, as I fully believe, the conception of Thomas Wildey, the founder, and was the underlying and governing idea of the Order's acknowledged constructor—James L. Ridgely.

The successful carrying out of such purposes, is the great mission of true Odd Fellowship.

Therefore, the germ of fraternity should be fostered, cultivated and made to bloom in all its beautiful refulgence, and be protected by and with every precaution that can be thrown around it as a safeguard against harm.

WORLD'S FAIR FRATERNAL BUILDING ASSOCIATION, ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI.

It is the purpose of the Directors of the great International Fair that is to be held in St. Louis, Missouri, to perpetuate the memory of the Louisiana purchase, among the many other useful and ornamental buildings, to erect a building to be known as the World's Fair Fraternal Building, or Temple of Fraternity, as "An expression of the Fraternity Development in American life, the result of co-operative effort on the part of the leading fraternal organizations, to be the headquarters for all members of fraternal associations attending the Exposition of 1903 from all the world."

I have been, from its conception, most favorably impressed with the proposition, and believe the subject, which will, no doubt, be submitted to you, will receive at your hands the usual careful and dispassionate consideration it has always been the rule to give to a question of such general interest.

As I am advised, many societies similar to ours, have already adopted ways and means whereby they may be properly represented in a work that is bound to reflect great credit upon its promoters and supporters.

The funds of our Order are all stamped as trust funds, and cannot legally be appropriated for such purposes, yet I believe many of the individual members of the Order, not only those who are under the immediate jurisdiction of this Sovereign Grand Lodge, but many of those who are under the various Subordinate Grand Lodges, would gladly contribute as individual members of the Order, from their personal or private means, if an opportunity was afforded them to do so.

If the Sovereign Grand Lodge would first grant permission to solicit the members under its immediate jurisdiction for personal contributions, and recommend to the various Grand Bodies subordinate thereunder, that each of them in turn grant permission to solicit contributions or donations from the members out of their own personal or private means, a very creditable sum could thus be raised.

The sums donated in a given community, could be credited in the aggregate to the Order, or to the citizens located in the respective communities.

THE M'KINLEY NATIONAL MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION.

Soon after the adjournment of this Sovereign Grand Lodge last year, I received the following communication from Mr. Ryerson Ritchie, Secretary of The McKinley National Memorial Association:

Cleveland, Ohio, November 9, 1901.

Mr. A. C. Cable, Grand Sire Sovereign Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., Covington, Ohio:

Dear Sir:—The Independent Order of Odd Fellows will doubtless wish to be numbered among the great societies who will desire to participate in the erection of a national memorial over the grave of our late martyred President at Canton.

I am writing now to ask if it is your desire to take such action as will give to every division and branch, and to each member of the society, the opportunity of making contributions to the memorial fund.

It would be the desire of the trustees to distinguish this offering from others, and I should be happy to have special subscription forms prepared for your use, following such directions as you may be good enough to give.

Respectfully yours,

RYERSON RITCHIE, Secretary."

Covington, Ohio, November 20, 1901.

Mr. Ryerson Ritchie, Secretary The McKinley National Memorial Association, No. 1, Euclid Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio:

Dear Sir:—Your favor of the 9th inst., requesting that the Independent Order of Odd Fellows contribute, as an Order, from its funds, for the purpose of assisting in the erection of a suitable monument, in the city of Canton, Ohio, to the memory of the late President Wm. McKinley, who was shot to death by a dastardly assassin, September 14th, 1901, is received.

In reply, will first beg of you to accept, on behalf of our great, fraternal-benevolent Order, its and my sincere thanks for your courteous recognition.

The Independent Order of Odd Fellows is international in its scope, the only Order that is so, having members, Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, Subordinate Encampments, Cantons of Patriarchs Militant, Grand Lodges, Grand Encampments, Rebekah Assemblies, Department Councils of Patriarchs Militant, in many countries other than the United States of America and its dependencies, such as the Dominion of Canada, Norway, Sweden, Switzerland, the German Empire, France, Italy, Japan, Australasia, Tasmania, etc., etc., so that it cannot give recognition to one President, King, Czar, Prince, Queen or any Ruler, as against another.

No class of citizens are more loyal to American institutions, more reverent of the memory of our martyred President, or more ready and willing to contribute of their personal means as citizens, according to their ability, for the erection of such a monument as is proposed by your association, than the Odd Fellows of the United States.

The funds of all branches of the Order bear upon them the stamp of "Trust Funds" and they cannot be appropriated for purposes other than that for which they have been specifically set aside.

Mr. McKinley not being a member of our Order, your proposition is in no way connected with the policy or purposes of our Order, so that it matters not how much members may individually sympathize with the undertaking, they do so only in their capacity as citizens of this country, and lovers of government and law. Any contributions from members of our Order, who are citizens of the United States, are based upon their loyalty to country, and their personal appreciation of the character and splendid qualities of the late President.

The Order being international in its scope; its funds bearing upon them the stamp of "Trust Funds," to be kept strictly within the limits of the trust implied in the purposes and laws of our Order; Mr. McKinley not being a member of the Order, so that however meritorious the cause may be, there is nothing in it of a charitable character. Your request, therefore, must, with very great respect, be declined.

Believing that you will fully appreciate the condition that confronts me, with kindest regards to you and your associate members of the association, with best wishes for your success, I have the honor to remain,

Yours very truly,

A. C. CABLE, Grand Sire."

Dictated.

The existing laws and regulations of the Order so clearly stamp all funds as trust funds, to be kept strictly within the limits of the trust implied in the purposes and laws of the Order—the precedent established in 1875, in refusing to appropriate any of the funds toward the completion of the monument that was then being erected to the memory of Washington, and the refusal of the appeal from our brethren in Cuba, compelled me to refuse the request that an appeal for aid should be sent to the Subordinate Bodies under the immediate jurisdiction of this Sovereign Grand Lodge, neither could I recommend to the various Subordinate Grand Bodies to grant such permission.

If our Order was confined to the United States, and the late President had been an Odd Fellow, or if he had been a member of the Order and it desired to erect a monument to his memory under its supervision, there could be, as it seems to me, no impropriety in appealing for such aid, but under the circumstances, the Order could with as much justice be appealed to to contribute of its means for the erection of a monument to the memory of the ruler of any other country, although not an Odd Fellow.

For example; let us suppose the President of the Republic of Mexico should die, he not being an Odd Fellow, would it be deemed proper to solicit aid to erect a monument to his memory, although there are six Lodges in that Republic whose membership are loyal subjects of the Mexican government.

Great Britain's most wonderful ruler—Queen Victoria—died but recently, would it be proper that the Order should now be called upon to erect a monument to her memory? We think not, although 70,000 men, loyal subjects to the queen when living, were also loyal and faithful Odd Fellows. The same line of reasoning might be applied to all other nations. There seems to me, therefore, to be but one answer that could be given to the appeal of The McKinley National Memorial Association to solicit aid from the Order, and that was, to refuse the request, which I did, although with great reluctance.

FRATERNAL PRESS.

With their hands upon the pulse of the members comprising the greatest fraternal beneficiary Order in the world, these editors and publishers are quick to discover their wants, and just as promptly, give expression to the same.

The Fraternal Papers are doing more than any other agency in the cause of Odd Fellowship. To do this, requires at their hands, great sacrifices. The efforts that these papers are making throughout the entire Jurisdiction of the Sovereign Grand Lodge to break down the curse of selfishness and the bigotry of caste, teaching men everywhere the divine principles of our Order—Friendship, Love and Truth, out of which is drawn our belief in the Fatherhood of God and the universal brotherhood of man, is a most wonderful display of unselfishness, born of disinterested love, seldom equalled, and never surpassed.

It matters not whether the subscription is large or small, whether the subscribers are all as prompt in paying for the paper as the teachings of our Order demand they should be, if they expect to “act like honest men;” yet the work of educating men to be more fraternal, living less for self and more for others, fulfilling the law of “Loving thy neighbor as thyself” goes on and on.

All Odd Fellows should be reading Odd Fellows.

All reading Odd Fellows are leading Odd Fellows.

Be a leader by being a reader.

The editors of these papers are the first to discover wrongs or errors in our laws, and absolutely certain to denounce or point out the way to correct the same, respectively.

I acknowledge the wonderful encouragement and great uplift I have felt because of the loyal and cordial support they have given to my humble efforts, and beg of them to accept my feeble expressions of good will and wish.

All Hail the Fraternal Press!

CONCLUSION.

I have, at all times, fully appreciated the honor you conferred upon me at Richmond, and at no time have I underestimated the responsibilities attached to the office of Grand Sire.

The promise made you in 1900, in accepting this office was that “The only guarantee that I can give you for my official conduct, is an honest purpose to do my whole duty without fear or partiality, with an eye to the advancement of the pure principles of Odd Fellowship.”

As to how well that promise has been kept, is for you to judge. My work is before you.

To meet and determine rightly, as nearly as it was possible, the many varied and perplexing questions that naturally arise from a constituency so great and that is scattered all over the civilized world, is no light or easy task.

It may not be improper for me to state that I have always enjoyed the full consciousness of having done all I could, within my limitations, to promote the best interests of our Order—the greatest fraternal-beneficiary society in the wide world.

The loyalty and devotion manifested on every hand by the several branches of the Order, has been beautiful to behold, lightening the burden, lending encouragement, adding new zeal, and making the work of the most pleasant character.

The anxiety felt and the efforts put forth to meet the demands of the office, have been more than compensated by the pleasure derived from the very agreeable and helpful association of all those with whom I have been permitted to come in contact, and to all such I return my sincere thanks.

My brethren, this session finds us in the beautiful capital of Iowa, a state renowned for its agricultural growth, its minerals, its factories and mills, with a progressive and patriotic citizenship, and magnificent Odd Fellows.

In this, the autumn of the year, when the husbandman is gathering from the harvest fields the reward of his frugality and toil, taken from nature's bosom in grateful recognition that his bounty comes from the Giver of all good, is an appropriate time for those who are harvesters in the fields of distress, to assemble and render an account of their stewardship. With such surroundings, it is safe to say that we will enjoy such a reunion as will redound with pleasure to ourselves and profit to our Order.

In this "Indian summer" of our content, with September smiling upon the earth like a "Goddess of might and glory" and the foliage with mingled hues of olive and brown, presenting to us a scene of splendor everywhere, with a "Wild exhilaration in the air," it gives me inexpressible pleasure to greet you, my brethren, representatives of a brotherhood who are tilling the fields of human benefaction, and from the sordid pathways have snatched the thistles that sting the helpless, and are now rejoicing in well filled granaries of fraternal love—a harvest rich with Friendship, Love and Truth as their tribute to the cause of humanity.

It is with such environments and accomplishments the Grand Sire greets the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in its Seventy-eighth Annual Communication, entertaining the hope that we will all learn a lesson from the thought, so beautifully expressed by Leigh Hunt, when he tells us of Abou Ben Adhem, who saw an angel writing in a book and inquired what he was writing. The angel answered:

“ ‘The names of those who love the Lord.’
‘And is mine one?’ said Abou. ‘Nay, not so,’
Replied the angel. Abou spoke more low,
But cheerily still, and said, ‘I pray thee, then,
Write me as one that loves his fellowmen.’
The angel wrote and vanished. The next night
It came again, with a great wakening light,
And showed the names whom the love of God had blest;
And lo! Ben Adhem’s name led all the rest.”

Fraternally submitted,

A. C. CABLE, Grand Sire.

It gave us pleasure last year to report to you that the Order of Odd Fellows numbered more in their ranks than any other “fraternal organization” in the world. Our organization still occupies this enviable position and the increase in membership during the year 1901 has been phenomenal. The Grand Secretary of the Sovereign Grand Lodge says:

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

In presenting this report the attention of the Officers and Representatives is called to the tables, which exhibit an unequaled increase in membership made by the Order in the first year of the twentieth century, as well as the evidences of marked prosperity in financial matters.

It is not possible for words to enhance the appreciation all must feel in studying the magnificent advance made in 1901. The subordinate lodge membership increased 57,900. The Encampment membership increased 9,929. To the Rebekah lodges 7,338 brothers and 15,882 sisters have been added, and the grand total of male and female membership has grown to 1,236,098—an increase of 73,782 in the last statistical year.

We can look with hope and confidence to the future. The commerce and industries of this continent flow in peaceful and prosperous ways, the people are busy and happy, and Odd Fellowship will share, as it has ever done, in the good fortune of the common weal. While we have been confronted with many difficulties, we have enlisted with us the good men of Church and State in all nations where our Order is growing, and we may justly rejoice over the signal prosperity which has been reached by our unaided efforts in the face of much opposition and many hindering circumstances.

E. S. Conway

Grand Representative.

One of the great commands of our order is to educate the orphan, and another is to relieve the distressed. These have been so thoroughly inculcated in the hearts and minds of the members of our brotherhood that homes for the orphan and abiding places for the indigent have been provided in most of the jurisdictions. The Rebekah members of our order have been largely instrumental in the success that has attended these institutions. Their willing hands, kind words and loving hearts have aided and been an inspiration to the order at all times. For the information of all we present a table showing homes owned by the Order:

FINANCIAL.

The financial part of this report gives encouragement beyond our most sanguine expectations. The dollars and cents always serve as the indicator of the strength of an institution, and we have every reason to be thankful that, by rightful economy and judicious management on the part of two of our most important committees, the annual receipts are gradually going farther and farther beyond the annual expenses. While we regret exceedingly that there has been some sharp and unjust criticism, founded chiefly in perversion or suppression of the facts, an examination of the figures in the Grand Secretary's office goes to prove that the largest stream of waste has been cut off by the judicious management of the large amount of printing that is superintended by the committee appointed for that purpose. When we remember that about $20,000 or more are expended each year for this purpose, we can understand the value of a practical committee.

Our net increase last year was $4,087.24; this year it is $13,808.85 more, making our present assets $17,896.09 more valuable than they were 12 months ago. The net profit on the sale of supplies has reached the splendid figure of $45,816.97. This is due in the greatest degree to the fact that the cost of the supplies which have been received within the last two or three years has been decreased by one-third or more as compared with the cost in previous years.

Last year your attention was called to the fact that the receipts went beyond those of the year before to the amount of $5,858.86; this year the receipts exceed those of last by $11,084.56. The profit on supplies is $9,134.93 greater than that of last year.

Of course, this prosperous condition is due to some extent to the growth in membership in the Order and the consequent increase in the volume of business, but we have abundant reasons to be satisfied that our Sovereign Body is now on a firm financial basis, and to be assured that the clear-thinking business men who make up the Body will hold it upon the same solid footing in the years that are to come.

THE MEETING IN DES MOINES.

For the first time in its history the Sovereign Grand Lodge meets in "The Beautiful Land," Iowa.

More than 64 years have elapsed since Thomas Wildey, the great founder and leader of American Odd Fellowship, visited this State, then a part of the Territory of Wisconsin. The planting of the Order in Iowa, April 4th, 1844, by the institution of Washington Lodge, No. 1, at Burlington, was followed, May 1st, 1848, by the institution of the Grand Lodge at Bloomington, now Muscatine, with 10 working lodges and about 300 members.

The progress of the Order in Iowa, phenomenal in later years, was hindered by a variety of causes until after the close of the Civil War, when there were but 5,000 members. The latest report shows a membership of 46,770 in Subordinate Lodges, 29,507 in Rebekah Lodges, and 7,428 in Subordinate Encampments, with a corresponding degree of financial prosperity in each branch.

Experience has taught us the deep sincerity underlying the hospitality of our brethren in the West, and it is the earnest hope of every member of this Body that the session of 1902 may kindle, with renewed vigor, the enthusiasm for the good of the Order which has so signally characterized the membership in this great and growing jurisdiction.

CONCLUSION.

The flag of Odd Fellowship, inscribed with the beautiful, peaceful motto, "Friendship, Love and Truth," waves over the greatest and grandest aggregation of faithful men and women in the world, engaged in teaching and practicing the unselfish lessons of fraternity.

While we rejoice with becoming pride at the rich reward that gilds this prosperous hour and crowns the labors of the past, we must not fail to appreciate the lessons we have learned in the school of experience. We must toil on as our fathers before us have toiled if we would assure to our Order endurance, vigor, immortality. As the world advances we should keep pace with its strides, ever looking to the moral betterment of those allied with us in this noble work.

This great Order should ever keep step with the advance of civilization, and in time our Lodges and Encampments will afford places of rest and refuge to wandering brothers in every city, village and hamlet on the globe. Viewed from the point now before us, our system of human beneficence is but in its childhood, and however far our fathers may have advanced it, the prize which will be ours, if we labor faithfully and wait patiently, will be grander still.

Trusting to your wisdom for guidance, and with unshaken faith in the continued success of Odd Fellowship in the coming years, I most respectfully submit this report.

J. FRANK GRANT, Grand Secretary.

In submitting this report to the Sovereign Grand Lodge, we are exceedingly pleased in calling the attention of the Representatives to the healthy condition of our finances.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge is to be congratulated upon the large amount of receipts for supplies during the past year, showing an excess over the previous year of $11,084.56 and the net profits being $9,134.93 larger than that of the year 1901.

We reported last year that the condition of our finances showed the best record ever made in any one year in the business of our Order. It affords us now a greater gratification to report a still larger increase and present a finer record. We cannot say too much in commendation of our vigilant and faithful Grand Secretary and his very efficient assistant; they are conducting the affairs of the Secretary's office in such a manner as to challenge the approval of the entire Order.

The valuable assistance given by the Grand Secretary to the Committee on Printing and Supplies in the very careful way in which bids are made for supplies and the rigid economy adhered to are sufficient to show the reason for this improved condition.

On July 31, 1901, you will see that the cash balance was $53,402.25 by the splendid management of the office and the increased sale of supplies, we close our books July 31, 1902, with cash on hand $70,888.42, an excess over cash balance of last year of $17,486.17.

NEW LEGISLATION.

In our report last year we gave on page 215 a copy of the resolution amending Section 2, Article 16 of the Constitution of the Sovereign Grand Body. This amendment to the Constitution was adopted at last year's session at Indianapolis by an affirmative vote of 135; negative 41. After one year under this amended constitution the question came up before the Grand Body on a vote to adopt an amendment to Article 2, Section 16, that lay over under the rules for a year which was as follows, to-wit:

AMENDMENT TO SEC. 2, ART. XVI.

Resolved, That Section 2, Article XVI of the Constitution of the Sovereign Grand Lodge be, and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 2. No person shall be entitled to admission to the Order except free white males of good moral character who have arrived at the age of twenty-one years, and who believe in a Supreme Being, the Creator and Preserver of the Universe. Provided, however, that in Australia, New Zealand and other countries not on the continent of North America, in which the Order has been or may hereafter be established, and a Grand Lodge or Grand Lodges formed, the qualifications as to age shall be left to local legislation.

The question being on the amendment, it was agreed to, 146 voting in the affirmative and 36 in the negative.

All other amendments to the Constitution were indefinitely postponed.

The report published in the Odd Fellows' Herald is so complete that we desire to make it a part of this report.

Past Grand Sire Durham, of Kentucky, presented a most eloquent eulogy in memoriam on the decease of Past Grand Sire White, which was adopted by a rising vote.

On motion of Representative Huffaker, of Nevada, the compensation of Officers, Representatives and Past Grand Sires was fixed at a per diem of $5 for six days and mileage at ten cents per mile, except for such as resided west of the western boundary of Nebraska, whose allowance should be twelve cents per mile, by the most direct route, to be calculated by the map on which railroad rates are estimated. An amendment to insert ten for twelve failed to carry.

Report No. 3. The appeal of Mary M. Hughes, widow, against the action of the Grand Encampment of Indiana was sustained and her claim for $251.25 made valid; thus ruling against a dormant Encampment the suspension of which was not proclaimed; also against a law of limitation not enacted by local legislation, and errors on the part of the Grand Encampment of Indiana.

Report 4. Dismissed the appeal of Manitoba Lodge and sustained the action of the Grand Lodge of Manitoba in directing that the sum of $5,123.17, funds advanced by Bro. C. D. Anderson for use in erecting a building to be occupied by Manitoba Lodge No. 1, be repaid to him by said Lodge.

In this case a misunderstanding had arisen because of the signing of a waiver by Bro. Anderson, as he supposed relinquishing his claim only as regards stock, but taken by the Lodge to mean in its entirety.

The case is interesting, in that the Committee on Appeals have again reiterated an opinion which should be quoted in full, to the effect that "The statute of limitations (the case is of date 1883) should not apply to Odd Fellowship. That the Spirit of Fraternity and Brotherly Love which should actuate all dealings between a Lodge and its members, if permitted to be exercised, would banish without our councils all such harsh measures as become necessary in the laws of the state." (Note S. G. L. Journal, 1885, page 10,007.) This notation refers to a ruling against the statute of limitations in the case of Golden Rule Lodge No. 109, of Missouri.

Report No. 5. Adopted. Sec. 23 of Art. VII, of Constitution for Subordinate Lodges in Illinois: (Provision to expel any member failing to appear as a witness on the ground of contempt.) Section 12 provides that sentence should immediately follow conviction without further vote. "It is our judgment that under the foregoing sections when the brothers entered their pleas of guilty it became the duty of the Noble Grand without further action of the Lodge to pronounce the sentence of expulsion against said brothers. It therefore follows that the subsequent actions of the Lodge were without force or effect and were without prejudice to appellants. If appellants thought they were justified in their actions they should have pleaded justification as a matter of defense under a plea of 'not guilty.' This difficulty should, in our judgment, have been settled amicably by the interested parties without drawing their brother Odd Fellows into their personal differences. * * Your committee hereby recommends that the appeals of John Blakely and James Combe be dismissed and that the action of the Grand Lodge of Illinois and of J. B. Turner Lodge be sustained."

Report No. 6. Adopted. In this case the committee quote the case of Samuel Daniels et al. vs. The Grand Lodge of Illinois, indubitably emphasizing the absolutely humane doctrine that an insane brother cannot be a pauper. Benefits unappropriated for his use while helpless should be retained, and the Lodge in position to pay over any surplus unexpended should the brother recover his mentality. "The position of the Lodge is undoubtedly that of trustee and cestui que trust, so far as benefits are concerned, and the obligation of the Lodge to disburse and control benefits is unqualified and absolute, and can not be shifted to any one. This is the settled policy of the Order. Committee therefore recommends "that the appeal of Lewis P. Showalter, as guardian of Oscar Showalter, a lunatic, plaintiff in error, vs. the Grand Lodge of Ohio, be and the same is hereby dismissed, and that the action of the Grand Lodge of Ohio be and the same is sustained."

Report No. 7. Adopted. Benefits amounting to $96 legally due to A. S. Ward, P. G. P., from Santa Rosa Encampment, California, but payable to Odd Fellows' Home at Thermalito, he being there resident. To recoup said Encampment, this sum was ordered paid by action of the Grand Encampment of California to Santa Rosa Encampment, which was done, and from this act of said Grand Encampment Bro. Ward, P. G. P., appealed. The committee reported sustaining the appeal of Brother Ward, P. G. P., and reversing the action of the Grand Encampment of California.

Report No. 8. Adopted. Bro Jean Salanave accepted money to take him to France, intending then to remain there, and deeming connection with the Order of no advantage there, he took a withdrawal card, as the Lodge claims, in consideration of the $60 to be paid for his passage, but as he claims not in view of any such arrangement. Finding that there is no land on earth superior to Greater America, he returns and offers to pay the $60 upon the cancellation of his withdrawal card. But the action of the Lodge having been sustained by the Grand Lodge of California, the committee take the same view upon the record of facts, and sustain said Grand Lodge, dismissing the appeal of Jean Salanave.

Report No. 9. Adopted. Insufficient substantial facts to warrant the Lodge (Howard No. 10, of Missouri) in suspending the brother, or the Grand Lodge of Missouri in approving such suspension. Hence the committee vote to sustain the appeal of Brother Charles Meyer, without prejudice, and reverse the action of the Grand Lodge of Missouri.

Report No. 10. Adopted. Technical error as to voting for officers under the operation of a law not approved by the Grand Sire or the Sovereign Grand Lodge. Committee declared the law inoperative and sustained the appeal of R. M. Abercrombie, P. G. P., and reversed the action of the Grand Encampment of Missouri. Representative Russell, of Massachusetts, made a very eloquent speech on this report, and received much more applause than is usually accorded a new Representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Report No. 11. Adopted. This involved the right of two Grand Lodges, Ohio and Indiana, to enter into an agreement to care for an indigent brother, blind and weak mentally, who was living out of his jurisdiction. The committee deemed the question too broad and far reaching to construe laws to fit a particular case where it does not come within the law of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, being only empowered to apply existing laws and not to make them, and concludes that the contract made by said Grand Lodges was ultra vires. It therefore recommends that the appeal of the Grand Lodge of Indiana be dismissed.

The pending question being the adoption of report 14, from the Committee on Analysis and Distribution, page 59, when Representative Wright, of Pennsylvania, moved the following:

"In respect to that portion of the Grand Sire's report which recites the correspondence between himself and Past Grand Sire Pinkerton on the subject of Fraternal Insurance, and the Grand Sire's comments thereon, it is declared to be the sense of this body,—

"First—That the incident evinces on the part of Grand Sire Cable an earnest, watchful, jealous care for the integrity and absolute purity of the high office which he so ably and acceptably fills, and in the administration of which he has earned and secured to himself the admiration of our entire membership. For this he deserves and is hereby tendered our hearty commendation, and a reiteration of our great love and esteem.

"Second—This body, and the great membership it represents, are proud of our esteemed and much loved Past Grand Sire Pinkerton, of his distinguished ability, his spotless integrity, his personal character and high accomplishments and his magnificent administration of the high office he so recently vacated. We tender to him a renewed expression of our deep and unchanged confidence, admiration, love and esteem.

"Third—That no good end can be subserved by any further consideration or discussion of the subject matter referred to.

"Therefore, Resolved, That the correspondence, and all that part of the Grand Sire's Report in any way referring to or commenting upon it, be omitted from the Journal."

The question being on the amendment, it was adopted. The report was then adopted as amended.

Past Grand Representative Abercrombie, having been sustained in his position regarding the election of the representative in Missouri, withdrew by letter his contest for the seat in question and asked that Hiram Lloyd, the Grand Representative de facto, be seated.

Representative Conway presented a new rule, most wise in its provisions, which was immediately adopted by unanimous consent. The same provides for a Committee on the Judiciary to be appointed by the Grand Sire, at the same time as the Committee on Appeals, and to meet on the Thursday preceding the Annual Session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and consider all decisions of the Grand Sire, together with such matters as have been propounded in proper form by Grand Bodies and Grand Representatives and filed with the Grand Secretary.

Almost the entire afternoon of Thursday, from 2 p. m., was passed in secret session.

An amendment to the Constitution allowing eight cents per mile one way for each mile traveled by Representatives and Past Grand Sires, and a per diem of $5, was indefinitely postponed.

The next amendment, page 380, Journal Sovereign Grand Lodge, 1901, providing for the separation of a portion of territory from one jurisdiction and attachment to another, both grand bodies consenting thereto, failed of consideration on point of order that the amendment was not set forth as it would read if adopted.

The next amendment, to be found on the same page Sovereign G. L. Journal, 1901, providing for the introduction, in the constitutional section of this clause, "That no person who is a member of an anarchist organization, or who believes in or advocates the principles of anarchy, shall be eligible to membership," failed to secure the necessary three-fourths vote, only 118 having answered yea to 59 who responded nay.

The next amendment, found on page 382, Sovereign Grand Lodge Journal, 1901, providing as an additional qualification for membership in the S. G. L. that one shall also be a Past Chief Patriarch or Past High Priest, in good standing, was postponed.

The next amendment, same page as foregoing, reversing action of last session as to mixed blood members, was agreed to, several more than the three-fourths being cast; yeas, 146; nays, 36.

The next amendment, providing for permissive legislation by Grand Lodges, to fix the age minimum for membership at eighteen years, was postponed.

The next amendment, of similar tenor as the foregoing, and the additional feature of a mixed blood qualification in the Indian Territory, was postponed.

The next amendment, adding as a qualification for membership in the S. G. L., good standing in a Canton, was postponed. The last three amendments, which were considered collectively, may be found on pages 384 and 386, S. G. L. Journal, 1901.

The next amendment, providing for the retention by Grand Bodies by operation of one Representative in the S. G. L., if desired, was indefinitely postponed.

The next amendment, providing for biennial sessions of the S. G. L., was indefinitely postponed. The last two amendments may be found upon page 410, S. G. L. Journal, 1901.

The following amendment to the Constitution, page 412, S. G. L. Journal, 1901, was considered: Amendment to Section 5, Article XVI.

Resolved, That Section 5 of Art. XVI of the Constitution, be amended by repealing said section and substituting therefor the following:

Sec. 5. No saloonkeeper, saloon owner, liquor dealer or agent, bartender or gambler, shall be eligible to membership in this Order.

Representative James, of Kentucky, moved that the further consideration of the amendment be indefinitely postponed. After much discussion, Representative James moved the previous question, and it was ordered; the question now recurring on the motion to indefinitely postpone, it was agreed to, by a vote of 94 to 87.

Representative Wright, of Pennsylvania, moved that the action to indefinitely postpone, be reconsidered, and it was agreed to. The question then being to indefinitely postpone, it was not agreed to by a vote of 73 to 91; the question recurring on the adoption of the amendment, it was not agreed to, the vote standing, 118 in the affirmative and 47 in the negative; the affirmative lacking six votes for the necessary three-fourths. All the Illinois Representatives voted in the affirmative.

Representative Hoagland, of Nebraska, moved to reconsider the vote taken on the amendment, and the question being upon the reconsideration, Representative Spooner moved to lay upon the table, which was not agreed to; it was then voted to postpone the question of reconsideration until Friday immediately after the special order at 10 o'clock.

Report No. 12 from the Committee on Printing Supplies; adopted, contained little of general interest except that hereafter Official Certificates will be printed with colored backs, scarlet for subordinate lodge, and green for Rebekah, while Royal Purple will be that of the Encampments.

Report No. 13, adopted; related to Finance and showed by the books of the Grand Treasurer, a balance of $70,888.42 on hand July 31, 1902; and total assets of the S. G. L., $148,925.67, being an increase of $17,896.09.

Report 32, on Resolution No. 26, of Representative Hughes, of Maryland, that "this body shall designate the style, material, shape and size of all jewels and insignia adopted by this Grand Lodge for the Order;" reported favorably on the same with the exception of "insignia" and with this elimination the report was adopted.

At 2 o'clock of Thursday, the 18th, the hour set for the secret session having arrived, the S. G. L. resolved itself into secret session, not receding therefrom until late in the afternoon.

Report No. 58, Committee on Legislation, relative to repealing the necessity for procuring dispensations for entertainments, and placing members practically upon honor as to use of liquors in Lodge rooms, etc., upon which the committee reported adversely, was considered, when Representative Spooner, of New York, moved to submit the resolution for the report, which was not agreed to. Resolution: "That brethren and Lodges be trusted wholly and entirely, and that the present law of the Order embodied in Sec. 2 of White's, 1896, Digest, be and the same is hereby repealed." The question recurring on the report, it was adopted.

Report No. 59, Special Committee on National Sanitariums, relative to those at Hot Springs, Ark., and Gainesville, Fla., reported that the time had not arrived for the erection of a National or International Sanitarium, but recommended that jurisdictions respond liberally in donating to the needs of these institutions, and asked to be discharged from further consideration of the subject. The committee say, "We have been especially diligent on this subject, and have carefully considered it in its every detail. We need not to direct the attention of this S. G. L. to the fact that, by rigid legislation, it has absolved itself from all connection with so-called fraternal and every other form of insurance. * * * We believe that such legislation is sound, wise and for the best interests of our noble Order. We therefore offer the following: Resolved, That the resolution which is the subject of this report, be not adopted.

Report No. 104, Committee on Rebekah Degree, adversely in relation to Resolution No. 46, regarding the payment of benefits in Rebekah Lodges, was adopted.

THE FRATERNAL PRESS.

Report 106. By Representative Aydelott, of Tennessee, from the Committee on the State of the Order:

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred so much of the Grand Sire's Report as appears on page 66, under head of "Fraternal Press," having carefully considered same, concur with the Grand Sire in the very great beneficial results this Order receives through the loyal and intelligent support of the Fraternal Press.

These publications which do so much for the Order have become in a measure a vehicle of communication between the officials, and the great rank and file of the Order, and also a means of bringing the membership in closer touch.

The press seems to be entitled to more substantial recognition than mere commendatory mention.

Therefore your committee most earnestly urge upon the membership at large the support of the Fraternal Press by subscription and by advertising therein, and further your committee offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Grand Sire and the Grand Secretary be and he is hereby authorized to make satisfactory arrangements with the "Publications which, by the strict construction, are Fraternal Odd Fellow publications, for the publication of the proclamations and such other similar matters, a knowledge of which, in their judgment, should be widely disseminated through the Order, and to pay for the same, provided satisfactory terms are obtained therefor.

Signed by the Committee.

Report No. 107, Committee on Legislation, relative to method of presenting amendments to the Constitution, was adopted.

Report No. 109, Committee on State of Order, favorable to the appointment of a committee to shorten and improve installation ceremonies, was not adopted.

Resolved, That the subordinate lodges of this Grand Jurisdiction be and hereby are authorized to provide by proper by-laws that night watchers or nurses may be employed or engaged in any one sickness for such time as the subordinate lodges may by by-laws determine, for a brother entitled to the same who is not in arrears for dues more than thirteen weeks.

The Committee on Finance presented the following reports, which were laid on the table, under the rule. [Considered Wednesday afternoon; the third laid over for action at the next annual session, the fourth and fifth adopted.]

Document No. 10.

Third report, by Bro. James Ewing Davis, of No. 450.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows, in regard to the matter of the manner and expense of putting into effect the proposed amendment to Section 14 of Article IV of the Grand Lodge Constitution:

1st. That we have given this matter much careful consideration, and find that many of the so-called surety companies will not enter into a bond containing the conditions mentioned in the proposed amendment. Most of such bonds bind the surety company only in case of an embezzlement of the bonded officer, and would not secure the Grand Lodge against the negligence of the bonded officer in the handling or management of the Grand Lodge funds, books or property. Furthermore, they require that the moneys coming into the hands of the officer be placed in a depository to be selected by the Grand Lodge, and subject to withdrawal only on a Grand Lodge warrant signed by the Grand Secretary and countersigned by the Grand Master. In case of a failure on the part of the depository, the surety company would not be responsible, and the Grand Lodge would be required to stand the loss. Such a form of bond would not meet the conditions prescribed by the proposed amendment, and we would recommend that the proposed amendment be not altered or amended in this particular.

2d. We have been furnished with a form of a bond by "The United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company," of Baltimore, Maryland, which is conditioned to secure the obligee against any loss which it might sustain by reason of the neglect of the bonded officer, and conditioned that he shall "exercise all reasonable diligence and care in the preservation and lawful disposal of all moneys, books, papers and securities, or other property of the Grand Lodge, which may come into his hands by virtue of his position, and deliver them to his successor or other person authorized to receive them, and shall faithfully discharge all of the duties now or hereafter required of him in said position by the Constitution and By-laws of the Grand Lodge." We believe that this form of bond meets the requirements of the proposed amendment.

This company would require the funds to be placed in the hands of a depository of its selection, and would keep the Grand Lodge harmless from loss on account of any failure of the depository. Such deposits made by the Grand Treasurer to be subject to withdrawal only by a regular Grand Lodge warrant. The Grand Secretary would be required to deposit all funds in his hands, and, when deposited in his account, it would only be withdrawn by his check, countersigned by the Grand Master, and payable to the order of the Grand Treasurer, remittances to be made to the Grand Treasurer every month. The premium for this bond will be at a rate of twenty-five cents per hundred, which would amount to the sum of $262.50 for both bonds.

3d. The proposed amendment to the Constitution limits the Grand Lodge to bonds by a surety company only. If this should be adopted as proposed, the Grand Lodge might be placed in an embarrassing position by being unable to get a bond conditioned as required, and at a reasonable rate of premium. To overcome this, we would suggest that the proposed amendment be amended to read as follows:

"The Grand Secretary and the Grand Treasurer shall each, before entering upon the duties of his office, give bond, with three or more sufficient securities, or with a surety company," etc. (The remainder to be the same as proposed.)

4th. In the event of the Constitution being amended in accordance with the views herein expressed, and in case the Grand Lodge requires a bond from a surety company, we would recommend that the proposed form of bond of "The United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company," bonding the Grand Secretary to be elected in the sum of $30,000.00, and the Grand Treasurer to be elected in the sum of $75,000.00, be accepted, and that the expense thereof be provided for out of the general funds of the Grand Lodge.

FRED B. MERRILLS,
W. E. P. ANDERSON.

Balance on deposit in Illinois National Bank, Springfield, Illinois, to the credit of T. B. Needles, Grand Treasurer, for mileage and per diem and expenses of this session...	15,000 00
Total	$54,770 96

We now have in the hands of our Grand Treasurer $3,873.06 more than we had at the last session of the Grand Lodge, and this should be very gratifying to our membership when we consider that several thousand dollars has been saved to the Order by a reduction in the capitation tax. We recommend that the cancelled vouchers be filed in the Grand Secretary's office for future reference. The Grand Treasurer, owing to the death of his daughter, was unable to meet with us, but he sent by special messenger all the books appertaining to his office to us, and deposited with the Illinois National Bank of Springfield, Ill., all bonds belonging to the Grand Lodge, which we have inspected and find in perfect condition, also all money in his hands.

We can only reiterate what we have previously said—these books have been kept in an excellent condition and the Grand Treasurer has performed his duties in a faithful, efficient and conscientious manner.

Signed by the Committee.

The following paper was presented, and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals. [See second report of that committee.]

Document No. 13.

WHEREAS, The said lodge appealed from the order of said committee to the Grand Lodge, but when the Grand Lodge of 1899 met, the said Thompson came to Springfield, and to escape a trial of his case by the Grand Lodge, proposed and promised to the Judiciary and Appeals Committee and the representatives of the said J. B. Turner Lodge that, if they would withdraw his case from the Grand Lodge and reinstate him, he would withdraw from the said J. B. Turner Lodge within thirty days; and

WHEREAS, The representatives of said lodge magnanimously accepted and agreed to said proposition, and believed the same would be faithfully carried out; and

WHEREAS, When the said Thompson was reinstated, he refused and has ever since refused and neglected to do so; and Resolved, by this Grand Lodge, That the aforesaid agreement, unfulfilled by the said Thompson, be, and it is hereby, annulled, and the original appeal of said J. B. Turner Lodge be, and it is hereby, reinstated, and the action of the said J. B. Turner Lodge be, and it is hereby, sustained.

Document No. 14.

State of Illinois. }
County of Cook, } ss.

Englewood P. O., Chicago, Aug. 27th, 1902.

Moses Winsberg, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he became a member of Kossuth Lodge, No. 569, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, located in the city of Chicago, by initiation, about the latter part of January, 1897, and that on account of business and family affairs he was unable to attend said Kossuth Lodge to obtain the remainder of the degrees of the Subordinate Lodge. Deponent also says that some time after his initiation he forwarded to Kossuth Lodge the sum of six dollars in payment of dues; furthermore, that he had no part or share or was connected in any manner with or in the insubordination of the said lodge that caused the revocation of its charter.

Deponent also says that he makes this affidavit for the purpose of obtaining from the Grand Lodge of Illinois a card to enable him to renew his membership in said Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

MOSES WINSBERG.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, August 27th, 1902.

DAVID E. TERRIERE, Notary Public.

To the Chairman of the Committee on State of the Order:

Dear Sir and Brother:—I respectfully inform you that Brother Moses Winsberg, who is herewith making application for a card to enable him to join Cook County Lodge, No. 240, is personally well known to many of its members, and we cheerfully state that we consider him worthy and fit to become associated with the Order in an active capacity.

Respectfully and Fraternally,

PAUL H. LACEY, Noble Grand.

JOHN G. WEBSTER, Secretary.

The following invitation was presented and read, and, by vote of the Grand Lodge, was accepted.

Document No. 15.

To the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. of Illinois—Greeting:

Memorial Hall, where the battle flags of Illinois are stored, is the mecca of the surviving soldiers of the Mexican, Civil and Spanish-American wars.

Thousands upon thousands of visitors view those hallowed relics, year after year, which are priceless in value, and doubly sacred to those who carried them to victory in all the mighty conflicts of the war of '61 to '65. Each blessed old banner has a history of its own, and could they speak, what a story of blood and tears they might tell of the crimson drama that came so near wrecking the ship of state.

Men who fought behind those starry emblems were to be found in all the great battles of the slaveholders' rebellion. They were in it from Belmont to Appomattox, and from Cairo to the sea. Forty-five of those gallant standards were in the march to the sea, and as many more waved in triumph over the blood-soaked battlements of Vicksburg, where the silent Man of Destiny received the sword of General Pemberton on that glorious Fourth of July, 1863.

At Gettysburg, where the lurid flames of war painted hell on the sky, a son of Illinois fired the first shot, which was heard throughout the North. It was a member of the Eighth Illinois Cavalry who opened the ball in that memorable contest—a contest that decided the fate of the nation then and there, for the men in gray met their Waterloo on freedom's soil, and the tattered, bloodstained banners of the lost cause trailed in the dust of defeat, while the hosts of treason and rebellion were driven back into the Confederacy with decimated ranks and broken spirits.

Banners of Illinois! What a flood of memories your presence calls to mind! The crimson fields of carnage and desolation throughout the Southland in the dark days of the sixties bore testimony that the flags of Illinois had waved in victory at Atlanta and swept the plains of Georgia like a besom of destruction, leaving a trail of desolation—the very hell of war,—the only true definition of civil war, with all its attendant horrors, sufferings, and untold sorrows. In all of these events that tried men's souls, the sturdy men of Illinois took part, and on a thousand battlefields shot rebellion to death and purged the flag from treason's stain.

From April, 1861, to April, 1865, more than a quarter of a million of Illinois' sons stepped to the music of the Union beneath the shining folds of those silent testimonials of Illinois valor. "In the records of thy years, Abraham Lincoln's name appears, Grant and Logan and our tears, Illinois." These banners belong to the people of grand old Illinois. The history of those who brought them untarnished from the gory field of battle belongs to the ages. They are priceless in value and represent all that is glorious and grand in the annals of the republic. Many of you who wear the triple link marched and fought under their lustrous folds, and you thus affiliate with the Grand Army of the Republic and the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, two organizations that stand for all that is best in this glorious twentieth-century civilization. While in the city, you are cordially invited to come to Memorial Hall and renew your allegiance to these sacred relics and imbibe the inspiration that is sure to be produced by standing in their hallowed presence.

"Flag of the free heart's hope and home,
From angel's hands to valor given,
Thy stars have lit the welkin dome,
And all thy hues were born in heaven."

Yours in F. C. and L. and F. L. T.,

J. M. SWALES, Custodian.

The amount to be divided equally between the Endowment Funds of the two Homes.

On motion of Bro. J. A. Lucas, of 69, the thanks of the Grand Lodge were tendered to the several donors.

Bro. M. P. Berry, Past Grand Master, announced to the Grand Lodge the inability of Bro. Chas. S. Harris, Deputy Grand Master, to be present at this session, on account of illness, but said that Bro. Harris is rapidly recovering from his sickness, and that in a week or ten days he would be perfectly well and able to attend to his duties as an officer of this Grand Lodge; and thereupon moved that the rules be suspended and that the election of Grand Master be now held.

The motion prevailed; and, nominations having been called for, Bro. Berry nominated Charles S. Harris, of No. 478.

There being no further nomination—

On motion of Bro. J. P. Ellacott, of 416, the Grand Secretary was instructed to cast the entire vote of the Grand Lodge for Bro. Harris.

Which having been done, Bro. Charles S. Harris was declared duly elected Grand Master for the ensuing year.

On motion of Bro. J. Otis Humphrey, P.G.M., Bro. M. P. Berry, P.G.M., was appointed Special Deputy Grand Master, with instructions to proceed, with convenient speed, to the home of Bro. Charles S. Harris, at Galesburg, to install Bro. Harris into the office of Grand Master, and to report to the Grand Lodge at this session his acts and doings in the premises.

On motion of Bro. J. Wilson Jones, of 191, the Grand Lodge then adjourned until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, and was closed in due form, with prayer by the Grand Chaplain.

Wednesday Morning, November 19.

9 O'CLOCK.

The Grand Lodge met, pursuant to adjournment, Grand Master Yantis in the chair.

Present—Grand Officers as yesterday and Grand Marshal Willis Melville, with a quorum of Representatives.

The Grand Master appointed R. W. S. Wheatley, P.G.M., as Deputy Grand Master pro tem.; also additional assistants to the Grand Marshal as follows: Bros. Charles Willard, of 299; H. J. Horstman, of 55; J. W. Boger, of 696; M. Rosenberg, of 613; R. H. Muir, of 800; Joseph Parks, of 673; J. T. Davis, of 675.

The Grand Marshal, with his assistants, having examined the members present, reported all correct.

The Opening Ode was sung, and the Grand Chaplain offered prayer.

The Grand Lodge was then declared regularly opened for the transaction of business.

The Daily Journal of yesterday's session was distributed among the members.

The Committee on Credentials presented the following report, which was considered and adopted.

Document No. 18.

Fourth report, by Bro. T. H. Thompson, of No. 262.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Credentials would respectfully report that the following named brothers have presented proper credentials as Past Grands, and would recommend that they be given the Grand Lodge Degree:

F. J. Hoover, 192; Sherman Wheeler, 749; John Sorg, 290; Chas. B. Young, 870; L. Y. Sikes, 337.

Also the following Representatives: E. E. Edwards, 346; J. R. Pearce, 36.

Signed by the Committee.

The proper officers retired to an adjoining room, and there conferred the Grand Lodge Degree upon the brothers named in the above report, with others, previously reported upon, who had not received it.

The Grand Lodge then proceeded to the special order of business assigned for this hour—Consideration of the proposed amendment to the Constitution substituting a new section for the present Section 14 of Article IV, relating to Bonds of Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer. (See page 143.)

Bro. J. E. Davis, of 450, moved the adoption of the third report of the Committee on Finance. (Doc. 10, page 263.)

Rep. Taylor, of 717, raised the point of order that an amendment to a pending amendment to the Constitution can not be acted on until the annual session next succeeding that at which it is proposed.

The Chair ruled that the point of order was well taken.

On motion of Bro. Orendorff, P.G.M., further consideration of the report of the committee, together with the original proposed amendment, was postponed until the next annual session.

Announcement was made that Sisters L. L. Morrison, P.P., and C. M. Seckner, as a delegation from the Rebekah Assembly now in session, were in waiting at the door.

The Grand Master declared a recess, and requested Past Grand Masters Stone and Kewley and Bro. George W. Young, of 392, to retire and escort them into the hall.

The sisters were introduced to the Grand Lodge by the Grand Master.

Sister Morrison addressed the Grand Lodge, tendering, by unanimous vote of the Rebekah Assembly, the heartfelt greetings of that body, trusting that the Grand Lodge may have a successful meeting, and that nothing may mar its serene peace and happiness, the crowning apex of fraternity. To which the Grand Master responded in a brief address.

The sisters having retired, regular business was resumed.

The Grand Lodge then proceeded to the Nomination and Election of Officers.

The Grand Master appointed as Tellers—Bros. G. F. Bradford, of 114; W. B. Frankenstein, of —; R. E. Huffman, of 673; John B. Chick, of 149; J. J. Condon, of 662; W. E. Robinson, of 465.

FOR DEPUTY GRAND MASTER.

Bro. Stone, P.G.M., nominated John J. Brown, of No. 122.

There being no other nomination,—

On motion of Bro. Lucas, of 69, the Grand Secretary was instructed to cast the vote of the Grand Lodge for Bro. Brown; which having been done, Bro. John J. Brown, of No. 122, was declared duly elected Deputy Grand Master for the ensuing year.

On motion of Past Grand Master Kewley, it was agreed that the election of Grand Treasurer be next in order.

FOR GRAND TREASURER.

Bro. Wheatley, P.G.M., nominated Thomas B. Needles, of No. 37.

Rep. Boyer, of No. 55, nominated M. P. Berry, of No. 412.

Bro. Berry declined the nomination, and moved that the Grand Secretary be instructed to cast the entire vote of the Grand Lodge for Bro. Needles.

The motion prevailed, and, the vote having been cast accordingly, Past Grand Master Thomas B. Needles, of No. 37, was declared duly elected Grand Treasurer for the ensuing year.

On motion of Bro. Wheatley, P.G.M., the Grand Secretary was instructed to send to Bro. Needles, Grand Treasurer, a telegram, informing him of his election.

On motion of Bro. Stone, P.G.M., Rep. Ed. Russell, of 131, and Rep. A. W. Ackerman, of 691, were excused from further attendance, on account of sickness in their families, with allowance of mileage and per diem.

The Committee on Printing presented the following reports, which were laid on the table, under the rule. [Considered Thursday; the first, second, third and fourth adopted, the fifth indefinitely postponed.]

Document No. 21.

First report, by Bro. A. L. Fyfe, No. 416.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your committee would respectfully report as follows, in relation to the matter of contracts for printing the Grand Lodge Journal, the Daily Journal, Reports of Officers, and the Proceedings of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals.

We received bids on this work from the Illinois State Register Co., the Phillips Printing Co., and the Illinois State Journal Co., all of Springfield. The Illinois State Journal Co. being the lowest bidder for the Daily Journal, the work was awarded to that firm at the price of $1.50 per page for 1,200 copies daily.

The printing of 1,200 copies, 125 pages each, of the Officers' Reports, was also awarded to the same firm, it being the lowest bidder, at $132.50 for the book complete. Should the reports contain more than 125 pages, then for each additional page $1.00 will be added.

The same firm being the lowest bidder on printing the Grand Lodge Journal, the contract was awarded it for $707.25 for 2,500 complete copies of 450 pages each.

The same firm was also awarded the contract for printing the quarterly proceedings of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, at the price of $1.20 per page for 1,800 copies of each session's proceedings.

Respectfully submitted.

Your Committee on Printing would respectfully report as follows in regard to printing the German Journal for 1902.

The Post and Zeitung Pub. Co., Belleville, Ill., being the only bidder for translating and printing 150 copies of the German Journal, the work was awarded to that firm at the price of one dollar and twenty-two cents ($1.22) for each page translated and printed.

Document No. 25.

Fifth report, by Bro. W. J. Seil, No. 99.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Printing would respectfully recommend that the printing of the German Journal be discontinued, as, in our opinion, after a thorough consideration of the matter, we believe that it is an unnecessary expense to this Grand Lodge.

As is well known, there are about 875 lodges in this State, and of this number only about forty work in German. Many of the members in these lodges can read English, and we believe that it would be just as well to have only the English Journal printed. Twenty-five hundred copies of the English Journal cost the Grand Lodge $749.75, while 150 German Journals cost $400.00, or over half as much as the English Journal. Therefore, we believe that it would be a matter of economy to the Grand Lodge to dispense with the German Journal hereafter, and that the amount saved be equally divided and placed in the Endowment Funds of the two Homes.

Respectfully submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

Gen. W. S. Frost, of the Grand Lodge of California, Past Grand Marshal of the Grand Lodge of Illinois and of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, read a portion of a personal letter received by him from Grand Representative Adrian Hughes, of Baltimore, Md., containing a check for $10 with request that it be presented to the Grand Lodge for the benefit of the Orphans' Home. The gift was accepted, with a vote of thanks to the donor.

The Grand Master also presented to the Grand Lodge a draft for $25.00 on behalf of Carterville Lodge, No. 703, to be applied equally to the Endowment Funds of the Orphans' and Old Folks' Homes. [This is included in the itemized list, Doc. 17, page 273.]

Instruction in the Unwritten Work of the Subordinate Lodge and the Grand Lodge was given. By request of Grand Representative Lindly, Past Grand Master Stone officiated as Instructor.

Second report, by Bro. Isaac Golden, of No. 822.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on the State of the Order would respectfully report as follows, in regard to the matter of the Consolidation of Sub-ordinate Lodges, and also on that of the Consolidation of Rebekah Lodges, as found in the Grand Master's Report, pages 6 and 7.

That this appears to be an age of consolidation, and as consolidation is conducive to greater strength and influence, your committee is constrained to believe that the lodges so consolidated will be a greater power for good to our Order; and we therefore recommend:

First, that the action of the Grand Master in consolidating said Sub-ordinate Lodges be approved.

Second, that the action of the Grand Master in consolidating said Rebekah Lodges be also approved.

Second. In regard to Loss by Fire, we commend the Subordinate Lodges for their forethought in having their property insured, which is the duty of all lodges, and indorse the action of the Grand Master in issuing new charters to those lodges suffering the loss of the same by fire. [See page 7.]

Fifth report, by Bro. Isaac N. Roland, of No. 61.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on the State of the Order would respectfully report as follows, in regard to the matter of Proclamations. We commend and indorse—

First, the sentiment expressed by the Grand Master when he assumed the station and responsibilities of affairs in this Grand Jurisdiction. [Pages 7-8.]

Second, the wise suggestion and importance to lodges in the selection of Lodge Deputies. [Page 8.]

Third, the proficiency of our membership, as a whole, in the secret and ritualistic work of our Order is worthy of special commendation.

Fourth, the tender memories aroused by Memorial Day proclamations and an observance of the same is undoubtedly of large benefit to our fraternity. [Page 10.]

The Grand Lodge Sessions, Instructions to Representatives, and Suggestions by the Grand Master are all of special merit, and compliance therewith would greatly facilitate the work of this Grand Lodge. [Pages 11, 12.]

Your Committee on the State of the Order would respectfully report as follows, in regard to the matter of that part of the Grand Master's Report entitled Dispensations, on page 20: That it is a matter of congratulation that the laws of the Order in relation to dispensations are being more fully complied with, and again, as was done at the last session of the Grand Lodge, insist that dispensations be asked for in all cases not especially authorized by law and the proclamation of the Grand Master, and again call the attention of the membership to the fact that the giving of entertainments, picnics, and excursions in the name of the Order, or in such manner as would in public opinion connect our Order therewith, without a dispensation from the Grand Master, is an infraction of our laws and should not be tolerated by the Grand Lodge.

Sikes to be ably fitted to fill this position, so responsible, and of so great importance to the Order in this jurisdiction.

Your Committee on the State of the Order would respectfully report as follows, in regard to the matter of Fraternal Journals, mentioned in the Grand Master's Report, on page 40, that they have carefully considered the same, and most heartily indorse all that he has said in relation to the subject.

In these times it is almost impossible for a member of the Order to keep well posted as to what is being done throughout our Grand Lodge Jurisdiction, except by reading our fraternal papers. Every member of our Order ought, if possible, to be a reader of one or more of the papers published by our members in this state. These papers are a power for good, and are doing much to elevate and educate our membership, and are worthy of encouragement.

Your committee therefore recommend that our membership and lodges lend their support to The Odd Fellows' Herald and The Illinois Odd Fellow, by becoming subscribers thereto.

Signed by the Committee.

Document No. 39.

Our Grand Representatives deserve the hearty thanks of this Grand Lodge.

The Grand Lodge then proceeded to the consideration of proposed amendments to the Constitution lying over from the last annual session.

The amendment to Section 8 of Article VI (page 144), proposing to discontinue the printing of an edition of the Journal of Proceedings in the German language, was considered.

On motion of Rep. Kistler, of 506, the proposed amendment was laid on the table.

Rep. Elderkin, of 871, moved that a special committee of three be appointed to report such changes as may be deemed advisable in the rules and regulations for the government and maintenance of the Old Folks' Home.

The motion prevailed by a unanimous vote.

ADDRESS OF JOHN H. SIKES, GRAND SECRETARY-ELECT.

Grand Master, Representatives and Brothers:

I deem it an honor to have the confidence and good-will of more than sixty thousand Odd Fellows; to be considered worthy to represent you and to represent the principles of this Order. I realize the responsibility which I assume. If by steadfastness of purpose and loyalty to the principles of this Order I may, in a measure, fill the position which was occupied by my predecessor in your affections and in the activities of this Order, I shall not have lived in vain. I deem it a great honor to stand for an organization, the object of which, and the only object, is the uplifting of mankind, and the betterment of the world; and the crowning glory of this organization—the glory—the garland—which I would place upon it, is its practical workings as applied to the necessities of man. We have no quarrel with other organizations, but we welcome to our fireside as co-laborers any and all which have a kindly word for those whose efforts have been crowned in triumph, and lend a helping hand and loving interest in those whom misfortune has overwhelmed. This organization is the crystallization of the purest, the best, the manliest qualities of man. It is a product of American freedom and liberty, a quality born in such an atmosphere, nurtured on kindness and charity. Its mission is to dry the tear of sorrow, and place the star of hope where desolation has settled. Odd Fellowship is an inspiration, a determination to help some weary traveler on life's journey, to place sunshine in darkened lives. It is a living truth and not a theory. Let us then take for our word "Go on," until the principles of this organization shall be the ruling spirit of the world. Brothers, I thank you.

The Committee on Finance presented the following report, which was laid on the table, under the rule. [Adopted Thursday.]

Document No. 46.

Seventh report, by Bro. W. E. P. Anderson, of No. 107.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows, in regard to the matter of what should be done with the money received as fees for wives of members of the Old Folks' Home, as per motion of Bro. Mansfield, P.G.M., on page 325 of Journal, 1901.

We find from a statement made to this committee by the Old Folks' Home Board—

That Irving Park Lodge, No. 190, has paid for Bro. C. C. Herbert and wife the sum of $228 and is entitled to have refunded the sum of $114.

That Cicero Lodge, No. 217, has paid for Bro. William Halley and wife the sum of $156 and is entitled to have refunded the sum of $78.

That South Chicago Lodge, No. 696, has paid for Bro. T. S. James and wife the sum of $11.15 and is entitled to have refunded the sum of $5.57.

That Hancock Lodge, No. 71, has paid for Bro. Peter Fuss and wife the sum of $20 and is entitled to have refunded the sum of $10.00.

That Toledo Lodge, No. 355, has paid for Bro. F. A. Long and wife the sum of $84.21 and is entitled to have refunded the sum of $42.10.

That Union Lodge, No. 9, has paid for Bro. John B. Davidson and wife the sum of $153 and is entitled to have refunded the sum of $76.50.

That Danville Lodge, No. 69, has paid for Bro. W. H. Hodges and wife the sum of $73.14 and is entitled to have refunded the sum of $36.57.

Your committee would therefore recommend that the Grand Lodge direct that orders be drawn on the Grand Treasurer payable to the following named lodges in the following named amounts::

Irving Park Lodge, No. 190.....	$114 00
Cicero Lodge, No. 217.....	78 00
South Chicago Lodge, No. 696.....	5 57
Hancock Lodge, No. 71.....	10 00
Toledo Lodge, No. 355.....	42 10
Union Lodge, No. 9.....	76 50
Danville Lodge, No. 69.....	36 57

Making a total of.....$362 74

We also find from said statement that McLean Lodge, No. 206, has paid for T. Roberts and wife the sum of $478.00; but on investigation we find that Bro. Roberts and wife were possessed of sufficient means in the way of money and property, and at the time they entered the Old Folks' Home they did so under a contract between them and the Trustees of said Home that $3.00 [per week] was to be paid for their maintenance. We also find that prior to their applying to become members of said Home they deposited with said McLean Lodge, No. 206, the sum of $600, which was to be appropriated by said Lodge for their maintenance at said Home. We therefore recommend that nothing be refunded to said McLean Lodge.

Respectfully submitted,

Signed by the Committee.

The Committee on Credentials presented the following report, which was considered and concurred in.

Document No. 47.

Sixth report, by Bro. F. D. P. Snelling, of No. 601.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Credentials would respectfully report as follows: That Henry Kelling presents a certificate of his election as Representative of Lodge No. 38, signed by the Secretary of said lodge, but not under seal. From the statement made by Bro. Kelling, your committee believes that he is entitled to mileage and per diem as Representative from said lodge, and asks that the Grand Lodge pass upon this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Signed by the Committee.

The fourth report of the Committee on Finance (Doc. 11, page 265) was considered and adopted.

The fifth report of same committee (Doc. 12, page 266) was considered and adopted.

On motion of Bro. Ellacott, of 416, Reps. T. J. Elderkin, of 871, and William Wallace, of 658, were added to the special Committee on Government and Maintenance of the Old Folks' Home.

On motion of G. Marshal Melville, the Grand Lodge adjourned until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning, and was closed in regular form, with singing of the Closing Ode, and prayer by the Grand Chaplain.

Thursday Morning, November 20.

9 O'CLOCK.

The Grand Lodge met, pursuant to adjournment, Grand Master Yantis in the chair.

Present—Grand Officers as yesterday, except Grand Chaplain, with a quorum of representatives.

The Grand Master appointed Bro. J. A. Lucas, of 69, Grand Chaplain pro tem.; also, as additional assistants to the Grand Marshal, Reps. Taylor of 544, and Hirsch of 490.

The Grand Marshal, with his assistants, having made due examination, reported all correct.

The Opening Ode was sung, and the Grand Chaplain offered prayer.

The Deputy Grand Master, by order of the Grand Master, then proclaimed the Grand Lodge regularly opened for the transaction of business.

The Daily Journal of yesterday's proceedings was distributed among the members.

The Grand Master announced appointments as follows.

Bro. C. M. Babcock, of 142, to fill vacancy in Committee on the State of the Order, in place of Bro. Perdue, absent.

Bro. Chas. D. Brainard, of 21, to fill vacancy in Committee on Rebekah Degree, in place of Bro. Colonius, absent.

On motion of Bro. J. R. Kewley, P.G.M., the rule requiring reports to lie on the table for a second reading before consideration was suspended for the remainder of the session.

Bro. D. D. Haynie, of 114, offered the following, which was adopted by a unanimous vote.

Document No. 48.

WHEREAS, Our Bro. Richard Yates, Governor of the State of Illinois, has been prostrated by severe illness for several weeks; therefore,

Resolved, That this Grand Body tender to him and his family our sincere sympathy in his severe affliction, and our hopes and wishes are for his speedy recovery and return to his usefulness and the walks of life.

The Committee on Judiciary and Appeals presented the following report, which was considered and adopted.

Document No. 49.

First report, by Bro. Henry A. Stone, P.G.M.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals respectfully report as follows in regard to the matter of the communication of Bro. Isaac Golden, of No. 822, addressed to the Grand Lodge and by it referred to this committee at its present session.

The communication was as follows:

"To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

"Question 1. A brother was dropped for non-payment of dues at the last meeting in September, 1902. At the third meeting in October, 1902, he made a regular application for reinstatement. On the ballot being taken three white balls were cast and three black balls. The Noble Grand declared the brother elected for reinstatement. Is he legally elected?

"2. If not legally elected, what action should the Lodge take in the case?

"3. I respectfully ask that this question be referred to the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals for decision.

(Signed.)

"ISAAC GOLDEN, No. 822."

Your committee is of the opinion that, upon the facts stated, the brother was not "legally elected for reinstatement." Section 1 of Art. VIII of Subordinate Lodge Constitution (Thornton's Code of 1896, Sec. 346) provides that:

"A brother dropped for the nonpayment of dues from membership in this Lodge may, within one year after being dropped, be reinstated upon application made in open Lodge by a member thereof, which shall be held over until the second meeting thereafter, the secretary reading the same at each meeting, and be determined affirmatively on a ballot by a majority of the votes cast, and upon payment of such amount as the By-laws of the lodge may prescribe."

The application did not receive "a majority of the votes cast." It is clear that three is not a majority of six. The application was, therefore, not sustained, and the brother was not lawfully elected for reinstatement; and the Noble Grand erred in declaring the brother elected for reinstatement.

Answering the second question, the committee holds that the Noble Grand should recall and reverse his ruling, and a record should be made to the effect that the brother was not elected for reinstatement.

If the brother paid the lodge any money for the reinstatement, the lodge should refund the money paid, unless the brother chooses to let the same remain in the lodge treasury to abide the action of the lodge upon a future application for reinstatement, in case one shall be made.

That the Grand Secretary-elect has presented his bond in the penal sum of Thirty Thousand dollars ($30,000.00), conditioned as is required by the Constitution and By-laws of the Grand Lodge, signed by himself, and Henry M. Tenth report, by Bro. James Ewing Davis, of No. 450.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance respectfully report as follows, in regard to the matter of World's Fair Fraternal Building Association, found on pages 13 to 17, Grand Master's Report.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge at its last session passed a resolution concerning the subject matter herein contained, and in order that this Grand Lodge should have an intelligent understanding of this subject, we hereby set forth said resolution in full:

"Believing that this, the largest fraternal society in America, should have an interest in this building equaling that of any other society, we recommend that this Sovereign Grand Lodge grant permission to the Building Association to solicit subscriptions from the members under its immediate jurisdiction, and recommend that the various Grand Lodges grant a like permission, with the proviso that the Building Association make a complete report to our Grand Secretary of the amounts so received from each jurisdiction, to be reported by the Grand Secretary to this Grand Body."

We would therefore recommend that this Grand Lodge grant permission to the World's Fair Fraternal Building Association to solicit subscriptions for the "Temple of Fraternity" from the members of this jurisdiction; provided said Building Association shall agree to make, and does make, a complete report to our Grand Secretary of the amounts so received from the members of this jurisdiction.

We would further recommend, in case of the adoption of this report and acceptance of the conditions herein contained by said Building Association, that our Grand Secretary report said amounts to the Grand Secretary of the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

We will state that we are in accord with the fraternal spirit expressed therein, and also that, upon an examination of the printed reports of the two Boards of our Homes, we find that the management of said Homes, including the disbursements, are commensurate with good judgment and good business methods.

The Committee on Legislation presented the following reports, which were severally considered and adopted.

Document No. 56.

First report, by Bro. George F. Howard, P.G.M.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Legislation would respectfully report as follows, in regard to the matter of the resolution offered by Bro. James Ewing Davis, of No. 450, to put in force in this jurisdiction the law passed at the last session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge relative to "Attentive Benefits." [See Doc. 9, page 263.]

"Section 11. Subordinate Lodges must provide for attentive benefits for all their members who are not suspended for non-payment of lodge dues, but the lodge shall not employ night watchers or nurses and pay the hire of same out of the lodge fund for any member who may be in arrears for dues more than thirteen (13) weeks. The lodge may, by its By-laws, fix the period of, time for which it will provide and pay for night watchers or nurses for a brother who may be entitled to such attentive benefits, viz., one who is a beneficiary member of the lodge."

Document No. 57.

Second report, by Bro. D. R. Anderson, of No. 75.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Legislation respectfully report as follows, in regard to the matter of a proposition to amend Section 2 of Article IV of the Constitution for Subordinate Lodges of the State of Illinois, so as to make the term of office for Lodge Trustees three (3) years.

Your committee believes that the present law on the matter in question needs no change; that it is wisdom to have short terms for the trustees; that it is easier to reelect a good Board of Trustees, year after year, than it is to oust an inefficient Board of Trustees before the expiration of their term of office.

We therefore recommend that the proposed amendment be not adopted. [See Doc. 8, page 262.]

Bro. M. P. Berry, P.G.M., having returned from his mission to install Bro. Chas. S. Harris, Grand Master-elect, reported :

Grand Master:—I have come to you this morning to bring the greetings of your Grand Master, Bro. Chas. S. Harris, of Galesburg. Last night, at 7 o'clock, in the presence of several Past Grands of Galesburg, I installed Bro. Harris into the office to which you have elected him; and when leaving his home he said to me, with tears in his eyes: "Please tell them that I shall love them as long as I live." Bro. Harris is getting along finely, is sitting up a good part of the time, and in a short while he will be able to enter upon the duties of his office. Bro. Berry further reported that Bro. Harris requested that Bro. Yantis continue to preside as Grand Master until the close of the present session of the Grand Lodge.

On motion of Bro. Kewley, P.G.M., the request of Grand Master Harris was concurred in by vote of the Grand Lodge.

Bro. J. H. Raible, P.G.R., presented the following communications, with request that they be spread upon the records of the Grand Lodge.

Document No. 58.

November 12, 1902.

BROTHER RAIBLE, Respected:

It is with deep pain I write to you that I fear I cannot attend the Grand Lodge next week. I was examined by three doctors yesterday, and was told that I must have absolute rest or that I would likely have to die, or be prostrated for years to come.

My troubles, contracted in the army, have gradually grown worse the last few years, and have mastered my health. I have for some time been conscious that I was of little service on the Board, but have hoped all the time that I would get better; but I am pained to say that there is little prospect now that I shall ever be well again.

Be assured of my love and my interest in the members of the Board and of the Home, and of my constant good will. I have come to this conclusion of resigning very reluctantly, indeed. But the examination of yesterday showed me that delay is useless.

I inclose my resignation, and you can present it to the Board. If it is not accepted and reported to the Grand Lodge, I will attend the meetings of the Board when I can, until my place can be filled, and consult with you and other members all I can, and that is all I can promise. Tell the brethren who may ask about me, why I am absent.

With love and esteem,

Your Brother, W. R. JEWELL.

November 12, 1902.

BROTHER JULIUS H. RAIBLE, Chairman:

Dear Sir and Brother: I hereby offer my resignation as a member of the Board of Trustees of I. O. O. F. Old Folks' Home, on account of inability to promptly and fully discharge the duties of the same.

With my best wishes for the Board, and love for the Home and its members, and sorrow at having to sever my connection therewith,

Your Brother, W. R. JEWELL.

On motion of Bro. G. F. Howard, P.G.M., the resignation was not accepted, but was placed in the hands of the incoming Grand Master, Charles S. Harris, for such action as he, in his judgment, may deem proper. Also, the Grand Secretary was instructed to convey to Bro. Jewell the sympathy of this Grand Lodge, and its thanks for his services to the Grand Lodge in the past, and to inform him that his resignation had been referred to the incoming Grand Master, for his determination and action.

The Committee on Finance presented the following reports, which were severally considered and adopted.

Document No. 59.

Twelfth report, by Bro. W. E. P. Anderson, of No. 107.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

Your Committee on Finance respectfully report as follows, in regard to the matter of that part of the report of the Grand Master relative to the "Koenig Bequest," on page 21.

We find upon investigation that the real estate left by Bro. Koenig has been sold for the payment of debts, under an order of the Probate Court, for the sum of $1,625.20, but that the Judge is willing to set aside the sale, upon an assurance that the Grand Lodge will bid a sum in excess of the amount for which the premises were sold. But we find that the value of the property will not justify such action on the part of this Grand Body, and therefore recommend that no further steps be taken in the matter.

Respectfully submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

Document No. 60.

Thirteenth report, by Bro. James Ewing Davis, of 450.

Your Committee on Finance respectfully report as follows in regard to the matter of resolution concerning the erection of an attached building at the Old Folks' Home. [See Doc. 45, page 294.]

Your committee has given this matter much careful consideration during the past year, and having made a careful inspection of the buildings as to the number of rooms, their size, and the number of members in said Home, and also as to the possibility of prospective members, we are of the opinion that there is no immediate necessity for another building, as there is ample space if properly utilized.

We further find that the Grand Lodge has no available funds for an additional expense of $8,000, and that in case the Grand Lodge should decide to erect this additional building it would be necessary to increase the capitation tax 15 cents per member, which we do not deem advisable at this time.

Your committee would report and recommend that the resolution be not adopted.

Fraternally submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

On motion of Rep. Elderkin, of 871, it was ordered that when the Board of Trustees of the Old Folks' Home, or the Directors of the Orphans' Home, shall at any time deem it necessary to raise an amount in excess of $5,000.00 for permanent improvements, notice thereof shall be given to the Grand Secretary, and notice shall also be given to the Subordinate Lodges by the Grand Secretary, thirty days prior to the session of the Grand Lodge following.

Bro. C. F. Mansfield, P.G.M., offered the following resolution, which was adopted.

Document No. 61.

Resolved, That non-beneficial members otherwise qualified shall be eligible to membership in the Old Folks' Home, upon like terms and conditions as other members.

A communication was received from the Rebekah Assembly now in session, asking approval of resolutions adopted by that body amending the form of commissions of Examiners and Instructors for Rebekah Lodges. The communication was referred to the Committee on Rebekah Degree, and appears in full in the report of that committee. [See Document 71, page 315.]

The Special Committee on Government and Maintenance of the Old Folks' Home presented the following report, which was considered and adopted.

Document No. 62.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Special Committee would respectfully report as follows in the matter referred to them in regard to the rules and maintenance of the Old Folks' Home: That they have given the subject such consideration as in the limited time at their command has been possible, and find that the principal ground of complaint has been the failure to answer correspondence promptly. We find that this is well founded, but we think that the change from quarterly meetings to monthly meetings of the Board will tend to remedy this neglect. The question of altering rules in regard to maintenance of members involves the whole financial scheme of the Home, and change should not be made without due consideration, which it cannot receive in the closing hours of this session.

We therefore, to meet the present emergency, recommend the passage of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Board of Trustees of the Old Folks' Home are instructed and authorized to appoint an assistant secretary, and to take such other measures as may be necessary to secure prompt answers to all communications sent to the Home, and prevent all unnecessary delay in the consideration of applications for admission to the Home.

Respectfully submitted.

Document No. 65.

Sixteenth report, by Bro. John B. Chick, of No. 149.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on the State of the Order respectfully report as follows in regard to the matter of reinstatement of Bro. Geo. D. Laughlin to membership (Document 50).

The evidence before your committee being insufficient to show that Bro. Geo. D. Laughlin desires reinstatement, there being no compliance on his part with the law in relation to reinstatement in such cases, we most respectfully ask to be relieved from further consideration of the matter.

Respectfully submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

Document No. 66.

WHEREAS, Said lodge in its effort to obtain a new home has created an indebtedness of nearly $100.00, and has not sufficient funds to purchase the necessary paraphernalia for properly conferring the degrees; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the sum of $50.00 be appropriated out of the treasury of this Grand Lodge in aid of Clear Creek Lodge, No. 712, for the purpose of placing said lodge in a position to carry on the noble work of the Order.

The following, signed by Rep. Sven Windrow, of 812, and seven other Representatives and Past Grands, was offered, and was referred to the Committee on the State of the Order. [See seventeenth report of that committee.]

Document No. 67.

WHEREAS, Exigencies from time to time may arise, which may make such removal or removals necessary; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this Grand Lodge does hereby grant the Grand Master the right to remove, for sufficient cause, any member of these Boards who is derelict in the performance of his duties.

Bro. George W. Young, of 392, presented the following, to be entered on the journal for consideration at the next annual session of the Grand Lodge.

Document No. 68.

Resolved, That Section 8 of Article VI of the Grand Lodge Constitution be amended by substituting the word "the" for the word "both," and by striking out the words "and the German," all in the seventh line of said section, as found in the Book of Constitutions for Illinois, 1896, so that the same, when so amended, shall read as follows:

"The Committee on Printing shall superintend all printing, and shall purchase all stationery and blanks not supplied by the Sovereign Grand Lodge. They shall advertise for bids for printing the Reports of the Grand Officers, the Proceedings of the Annual Sessions of this Grand Lodge in the English language, and such other printing as may be required by the Grand Officers, awarding the contract for such work to the lowest responsible bidder, and reporting the original list of said bidders, with the prices that they had offered to perform the work for, to the next session of the Grand Lodge. They shall sign all bills for which they may have awarded contracts, as being correct, and forward the same to the Committee on Finance for their approval; and no warrant or warrants shall be drawn by the Grand Secretary for the payment of any printing bill until the same has been approved by a majority of the Committee on Finance."

The Special Committee on Necrology presented the following report.

Document No. 69.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Special Committee to whom was referred so much of the Grand Master's and Grand Secretary's Reports as refers to our deceased brothers, P. G. Master, P. G. Representative and Grand Secretary, Brother James R. Miller, and Past Grand Master Andrew D. Sanders, respectfully report.

As to Bro. James R. Miller, we fully indorse the words of eulogy of the deceased found in the Grand Master's Report, commencing on page 22, and in the Grand Secretary's Report, found on page 108. We further recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, That James R. Miller was by nature a man of lofty and noble impulses. Through his entire life there ran a divine current of electricity which we call Love, and it was this that so early aroused him to action. His early life was moulded in the matrix of adversity rather than prosperity. His splendid traits of character were developed in the schools of poverty rather than those of riches. He was reared in the country, close to Nature's throbbing heart, and always loved the fields, the trees, and the flowers. It has been said that great men never lose those qualities which we associate with youth. If this be true, Brother Miller was a great man, for until his dying day he retained the freshness of youth, the same sweetness of temper, the same impulsive spirit, the same hopefulness, and the same love of children.

To his bereaved family we can give the assurance that we loved him and appreciated his worth, that we, with them, mourn his loss; but we take pleasure in cherishing in our memories his kind words, his good deeds.

Brother Miller has served the Order during all these years faithfully and well, and always enjoyed and merited the good will and confidence of all who knew him. He not only performed his duties well in the various official positions he held, but he so endeared himself to the Order that he was in constant demand from all parts of this jurisdiction, and no public demonstration or lodge entertainment was complete without his presence, which he gave freely, at many times under great sacrifices, thereby making acquaintances and friends to a greater degree than any other Grand Officer we have ever had. He possessed a personal magnetism as a speaker that commanded the attention of his hearers, no matter what the occasion or the subject, thereby giving him an influence superior to most public speakers, and was no doubt the best off-hand, all-around speaker in this jurisdiction. In addition to this, he was genial, generous and broad-minded in all social intercourse, and kind-hearted to the last degree; and while he sometimes differed in his views from others, and had his likes and dislikes, he seldom said or did anything to offend the most sensitive. His tolerance was such that he could do no less than love and respect his fellow man. He loved the Order in all its various branches, and he especially loved the Rebekah branch, to which he was a warm friend and rendered great services, and of which he was always proud. In his family relations he was a kind, gentle and devoted husband, a loving, generous and indulgent father, ready at all times to make sacrifices for their comfort and happiness. A loyal, patriotic citizen, a firm believer in the immortality of man, and a faithful adherent to the cause and teachings of our Master, his life has been an exemplification of our mottoes, "Friendship, Love and Truth," and its closing a beautiful one, taken in the midst of life and usefulness, in the possession of his full, well-rounded faculties, before weakened by decay. May his rest be sweet and peaceful, and may the life he lived be a consolation to the hearts of all his friends and afford a stimulus to all to emulate his life and teachings.

Resolved, That a memorial page in the Journal of Proceedings of the Grand Lodge be inscribed and set aside in honor of Bro. Miller.

In regard to Past Grand Master Sanders, your committee recommend the passage of the following resolutions:

Resolved, That no special eulogy of the life and character of Bro. A. D. Sanders, P.G.M., is necessary. It is sufficient to say that he was faithful to all his obligations as a citizen and a worthy Odd Fellow. He illustrated his loyalty to the government by enlisting in the Volunteer Army in 1861 to defend the Constitution and uphold the flag of his country. By years of service under the banner of our Order he proved his devotion to the principles of Odd Fellowship. We may well cherish his memory with satisfaction and emulate his virtues.

Resolved, That a memorial page in the Journal of Proceedings, properly inscribed, be set aside in honor of our deceased brother.

We also wish to place on record our estimate of the great loss this Grand Lodge has sustained in the death of Past Grand W. V. Weise, who for many years has been a faithful member of the Committee on Finance.

Respectfully submitted.

ALFRED ORENDORFF,
J. L. BARNUM,
J. O. HUMPHREY,
M. P. BERRY,
J. WILSON JONES.

To which was appended the following, signed by four members of the committee.

Your committee feels that their duties were but ill performed if they failed to notice the sad afflictions that have come to two of our distinguished and dear brothers, Past Grand Masters Berry and Needles; the former in the loss of a dear and loving wife and companion, who had for many years devoted a large part of her time to deeds of kindness and charity, forgetting self and sacrificing many of the privileges and enjoyments of this life to do good to others. She was an active Rebekah, and was always in full sympathy with her husband in his devotion to our Order, and in carrying out the many good deeds therein for which he has been so justly noted. The latter, in the taking away of a loving daughter, the first-born, and just in the prime of life, blasting a young and beautiful life, which had much promise for the future.

Therefore, Resolved, That this Grand Lodge and all of its members tender their warmest sympathy and condolence to these Brothers, and trust that Divine Providence will sustain and comfort them under these sad and unlooked-for dispensations.

On motion of Bro. H. A. Stone, P.G.M., the report of the committee was adopted unanimously, the members standing, with heads bowed.

The Committee on Judiciary and Appeals presented the following report, which was considered and adopted.

Document No. 70.

Second report, by Bro. Chas. S. Thornton, of No. 858.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals respectfully report, as follows in regard to the matter of the appeal of Bro. W. W. Gokey and others, of J. B. Turner Lodge, No. 420, from the decision of Grand Master Yantis with relation to the continued membership of Bro. J. K. Thompson in the Order, wherein the Grand Master decided that Bro. J. K. Thompson is a member of the Order in good standing; and also in the matter of the resolution signed by G. L. Madison and others of said lodge requesting that the appeal of certain members of said lodge, withdrawn by said lodge in 1899, be reinstated, and that Bro. Thompson, who was reinstated as a member of said J. B. Turner Lodge, and has been paying dues regularly thereto for the past three years, be expelled from the Order, notwithstanding the fact that J. B. Turner Lodge has received dues from the brother and has placed the same in its treasury.

As to the decision of the Grand Master, it is conceded now by appellants that the ruling of the Grand Master is right, and that Bro. J. K. Thompson is a member of the Order in good standing, and the appellants desire your committee to regard said appeal as withdrawn and the decision of the Grand Master therein to stand.

As to the resolution, your committee cannot but express the opinion that action looking to the expulsion of a member of a subordinate lodge by resolution introduced in the Grand Lodge is somewhat novel, and does not meet the approval of any member of your committee. But, inasmuch as both parties to the controversy desire a postponement of its consideration until the next session of your committee, when the matter may be fully presented and argued, your committee has entered an order setting the case down for a hearing at the next February session. [See Doc. 13, page 268.]

Signed by the Committee.

The Committee on Rebekah Degree presented the following report, which was considered and adopted.

Document No. 71.

First report, by Bro. W. E. Carlin, P.G.R.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Rebekah Degree respectfully report as follows, in regard to the matter of the resolution submitted by the Rebekah Assembly.

We have carefully considered the same, and are of the opinion that the authority asked by said Assembly should be granted, and therefore recommend its adoption, to wit:

Senate Chamber, November 20, 1902.

To the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F.

The following resolution has been adopted by the Assembly and awaits your approval:

WHEREAS, The recommendation for the appointment of a Chief and Assistant Chief of Instructors for the Rebekah Lodges by the Grand Master is for the purpose of having some authorized supervision of that work, and the appointment of Official Examiners and of Official Instructors by the Grand Master, on the recommendation of such Chief and Assistant Chief of Instructors, is intended to secure a better knowledge of the "unwritten work" among the lodges and members generally; now, in order to secure the best results from such appointees, be it

Resolved, That all Official Examiners and Official Instructors, appointed as aforesaid, shall report annually, on or before the first day of October, to the Chief of Instructors, the work they have done in the year, including the number of schools of instruction held, and the number of Sisters and Brothers who have become proficient in such work. The Chief of Instructors shall make full report to the Grand Master on or before October 15th in each year. And be it further

Resolved, That, in order to make effective the foregoing, we respectfully request the Grand Lodge of Illinois to provide that all commissions issued by the Grand Master to Official Examiners and Official Instructors for Rebekah Lodges shall provide that such appointees shall report all their acts as such Examiners and Instructors to the Chief of Instructors for Rebekah Lodges, on or before the first day of October in each year.

All of which is fraternally submitted.

Document No. 72.

Fourteenth report, by Bro. W. E. P. Anderson, of No. 107.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance respectfully report as follows in regard to the matter of resolution pertaining to Clear Creek Lodge, No. 712, asking for an appropriation of fifty dollars on account of loss sustained by fire. We recommend that said resolution be not adopted, for the reason that appropriating money out of our funds for such purposes would originate a bad precedent; but we recommend that in case any property should come into the possession of the Grand Lodge such as paraphernalia, that the Grand Master, in his discretion, may dispose of same to said lodge upon such terms as he deems proper under the circumstances attending the case. [See Doc. 66, page 310.]

Signed by the Committee.

The Committee on the State of the Order presented the following report, which was considered and adopted.

Document No. 73.

Seventeenth report, by Bro. Fred W. Mollman, of No. 539.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on the State of the Order respectfully report as follows in regard to the resolution giving the Grand Master authority to remove for cause members of the Home Boards. While we deem the Grand Master possessed of such authority now, we would, in order to remove all possible doubt, recommend the adoption of the resolution. [See Doc. 67, page 310.]

Signed by the Committee.

Bro. George F. Howard, P.G.M., offered the following, which was adopted:

Document No. 74.

Resolved, That the Representatives from this Grand Lodge to the Sovereign Grand Lodge be and are hereby instructed to use all honorable means to secure the adoption of an appropriation to again have printed a sufficient number of the Daily Journal of that body to supply the members of our Order who have the business and work of the Order to attend to.

Deputy Grand Master Brown in the chair,—

Past Grand Master Kewley moved that the thanks of the Grand Lodge be tendered to the retiring Grand Master and other officers for their faithful and efficient services during the past year and at this session of the Grand Lodge; also, to the members of the Committee on Railroads for having secured a rate of one fare for the round trip for the session of the Grand Lodge.

The motion prevailed unanimously, by a rising vote.

INDEX TO COMMITTEE REPORTS.

SPECIAL COMMITTEES.

On Analysis and Distribution.

On Reports of Grand Officers, assigning the several matters therein to appropriate Standing and Special Committees. Presented and adopted, 259.

Tellers.

First report, being result of ballot for Grand Warden, 283.

Second report, being result of ballot for Grand Secretary, 284.

On Government and Maintenance Old Folks' Home.

The committee finds that the principal ground of complaint has been failure to answer correspondence promptly, and that this is well founded; but that the change from quarterly to monthly meetings will tend to remedy this neglect. The question of altering rules involves the whole financial scheme of the Home, and requires consideration which it can not receive in the closing hours of this session. To meet the existing emergency, the committee recommends the passage of a resolution authorizing the Board to appoint an assistant secretary and to take such other measures as may be necessary to secure prompt answers to communications and prevent delay in consideration of applications for admission. Presented and adopted, 308.

On Necrology.

- (1.) On the Death of James R. Miller, Past Grand Master, Past Grand Representative, and Grand Secretary—indorsing fully the words of eulogy in the reports of the Grand Master and Grand Secretary; adding a further tribute to his character and worth; recalling his devotion to Odd Fellowship in its various branches as manifested in his life and acts; sympathizing with his family in their bereavement; and recommending that a memorial page in the Journal of Proceedings be inscribed and set aside in his honor.
- (2.) On Death of Andrew D. Sanders, Past Grand Master—commending his faithfulness to all his obligations as a citizen and a worthy Odd Fellow; his patriotism and loyalty to the government as manifested by his service under its flag during the years of civil strife; his proved devotion to the principles of Odd Fellowship; and directing that a memorial page in the Journal of Proceedings properly inscribed, be set aside in his honor.

- (3.) The committee also desires to place on record an estimate of the great loss the Grand Lodge has sustained in the death of Past Grand W. V. Weise, for many years a faithful member of the Committee on Finance.

To which four members of the committee add a tribute of sympathy and condolence with their colleague, Past Grand Master Berry, in the bereavement he has sustained in the loss by death of a loved and loving wife and companion; also with Grand Treasurer Needles, in the death of his beloved daughter. Presented and adopted, 311-313.

On the State of the Order.

- Fourth report, by Bro. D. G. Clemow—On the subjects Removal of Lodges and Loss by Fire, in Grand Master's Report on page 7, approving action of Grand Master and commending forethought of lodges in having their property insured. Presented, 288; adopted, 300.
- Fifth report, by Bro. Isaac N. Roland—On the subject of Proclamations, found in Grand Master's Report, pages 7-13. The committee commends and indorses the sentiments and suggestions of the Grand Master contained in the several circular letters given under this heading. Presented, 288; adopted, 300.

- Sixth report, by Bro. John B. Chick—On the subject of New Buildings, found in Grand Master's Report, page 17. The committee commends the spirit of progress manifested by lodges in aiming to secure for themselves permanent homes, and indorses the building of lodge-rooms when within the means of the lodge, care being taken to secure good, reputable sites. Presented, 289; adopted, 300.
- Seventh report, by Bro. F. W. Mollman—On the subject of Official Instructors, found in Grand Master's Report, page 17. The committee commends the action of the Grand Master in appointment of instructors, and concurs in the opinion expressed by Chief of Instructors Carlin that "Illinois maintains its high standard of efficiency in this branch of the work of the Order." Presented, 289; adopted, 300.
- Eighth report, by Bro. W. H. Hall—On the subject of Dispensations, found in Grand Master's Report, page 20. The committee finds it a matter of congratulation that the laws in this regard are more fully complied with than heretofore, again calling attention to the requirement that dispensations must be asked for, in all cases not specially authorized by law and proclamations of the Grand Master, for festivals and entertainments of every description held in the name of the Order, or in such manner as would in public opinion connect the Order therewith. Presented, 289; adopted, 300.
- Ninth report, by Bro. David Fuller—On the subject of Resignations, in Grand Master's Report, page 21. The committee regrets that Bro. Berry saw fit to resign from the Orphans' Home Board, and commends the action of the Grand Master in appointing to the vacant position so worthy a brother as J. E. Jennings; also, approves the appointment of Bro. Geo. Hayward to the committee vacancy thus created. Further, the committee concurs in the appointment of Bro. John H. Sikes to the office of Grand Secretary, made vacant by the death of Bro. J. R. Miller, believing him to be ably fitted to fill that responsible and important position. Presented, 290; adopted, 300.
- Tenth report, by Bro. J. R. Kewley, P.G.M.—On the subject "Our Homes," in Grand Master's Report, page 21. The committee heartily commends the words of praise used by the Grand Master. Presented, 290; adopted, 300.
- Eleventh report, by Bro. Samson—On the subject of Fraternal Journals, in Grand Master's Report, page 40. The committee indorse all the Grand Master has said, and add that the two published by our members in this state "are doing much to elevate and educate our membership, and are worthy of encouragement." They therefore "recommend that our membership and lodges lend their support to the Odd Fellows' Herald and the Illinois Odd Fellow, by becoming subscribers thereto." Presented, 290; adopted, 300.
- Twelfth report, by Bro. Blanchard—On the Report of the Grand Representatives. The committee commend the Grand Representatives for the earnestness and thoroughness with which this report is made, and recommend that it be emulated by representatives upon their return to their home lodges. They further say "Our Grand Representatives deserve the hearty thanks of this Grand Lodge." Presented, 291; adopted, 300.
- Thirteenth report, by Bro. Hall—On resolutions proposing to change the date of our Memorial Day (Doc. 6, page 260). The committee reports "That the first resolution therein offered conflicts with the law in relation thereto, enacted by the Sovereign Grand Lodge; that the adoption of the second resolution therein is, in the opinion of your committee, inexpedient and not advisable; and asks to be relieved from further consideration of said resolutions." Presented, 291; adopted, 300.

Fourteenth report, by Bro. Roland—On petition of Coatsburg Lodge, No. 836, for reinstatement of certain former members of said lodge therein named (Doc. 7, page 261). The committee recommends that the petition be granted, and that the brothers named be reinstated in compliance therewith. Presented, 291; adopted, 301.

Fifteenth report, by Bro. Chick—On petition of Moses Winsberg, a former member of Kossuth Lodge, No. 569, for reinstatement (Doc. 14, page 269). The committee recommends that the brother be reinstated and that a Grand Lodge card be issued to him. Presented, 292; adopted, 301.

Sixteenth report, by Bro. Chick—On Doc. 50, page 299, being a petition of sundry members of the Order for reinstatement of George D. Laughlin, formerly a member of Flatwoods Lodge, No. 165, now defunct. The committee reports: "The evidence before your committee being insufficient to show that Bro. Geo. D. Laughlin desires reinstatement, there being no compliance on his part with the law in relation to reinstatement in such cases, we most respectfully ask to be relieved from further consideration of the matter." Presented and adopted, 309.

Seventeenth report, by Bro. Mollman—On Doc. 67, page 310, being a resolution granting power to the Grand Master to remove, for sufficient cause, any member of the Boards of the two Homes. The committee reports: "While we deem the Grand Master possessed of such authority now, we would, in order to remove all possible doubt, recommend the adoption of the resolution." Presented and adopted, 317.

On Legislation.

First report, by Bro. George F. Howard, P.G.M.—On Doc. 9, page 263, being a resolution by Bro. Davis of 450 in relation to Attentive Benefits. The committee reports and recommends the adoption of a law on the subject, to be inserted in the Constitution for Subordinate Lodges as Section 11 of Article X, the sections of that Article now numbered 11, 12 and 13 to be renumbered 12, 13 and 14 respectively. Presented and adopted, 303.

Second report, by Bro. D. R. Anderson—On Doc. 8, page 262, being a proposition to amend Sec. 2, Art. IV, Constitution for Subordinates, extending the term of Trustees to three years. The committee reports as follows: "Your committee believes that the present law on the matter in question needs no change; that it is wisdom to have short terms for the trustees; that it is easier to reelect a good Board of Trustees, year after year, than it is to oust an inefficient Board of Trustees before the expiration of their term of office. We therefore recommend that the proposed amendment be not adopted." Presented and adopted, 303.

On Finance.

First report, by Bro. F. B. Merrills—Made on the occasion of the transfer of the office of Grand Secretary to Bro. John H. Sikes, who had been appointed and installed into that office by the Grand Master to fill out the unexpired term of Grand Secretary Miller, deceased. The report gives a complete detailed statement of the business of the office from the last previous auditing to the death of Bro. Miller, April 17, 1902, and its condition at that date—all of which was found entirely correct and satisfactory. The report will be found on pages 24 to 38 inclusive, in the Report of Grand Master Yantis.

- Second report, by Bro. W. E. P. Anderson—On the Old Folks' Home at Mattoon and the Orphans' Home at Lincoln, giving the results of their visits to the former on the 2d of January, the 10th of March, and the 15th of October, and to the latter on the 16th of October. The report will be found on pages 39 and 40, in the Report of Grand Master Yantis.
- Third report, by Bro. James Ewing Davis—On proposed amendment to Section 14 of Article IV, Constitution of Grand Lodge, relating to Bonds of Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer. The committee has thoroughly investigated the matter, and concludes that the adoption of the amendment in its present form would not prove satisfactory. An amendment to the amendment is suggested, by the adoption of which it is believed that the objectionable features will be eliminated. Presented, 263; consideration postponed to the annual session of next year, 278.
- Fourth report, by Bro. Merrills—On business of Grand Secretary's office from April 17th to November 1st, 1902, and condition at latter date. The committee, after a thorough examination, finds everything correct and in accord with the statements in the Grand Secretary's Report, pages 114 to 143 inclusive. The report concludes, "In general, we found the office in good condition, and the work carefully and conscientiously performed." Presented, 265; adopted, 296.
- Fifth report, by Bro. Davis—On Report and Accounts of Grand Treasurer. The committee say they have examined the Grand Treasurer's Annual Report (pp. 178-183), checked the same up, item by item, and performed all the additions, and find the same correct in all respects. The Grand Treasurer has exhibited to them cash items and securities, of which they give a detailed list, aggregating $54,770.96—a sum larger by $3,873.06 than that of last year. They find that the books of the Grand Treasurer have been kept in an excellent condition, and that he has performed his duty in a faithful, efficient and conscientious manner, and recommend that the canceled vouchers be filed in the Grand Secretary's office for future reference. Presented, 266; adopted, 296.
- Sixth report, by Bro. Merrills—On bills for printing. The bills being approved by the Committee on Printing, it is recommended that warrants be issued to pay them. Presented, 292; adopted, 301.
- Seventh report, by Bro. Anderson—On money received as fees for wives of members of Old Folks' Home. The committee recommends that the amount of such fees be refunded to the respective lodges from which received, except in one case, in which there was a special contract for payment. Presented, 295; adopted, 301.
- Eighth report, by Bro. Davis—Recommending appropriations for janitors' and other special services, and to Grand Treasurer for clerk-hire. Presented and adopted, 301.
- Ninth report, by Bro. Merrills—Recommending approval of Bonds of Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer, and placing same in hands of incoming Grand Master for safe keeping. Presented and adopted, 302.
- Tenth report, by Bro. Davis—On World's Fair Fraternal Building Association. The committee recommends, "that this Grand Lodge grant permission to the World's Fair Fraternal Building Association to solicit subscriptions for the 'Temple of Fraternity' from the members of this jurisdiction; provided said Building Association shall agree to make, and does make, a complete report to our Grand Secretary of the amounts so received from the members of this jurisdiction"; and further, "in case of the adoption of this report and acceptance of the conditions herein contained by said Building Association, that our Grand Secretary report said amounts to the Grand Secretary of the Sovereign Grand Lodge." Presented and adopted, 302.

Eleventh report, by Bro. Anderson—On that portion of the Grand Master's Report relative to "Our Homes," on page 21. The committee is "in accord with the fraternal spirit expressed therein, and also, upon an examination of the printed reports of the two Boards of the Homes, finds that the management of said Homes, including the disbursements, is commensurate with good judgment and good business methods." Presented and adopted, 303.

Twelfth report, by Bro. Anderson—On so much of the Grand Master's Report as relates to the "Koenig Bequest," page 21. The committee finds, upon investigation, that the value of the property will not justify the Grand Lodge in bidding a sum in excess of that for which the premises were sold, and therefore recommends that no further steps be taken in the matter. Presented and adopted, 306.

Thirteenth report, by Bro. Davis—On resolution presented by Trustees of Old Folks' Home, Doc. 45, page 294. The committee, after careful consideration, and personal inspection of the premises, is of the opinion that there is no immediate necessity for another building; further, that the Grand Lodge has no available funds for the additional expenditure of $8,000 proposed, and the required increase of capitation tax is not advisable; and recommends that the resolution be not adopted. Presented and adopted, 307.

Fourteenth report, by Bro. Anderson—On resolution proposing to appropriate from the treasury of the Grand Lodge $50 for relief of Lodge 712, Doc. 66, page 310. The committee recommends that the resolution be not adopted, for the reason that it would originate a bad precedent, but that the Grand Master may, in his discretion, turn over to said Lodge any suitable lodge property that may come into possession of the Grand Lodge, upon such terms as he may deem proper. Presented and adopted, 317.

Fifteenth report, by Bro. Merrills—Estimate of Receipts and Disbursements for the ensuing year, appropriating $60,146.20 to meet estimated expenses, and fixing Capitation Tax at 75 cents per member. Presented and adopted, 318.

Sixteenth report, by Bro. Merrills—On the subject of Fund for Monument to the memory of deceased Grand Secretary James R. Miller (see pages 10 and 125). The committee recommends that consideration of the matter be deferred until the next session of the Grand Lodge. Presented and adopted, 319.

On Rebekah Degree.

One report, by Bro. W. E. Carlin, P.G.R.—On a resolution from the Rebekah Assembly asking a change in the form of Commissions issued by the Grand Master to Official Examiners and Instructors for Rebekah Lodges. The committee is of the opinion that the request should be granted, and therefore recommends the adoption of the resolution. Presented and adopted, 315.

On Mileage and Per-Diem.

One report, by Bro. Paul W. Abt—With tabulated statement of mileage and per-diem for the session as computed by the committee. Presented and adopted, 309; tabulated statement, 362.

On Railroads.

One report, by Bro. W. R. Humphrey—The committee have secured a rate of one fare for the round trip from practically all the railroads in Illinois, and give full instructions to all interested how to avail themselves of the arrangement. The report was prepared in season to be incorporated in the Grand Master's circular to the lodges sent out in advance of the session. It may be found on page 12, in the Grand Master's Report.

On Printing.

First report, by Bro. A. L. Fyfe—Giving bids and their action on same for printing the Grand Lodge Journal of Proceedings, the Daily Journal, the Officers' Reports, and the Proceedings of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, for all of which contracts were awarded to the Illinois State Journal Company, their bids being the lowest. Presented, 281; adopted, 299.

Second report, by Bro. A. Sumerlin—In relation to bids and contracts for Printed Stationery and Supplies, Circulars and miscellaneous printing, the contracts for which were awarded to the Edward F. Hartmann Company, the lowest bidder. Presented, 281; adopted, 300.

Third report, by Bro. Seil—Being Bill of Expenses incurred by the committee, including the preparation of the Daily Journal for the printers, which the committee ask be allowed. Presented, 282; adopted, 300.

Fourth report, by Bro. Sumerlin—Relating to bid and contract for translating and printing the German edition of Journal of Session of 1902, for which the contract was awarded to the Belleville Post and Zeitung Company, which was the only bidder. Presented, 282; adopted, 300.

Fifth report, by Bro. Seil—Recommending that the printing of an edition of the Journal of Proceedings in the German language be dispensed with hereafter. Presented, 282; considered, and indefinitely postponed, 300.

On Judiciary and Appeals.

REPORTS AT SESSION.

First report, by Bro. Henry A. Stone, P.G.M.—On statement and queries of Bro. Golden, of 822 (Doc. 20, page 280). The committee quotes the law applicable to the case, and answers the first question in the negative, as it is clear that three is not a majority of six. Answering the second question, the committee holds that the Noble Grand should recall and reverse his ruling, and a record should be made to the effect that the brother was not elected for reinstatement, and adds: "If the brother paid the lodge any money for the reinstatement, the lodge should refund the money paid, unless the brother chooses to let the same remain in the lodge treasury to abide the action of the lodge upon a future application for reinstatement, in case one shall be made." Presented and adopted, 298.

Second report, by Bro. Chas. S. Thornton—In the matter of appeal of Gokey and others of J. B. Turner Lodge, from decision of Grand Master Yantis in regard to the continued membership of J. K. Thompson in said lodge, etc.; also, the resolution (Doc. 13, page 268) of Madison and others in relation to the same case. After a statement of the present condition of the case, the report concludes: "Inasmuch as both parties to the controversy desire a postponement of its consideration until the next session of your committee, when the matter may be fully presented and argued, your committee has entered an order setting the case down for a hearing at the next February session." Presented and adopted, 314.

‡ Until 1845 inclusive, proxy representation in the Grand Lodge of the United States was permitted. In 1839, Past Grand Master Samuel Pryor, of Pennsylvania, was elected proxy Representative by the Grand Lodge of Illinois, but did not serve. At the adjourned session in April, 1840, Past Grand Master Augustus Mathiot, of Maryland, presented credentials as proxy Representative of Illinois, which were accepted, and he was also recognized in that capacity at the annual session in October following; but there is no record of his election or appointment. In 1842 and 1843, James Earnest, of New York, was elected and served as proxy Representative of Illinois. In 1844 Past Grand Master William S. Stewart, of Missouri, D.D.G.S., was requested to appoint a proxy Representative for the Grand Lodge of Illinois; but no such proxy was present at the session of that year. In 1845 no election for Representative was held.
